EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

14TH YEAR. NO. 71. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1898. TWO CENTS

DEFENDERS OF CAMPS.

Grosvenor Could See Little Wrong at Dunn Loring.

ALLEN IS OF LIKE OPINION.

Men Suffered Good Deal at Camp Thomas, but No Worse Than In Civil War. Newspaper Sensationalism, Said Governor Black of New York.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Grosvenor of Ohio called at the war department yesterday in company with ex-Representative Thompson to report to Secretary Alger the results of their visit of inspection of the camp at Dunn Loring, and particularly the state of affairs in the Seventh Ohio volunteer regiment.

General Grosvenor was emphatic in his approval of what he saw. He said: "I never saw a body of soldiers better fed, better clothed and better sheltered than is the Seventh Ohio regiment at present. So much for the general condition. Now as to particulars: There were 1,300 men in the regiment. Except from suicide there have been but two deaths among them since the organization four and a half months ago. Including the men who were furloughed to go home and recuperate and those in the hospitals, there were only 41 men not able to report for duty yesterday morning. A finer, abler set of men I never saw in my life."

Continuing, General Grosvenor said that the dissatisfaction among the soldiers was all traceable to the fact that they had not been able to get to the front. On the whole he (Grosvenor) was satisfied the men were very much better off than were the soldiers in the Civil war.

This last view was confirmed by Senator Allen of Nebraska, who called at the war department to get some news of the whereabouts of the Second Nebraska regiment, which he was told was enroute from Chickamauga to Omaha.

He said the main complaint among the men was their enforced detention at the camps instead of being sent to the front. So far as their physical condition was concerned, while the men had suffered a good deal at Camp Thomas, so far as he could judge from his own experience in the Civil war, they were certainly no worse off than the soldiers then engaged.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 31.—Governor Black was seen last night by an Associated Press representative and was asked as to the conditions as he found them in the camps of the New York regiments, as well as those at division hospitals.

Governor Black said there appeared to be "a perfect hydrophobia" among newspapers over the condition of the soldiers, that the press bristled with such phrases as "hollow eyed" and "starving," in articles descriptive of the troops. He gave it as his opinion that the matter was exaggerated, "manufactured in newspaper offices," and the outcome and result of "journalistic knavery."

When assured that his views would be printed verbatim, and not withheld because they failed to concur with the present "newspaper craze," his excellency gave the following interview in part:

"My impression," said Governor Black, "of the camp of the New York troops at Chickamauga park is not half as bad as I expected it would be. The unfortunate condition of the camp and hospitals has, beyond a doubt, been very greatly exaggerated by the papers.

"The division hospital in which the sick soldiers of the Ninth New York infantry are quartered is certainly in a very bad condition. The present state of this hospital ought never to have been permitted to exist and should be corrected also.

"I think that the troops at Chickamauga Park should have been moved long before any sickness broke out in the ranks.

"This Sternberg hospital is in excellent condition. I do not see that it could be made any better. It is admirable both in plan and management."

The case of Private Nunn of the ambulance company, who was transferred from the Ninth New York, was reported to the governor by Captain O'Connor of Company A, Ninth New York, and was reported by the governor to Washington for investigation. Captain O'Connor's statement was that he had found the body of Nunn lying naked in a division hospital two days after death, infested by maggets, that an autopsy had been held and that no preparation had been made for the care or internment of the body up to the time found. The affair will likely result in the trial of Captain O'Connor by courtmartial.

900 MAY HAVE DIED.

Report That Three Spanish Vessels Were Lost Near the Philippines, Early In the War.

TACOMA, Aug. 31.—Early in the war Admiral Dewey captured the Spanish gunboat Leyte, as it was returning to Manila from one of the Philippine islands. The Hongkong Daily Press says the Leyte had been towing three vessels loaded with 900 Spaniards who were fleeing for fear of falling into the insurgents' hands.

A severe storm came up and compelled the Leyte to leave her tows and make for Manila to secure assistance. Later American warships were sent to look for the three vessels, but they were nowhere to be found. It is believed that they foundered with all on board.

Colonel Van Horn Dead.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The war department was notified yesterday morning that Colonel Charles G. Van Horn, Eighth infantry, died Monday night at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming. He ranked No. 3 in the line list of colonels. He was born in Ohio.

A Filibuster Case Closed.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 31.—The case of the Cuban filibuster steamer Bermuda has been closed with the sale of the vessel intact as she is lying at Port Antonio, for $12,500, to a shipping firm of this city in behalf of her Boston owners.

TEN MORE MEN DIED.

Wheeler Ordered Investigation at Camp Wikoff — Two of the Dead Eighth Ohio Boys.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Ten soldiers died at Camp Wikoff yesterday. They were:

Charles E. Chapin, sergeant, Company L, Second Massachusetts, died in an isolated tent, diagnosis refused.

Fred Isueller, Company H, Eighth infantry, typhoid fever.

—— Murphy, Troop F, Second cavalry, acute uraemia.

Unkown soldier, acute uraemia.

William H. Newcomb, Company H, Twenty-first infantry, typhoid fever; getting along well, but Monday night left his cot, walked into one of the kitchens, found a watermelon, ate ravenously of it and in a short time was dead.

John G. Trouthard, Company K, Eighth Ohio, pernicious malaria.

Earl Immler, Company D, Eighth Ohio, typhoid fever.

Victor E. Jolin, Company E, Third infantry, dysentery.

W. A. Marshall, Company G, First Illinois.

Private Waldron, Company A, First Illinois, typhoid fever, died on a transport.

The transports Berlin, San Marcos and Specialist arrived at Camp Wikoff yesterday, carrying soldiers from Cuba, and landed them. There were 256 sick.

The tug C. P. Raymond left this city East river yesterday loaded with delicacies and medicine for the men of the First Illinois infantry, at Montauk Point. The tug was chartered by seven gentlemen from different parts of the state of Illinois.

Camp Wikoff is to be investigated. General Wheeler has ordered General Albert Ames, chief of staff on General Kent's staff, to conduct an investigation. He has almost autocratic powers.

MANY ILL IN PORTO RICO.

National Relief Commission Representatives Bring Back Reports. Rendered Great Aid.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The yacht May, home from Ponce, whither she had taken the national relief commissioners, arrived here yesterday at noon. The relief commissioners report that of the 16,000 American soldiers in Porto Rico 1,000 were sick when the May left on Aug. 22. More than half these cases require prompt and careful treatment. Typhoid was not on the increase, but diarrhoea, dysentery and dengue were. The report says the medical authorities in Porto Rico agree that the sick list is increasing.

The members of the commission who went to Porto Rico are ex-Minister to Italy William Potter, William Van Rensselaer, L. C. Van Uxen and Dr. C. G. Graff.

Attached to a report made by the representative of the national relief commission is a letter from General Miles thanking the commissioners on behalf of the army for the supplies and for a big consignment of American flags; also a letter from Colonel Greenleaf, expressing thanks for the gift of an ice-making machine, in which he says: "I cannot adequately express the satisfaction with which the results of this donation will be received by the sick. Ice in this country is an expensive luxury, costing $30 per ton in Porto Rican money, which necessitates the exercise of rigid economy on the part of our medical officers in its use. To have the output of such a machine at our disposal is a blessing, the benefits of which can only be appreciated by those who have served in these hospitals."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. — Surgeon General Sternberg says that it is true there is sickness in Porto Rico, but it is not alarming.

It is probably climatic conditions which is causing sickness among the troops in Porto Rico.

For Army Camp Near Toledo.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Southard of Ohio has been here, seeking to have an army camp established at the old Fort Meigs battleground, ten miles south of Toledo, where there is high ground and plenty of water, or at Put-in-Bay, on Lake Erie. The war department has agreed to consider the matter, but has given no further assurance.

HELD A CONFERENCE.

Day, White and the President Together In Cleveland.

THE JUSTICE HAD NOT DECIDED.

Announced at Close of Meeting, That No Conclusion Was Reached, but Hope Was Expressed That White Would Accept a Peace Commissionership.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—A conference of great importance was held at Col. Herrick's home last night. President McKinley, Secretary Day and Justice White were the conferrees and they were closeted together after dinner until a late hour. It was admitted that the conversation had to do with the appointment on the peace commission offered by the president to Justice White, but at a late hour it was announced that no definite conclusion had been reached, although hope was expressed that Justice White would see his way clear to accept the appointment.

President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley spent yesterday quietly at the home of Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Euclid Heights. Both are in the best of health and spirits. About 7:30 they appeared on the veranda and had a magnificent view of the city and lake.

A detail of police is guarding the grounds night and day during their stay. They will remain in Cleveland until tomorrow. That day they will go to Canton and from there to New York, where they will arrive Friday night. Saturday the president will inspect Camp Wikoff, at Montauk Point.

During their morning drive yesterday the president and Colonel Herrick went to the Shaker lakes and over the boulevard, through Wade and Gordon parks. Upon returning to Colonel Herrick's home, on Euclid heights, the president took a nap, and, after lunch, received Postmaster George Gordon of Chicago. Mr. Gordon presented the invitation of Chicago to attend the big peace jubilee in that city. President McKinley thanked Chicago and Postmaster Gordon, but deferred any definite answer, in view of possible demands that may be made upon him as chief executive. Later, the president and Colonel Herrick took another drive, this time out into the country. During the afternoon Miss Helen McKinley, the president's sister, and Miss McKinley, his niece, of Canton, called at the Herrick house.

Justice White and Secretary of State Day arrived at the house about 6 o'clock last evening, undoubtedly to consult with the president over the former's decision as to acting as one of the peace commissioners.

At dinner were President and Mrs. McKinley, Colonel and Mrs. Herrick, Justice White, Secretary Day, Assistant President's Secretary Cortelyou, Mrs. M. A. Hanna and Miss Hanna.

Mrs. McKinley was indisposed by a slight cold and remained within doors during yesterday.

The workmen engaged on a fine new residence being built across the boulevard from Col. Herrick's home did a graceful and patriotic thing yesterday. In front of the house, between the sidewalk and the roadway, is an ugly, rough board shed for the storage of tools, etc. The workmen clubbed together, purchased an immense American flag and with it covered the roof and side toward the temporary home of the president.

EIGHTH OHIO BOYS.

Seventeen Arrived Home and Were Given a Great Welcome—Denial by Colonel Hard.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 31.—Yesterday forenoon when 17 sick and weary members of Company K, Eighth Ohio, arrived on the 10 o'clock train. Their reception was in the nature of an ovation from the great crowd.

Private Patterson is the worst and is helpless from a severe attack of typhoid fever. His condition is critical. Private Osburn was very weak, having safely passed through one of the worst forms of yellow fever at Santiago.

Privates Hoppes and Grubb are sick with malarial fever. The balance are convalescening and are: Commissary Sergeant Charles Cooper, Sergeant Dobson, Corporals Whit, Ballard, Curtis and Bowman, and Privates Shaffer, Dew, Grimes, Walser, Hutson, David, Dobson, Campbell, Oglive and Hospital Corpsman Vinton Buell.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 31.—Colonel C. V. Hard of the Eighth regiment, O. V. I., yesterday afternoon wired a statement to this city from Montauk Point, N. Y., denying charges of starvation and neglect of Eighth Ohio boys.

SICK IN HOSPITALS.

Over Fifty Placed In Philadelphia Institutions From the Pennsylvania Train.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The state hospital train from the Chickamauga camp arrived here about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, having on board a number of sick soldiers whose homes are located in this city and vicinity. A number of ambulances and police patrol wagons were in waiting and the sick men were hurried to hospitals as fast as they could be taken from the cars.

Governor Hastings personally superintended the removal of the sick soldiers from the train to the ambulances. The sick numbered over 50 and were principally Philadelphia soldiers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 31.—The state hospital train carrying the sick members of the Ninth regiment arrived here yesterday morning. Ambulances and stretchers were in waiting and the invalids were tenderly cared for until they arrived at the hospital. There are 28 cases, but only 8 are thought to be serious.

Pennsylvania Soldier Died.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — Daniel Tubbs, a private in Company B, Thirteenth Pennsylvania, died yesterday morning in the Medi-Chirurgical hospital. Tubbs was brought from Dunn Loring, Va., on Thursday night suffering from typhoid fever. His home was in Taylor, Pa.

SEC. ALGER'S OPINION.

Said Not to Believe Miles Said All He Is Credited With—Merritt May Side With Miles.

WASHINGTON Aug. 31.—Secretary Alger was quoted yesterday as saying he did not believe General Miles made half of the statements credited to him by the Kansas City Star correspondent. The secretary is quoted as having the opinion that General Miles evidently intended to draw the army administration into a discussion which would lead to an official inquiry which in turn would clear up some matters which he wished to have exposed in justice to himself.

Secretary Alger said: "If we do ask General Miles whether he gave that interview or not we will not publish the fact and the newspapers won't know anything about it. There is an evident desire to have a controversy on this subject, but there can be none and the war department will take no part in one."

General Corbin said yesterday: "I have issued no order of any importance except upon the authority and by direction of the secretary of war or the president of the United States. They are amply able, I take it, to protect themselves and so far as I am concerned there are no explanations or apologies to make."

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—A bitter fight inside the war department is threatened between Secretary Alger, General Corbin and others on one side and General Miles, General Merritt and their friends on the other. Miles has already aired his grievances, and it is reported that Merritt has a few, too. There is a long enmity between Alger and Merritt, dating from the courtmartial of Alger by a board of which Merritt was a member.

Merritt's partisans alleged that Alger sent him to Manila to be rid of him. President McKinley, it was said, without Alger's knowledge, ordered Merritt to go to Paris and then come home. Alger at first denied this order, not having heard it.

DELICACIES FOR THE SICK.

Patients In Camp Meade Hospital Given an Increase In Subsistence Money.

CAMP MEADE, MIDDLETOWN, Pa., Aug. 31.—Colonel Girard, chief medical officer of the Second army corps, received a telegram yesterday morning from Secretary of War Alger authorizing him to increase the subsistence of the patients in the general hospitals from 20 to 60 cents a day. This will insure the sick ice, milk and other delicacies, which they could not heretofore buy out of their subsistence money.

Semi-official advices were received yesterday by the officers of the First Rhode Island regiment that it would be sent to the Philippines as an army of occupation. The Twelfth Pennsylvania regiment, commanded by Colonel James E. Coryell of Williamsport, reached camp yesterday morning from Camp Alger and was located near the Eighteenth regiment and Sixteenth Pennsylvania battalion. The Eighth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania regiments are expected here by Saturday.

MERRITT SAILS FOR PARIS.

General Otis Military Governor of Manilla Now—Philippine Insurgent Coming—Greene's Muster Out.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—The United States transport China left here yesterday having on board Major General Merritt and his staff. The general is bound for Paris, where he will take part in the Spanish-American peace conference. Major General Otis is acting governor of Manila. Generals Greene and Babcock, with their staffs, are bound for Washington.

Opacible, the insurgent leader, is going to Hongkong in order to confer with the insurgent junta there. He will receive Aguinaldo's final instructions by cable.

Agonillo, another of the insurgent leaders, is going to Washington.

Weather Forecast.

Partly cloudy; light southwesterly winds.

MAY SPLIT UP SAMOA.

Death of King Malietoa Likely to Cause Such Action.

PROBABLY A PROBLEM FOR HAY.

This Government Might Take the Island of Tuitwila For a Naval Station—England Would Likely Take the Largest One and Germany Next In Size.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The state department had not by yesterday been officially advised of the reported death of King Malieton of Samoa, and in all likelihood must remain in official ignorance of the event for some time to come, owing to the slow means of communication at the disposal of the department. It is the general impression here that the death of the king will result in the overthrow of the present form of government of the islands, maintained as it is by the joint action of the United States, Great Britain and Germany. Official reports to the state department show that this government is the most expensive and unsatisfactory of any in the world, having regard to the population of the Samoan group.

In the capital city, Apia, there is maintained a tripartite municipal government at vast proportional expense, while the reports show that 32 ratepayers are obliged to bear the entire cost. For some years back the existing arrangement for the government of the Samoan group has been satisfactory to none of the three governments, yet it has been continued for the reason that nothing better could be suggested that would be acceptable to the three nations. Now there are indications that at least one of the parties is coming around to what was a favorite plan of settlement of the state department, namely, a disruption of the present tripartite government, and an absolute division of the islands of the group between the United States, Great Britain and Germany.

The principal object of our government has been to retain possession of a coaling or a full naval station in the islands, so as to afford a base of naval operations in the vicinity of Australasia, as well as to ensure an open port for our merchant steamers on the long voyage from San Francisco to Australia. The United States now holds title to some ground for a coaling statien at Pago Pago, on the island of Tuitwila. This island is the least in size of any of the group, but is more than large enough to support a naval station, so that it has been the plan of the state department to acquire it as a whole in event of the dissolution of the tripartite agreement.

Basing the division on the existing interests of the three nations, Germany, holding the largest interest, would take the island second in size, possessing the capital, Apia, while Great Britain would receive the largest of the group but the second in commercial importance. It is probable that among the first duties falling to Mr. Hay, when he assumes the office of secretary of state, will be the consideration of some plan to tide over the crisis expected to follow the death of the king.

FOR NATIONAL MILITIA.

Major Hayes Proposed a Plan—Thinks Cooks and Homesickness Caused Complaint Among Troops.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—Major Webb C. Hayes, son of the late President Hayes, who is said to be the only volunteer officer that served in both the Cuban and Porto Rican campaigns, and who is accompanying President McKinley on his present trip, has proposed a plan to the chief executive, providing that the president shall appoint an adjutant general for each state; that as many bodies of militia shall be raised in each state as circumstances require, and that all officers of such militia shall be nominated by the governors of the various states. They would then be under the direct control of the national government.

Major Hayes, when asked what he thought of the charges of starvation from the regiments at the front, said:

"Look at me. Do I looked starved? I lived on the same rations as the soldiers and have grown fleshy on that fare."

Hayes was attired in the brown canvas uniform of a field officer and looked brown as his suit, and rugged as a veteran.

"I may be wrong," said he, "but in my opinion, the greatest cause for complaint is summed up in 'cooks and homesickness.'"

General Weyler's Policy.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—General Weyler, according to a special dispatch from Madrid, published here yesterday afternoon, has outlined his future policy. He proposes, it appears, to be independent both of the government and the opposition, "always aiming to preserve the country and to reorganize the army." He said the united republicans have no personal animus against the queen, their only object being to "adopt a firm, international stand, one result which would be to check in some measure England's ambition."

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

14TH YEAR. NO. 71. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1898. TWO CENTS

DEFENDERS OF CAMPS.

Grosvenor Could See Little Wrong at Dunn Loring.

ALLEN IS OF LIKE OPINION.

Men Suffered Good Deal at Camp Thomas, but No Worse Than In Civil War. Newspaper Sensationalism, Said Governor Black of New York.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Grosvenor of Ohio called at the war department yesterday in company with ex-Representative Thompson to report to Secretary Alger the results of their visit of inspection of the camp at Dunn Loring, and particularly the state of affairs in the Seventh Ohio volunteer regiment.

General Grosvenor was emphatic in his approval of what he saw. He said: "I never saw a body of soldiers better fed, better clothed and better sheltered than is the Seventh Ohio regiment at present. So much for the general condition. Now as to particulars: There were 1,300 men in the regiment. Except from suicide there have been but two deaths among them since the organization four and a half months ago. Including the men who were furloughed to go home and recuperate and those in the hospitals, there were only 41 men not able to report for duty yesterday morning. A finer, abler set of men I never saw in my life."

Continuing, General Grosvenor said that the dissatisfaction among the soldiers was all traceable to the fact that they had not been able to get to the front. On the whole he (Grosvenor) was satisfied the men were very much better off than were the soldiers in the Civil war.

This last view was confirmed by Senator Allen of Nebraska, who called at the war department to get some news of the whereabouts of the Second Nebraska regiment, which he was told was enroute from Chickamauga to Omaha.

He said the main complaint among the men was their enforced detention at the camps instead of being sent to the front. So far as their physical condition was concerned, while the men had suffered a good deal at Camp Thomas, so far as he could judge from his own experience in the Civil war, they were certainly no worse off than the soldiers then engaged.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 31.—Governor Black was seen last night by an Associated Press representative and was asked as to the conditions as he found them in the camps of the New York regiments, as well as those at division hospitals.

Governor Black said there appeared to be "a perfect hydrophobia" among newspapers over the condition of the soldiers, that the press bristled with such phrases as "hollow eyed" and "starving," in articles descriptive of the troops. He gave it as his opinion that the matter was exaggerated, "manufactured in newspaper offices," and the outcome and result of "journalistic knavery."

When assured that his views would be printed verbatim, and not withheld because they failed to concur with the present "newspaper craze," his excellency gave the following interview in part:

"My impression," said Governor Black, "of the camp of the New York troops at Chickamauga park is not half as bad as I expected it would be. The unfortunate condition of the camp and hospitals has, beyond a doubt, been very greatly exaggerated by the papers.

"The division hospital in which the sick soldiers of the Ninth New York infantry are quartered is certainly in a very bad condition. The present state of this hospital ought never to have been permitted to exist and should be corrected also.

"I think that the troops at Chickamauga Park should have been moved long before any sickness broke out in the ranks.

"This Sternberg hospital is in excellent condition. I do not see that it could be made any better. It is admirable both in plan and management."

The case of Private Nunn of the ambulance company, who was transferred from the Ninth New York, was reported to the governor by Captain O'Connor of Company A, Ninth New York, and was reported by the governor to Washington for investigation. Captain O'Connor's statement was that he had found the body of Nunn lying naked in a division hospital two days after death, infested by maggets, that an autopsy had been held and that no preparation had been made for the care or internment of the body up to the time found. The affair will likely result in the trial of Captain O'Connor by courtmartial.

900 MAY HAVE DIED.

Report That Three Spanish Vessels Were Lost Near the Philippines, Early In the War.

TACOMA, Aug. 31.—Early in the war Admiral Dewey captured the Spanish gunboat Leyte, as it was returning to Manila from one of the Philippine islands. The Hongkong Daily Press says the Leyte had been towing three vessels loaded with 900 Spaniards who were fleeing for fear of falling into the insurgents' hands.

A severe storm came up and compelled the Leyte to leave her tows and make for Manila to secure assistance. Later American warships were sent to look for the three vessels, but they were nowhere to be found. It is believed that they foundered with all on board.

Colonel Van Horn Dead.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The war department was notified yesterday morning that Colonel Charles G. Van Horn, Eighth infantry, died Monday night at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming. He ranked No. 3 in the line list of colonels. He was born in Ohio.

A Filibuster Case Closed.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 31.—The case of the Cuban filibuster steamer Bermuda has been closed with the sale of the vessel intact as she is lying at Port Antonio, for $12,500, to a shipping firm of this city in behalf of her Boston owners.

TEN MORE MEN DIED.

Wheeler Ordered Investigation at Camp Wikoff — Two of the Dead Eighth Ohio Boys.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Ten soldiers died at Camp Wikoff yesterday. They were:

Charles E. Chapin, sergeant, Company L, Second Massachusetts, died in an isolated tent, diagnosis refused.

Fred Isueller, Company H, Eighth infantry, typhoid fever.

—— Murphy, Troop F, Second cavalry, acute uraemia.

Unkown soldier, acute uraemia.

William H. Newcomb, Company H, Twenty-first infantry, typhoid fever; getting along well, but Monday night left his cot, walked into one of the kitchens, found a watermelon, ate ravenously of it and in a short time was dead.

John G. Trouthard, Company K, Eighth Ohio, pernicious malaria.

Earl Immler, Company D, Eighth Ohio, typhoid fever.

Victor E. Jolin, Company E, Third infantry, dysentery.

W. A. Marshall, Company G, First Illinois.

Private Waldron, Company A, First Illinois, typhoid fever, died on a transport.

The transports Berlin, San Marcos and Specialist arrived at Camp Wikoff yesterday, carrying soldiers from Cuba, and landed them. There were 256 sick.

The tug C. P. Raymond left this city East river yesterday loaded with delicacies and medicine for the men of the First Illinois infantry, at Montauk Point. The tug was chartered by seven gentlemen from different parts of the state of Illinois.

Camp Wikoff is to be investigated. General Wheeler has ordered General Albert Ames, chief of staff on General Kent's staff, to conduct an investigation. He has almost autocratic powers.

MANY ILL IN PORTO RICO.

National Relief Commission Representatives Bring Back Reports. Rendered Great Aid.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The yacht May, home from Ponce, whither she had taken the national relief commissioners, arrived here yesterday at noon. The relief commissioners report that of the 16,000 American soldiers in Porto Rico 1,000 were sick when the May left on Aug. 22. More than half these cases require prompt and careful treatment. Typhoid was not on the increase, but diarrhoea, dysentery and dengue were. The report says the medical authorities in Porto Rico agree that the sick list is increasing.

The members of the commission who went to Porto Rico are ex-Minister to Italy William Potter, William Van Rensselaer, L. C. Van Uxen and Dr. C. G. Graff.

Attached to a report made by the representative of the national relief commission is a letter from General Miles thanking the commissioners on behalf of the army for the supplies and for a big consignment of American flags; also a letter from Colonel Greenleaf, expressing thanks for the gift of an ice-making machine, in which he says: "I cannot adequately express the satisfaction with which the results of this donation will be received by the sick. Ice in this country is an expensive luxury, costing $30 per ton in Porto Rican money, which necessitates the exercise of rigid economy on the part of our medical officers in its use. To have the output of such a machine at our disposal is a blessing, the benefits of which can only be appreciated by those who have served in these hospitals."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31. — Surgeon General Sternberg says that it is true there is sickness in Porto Rico, but it is not alarming.

It is probably climatic conditions which is causing sickness among the troops in Porto Rico.

For Army Camp Near Toledo.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Southard of Ohio has been here, seeking to have an army camp established at the old Fort Meigs battleground, ten miles south of Toledo, where there is high ground and plenty of water, or at Put-in-Bay, on Lake Erie. The war department has agreed to consider the matter, but has given no further assurance.

HELD A CONFERENCE.

Day, White and the President Together In Cleveland.

THE JUSTICE HAD NOT DECIDED.

Announced at Close of Meeting, That No Conclusion Was Reached, but Hope Was Expressed That White Would Accept a Peace Commissionership.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—A conference of great importance was held at Col. Herrick's home last night. President McKinley, Secretary Day and Justice White were the conferrees and they were closeted together after dinner until a late hour. It was admitted that the conversation had to do with the appointment on the peace commission offered by the president to Justice White, but at a late hour it was announced that no definite conclusion had been reached, although hope was expressed that Justice White would see his way clear to accept the appointment.

President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley spent yesterday quietly at the home of Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Euclid Heights. Both are in the best of health and spirits. About 7:30 they appeared on the veranda and had a magnificent view of the city and lake.

A detail of police is guarding the grounds night and day during their stay. They will remain in Cleveland until tomorrow. That day they will go to Canton and from there to New York, where they will arrive Friday night. Saturday the president will inspect Camp Wikoff, at Montauk Point.

During their morning drive yesterday the president and Colonel Herrick went to the Shaker lakes and over the boulevard, through Wade and Gordon parks. Upon returning to Colonel Herrick's home, on Euclid heights, the president took a nap, and, after lunch, received Postmaster George Gordon of Chicago. Mr. Gordon presented the invitation of Chicago to attend the big peace jubilee in that city. President McKinley thanked Chicago and Postmaster Gordon, but deferred any definite answer, in view of possible demands that may be made upon him as chief executive. Later, the president and Colonel Herrick took another drive, this time out into the country. During the afternoon Miss Helen McKinley, the president's sister, and Miss McKinley, his niece, of Canton, called at the Herrick house.

Justice White and Secretary of State Day arrived at the house about 6 o'clock last evening, undoubtedly to consult with the president over the former's decision as to acting as one of the peace commissioners.

At dinner were President and Mrs. McKinley, Colonel and Mrs. Herrick, Justice White, Secretary Day, Assistant President's Secretary Cortelyou, Mrs. M. A. Hanna and Miss Hanna.

Mrs. McKinley was indisposed by a slight cold and remained within doors during yesterday.

The workmen engaged on a fine new residence being built across the boulevard from Col. Herrick's home did a graceful and patriotic thing yesterday. In front of the house, between the sidewalk and the roadway, is an ugly, rough board shed for the storage of tools, etc. The workmen clubbed together, purchased an immense American flag and with it covered the roof and side toward the temporary home of the president.

EIGHTH OHIO BOYS.

Seventeen Arrived Home and Were Given a Great Welcome—Denial by Colonel Hard.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 31.—Yesterday forenoon when 17 sick and weary members of Company K, Eighth Ohio, arrived on the 10 o'clock train. Their reception was in the nature of an ovation from the great crowd.

Private Patterson is the worst and is helpless from a severe attack of typhoid fever. His condition is critical. Private Osburn was very weak, having safely passed through one of the worst forms of yellow fever at Santiago.

Privates Hoppes and Grubb are sick with malarial fever. The balance are convalescening and are: Commissary Sergeant Charles Cooper, Sergeant Dobson, Corporals Whit, Ballard, Curtis and Bowman, and Privates Shaffer, Dew, Grimes, Walser, Hutson, David, Dobson, Campbell, Oglive and Hospital Corpsman Vinton Buell.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 31.—Colonel C. V. Hard of the Eighth regiment, O. V. I., yesterday afternoon wired a statement to this city from Montauk Point, N. Y., denying charges of starvation and neglect of Eighth Ohio boys.

SICK IN HOSPITALS.

Over Fifty Placed In Philadelphia Institutions From the Pennsylvania Train.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The state hospital train from the Chickamauga camp arrived here about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, having on board a number of sick soldiers whose homes are located in this city and vicinity. A number of ambulances and police patrol wagons were in waiting and the sick men were hurried to hospitals as fast as they could be taken from the cars.

Governor Hastings personally superintended the removal of the sick soldiers from the train to the ambulances. The sick numbered over 50 and were principally Philadelphia soldiers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 31.—The state hospital train carrying the sick members of the Ninth regiment arrived here yesterday morning. Ambulances and stretchers were in waiting and the invalids were tenderly cared for until they arrived at the hospital. There are 28 cases, but only 8 are thought to be serious.

Pennsylvania Soldier Died.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — Daniel Tubbs, a private in Company B, Thirteenth Pennsylvania, died yesterday morning in the Medi-Chirurgical hospital. Tubbs was brought from Dunn Loring, Va., on Thursday night suffering from typhoid fever. His home was in Taylor, Pa.

SEC. ALGER'S OPINION.

Said Not to Believe Miles Said All He Is Credited With—Merritt May Side With Miles.

WASHINGTON Aug. 31.—Secretary Alger was quoted yesterday as saying he did not believe General Miles made half of the statements credited to him by the Kansas City Star correspondent. The secretary is quoted as having the opinion that General Miles evidently intended to draw the army administration into a discussion which would lead to an official inquiry which in turn would clear up some matters which he wished to have exposed in justice to himself.

Secretary Alger said: "If we do ask General Miles whether he gave that interview or not we will not publish the fact and the newspapers won't know anything about it. There is an evident desire to have a controversy on this subject, but there can be none and the war department will take no part in one."

General Corbin said yesterday: "I have issued no order of any importance except upon the authority and by direction of the secretary of war or the president of the United States. They are amply able, I take it, to protect themselves and so far as I am concerned there are no explanations or apologies to make."

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—A bitter fight inside the war department is threatened between Secretary Alger, General Corbin and others on one side and General Miles, General Merritt and their friends on the other. Miles has already aired his grievances, and it is reported that Merritt has a few, too. There is a long enmity between Alger and Merritt, dating from the courtmartial of Alger by a board of which Merritt was a member.

Merritt's partisans alleged that Alger sent him to Manila to be rid of him. President McKinley, it was said, without Alger's knowledge, ordered Merritt to go to Paris and then come home. Alger at first denied this order, not having heard it.

DELICACIES FOR THE SICK.

Patients In Camp Meade Hospital Given an Increase In Subsistence Money.

CAMP MEADE, MIDDLETOWN, Pa., Aug. 31.—Colonel Girard, chief medical officer of the Second army corps, received a telegram yesterday morning from Secretary of War Alger authorizing him to increase the subsistence of the patients in the general hospitals from 20 to 60 cents a day. This will insure the sick ice, milk and other delicacies, which they could not heretofore buy out of their subsistence money.

Semi-official advices were received yesterday by the officers of the First Rhode Island regiment that it would be sent to the Philippines as an army of occupation. The Twelfth Pennsylvania regiment, commanded by Colonel James E. Coryell of Williamsport, reached camp yesterday morning from Camp Alger and was located near the Eighteenth regiment and Sixteenth Pennsylvania battalion. The Eighth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania regiments are expected here by Saturday.

MERRITT SAILS FOR PARIS.

General Otis Military Governor of Manilla Now—Philippine Insurgent Coming—Greene's Muster Out.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—The United States transport China left here yesterday having on board Major General Merritt and his staff. The general is bound for Paris, where he will take part in the Spanish-American peace conference. Major General Otis is acting governor of Manila. Generals Greene and Babcock, with their staffs, are bound for Washington.

Opacible, the insurgent leader, is going to Hongkong in order to confer with the insurgent junta there. He will receive Aguinaldo's final instructions by cable.

Agonillo, another of the insurgent leaders, is going to Washington.

Weather Forecast.

Partly cloudy; light southwesterly winds.

MAY SPLIT UP SAMOA.

Death of King Malietoa Likely to Cause Such Action.

PROBABLY A PROBLEM FOR HAY.

This Government Might Take the Island of Tuitwila For a Naval Station—England Would Likely Take the Largest One and Germany Next In Size.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The state department had not by yesterday been officially advised of the reported death of King Malieton of Samoa, and in all likelihood must remain in official ignorance of the event for some time to come, owing to the slow means of communication at the disposal of the department. It is the general impression here that the death of the king will result in the overthrow of the present form of government of the islands, maintained as it is by the joint action of the United States, Great Britain and Germany. Official reports to the state department show that this government is the most expensive and unsatisfactory of any in the world, having regard to the population of the Samoan group.

In the capital city, Apia, there is maintained a tripartite municipal government at vast proportional expense, while the reports show that 32 ratepayers are obliged to bear the entire cost. For some years back the existing arrangement for the government of the Samoan group has been satisfactory to none of the three governments, yet it has been continued for the reason that nothing better could be suggested that would be acceptable to the three nations. Now there are indications that at least one of the parties is coming around to what was a favorite plan of settlement of the state department, namely, a disruption of the present tripartite government, and an absolute division of the islands of the group between the United States, Great Britain and Germany.

The principal object of our government has been to retain possession of a coaling or a full naval station in the islands, so as to afford a base of naval operations in the vicinity of Australasia, as well as to ensure an open port for our merchant steamers on the long voyage from San Francisco to Australia. The United States now holds title to some ground for a coaling statien at Pago Pago, on the island of Tuitwila. This island is the least in size of any of the group, but is more than large enough to support a naval station, so that it has been the plan of the state department to acquire it as a whole in event of the dissolution of the tripartite agreement.

Basing the division on the existing interests of the three nations, Germany, holding the largest interest, would take the island second in size, possessing the capital, Apia, while Great Britain would receive the largest of the group but the second in commercial importance. It is probable that among the first duties falling to Mr. Hay, when he assumes the office of secretary of state, will be the consideration of some plan to tide over the crisis expected to follow the death of the king.

FOR NATIONAL MILITIA.

Major Hayes Proposed a Plan—Thinks Cooks and Homesickness Caused Complaint Among Troops.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—Major Webb C. Hayes, son of the late President Hayes, who is said to be the only volunteer officer that served in both the Cuban and Porto Rican campaigns, and who is accompanying President McKinley on his present trip, has proposed a plan to the chief executive, providing that the president shall appoint an adjutant general for each state; that as many bodies of militia shall be raised in each state as circumstances require, and that all officers of such militia shall be nominated by the governors of the various states. They would then be under the direct control of the national government.

Major Hayes, when asked what he thought of the charges of starvation from the regiments at the front, said:

"Look at me. Do I looked starved? I lived on the same rations as the soldiers and have grown fleshy on that fare."

Hayes was attired in the brown canvas uniform of a field officer and looked brown as his suit, and rugged as a veteran.

"I may be wrong," said he, "but in my opinion, the greatest cause for complaint is summed up in 'cooks and homesickness.'"

General Weyler's Policy.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—General Weyler, according to a special dispatch from Madrid, published here yesterday afternoon, has outlined his future policy. He proposes, it appears, to be independent both of the government and the opposition, "always aiming to preserve the country and to reorganize the army." He said the united republicans have no personal animus against the queen, their only object being to "adopt a firm, international stand, one result which would be to check in some measure England's ambition."

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

14TH YEAR. NO. 71. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1898. TWO CENTS

DEFENDERS OF CAMPS.

Grosvenor Could See Little Wrong at Dunn Loring.

ALLEN IS OF LIKE OPINION.

Men Suffered Good Deal at Camp Thomas, but No Worse Than In Civil War. Newspaper Sensationalism, Said Governor Black of New York.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Grosvenor of Ohio called at the war department yesterday in company with ex-Representative Thompson to report to Secretary Alger the results of their visit of inspection of the camp at Dunn Loring, and particularly the state of affairs in the Seventh Ohio volunteer regiment.

General Grosvenor was emphatic in his approval of what he saw. He said: "I never saw a body of soldiers better fed, better clothed and better sheltered than is the Seventh Ohio regiment at present. So much for the general condition. Now as to particulars: There were 1,300 men in the regiment. Except from suicide there have been but two deaths among them since the organization four and a half months ago. Including the men who were furloughed to go home and recuperate and those in the hospitals, there were only 41 men not able to report for duty yesterday morning. A finer, abler set of men I never saw in my life."

Continuing, General Grosvenor said that the dissatisfaction among the soldiers was all traceable to the fact that they had not been able to get to the front. On the whole he (Grosvenor) was satisfied the men were very much better off than were the soldiers in the Civil war.

This last view was confirmed by Senator Allen of Nebraska, who called at the war department to get some news of the whereabouts of the Second Nebraska regiment, which he was told was enroute from Chickamauga to Omaha.

He said the main complaint among the men was their enforced detention at the camps instead of being sent to the front. So far as their physical condition was concerned, while the men had suffered a good deal at Camp Thomas, so far as he could judge from his own experience in the Civil war, they were certainly no worse off than the soldiers then engaged.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 31.—Governor Black was seen last night by an Associated Press representative and was asked as to the conditions as he found them in the camps of the New York regiments, as well as those at division hospitals.

Governor Black said there appeared to be "a perfect hydrophobia" among newspapers over the condition of the soldiers, that the press bristled with such phrases as "hollow eyed" and "starving," in articles descriptive of the troops. He gave it as his opinion that the matter was exaggerated, "manufactured in newspaper offices," and the outcome and result of "journalistic knavery."

When assured that his views would be printed verbatim, and not withheld because they failed to concur with the present "newspaper craze," his excellency gave the following interview in part:

"My impression," said Governor Black, "of the camp of the New York troops at Chickamauga park is not half as bad as I expected it would be. The unfortunate condition of the camp and hospitals has, beyond a doubt, been very greatly exaggerated by the papers.

"The division hospital in which the sick soldiers of the Ninth New York infantry are quartered is certainly in a very bad condition. The present state of this hospital ought never to have been permitted to exist and should be corrected also.

"I think that the troops at Chickamauga Park should have been moved long before any sickness broke out in the ranks.

"This Sternberg hospital is in excellent condition. I do not see that it could be made any better. It is admirable both in plan and management."

The case of Private Nunn of the ambulance company, who was transferred from the Ninth New York, was reported to the governor by Captain O'Connor of Company A, Ninth New York, and was reported by the governor to Washington for investigation. Captain O'Connor's statement was that he had found the body of Nunn lying naked in a division hospital two days after death, infested by maggets, that an autopsy had been held and that no preparation had been made for the care or internment of the body up to the time found. The affair will likely result in the trial of Captain O'Connor by courtmartial.

900 MAY HAVE DIED.

Report That Three Spanish Vessels Were Lost Near the Philippines, Early In the War.

TACOMA, Aug. 31.—Early in the war Admiral Dewey captured the Spanish gunboat Leyte, as it was returning to Manila from one of the Philippine islands. The Hongkong Daily Press says the Leyte had been towing three vessels loaded with 900 Spaniards who were fleeing for fear of falling into the insurgents' hands.

A severe storm came up and compelled the Leyte to leave her tows and make for Manila to secure assistance. Later American warships were sent to look for the three vessels, but they were nowhere to be found. It is believed that they foundered with all on board.

Colonel Van Horn Dead.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The war department was notified yesterday morning that Colonel Charles G. Van Horn, Eighth infantry, died Monday night at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming. He ranked No. 3 in the line list of colonels. He was born in Ohio.

A Filibuster Case Closed.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 31.—The case of the Cuban filibuster steamer Bermuda has been closed with the sale of the vessel intact as she is lying at Port Antonio, for $12,500, to a shipping firm of this city in behalf of her Boston owners.

TEN MORE MEN DIED.

Wheeler Ordered Investigation at Camp Wikoff—Two of the Dead Eighth Ohio Boys.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Ten soldiers died at Camp Wikoff yesterday. They were:

Charles E. Chapin, sergeant, Company L, Second Massachusetts, died in an isolated tent, diagnosis refused.

Fred Isueller, Company H, Eighth infantry, typhoid fever.

—— Murphy, Troop F, Second cavalry, acute uraemia.

Unkown soldier, acute uraemia.

William H. Newcomb, Company H, Twenty-first infantry, typhoid fever; getting along well, but Monday night left his cot, walked into one of the kitchens, found a watermelon, ate ravenously of it and in a short time was dead.

John G. Trouthard, Company K, Eighth Ohio, pernicious malaria.

Earl Immler, Company D, Eighth Ohio, typhoid fever.

Victor E. Jolin, Company E, Third infantry, dysentery.

W. A. Marshall, Company G, First Illinois.

Private Waldron, Company A, First Illinois, typhoid fever, died on a transport.

The transports Berlin, San Marcos and Specialist arrived at Camp Wikoff yesterday, carrying soldiers from Cuba, and landed them. There were 256 sick.

The tug C. P. Raymond left this city East river yesterday loaded with delicacies and medicine for the men of the First Illinois infantry, at Montauk Point. The tug was chartered by seven gentlemen from different parts of the state of Illinois.

Camp Wikoff is to be investigated. General Wheeler has ordered General Albert Ames, chief of staff on General Kent's staff, to conduct an investigation. He has almost autocratic powers.

MANY ILL IN PORTO RICO.

National Relief Commission Representatives Bring Back Reports. Rendered Great Aid.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The yacht May, home from Ponce, whither she had taken the national relief commissioners, arrived here yesterday at noon. The relief commissioners report that of the 16,000 American soldiers in Porto Rico 1,000 were sick when the May left on Aug. 22. More than half these cases require prompt and careful treatment. Typhoid was not on the increase, but diarrhoea, dysentery and dengue were. The report says the medical authorities in Porto Rico agree that the sick list is increasing.

The members of the commission who went to Porto Rico are ex-Minister to Italy William Potter, William Van Rensselaer, L. C. Van Uxen and Dr. C. G. Graff.

Attached to a report made by the representative of the national relief commission is a letter from General Miles thanking the commissioners on behalf of the army for the supplies and for a big consignment of American flags; also a letter from Colonel Greenleaf, expressing thanks for the gift of an ice-making machine, in which he says: "I cannot adequately express the satisfaction with which the results of this donation will be received by the sick. Ice in this country is an expensive luxury, costing $30 per ton in Porto Rican money, which necessitates the exercise of rigid economy on the part of our medical officers in its use. To have the output of such a machine at our disposal is a blessing, the benefits of which can only be appreciated by those who have served in these hospitals."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Surgeon General Sternberg says that it is true there is sickness in Porto Rico, but it is not alarming.

It is probably climatic conditions which is causing sickness among the troops in Porto Rico.

For Army Camp Near Toledo.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Southard of Ohio has been here, seeking to have an army camp established at the old Fort Meigs battleground, ten miles south of Toledo, where there is high ground and plenty of water, or at Put-in-Bay, on Lake Erie. The war department has agreed to consider the matter, but has given no further assurance.

HELD A CONFERENCE.

Day, White and the President Together In Cleveland.

THE JUSTICE HAD NOT DECIDED.

Announced at Close of Meeting, That No Conclusion Was Reached, but Hope Was Expressed That White Would Accept a Peace Commissionership.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—A conference of great importance was held at Col. Herrick's home last night. President McKinley, Secretary Day and Justice White were the conferrees and they were closeted together after dinner until a late hour. It was admitted that the conversation had to do with the appointment on the peace commission offered by the president to Justice White, but at a late hour it was announced that no definite conclusion had been reached, although hope was expressed that Justice White would see his way clear to accept the appointment.

President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley spent yesterday quietly at the home of Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Euclid Heights. Both are in the best of health and spirits. About 7:30 they appeared on the veranda and had a magnificent view of the city and lake.

A detail of police is guarding the grounds night and day during their stay. They will remain in Cleveland until tomorrow. That day they will go to Canton and from there to New York, where they will arrive Friday night. Saturday the president will inspect Camp Wikoff, at Montauk Point.

During their morning drive yesterday the president and Colonel Herrick went to the Shaker lakes and over the boulevard, through Wade and Gordon parks. Upon returning to Colonel Herrick's home, on Euclid heights, the president took a nap, and, after lunch, received Postmaster George Gordon of Chicago. Mr. Gordon presented the invitation of Chicago to attend the big peace jubilee in that city. President McKinley thanked Chicago and Postmaster Gordon, but deferred any definite answer, in view of possible demands that may be made upon him as chief executive. Later, the president and Colonel Herrick took another drive, this time out into the country. During the afternoon Miss Helen McKinley, the president's sister, and Miss McKinley, his niece, of Canton, called at the Herrick house.

Justice White and Secretary of State Day arrived at the house about 6 o'clock last evening, undoubtedly to consult with the president over the former's decision as to acting as one of the peace commissioners.

At dinner were President and Mrs. McKinley, Colonel and Mrs. Herrick, Justice White, Secretary Day, Assistant President's Secretary Cortelyou, Mrs. M. A. Hanna and Miss Hanna.

Mrs. McKinley was indisposed by a slight cold and remained within doors during yesterday.

The workmen engaged on a fine new residence being built across the boulevard from Col. Herrick's home did a graceful and patriotic thing yesterday. In front of the house, between the sidewalk and the roadway, is an ugly, rough board shed for the storage of tools, etc. The workmen clubbed together, purchased an immense American flag and with it covered the roof and side toward the temporary home of the president.

EIGHTH OHIO BOYS.

Seventeen Arrived Home and Were Given a Great Welcome—Denial by Colonel Hard.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 31.—Yesterday forenoon when 17 sick and weary members of Company K, Eighth Ohio, arrived on the 10 o'clock train. Their reception was in the nature of an ovation from the great crowd.

Private Patterson is the worst and is helpless from a severe attack of typhoid fever. His condition is critical. Private Osburn was very weak, having safely passed through one of the worst forms of yellow fever at Santiago.

Privates Hoppes and Grubb are sick with malarial fever. The balance are convalescening and are: Commissary Sergeant Charles Cooper, Sergeant Dobson, Corporals Whit, Ballard, Curtis and Bowman, and Privates Shaffer, Dew, Grimes, Walser, Hutson, David, Dobson, Campbell, Oglive and Hospital Corpsman Vinton Buell.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 31.—Colonel O. V. Hard of the Eighth regiment, O. V. I., yesterday afternoon wired a statement to this city from Montauk Point, N. Y., denying charges of starvation and neglect of Eighth Ohio boys.

SICK IN HOSPITALS.

Over Fifty Placed In Philadelphia Institutions From the Pennsylvania Train.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The state hospital train from the Chickamauga camp arrived here about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, having on board a number of sick soldiers whose homes are located in this city and vicinity. A number of ambulances and police patrol wagons were in waiting and the sick men were hurried to hospitals as fast as they could be taken from the cars.

Governor Hastings personally superintended the removal of the sick soldiers from the train to the ambulances. The sick numbered over 50 and were principally Philadelphia soldiers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 31.—The state hospital train carrying the sick members of the Ninth regiment arrived here yesterday morning. Ambulances and stretchers were in waiting and the invalids were tenderly cared for until they arrived at the hospital. There are 28 cases, but only 8 are thought to be serious.

Pennsylvania Soldier Died.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—Daniel Tubbs, a private in Company B, Thirteenth Pennsylvania, died yesterday morning in the Medi-Chirurgical hospital. Tubbs was brought from Dunn Loring, Va., on Thursday night suffering from typhoid fever. His home was in Taylor, Pa.

SEC. ALGER'S OPINION.

Said Not to Believe Miles Said All He Is Credited With—Merritt May Side With Miles.

WASHINGTON Aug. 31.—Secretary Alger was quoted yesterday as saying he did not believe General Miles made half of the statements credited to him by the Kansas City Star correspondent. The secretary is quoted as having the opinion that General Miles evidently intended to draw the army administration into a discussion which would lead to an official inquiry which in turn would clear up some matters which he wished to have exposed in justice to himself.

Secretary Alger said: "If we do ask General Miles whether he gave that interview or not we will not publish the fact and the newspapers won't know anything about it. There is an evident desire to have a controversy on this subject, but there can be none and the war department will take no part in one."

General Corbin said yesterday: "I have issued no order of any importance except upon the authority and by direction of the secretary of war or the president of the United States. They are amply able, I take it, to protect themselves and so far as I am concerned there are no explanations or apologies to make."

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—A bitter fight inside the war department is threatened between Secretary Alger, General Corbin and others on one side and General Miles, General Merritt and their friends on the other. Miles has already aired his grievances, and it is reported that Merritt has a few, too. There is a long enmity between Alger and Merritt, dating from the courtmartial of Alger by a board of which Merritt was a member.

Merritt's partisans alleged that Alger sent him to Manila to be rid of him. President McKinley, it was said, without Alger's knowledge, ordered Merritt to go to Paris and then come home. Alger at first denied this order, not having heard it.

DELICACIES FOR THE SICK.

Patients In Camp Meade Hospital Given an Increase In Subsistence Money.

CAMP MEADE, MIDDLETOWN, Pa., Aug. 31.—Colonel Girard, chief medical officer of the Second army corps, received a telegram yesterday morning from Secretary of War Alger authorizing him to increase the subsistence of the patients in the general hospitals from 20 to 60 cents a day. This will insure the sick ice, milk and other delicacies, which they could not heretofore buy out of their subsistence money.

Semi-official advices were received yesterday by the officers of the First Rhode Island regiment that it would be sent to the Philippines as an army of occupation. The Twelfth Pennsylvania regiment, commanded by Colonel James E. Coryell of Williamsport, reached camp yesterday morning from Camp Alger and was located near the Eighteenth regiment and Sixteenth Pennsylvania battalion. The Eighth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania regiments are expected here by Saturday.

MERRITT SAILS FOR PARIS.

General Otis Military Governor of Manilla Now—Philippine Insurgent Coming—Greene's Muster Out.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—The United States transport China left here yesterday having on board Major General Merritt and his staff. The general is bound for Paris, where he will take part in the Spanish-American peace conference. Major General Otis is acting governor of Manila. Generals Greene and Babcock, with their staffs, are bound for Washington.

Opacible, the insurgent leader, is going to Hongkong in order to confer with the insurgent junta there. He will receive Aguinaldo's final instructions by cable.

Agonillo, another of the insurgent leaders, is going to Washington.

Weather Forecast.

Partly cloudy; light southwesterly winds.

MAY SPLIT UP SAMOA.

Death of King Malietoa Likely to Cause Such Action.

PROBABLY A PROBLEM FOR HAY.

This Government Might Take the Island of Tuitwila For a Naval Station—England Would Likely Take the Largest One and Germany Next In Size.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The state department had not by yesterday been officially advised of the reported death of King Malieton of Samoa, and in all likelihood must remain in official ignorance of the event for some time to come, owing to the slow means of communication at the disposal of the department. It is the general impression here that the death of the king will result in the overthrow of the present form of government of the islands, maintained as it is by the joint action of the United States, Great Britain and Germany. Official reports to the state department show that this government is the most expensive and unsatisfactory of any in the world, having regard to the population of the Samoan group.

In the capital city, Apia, there is maintained a tripartite municipal government at vast proportional expense, while the reports show that 32 ratepayers are obliged to bear the entire cost. For some years back the existing arrangement for the government of the Samoan group has been satisfactory to none of the three governments, yet it has been continued for the reason that nothing better could be suggested that would be acceptable to the three nations. Now there are indications that at least one of the parties is coming around to what was a favorite plan of settlement of the state department, namely, a disruption of the present tripartite government, and an absolute division of the islands of the group between the United States, Great Britain and Germany.

The principal object of our government has been to retain possession of a coaling or a full naval station in the islands, so as to afford a base of naval operations in the vicinity of Australasia, as well as to ensure an open port for our merchant steamers on the long voyage from San Francisco to Australia. The United States now holds title to some ground for a coaling statien at Pago Pago, on the island of Tuitwila. This island is the least in size of any of the group, but is more than large enough to support a naval station, so that it has been the plan of the state department to acquire it as a whole in event of the dissolution of the tripartite agreement.

Basing the division on the existing interests of the three nations, Germany, holding the largest interest, would take the island second in size, possessing the capital, Apia, while Great Britain would receive the largest of the group but the second in commercial importance. It is probable that among the first duties falling to Mr. Hay, when he assumes the office of secretary of state, will be the consideration of some plan to tide over the crisis expected to follow the death of the king.

FOR NATIONAL MILITIA.

Major Hayes Proposed a Plan—Thinks Cooks and Homesickness Caused Complaint Among Troops.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—Major Webb C. Hayes, son of the late President Hayes, who is said to be the only volunteer officer that served in both the Cuban and Porto Rican campaigns, and who is accompanying President McKinley on his present trip, has proposed a plan to the chief executive, providing that the president shall appoint an adjutant general for each state; that as many bodies of militia shall be raised in each state as circumstances require, and that all officers of such militia shall be nominated by the governors of the various states. They would then be under the direct control of the national government.

Major Hayes, when asked what he thought of the charges of starvation from the regiments at the front, said:

"Look at me. Do I looked starved? I lived on the same rations as the soldiers and have grown fleshy on that fare."

Hayes was attired in the brown canvas uniform of a field officer and looked brown as his suit, and rugged as a veteran.

"I may be wrong," said he, "but in my opinion, the greatest cause for complaint is summed up in 'cooks and homesickness.'"

General Weyler's Policy.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—General Weyler, according to a special dispatch from Madrid, published here yesterday afternoon, has outlined his future policy. He proposes, it appears, to be independent both of the government and the opposition, "always aiming to preserve the country and to reorganize the army." He said the united republicans have no personal animus against the queen, their only object being to "adopt a firm, international stand, one result which would be to check in some measure England's ambition."

Buy Now and Save Money

We mean your school shoes, as we are giving you special prices on lots of them.

5 to 8, tan or black, 48c

8½ to 11, tan or black, 75c

11½ to 2, tan or black, 98c

Buy at once and save the price of a book.

W. H. GASS, 220 Diamond.

THEY ASK FOR DELAY

Trust Promoters Are Not Yet Ready.

FROM SEPTEMBER TO DECEMBER

It Is Now Proposed to Have the Options Extended, and Manufacturing Potters Manifest a Disposition to Permit the Change at Old Prices.

The combination of American potteries will not be consummated Sept. 28, as so many people in this city have confidently expected.

It will be remembered that the options taken some time ago on the Liverpool potteries extended to Sept. 28, the promoters of the trust being confident they could close the deal at that time. Since then there have been changes, and the trust will not then be a living, moving reality.

The other day the pottery companies whose plants are under option received a letter asking if they would consent to an extension of time until December 31. The reason given was that all potteries in the country could not be brought under the protecting wing of the trust at present, but the extension would greatly facilitate the work.

The NEWS REVIEW can state on authority that there is a disposition in this city to grant the request, and the options will be extended until the last day of the year.

HUNTED AN HOUR

Before He Located the Lady For Whom He Sought.

A good story is being told upon a prominent young man of the city.

A few evenings ago he made an engagement to call upon a young lady of his acquaintance, but not knowing exactly where she lived he carefully hunted up the number of her home. When he arrived at the street he found the numbers of the houses had long since been removed, and after wandering around the street for over an hour he found another lady acquaintance who showed him the house he sought.

CARING FOR MRS. EDDY.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell Have Gone to Yankeesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell, of this city, this morning left for Marietta and from their will drive to Yankeesburg. They will go the home of Mrs. Eddy, whose son died on the transport Mohawk while coming from Santiago to Montauk Point, L. I. Mr. Lessel was the soldiers' brother-in-law, and this morning said that no expense would be spared in the attempts to relieve Mrs. Eddy of her suffering. They will remain there several weeks.

BY REQUEST.

Secretary Sully has been requested to repeat an address on "Job" which he delivered at the Christian church a few weeks ago. He will speak on this subject at the Salvation Army campmeeting at Spring Grove on Sunday afternoon.

Changes at Light Plant.

John Isle, for several months employed at the light plant as an electrician, left last night for Gallipolis. Mr. Young, who superintended the work at the Gallipolis plant, has returned to the city and today resumed his work at the plant in this place.

FOR SALE.

One set of Morgan & Wright bicycle tires. Cheap. Call at News Review.

EATING IN GERMANY.

THE SARCASMS OF A VICTIM WHO SURVIVED ITS CHARMS.

He Kicks All the Way Down the Bill of Fare and Is Particularly Irritated Over a Dish of Powdered Horse Radish Served With Frozen Whipped Cream.

When you have examined the constitution of the German cuisine, you are tempted to grow loquacious. You are conscious of having discovered that the psychology of a nation cannot be constructed upon a mere analysis of its made dishes. Your estimate of Brillat-Savarin sinks. He could not tell you what you are, even from all the menus of your lifetime. Freiligrath's philosophic conclusion that "man is what he eats" you straightway qualify as true only when referring to cannibalism. And you will aver that only in the case of paleolithic man can you construct a man from the crumbs that fall from his dinner table. And this you will want to prove, and consequently will grow talkative with presenting of much evidence.

And yet, in your sane moments, you will have a sneaking affection for the statement that a German is a German because he eats what he eats. As a general rule he may be said to eat five times a day. But his hunger is constantly being stilled.

He starts early in the day with a cup of cafe au lait and a small buttered roll. This keeps him going till 11 o'clock, when he demolishes a slice of buttered rye bread spread with slices of hard boiled egg, raw chopped beef or cheese. This he washes down with a glass of ale, thus stilling his inner man till dinner time. Dinner takes place toward 1 o'clock and consists of soup (generally nourishing), a plate of meat, with potatoes and fruit (cranberries, prunes or apricots), occasionally cheese, seldom sweets, rarely a green vegetable.

Three hours later coffee is taken, served with a piece of cake or thick bread and butter. This is the hour precious to the gossip and the busybody, the time for spreading scandal. Toward 8 o'clock the appetite again asserts itself. The hour of the ubiquitous sausages has arrived. Their name is legion, and they share the honors with slices of ham, smoked goose breast, pieces of raw pickled herring, and in summer hard boiled eggs and potato salad.

Such is the German method of spreading the meals over the day. Of course there are exceptions. Many families have two ample meals a day, but the bulk of the population eats mostly buttered bread and snacks. In justice to Germany one must say that the fare in many a home will compare favorably with that of many an American family.

In the German restaurant the cuisine is on the whole monotonous and the food singularly insipid. All meats seem to have the same flavor, all are served with the same heavy, viscous sauces, and invariably escorted with the same soaplike potatoes. Stodginess and heaviness are the great blots on the German fare. The element of variety, too, seems considered superfluous.

In the concrete the subject is almost too painful to face, the difficulty being to steer clear of exclamations denoting positive offensiveness. Some of the kickshaws which figure regularly upon the German table are reputed to be most sustaining. They certainly are intensely and ostentatiously wonder inspiring.

One preparation is everywhere met with under the name (more or less phonetically spelled) of beefsteak a la tartare. Its basis is raw chopped beef; this, spread out into a pat of elliptical shape, is crowned with the raw yolk of an egg, raw finely chopped onion is sprinkled over it, a garniture of gherkins is added, and the whole is eaten with much gusto and no worse consequences than a durable thirst.

In many of the dishes you discover all the humor, feeling and imagination of a Wagnerian composition. You find the resolute desire to build up harmony upon discord. Of this nature may be considered the traditional menu of New Year's eve, carp, pancake and punch. These three, brought into immediate juxtaposition and consumed in plethoric quantities, generally have the desired effect—that of inducing a hysterical good humor.

For stodginess nothing beats the favorite dish, panache. It consists of pickled pork, sour cabbage and a puree of split peas boiled down to the consistency of stiff dough. Experiments on this mass produce deplorable capers and cause one to grunt mournfully. A variety of this diet is found in Berlin. You substitute boiled balls of dough and indifferent prunes for the peas and cabbage, and you have the dish popularly termed "the Silesian kingdom of heaven." Cold eels, imbedded in a translucid, glutinous substance, figure in all workmen's taverns, while roast goose is de rigueur for all solemnities.

A dainty which we have recently met with in Berlin recalled Darwin's remark that "hardly any experiment is so absurd as not to be worth trying." It consisted of finely powdered horse radish served up with frozen whipped cream.

One may sum up one's judgment by saying of German cooking what the art critic said of nature, "It has infinite potentialities." Not the least of these is its ambition to discover victims that survive its charms only in the form that the walls of Jericho survived the trumpet blast of Joshua.—Lippincott's Magazine.

IMPRESSIONS OF PORTO RICO

The Island and Its Inhabitants as Seen by One of General Miles' Staff.

Lieutenant Colonel Arthur S. Wagner, assistant adjutant general, formerly chief of the bureau of military information of the war department, returned to Washington recently from Ponce, Porto Rico, where he has been with the staff of General Miles. From the time he landed with Miles' army near Ponce, Porto Rico, until he left the island, Colonel Wagner said, the heartiness with which the mass of Porto Ricans welcomed the advent of the American troops was an impressive fact.

"The manner in which the Porto Ricans welcomed the army with bananas, cocoanuts, bouquets and cigars seems amusing here," he said, "but it was evident to us in Porto Rico that the offerings were sincere tributes and not indicative of a fickle temperament among the people. When one realizes the fact that they have been obliged to pay a tax of $8 on a barrel of flour, making the price $35, Porto Rican money, or $17 in United States currency, it is not hard to believe that they are glad to be relieved from Spanish oppression. Two or three mayors of towns in signing papers of allegiance voluntarily added "U. S. A." to the name of the town and of the island, and they seemed proud of it too. When I was ill with malarial fever, a native physician, remarkably well educated and cultured, attended me. He remarked one day, as he used a physician's thermometer, that he had nothing but a centigrade scale, but since he had become an American citizen he must get a Fahrenheit. When I got well, I asked him for my bill, but he declined any compensation for his services, assuring me that he was glad to do anything for American officers.

"A house where I had lodgings while in Ponce was the residence of a very intelligent native lady and her daughter. The lady talked very enthusiastically about the prospects of American sovereignty in Porto Rico, and her daughter discussed the evils of Spanish rule in the island in a way which showed that she had a very good idea of the former government and its effect upon the oppressed people of Porto Rico. These incidents are a few of the many which came to my notice during General Miles' campaign, and I reached the gratifying conclusion that Porto Rico would be a very desirable possession for the United States, and that the people generally would be good citizens. The most inferior part of the native population is very inferior indeed, but the more intelligent people are numerous enough to dominate the masses and give a general character to the inhabitants."—New York Sun.

PHILIPPINE LABOR PROBLEM

Only Eastern Race That Can Solve It Said to Be the Chinese.

A labor question will face the ruler of the Philippines very early, and ther is only one eastern race that can solv it. The Spaniards recognized the fact long ago, but the priest disliked the Chinaman because he was so irreligious. Honest Juan de la Concepcion records that in 1662, when there was a pretty general massacre of the Mongols—who were incited to rebellion with that very object—"the original intention of the Spaniards was to kill every Chinaman," but they desisted from the wholesale slaughter, "in view of the inconvenience which would have ensued from the want of tradesmen and merchants." Just 60 years before there had been a massacre of the Chinese, one of many, which brought serious consequences, for when the Celestials were extirpated, or nearly so, it was found that they were "the only industrious, skillful, wealth producing portion of the population." They are so today, and for that reason one anticipates that the experience of Singapore will be repeated at Manila.

Your lazy Malay will recede before the Mongol, who has served an apprenticeship of 60 generations to labor and can do everything. I shall never forget standing on a hill overlooking Kiao-Chau bay, the new German possession, and seeing what Chinese industry can effect. The view embraced perhaps ten square miles of rugged country, deeply scored by mountain torrents. Wherever a few yards, in some cases no larger than a kitchen floor, could be terraced out of the ravine or side of the hillock, it was done, and the whole landscape was like a garden for perfect tillage. These are the people who will make an earthly paradise of the Philippines, not the dolce far niente, indolent natives. A curious turning of the tables if the Americans should invite the Celestials to quit the Pacific slope for Luzon and Mindanao!—London Telegraph.

Coffee In the Hawaiian Islands.

Coffee is now being produced in considerable quantities in the Hawaiian Islands. Consul General Haywood expresses the opinion that the amount may be greatly increased with profit to those undertaking it. The number of coffee plantations is now between 200 and 300. The sum required to enter successfully upon coffee producing is from $5,000 to $20,000, and the Hawaiian foreign office estimates that the money so invested will be repaid to the investors with more than 100 per cent interest at the end of seven years from the establishment of the plantation.

Close Figuring on Warships' Sea Speed.

The navy department officials at Washington made close calculations upon the time the warships would arrive at New York for the naval pageant of Aug. 20. In announcing the hour at which the parade would take place up North river they calculated the time it would take the fleet to come from Santiago and the preciseness with which the programme was carried out as to time shows how accurately they can measure the time required for warships to cover a certain distance.—New York World.

The trade between Japan and Formosa has more than quintupled since 1895.

During the visit of Li Hung Chang, the "Grand Old Man of China," to this country, the New York Sun said of him: "He is a large, strong, impressive specimen of manhood. He has a massive frame, a shapely head, a commanding face and well posed features. He is a keen observant of mankind, of life and of things. He is seventy-four years of age and still in the hey-day of his power."

If a Chinaman, usually regarded by us as a barbarian, can live to a healthy, hale old age, why cannot Americans, with their more advanced civilization, do the same? The reporters discovered during Li Hung Chang's stay in this country, that he took every thought for his health. He lived upon the simplest of diets and never passed a day without consulting his physician. He limited his toil to a reasonable number of hours, and would not deviate from his rule in this matter. American men follow just the opposite practice. They work to the limit of endurance, will not even take the proper time for eating, resting and sleeping, and never think of their health until it is gone. There is a wonderful medicine for hard-working men. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It takes the place of a physician. It keeps away ill-health and restores health when it is lost. It is the great appetite sharpener, blood-maker and flesh-builder. It makes the digestion perfect, the liver active and the blood pure and rich. Medicine dealers sell it.

"My husband had been a robust young man," writes Mrs. M. J. Tedder, of Ellington, Reynolds Co., Mo. "When he was 31 years old he began to cough very hard. He had pains through his chest and lungs. His mother and the rest of his family had died with consumption. He continued to cough every winter, until in 1883 he had an attack of pneumonia. His cough grew worse and worse. He would vomit immediately after his meals. In 1888 he coughed night and day. He was getting very weak and had no appetite. He commenced Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' He improved. His appetite got better. When he had taken seven bottles he looked like a new man and felt like a new person. He weighs more than he ever weighed before. He gained twenty-eight pounds and is cured."

SPEAK OUT.

The Search-Light of Publicity is Pleasing East Liverpool People.

Publicity is what the people want.
Let the public speak on the subject.
There has been too much claim—too little proof.
Claims made by strangers are not proof.
Claims endorsed by strangers are not proof.
There is only one kind of proof for an East Liverpool citizen.
The experience of people we know.
When friends and neighbors endorse,
Make public statements of their case,
There can be no question about such evidence.
This is the proof we have,
Which backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.
No other kidney pills, no other kidney remedy,
Can produce such proof.
Here is one case of the many we have:
Mrs. Henry Bevington, who resides at the corner of Avondale and Shaw avenue, says: "During three years I was troubled with my kidneys, having a dull steady aching pain in the back. When stooping over or sitting for some time it would change to quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long and I often had headaches, dizziness and in the morning great depression. I took medicines, many of them, but found Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at W. & W. Pharmacy to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I ever tried. I had no trouble with my back, did not have the headache as I did, rested well, felt refreshed in the morning and got up earlier than I did before taking them. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for my better health and advise others to use them, as I am sure they will find them up to their representation."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

MADE ME A MAN

AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE ALL Nervous Diseases—Failing Memory, Impotency, Sleeplessness, etc., caused by Abuse or other Excesses and Indiscretions. They quickly and surely restore Lost Vitality in old or young, and fit a man for study, business or marriage. Prevent Insanity and Consumption if taken in time. Their use shows immediate improvement and effects a CURE where all other fail. Insist upon having the genuine Ajax Tablets. They have cured thousands and will cure you. We give a positive written guarantee to effect a cure in each case or refund the money. Price 50 CTS. per package; or six pkges (full treatment) for $2.50. By mail, in plain wrapper, upon receipt of price. Circular free. AJAX REMEDY CO., 79 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

For sale in East Liverpool, Ohio, by John I Hodson and the W. & W. Pharmacy.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop

IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything.

From an Election Sticker

to a

3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE
COLOR PRINTING,
ART CATALOGUES,
EMBOSSING,
HALF TONE WORK,
IM. LITHOGRAPHY,
IM. TYPE WRITER,
&c., &c., &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING, TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES
CARDS,
LETTER HEADS,
INVOICE SHEETS,
INVITATIONS,
FOLDERS,
CIRCULARS,
BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages,

Fine Equipment,

Artistic Workmen.

Tells the Story.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Buy Now and Save Money

We mean your school shoes, as we are giving you special prices on lots of them.

5 to 8, tan or black, 48c

8½ to 11, tan or black, 75c

11½ to 2, tan or black, 98c

Buy at once and save the price of a book.

W. H. GASS, 220 Diamond.

THEY ASK FOR DELAY

Trust Promoters Are Not Yet Ready.

FROM SEPTEMBER TO DECEMBER

It Is Now Proposed to Have the Options Extended, and Manufacturing Potters Manifest a Disposition to Permit the Change at Old Prices.

The combination of American potteries will not be consummated Sept. 28, as so many people in this city have confidently expected.

It will be remembered that the options taken some time ago on the Liverpool potteries extended to Sept. 28, the promoters of the trust being confident they could close the deal at that time. Since then there have been changes, and the trust will not then be a living, moving reality.

The other day the pottery companies whose plants are under option received a letter asking if they would consent to an extension of time until December 31. The reason given was that all potteries in the country could not be brought under the protecting wing of the trust at present, but the extension would greatly facilitate the work.

The NEWS REVIEW can state on authority that there is a disposition in this city to grant the request, and the options will be extended until the last day of the year.

HUNTED AN HOUR

Before He Located the Lady For Whom He Sought.

A good story is being told upon a prominent young man of the city.

A few evenings ago he made an engagement to call upon a young lady of his acquaintance, but not knowing exactly where she lived he carefully hunted up the number of her home. When he arrived at the street he found the numbers of the houses had long since been removed, and after wandering around the street for over an hour he found another lady acquaintance who showed him the house he sought.

CARING FOR MRS. EDDY.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell Have Gone to Yankeesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell, of this city, this morning left for Marietta and from their will drive to Yankeesburg. They will go the home of Mrs. Eddy, whose son died on the transport Mohawk while coming from Santiago to Montauk Point, L. I. Mr. Lessel was the soldiers' brother-in-law, and this morning said that no expense would be spared in the attempts to relieve Mrs. Eddy of her suffering. They will remain there several weeks.

BY REQUEST.

Secretary Sully has been requested to repeat an address on "Job" which he delivered at the Christian church a few weeks ago. He will speak on this subject at the Salvation Army campmeeting at Spring Grove on Sunday afternoon.

Changes at Light Plant.

John Isle, for several months employed at the light plant as an electrician, left last night for Gallipolis. Mr. Young, who superintended the work at the Gallipolis plant, has returned to the city and today resumed his work at the plant in this place.

FOR SALE.

One set of Morgan & Wright bicycle tires. Cheap. Call at News Review.

EATING IN GERMANY.

THE SARCASMS OF A VICTIM WHO SURVIVED ITS CHARMS.

He Kicks All the Way Down the Bill of Fare and Is Particularly Irritated Over a Dish of Powdered Horse Radish Served With Frozen Whipped Cream.

When you have examined the constitution of the German cuisine, you are tempted to grow loquacious. You are conscious of having discovered that the psychology of a nation cannot be constructed upon a mere analysis of its made dishes. Your estimate of Brillat-Savarin sinks. He could not tell you what you are, even from all the menus of your lifetime. Freiligrath's philosophic conclusion that "man is what he eats" you straightway qualify as true only when referring to cannibalism. And you will aver that only in the case of paleolithic man can you construct a man from the crumbs that fall from his dinner table. And this you will want to prove, and consequently will grow talkative with presenting of much evidence.

And yet, in your sane moments, you will have a sneaking affection for the statement that a German is a German because he eats what he eats. As a general rule he may be said to eat five times a day. But his hunger is constantly being stilled.

He starts early in the day with a cup of cafe au lait and a small buttered roll. This keeps him going till 11 o'clock, when he demolishes a slice of buttered rye bread spread with slices of hard boiled egg, raw chopped beef or cheese. This he washes down with a glass of ale, thus stilling his inner man till dinner time. Dinner takes place toward 1 o'clock and consists of soup (generally nourishing), a plate of meat, with potatoes and fruit (cranberries, prunes or apricots), occasionally cheese, seldom sweets, rarely a green vegetable.

Three hours later coffee is taken, served with a piece of cake or thick bread and butter. This is the hour precious to the gossip and the busybody, the time for spreading scandal. Toward 8 o'clock the appetite again asserts itself. The hour of the ubiquitous sausages has arrived. Their name is legion, and they share the honors with slices of ham, smoked goose breast, pieces of raw pickled herring, and in summer hard boiled eggs and potato salad.

Such is the German method of spreading the meals over the day. Of course there are exceptions. Many families have two ample meals a day, but the bulk of the population eats mostly buttered bread and snacks. In justice to Germany one must say that the fare in many a home will compare favorably with that of many an American family.

In the German restaurant the cuisine is on the whole monotonous and the food singularly insipid. All meats seem to have the same flavor, all are served with the same heavy, viscous sauces, and invariably escorted with the same soaplike potatoes. Stodginess and heaviness are the great blots on the German fare. The element of variety, too, seems considered superfluous.

In the concrete the subject is almost too painful to face, the difficulty being to steer clear of exclamations denoting positive offensiveness. Some of the kickshaws which figure regularly upon the German table are reputed to be most sustaining. They certainly are intensely and ostentatiously wonder inspiring.

One preparation is everywhere met with under the name (more or less phonetically spelled) of beefsteak a la tartare. Its basis is raw chopped beef; this, spread out into a pat of elliptical shape, is crowned with the raw yolk of an egg, raw finely chopped onion is sprinkled over it, a garniture of gherkins is added, and the whole is eaten with much gusto and no worse consequences than a durable thirst.

In many of the dishes you discover all the humor, feeling and imagination of a Wagnerian composition. You find the resolute desire to build up harmony upon discord. Of this nature may be considered the traditional menu of New Year's eve, carp, pancake and punch. These three, brought into immediate juxtaposition and consumed in plethoric quantities, generally have the desired effect—that of inducing a hysterical good humor.

For stodginess nothing beats the favorite dish, panache. It consists of pickled pork, sour cabbage and a puree of split peas boiled down to the consistency of stiff dough. Experiments on this mass produce deplorable capers and cause one to grunt mournfully. A variety of this diet is found in Berlin. You substitute boiled balls of dough and indifferent prunes for the peas and cabbage, and you have the dish popularly termed "the Silesian kingdom of heaven." Cold eels, imbedded in a translucid, glutinous substance, figure in all workmen's taverns, while roast goose is de rigueur for all solemnities.

A dainty which we have recently met with in Berlin recalled Darwin's remark that "hardly any experiment is so absurd as not to be worth trying." It consisted of finely powdered horse radish served up with frozen whipped cream.

One may sum up one's judgment by saying of German cooking what the art critic said of nature, "It has infinite potentialities." Not the least of these its ambition to discover victims that survive its charms only in the form that the walls of Jericho survived the trumpet blast of Joshua.—Lippincott's Magazine.

IMPRESSIONS OF PORTO RICO

The Island and Its Inhabitants as Seen by One of General Miles' Staff.

Lieutenant Colonel Arthur S. Wagner, assistant adjutant general, formerly chief of the bureau of military information of the war department, returned to Washington recently from Ponce, Porto Rico, where he has been with the staff of General Miles. From the time he landed with Miles' army near Ponce, Porto Rico, until he left the island, Colonel Wagner said, the heartiness with which the mass of Porto Ricans welcomed the advent of the American troops was an impressive fact.

"The manner in which the Porto Ricans welcomed the army with bananas, cocoanuts, bouquets and cigars seems amusing here," he said, "but it was evident to us in Porto Rico that the offerings were sincere tributes and not indicative of a fickle temperament among the people. When one realizes the fact that they have been obliged to pay a tax of $8 on a barrel of flour, making the price $35, Porto Rican money, or $17 in United States currency, it is not hard to believe that they are glad to be relieved from Spanish oppression. Two or three mayors of towns in signing papers of allegiance voluntarily added "U. S. A." to the name of the town and of the island, and they seemed proud of it too. When I was ill with malarial fever, a native physician, remarkably well educated and cultured, attended me. He remarked one day, as he used a physician's thermometer, that he had nothing but a centigrade scale, but since he had become an American citizen he must get a Fahrenheit. When I got well, I asked him for my bill, but he declined any compensation for his services, assuring me that he was glad to do anything for American officers.

"A house where I had lodgings while in Ponce was the residence of a very intelligent native lady and her daughter. The lady talked very enthusiastically about the prospects of American sovereignty in Porto Rico, and her daughter discussed the evils of Spanish rule in the island in a way which showed that she had a very good idea of the former government and its effect upon the oppressed people of Porto Rico. These incidents are a few of the many which came to my notice during General Miles' campaign, and I reached the gratifying conclusion that Porto Rico would be a very desirable possession for the United States, and that the people generally would be good citizens. The most inferior part of the native population is very inferior indeed, but the more intelligent people are numerous enough to dominate the masses and give a general character to the inhabitants."—New York Sun.

PHILIPPINE LABOR PROBLEM

Only Eastern Race That Can Solve It Said to Be the Chinese.

A labor question will face the ruler of the Philippines very early, and ther is only one eastern race that can solv it. The Spaniards recognized the fact long ago, but the priest disliked the Chinaman because he was so irreligious. Honest Juan de la Concepcion records that in 1662, when there was a pretty general massacre of the Mongols—who were incited to rebellion with that very object—"the original intention of the Spaniards was to kill every Chinaman," but they desisted from the wholesale slaughter, "in view of the inconvenience which would have ensued from the want of tradesmen and merchants." Just 60 years before there had been a massacre of the Chinese, one of many, which brought serious consequences, for when the Celestials were extirpated, or nearly so, it was found that they were "the only industrious, skillful, wealth producing portion of the population." They are so today, and for that reason one anticipates that the experience of Singapore will be repeated at Manila.

Your lazy Malay will recede before the Mongol, who has served an apprenticeship of 60 generations to labor and can do everything. I shall never forget standing on a hill overlooking Kiao-Chau bay, the new German possession, and seeing what Chinese industry can effect. The view embraced perhaps ten square miles of rugged country, deeply scored by mountain torrents. Wherever a few yards, in some cases no larger than a kitchen floor, could be terraced out of the ravine or side of the hillock, it was done, and the whole landscape was like a garden for perfect tillage. These are the people who will make an earthly paradise of the Philippines, not the dolce far niente, indolent natives. A curious turning of the tables if the Americans should invite the Celestials to quit the Pacific slope for Luzon and Mindanao!—London Telegraph.

Coffee In the Hawaiian Islands.

Coffee is now being produced in considerable quantities in the Hawaiian Islands. Consul General Haywood expresses the opinion that the amount may be greatly increased with profit to those undertaking it. The number of coffee plantations is now between 200 and 300. The sum required to enter successfully upon coffee producing is from $5,000 to $30,000, and the Hawaiian foreign office estimates that the money so invested will be repaid to the investors with more than 100 per cent interest at the end of seven years from the establishment of the plantation.

During the visit of Li Hung Chang, the "Grand Old Man of China," to this country, the New York Sun said of him: "He is a large, strong, impressive specimen of manhood. He has a massive frame, a shapely head, a commanding face and well posed features. He is a keen observant of mankind, of life and of things. He is seventy-four years of age and still in the hey-day of his power."

If a Chinaman, usually regarded by us as a barbarian, can live to a healthy, hale old age, why cannot Americans, with their more advanced civilization, do the same? The reporters discovered during Li Hung Chang's stay in this country, that he took every thought for his health. He lived upon the simplest of diets and never passed a day without consulting his physician. He limited his toil to a reasonable number of hours, and would not deviate from his rule in this matter. American men follow just the opposite practice. They work to the limit of endurance, will not even take the proper time for eating, resting and sleeping, and never think of their health until it is gone. There is a wonderful medicine for hard-working men. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It takes the place of a physician. It keeps away ill-health and restores health when it is lost. It is the great appetite sharpener, blood-maker and flesh-builder. It makes the digestion perfect, the liver active and the blood pure and rich. Medicine dealers sell it.

"My husband had been a robust young man," writes Mrs. M. J. Tedder, of Ellington, Reynolds Co., Mo. "When he was 31 years old he began to cough very hard. He had pains through his chest and lungs. His mother and the rest of his family had died with consumption. He continued to cough every winter, until in 1883 he had an attack of pneumonia. His cough grew worse and worse. He would vomit immediately after his meals. In 1888 he coughed night and day. He was getting very weak and had no appetite. He commenced Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' He improved. His appetite got better. When he had taken seven bottles he looked like a new man and felt like a new person. He weighs more than he ever weighed before. He gained twenty-eight pounds and is cured."

SPEAK OUT.

The Search-Light of Publicity is Pleasing East Liverpool People.

Publicity is what the people want.
Let the public speak on the subject.
There has been too much claim—too little proof.
Claims made by strangers are not proof.
Claims endorsed by strangers are not proof.
There is only one kind of proof for an East Liverpool citizen.
The experience of people we know.
When friends and neighbors endorse,
Make public statements of their case,
There can be no question about such evidence.
This is the proof we have,
Which backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.
No other kidney pills, no other kidney remedy,
Can produce such proof.
Here is one case of the many we have:

Mrs. Henry Bevington, who resides at the corner of Avondale and Shaw avenue, says: "During three years I was troubled with my kidneys, having a dull steady aching pain in the back. When stooping over or sitting for some time it would change to quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long and I often had headaches, dizziness and in the morning great depression. I took medicines, many of them, but found Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at W. & W. Pharmacy to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I ever tried. I had no trouble with my back, did not have the headache as I did, rested well, felt refreshed in the morning and got up earlier than I did before taking them. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for my better health and advise others to use them, as I am sure they will find them up to their representation."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

MADE ME A MAN

AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE ALL Nervous Diseases—Failing Memory, Impotency, Sleeplessness, etc., caused by Abuse or other Excesses and Indiscretions. They quickly and surely restore Lost Vitality in old or young, and fit a man for study, business or marriage. Prevent Insanity and Consumption if taken in time. Their use shows immediate improvement and effects a CURE where all other fail. Insist upon having the genuine Ajax Tablets. They have cured thousands and will cure you. We give a positive written guarantee to effect a cure 50 CTS. in each case or refund the money. Price per package; or six pkges (full treatment) for $2.50. By mail, in plain wrapper, upon receipt of price. Circular free. AJAX REMEDY CO., 79 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

For sale in East Liverpool, Ohio, by John I Hodson and the W. & W. Pharmacy.

Close Figuring on Warships' Sea Speed.

The navy department officials at Washington made close calculations upon the time the warships would arrive at New York for the naval pageant of Aug. 20. In announcing the hour at which the parade would take place up North river they calculated the time it would take the fleet to come from Santiago and the preciseness with which the programme was carried out as to time shows how accurately they can measure the time required for warships to cover a certain distance.—New York World.

The trade between Japan and Formosa has more than quintupled since 1895.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything.

From an Election Sticker to a 3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE
COLOR PRINTING,
ART CATALOGUES,
EMBOSSING,
HALF TONE WORK,
IM. LITHOGRAPHY,
IM. TYPE WRITER,
&c., &c., &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING, TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES
CARDS,
LETTER HEADS,
INVOICE SHEETS,
INVITATIONS,
FOLDERS,
CIRCULARS,
BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages, Fine Equipment, Artistic Workmen.

Tells the Story.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Buy Now and Save Money

We mean your school shoes, as we are giving you special prices on lots of them.

5 to 8, tan or black, 48c

8½ to 11, tan or black, 75c

11½ to 2, tan or black, 98c

Buy at once and save the price of a book.

W. H. GASS, 220 Diamond.

THEY ASK FOR DELAY

Trust Promoters Are Not Yet Ready.

FROM SEPTEMBER TO DECEMBER

It Is Now Proposed to Have the Options Extended, and Manufacturing Potters Manifest a Disposition to Permit the Change at Old Prices.

The combination of American potteries will not be consummated Sept. 28, as so many people in this city have confidently expected.

It will be remembered that the options taken some time ago on the Liverpool potteries extended to Sept. 28, the promoters of the trust being confident they could close the deal at that time. Since then there have been changes, and the trust will not then be a living, moving reality.

The other day the pottery companies whose plants are under option received a letter asking if they would consent to an extension of time until December 31. The reason given was that all potteries in the country could not be brought under the protecting wing of the trust at present, but the extension would greatly facilitate the work.

The NEWS REVIEW can state on authority that there is a disposition in this city to grant the request, and the options will be extended until the last day of the year.

HUNTED AN HOUR

Before He Located the Lady For Whom He Sought.

A good story is being told upon a prominent young man of the city.

A few evenings ago he made an engagement to call upon a young lady of his acquaintance, but not knowing exactly where she lived he carefully hunted up the number of her home. When he arrived at the street he found the numbers of the houses had long since been removed, and after wandering around the street for over an hour he found another lady acquaintance who showed him the house he sought.

CARING FOR MRS. EDDY.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell Have Gone to Yankeesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell, of this city, this morning left for Marietta and from their will drive to Yankeesburg. They will go the home of Mrs. Eddy, whose son died on the transport Mohawk while coming from Santiago to Montauk Point, L. I. Mr. Lessel was the soldiers' brother-in-law, and this morning said that no expense would be spared in the attempts to relieve Mrs. Eddy of her suffering. They will remain there several weeks.

BY REQUEST.

Secretary Sully has been requested to repeat an address on "Job" which he delivered at the Christian church a few weeks ago. He will speak on this subject at the Salvation Army camp-meeting at Spring Grove on Sunday afternoon.

Changes at Light Plant.

John Isle, for several months employed at the light plant as an electrician, left last night for Gallipolis. Mr. Young, who superintended the work at the Gallipolis plant, has returned to the city and today resumed his work at the plant in this place.

FOR SALE.

One set of Morgan & Wright bicycle tires. Cheap. Call at News Review.

EATING IN GERMANY.

THE SARCASMS OF A VICTIM WHO SURVIVED ITS CHARMS.

He Kicks All the Way Down the Bill of Fare and Is Particularly Irritated Over a Dish of Powdered Horse Radish Served With Frozen Whipped Cream.

When you have examined the constitution of the German cuisine, you are tempted to grow loquacious. You are conscious of having discovered that the psychology of a nation cannot be constructed upon a mere analysis of its made dishes. Your estimate of Brillat-Savarin sinks. He could not tell you what you are, even from all the menus of your lifetime. Freiligrath's philosophic conclusion that "man is what he eats" you straightway qualify as true only when referring to cannibalism. And you will aver that only in the case of paleolithic man can you construct a man from the crumbs that fall from his dinner table. And this you will want to prove, and consequently will grow talkative with presenting of much evidence.

And yet, in your sane moments, you will have a sneaking affection for the statement that a German is a German because he eats what he eats. As a general rule he may be said to eat five times a day. But his hunger is constantly being stilled.

He starts early in the day with a cup of cafe au lait and a small buttered roll. This keeps him going till 11 o'clock, when he demolishes a slice of buttered rye bread spread with slices of hard boiled egg, raw chopped beef or cheese. This he washes down with a glass of ale, thus stilling his inner man till dinner time. Dinner takes place toward 1 o'clock and consists of soup (generally nourishing), a plate of meat, with potatoes and fruit (cranberries, prunes or apricots), occasionally cheese, seldom sweets, rarely a green vegetable.

Three hours later coffee is taken, served with a piece of cake or thick bread and butter. This is the hour precious to the gossip and the busybody, the time for spreading scandal. Toward 8 o'clock the appetite again asserts itself. The hour of the ubiquitous sausages has arrived. Their name is legion, and they share the honors with slices of ham, smoked goose breast, pieces of raw pickled herring, and in summer hard boiled eggs and potato salad.

Such is the German method of spreading the meals over the day. Of course there are exceptions. Many families have two ample meals a day, but the bulk of the population eats mostly buttered bread and snacks. In justice to Germany one must say that the fare in many a home will compare favorably with that of many an American family.

In the German restaurant the cuisine is on the whole monotonous and the food singularly insipid. All meats seem to have the same flavor, all are served with the same heavy, viscous sauces, and invariably escorted with the same soaplike potatoes. Stodginess and heaviness are the great blots on the German fare. The element of variety, too, seems considered superfluous.

In the concrete the subject is almost too painful to face, the difficulty being to steer clear of exclamations denoting positive offensiveness. Some of the kickshaws which figure regularly upon the German table are reputed to be most sustaining. They certainly are intensely and ostentatiously wonder inspiring.

One preparation is everywhere met with under the name (more or less phonetically spelled) of beefsteak a la tartare. Its basis is raw chopped beef; this, spread out into a pat of elliptical shape, is crowned with the raw yolk of an egg, raw finely chopped onion is sprinkled over it, a garniture of gherkins is added, and the whole is eaten with much gusto and no worse consequences than a durable thirst.

In many of the dishes you discover all the humor, feeling and imagination of a Wagnerian composition. You find the resolute desire to build up harmony upon discord. Of this nature may be considered the traditional menu of New Year's eve, carp, pancake and punch. These three, brought into immediate juxtaposition and consumed in plethoric quantities, generally have the desired effect—that of inducing a hysterical good humor.

For stodginess nothing beats the favorite dish, panache. It consists of pickled pork, sour cabbage and a puree of split peas boiled down to the consistency of stiff dough. Experiments on this mass produce deplorable capers and cause one to grunt mournfully. A variety of this diet is found in Berlin. You substitute boiled balls of dough and indifferent prunes for the peas and cabbage, and you have the dish popularly termed "the Silesian kingdom of heaven." Cold eels, imbedded in a translucid, glutinous substance, figure in all workmen's taverns, while roast goose is de rigueur for all solemnities.

A dainty which we have recently met with in Berlin recalled Darwin's remark that "hardly any experiment is so absurd as not to be worth trying." It consisted of finely powdered horse radish served up with frozen whipped cream.

One may sum up one's judgment by saying of German cooking what the art critic said of nature, "It has infinite potentialities." Not the least of these is its ambition to discover victims that survive its charms only in the form that the walls of Jericho survived the trumpet blast of Joshua.—Lippincott's Magazine.

IMPRESSIONS OF PORTO RICO

The Island and Its Inhabitants as Seen by One of General Miles' Staff.

Lieutenant Colonel Arthur S. Wagner, assistant adjutant general, formerly chief of the bureau of military information of the war department, returned to Washington recently from Ponce, Porto Rico, where he has been with the staff of General Miles. From the time he landed with Miles' army near Ponce, Porto Rico, until he left the island, Colonel Wagner said, the heartiness with which the mass of Porto Ricans welcomed the advent of the American troops was an impressive fact.

"The manner in which the Porto Ricans welcomed the army with bananas, cocoanuts, bouquets and cigars seems amusing here," he said, "but it was evident to us in Porto Rico that the offerings were sincere tributes and not indicative of a fickle temperament among the people. When one realizes the fact that they have been obliged to pay a tax of $8 on a barrel of flour, making the price $35, Porto Rican money, or $17 in United States currency, it is not hard to believe that they are glad to be relieved from Spanish oppression. Two or three mayors of towns in signing papers of allegiance voluntarily added "U. S. A." to the name of the town and of the island, and they seemed proud of it too. When I was ill with malarial fever, a native physician, remarkably well educated and cultured, attended me. He remarked one day, as he used a physician's thermometer, that he had nothing but a centigrade scale, but since he had become an American citizen he must get a Fahrenheit. When I got well, I asked him for my bill, but he declined any compensation for his services, assuring me that he was glad to do anything for American officers.

"A house where I had lodgings while in Ponce was the residence of a very intelligent native lady and her daughter. The lady talked very enthusiastically about the prospects of American sovereignty in Porto Rico, and her daughter discussed the evils of Spanish rule in the island in a way which showed that she had a very good idea of the former government and its effect upon the oppressed people of Porto Rico. These incidents are a few of the many which came to my notice during General Miles' campaign, and I reached the gratifying conclusion that Porto Rico would be a very desirable possession for the United States, and that the people generally would be good citizens. The most inferior part of the native population is very inferior indeed, but the more intelligent people are numerous enough to dominate the masses and give a general character to the inhabitants."—New York Sun.

PHILIPPINE LABOR PROBLEM

Only Eastern Race That Can Solve It Said to Be the Chinese.

A labor question will face the ruler of the Philippines very early, and ther is only one eastern race that can solv it. The Spaniards recognized the fact long ago, but the priest disliked the Chinaman because he was so irreligious. Honest Juan de la Concepcion records that in 1662, when there was a pretty general massacre of the Mongols—who were incited to rebellion with that very object—"the original intention of the Spaniards was to kill every Chinaman," but they desisted from the wholesale slaughter, "in view of the inconvenience which would have ensued from the want of tradesmen and merchants." Just 60 years before there had been a massacre of the Chinese, one of many, which brought serious consequences, for when the Celestials were extirpated, or nearly so, it was found that they were "the only industrious, skillful, wealth producing portion of the population." They are so today, and for that reason one anticipates that the experience of Singapore will be repeated at Manila.

Your lazy Malay will recede before the Mongol, who has served an apprenticeship of 60 generations to labor and can do everything. I shall never forget standing on a hill overlooking Kiao-Chau bay, the new German possession, and seeing what Chinese industry can effect. The view embraced perhaps ten square miles of rugged country, deeply scored by mountain torrents. Wherever a few yards, in some cases no larger than a kitchen floor, could be terraced out of the ravine or side of the hillock, it was done, and the whole landscape was like a garden for perfect tillage. These are the people who will make an earthly paradise of the Philippines, not the dolce far niente, indolent natives. A curious turning of the tables if the Americans should invite the Celestials to quit the Pacific slope for Luzon and Mindanao!—London Telegraph.

Coffee In the Hawaiian Islands.

Coffee is now being produced in considerable quantities in the Hawaiian Islands. Consul General Haywood expresses the opinion that the amount may be greatly increased with profit to those undertaking it. The number of coffee plantations is now between 200 and 300. The sum required to enter successfully upon coffee producing is from $5,000 to $20,000, and the Hawaiian foreign office estimates that the money so invested will be repaid to the investors with more than 100 per cent interest at the end of seven years from the establishment of the plantation.

Close Figuring on Warships' Sea Speed.

The navy department officials at Washington made close calculations upon the time the warships would arrive at New York for the naval pageant of Aug. 20. In announcing the hour at which the parade would take place up North river they calculated the time it would take the fleet to come from Santiago and the preciseness with which the programme was carried out as to time shows how accurately they can measure the time required for warships to cover a certain distance.—New York World.

The trade between Japan and Formosa has more than quintupled since 1895.

During the visit of Li Hung Chang, the "Grand Old Man of China," to this country, the New York Sun said of him: "He is a large, strong, impressive specimen of manhood. He has a massive frame, a shapely head, a commanding face and well posed features. He is a keen observant of mankind, of life and of things. He is seventy-four years of age and still in the hey-day of his power."

If a Chinaman, usually regarded by us as a barbarian, can live to a healthy, hale old age, why cannot Americans, with their more advanced civilization, do the same? The reporters discovered during Li Hung Chang's stay in this country, that he took every thought for his health. He lived upon the simplest of diets and never passed a day without consulting his physician. He limited his toil to a reasonable number of hours, and would not deviate from his rule in this matter. American men follow just the opposite practice. They work to the limit of endurance, will not even take the proper time for eating, resting and sleeping, and never think of their health until it is gone. There is a wonderful medicine for hard-working men. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It takes the place of a physician. It keeps away ill-health and restores health when it is lost. It is the great appetite sharpener, blood-maker and flesh-builder. It makes the digestion perfect, the liver active and the blood pure and rich. Medicine dealers sell it.

"My husband had been a robust young man," writes Mrs. M. J. Tedder, of Ellington, Reynolds Co., Mo. "When he was 31 years old he began to cough very hard. He had pains through his chest and lungs. His mother and the rest of his family had died with consumption. He continued to cough every winter, until in 1883 he had an attack of pneumonia. His cough grew worse and worse. He would vomit immediately after his meals. In 1888 he coughed night and day. He was getting very weak and had no appetite. He commenced Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' He improved. His appetite got better. When he had taken seven bottles he looked like a new man and felt like a new person. He weighs more than he ever weighed before. He gained twenty-eight pounds and is cured."

SPEAK OUT.

The Search-Light of Publicity is Pleasing East Liverpool People.

Publicity is what the people want.
Let the public speak on the subject.
There has been too much claim—too little proof.
Claims made by strangers are not proof.
Claims endorsed by strangers are not proof.
There is only one kind of proof for an East Liverpool citizen.
The experience of people we know.
When friends and neighbors endorse,
Make public statements of their case,
There can be no question about such evidence.
This is the proof we have,
Which backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.
No other kidney pills, no other kidney remedy,
Can produce such proof.
Here is one case of the many we have:

Mrs. Henry Bevington, who resides at the corner of Avondale and Shaw avenue, says: "During three years I was troubled with my kidneys, having a dull steady aching pain in the back. When stooping over or sitting for some time it would change to quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long and I often had headaches, dizziness and in the morning great depression. I took medicines, many of them, but found Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at W. & W. Pharmacy to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I ever tried. I had no trouble with my back, did not have the headache as I did, rested well, felt refreshed in the morning and got up earlier than I did before taking them. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for my better health and advise others to use them, as I am sure they will find them up to their representation."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

MADE ME A MAN

AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE ALL Nervous Diseases—Failing Memory, Impotency, Sleeplessness, etc., caused by Abuse or other Excesses and Indiscretions. They quickly and surely restore Lost Vitality in old or young, and fit a man for study, business or marriage. Prevent Insanity and Consumption if taken in time. Their use shows immediate improvement and effects a CURE where all other fail. Insist upon having the genuine Ajax Tablets. They have cured thousands and will cure you. We give a positive written guarantee to effect a cure in each case or refund the money. Price 50 CTS. per package; or six pkges (full treatment) for $2.50. By mail, in plain wrapper, upon receipt of price Circular free. AJAX REMEDY CO., 79 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

For sale in East Liverpool, Ohio, by John I Hodson and the W. & W. Pharmacy.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything.

From an Election Sticker

to a

3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE
COLOR PRINTING,
ART CATALOGUES,
EMBOSSING,
HALF TONE WORK,
IM. LITHOGRAPHY,
IM. TYPE WRITER,
&c., &c., &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING, TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES
CARDS,
LETTER HEADS,
INVOICE SHEETS,
INVITATIONS,
FOLDERS,
CIRCULARS,
BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages,
Fine Equipment,
Artistic Workmen.

Tells the Story.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

WELLSVILLE.

JULIA DENNIS FINED

But Not Until There Had Been a Very Warm Time.

LIVERPOOL MAN WAS IN IT

He Interrupted and Was Brought Up In a Hurry—Grace Taylor Was Also a Victim, But Molly Did Not Appear—All the News of Wellsville.

There was a warm time in police court last night when Julia Dennis, Grace Taylor and a Mr. Keenan were tried as a result of the raid Monday night. The police have been watching the place since July 3, and were at last successful. The courtroom was crowded, many persons present being friends of the defendants.

Julia Dennis plead not guilty and Mrs. Pech, Mrs. Sheckler, Mrs. Woods and Z. Whitaker testified for her, and Officers Winn and Madden, Sadie Geisse and Dot Brown told their story for the city. When Officer Winn was asked to give the names of the men he had seen going to the house there was a brethless silence, but Solicitor Wells told him he did not have to tell. Dot Brown said white and colored men frequented the house, and Keenan interrupted with the remark that she ought to know. Mayor Dennis promptly called him to order with the remark that his place was down below.

Keenan was next called, and plead guilty to loitering. The mayor fined him $20 and costs, and if the amount is not paid he will go to Canton. Another charge of furnishing liquor to minors will be entered today.

Grace Taylor, a visitor at the place, also plead guilty and got $5 and costs.

The News of Wellsville.

Repairs have been made on the paved street next to the platform at the upper depot. The sinking of the pavement was caused by the high waters.

D. K. Roller, of Salem, was in town yesterday.

The condition of the gutter at the corner of Third and Main street is such that the health officer should order it cleaned immediately.

Last night was the regular meeting night of the board of health. Members of the board assembled but they found themselves forestalled by the progress of Mayor Dennis's court. The meeting will be held next Tuesday.

Prof. J. L. McDonald's time as school examiner having expired today Judge Boone appointed him for another term.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Krause and Mr. Cornelius Horrigan, of Irondale, took place at the church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Horrigan are very popular among a large circle of friends. They will reside in Irondale.

S. S. Cope went out to Hammondsville on the morning train on business.

Mrs. W. G. Bright, of Bridgeport, is visiting relatives.

Miss Ella Collins, of Allegheny, is visiting E. S. Kelley, Main street.

E. S. Kelley moved in from Spring Grove today.

H. C. Cooper has returned from Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he spent three weeks. On his return trip he took a cold which has kept him closely in the house from Monday until this morning.

Frank R. Mills, of Beaver Falls, Pa., was in town yesterday.

Will R. Stark, of Steubenville, James P. Davis, of Dellroy, were in town on business yesterday.

There were 94 tickets sold at the upper depot yesterday for the excursion to Cascade park.

Capt. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., brother of our townsman, B. D. Beacome, has been raised to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

W. F. Blackburn and family have returned from their sojourn at Hollow Rock camp ground.

Miss Olive Torrance, of Lisbon, is visiting the family of Mrs. M. Bowers, Broadway.

Mrs. W. C. Bunting returned last night from Hollow Rock camp ground.

C. E. Zimmer, Homer Wells' efficient clerk, arrived home last night from a three-weeks' vacation among friends in Muskingum county.

Mrs. Julius Goetz has returned from Pittsburg.

Mrs. Kirk, who has been visiting her daughter in Center street, returned to her home in Salineville yesterday.

Two men were arrested last night, and this morning were taken before Squire Haney on a charge of illegal train riding. They were assessed the usual amount for the ride.

STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE.

A Mountaineer Who Highly Appreciated Really Good Cooking.

As a rule the mountaineer of Kentucky is not a gastronomic connoisseur, and the visitor at his table is quite as likely to hear dried apples referred to as "fruit" as he is to find any other kind of fruit on the table. Occasionally, however, one of them is sufficiently fortunate to get away from his fastnesses, and living temporarily down in the blue grass has an opportunity to acquire some virtues not otherwise obtainable. It was such a one I caught up with one morning in June along the ridge of the Cumberlands.

"I'm looking for a place," I said after a few preliminaries, "where I can stop for a week or so while I look up some timber I have in this neighborhood. Do you know of any?"

"There ain't much uv that sort around here," he replied, "exceptin you go to Mount Pleasant, an I reckon that's too fer. But hol' on," he broke in with a sudden thought, "thar's the Widder Tackett. She axed me yistidy to see some uv you folks at the mill and tell 'em she had a place to sleep and eat two er three men ef they wuzn't too pertickler."

"Is it a pretty good place?" I inquired thoughtlessly.

The young man's face flushed.

"Well, I reckon," he said with some emphasis. "She's goin to be my mother-in-law come next September."

"Oh, I beg your pardon," I hastened to explain. "I only asked to know if she had good eating. Some of that we get in private houses even in the cities, you know, is not the best in the world."

"Cities be derned," he said with a fine feeling. "Yer ain't never tried the Widder Tackett's pie yet, mister, an yer want to keep still till yer do. Ain't nothin like it nowhere, no matter what kind uv a pie she sets afore yer. It's all ne plusibus unum, an no mistake. Why, I'm tellin you that I sot down to one uv her pies last week, dern ef I recomember what kind it wuz, ef I ever knowed, an I wuz eatin right into it like a hot shovel goin into a snow pile, an Bill Rogers acrost the table frum me called me a liar, an I never said a dern word to him tell I had plum e't my pie and got my teeth picked. Dern my buttons ef I did, colonel."

I did not like to inquire further into the mystery of what happened to Mr. Rogers after the last taste of the pie was safely housed by my informant, but I made a fair guess and went on to see the Widow Tackett concerning board and lodging for one man for one week. —Washington Star.

Banana Flour.

The next dietetic fad is going to be banana flour. Manufacturers are experimenting in this direction and promise soon a meal that will keep as long as wheat flour and make a much more nutritious bread. As already the craze for whole wheat flour is passing, this new albumen will undoubtedly meet a quick welcome when it comes. The use of the banana has developed its great value as an article of food, and the great army of banana consumers are prepared to accept eagerly its further development.—New York Post.

Saved by General Anderson.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—General Aguinaldo has courtmartialed the offenders in the Cavite affray and they were sentenced to death, but it is reported that they were afterward reprieved at the request of General Anderson.

Erie Hospital Willing to Help.

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 31.—St. Vincent's hospital of this city is willing to care for 20 of Pennsylvania's sick soldiers. The tender was wired to Governor Hastings yesterday morning.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

The season for canning Fruits and Vegetables is now at hand, and judging from indications there will be an abundant crop. We take great pleasure in offering to you a complete line of fresh and pure Spices ground by our own mills. (We are the only retail dealers in the Ohio valley who owns and operates their own spice mill.)

We are in a position to supply you with Superior Glass Jars, extra Caps and Rings, Jelly Tumblers and Sealing Wax at prices that defy competition.

PRICE LIST.

Mason Jars, quarts, per doz	50c
Mason Jars, pints, per doz	45c
Jelly Tumblers, per doz	20c
Covered Tumblers, per doz	20c
Porcelined Caps and Rings per doz	20c
Gum Rings, per doz	5c
Crystal Sealing Wax, 2 packages	5c
Standard Package Coffee, per lb	10c
Choice Salmon, per can	10c
Eagle Mustard Sardines, 4 cans	25c
Oil Sardines, 6 cans	25c
Freshed Rolled Oats, 7 pounds	25c
Fresh Lunch Cakes, per pound	8c
Fresh Lemon Cakes, per pound	8c

—SUGAR AWAY DOWN—

Our London Mixed Tea Has No Equal.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

We Lead,

Let Those Who Can Follow.

STORY OF A HAT.

Revealing the Secret of Its Two Trips Around a Table.

A number of literary men were at one time gathered in a well known chophouse in New York. The conversation was of course brilliant, and the repartee sparkled with mirth and wit. During a lull in the talk the door slowly opened, and an old southern darky, grizzled with age, poked his head in and then slowly drew his body in after him. A waiter started to eject him, when one of the gentlemen cried:

"Wait a moment. Let's see what the old boy wants."

The darky bobbed up to the table where this gentleman sat and held out his hat. Throwing a wink to his neighbors, the gentleman took the hat and, making a show of placing something into it, passed it on to the next man, who did likewise. The hat made a tour of the room, to the puzzled wonder of the darky. The last to receive it solemnly handed it back with a polite bow, saying:

"There, sir, don't you think you have something to be thankful for?"

The old darky looked solemnly around the company and, mechanically taking the hat, he said:

"Gen'men, I'ze indeed glad dat I got eben de hat back!"

The reply was so thoroughly enjoyed by the company that the darky left the place a much richer man than when he had entered it.—Kansas City World.

The Country's Call.

When you heard the country callin—so she wasn't callin soft—
Thar warn't no man a-hidin in the old time fodder loft;
Thar wuz patriots by the dozens,
All ye'r brothers an ye'r cousins,
But 'twuz hard work gittin in the army!

They were crowdin fer recruitin from all corners of the states,
They were jumpin of the fences, they were climbin of the gates!
But, with privates by the million
And with colonels by the billion
It was hard work gittin in the army!

BADGES FOR LABOR DAY.

The News Review job department is ready to turn out promptly the finest line of badges for Labor day ever seen in the city. Unions desiring good work can get it at the News Review.

WANTED.

WANTED—Cloak and millinery sales ladies. Must be experienced. Address giving reference and full particulars P. O., box 33, East Liverpool.

WANTED--Have several inquiries for small farms. Send full particulars and terms. E. C. Curry, 205 Walnut street.

WANTED--Two experienced ware dressers. Apply at Globe pottery.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE--Four room house and lot, 92x90, at Woodlawn avenue and St. John street, near Sheridan avenue. Price $2,700. Apply to J. P. Hanlon, 315 Lincoln avenue.

The Ohio Valley Business College

Gives a bread winning education. School rooms newly furnished throughout.

Fall Opening,

Tuesday, Sept. 6, 1898.

DAY AND EVENING SCHOOL.

J. F. COOPER,

President.

ELECTRICITY!

THE OHIO ELECTRIC CO.

Is prepared to furnish anything in the electric line, from a complete plant down to the smallest article, such as Dynamos, Motors, Gas Engines, Switch Boards, Electric Bells, Annunciators, Electric Alarms, Batteries, etc. High grade goods and first-class work.

J. A. SWANEY.

Telephone 130-3.

TREETS ASSESSMENT NOTICE

STREET improvement and sewer assessments, for 1898, are due and payable at the office of the city clerk, city hall, on or before September 1st, 1898. All assessments unpaid at that date will be certified to the county auditor and collected with the addition of 10 per cent. penalty, as provided by law.

By order of Council,

J. N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

Money to Loan

IN ANY SUM FROM

$100 TO $10,000,

on easy payment and low rate of interest Full particulars at the

POTTERS' BUILDING & SAVINGS COMPANY

Corner Fifth and Washington Streets.

STAR BargainStore

IN FULL FORCE.

OUR Great Sale is in full force yet, and we are going to make still deeper cuts in Summer Goods to close them out. Read the following examples of what we have in store for you:

Shirt Waists.

Every one to be cleaned out quick. One lot of 50 and 75c waists for 23e.

All 75c and $1 waists for 43c

$1.25 and $1.50 waist; your choice for 65c.

New white waist, with insertion, for 98c.

Light Wrappers to Go.

$1.25 light wrappers for 65c.

Your choice of our best light wrappers for 98c.

Ladies' Furnishings.

12½c oxblood hose for 5c.
20c ribbed hose for 12½c.
12½c ribbed vest for 7½c.
45c gowns for 29c.
75c gowns for 49c.
$1 gowns for 63c.
$1.19 gowns for 75c.

All our high priced gowns at great reduced prices.

Great bargains in muslin and satin skirts.

Umbrella drawers for 19c.
50c drawers for 35c.
75c high bust corsets, with shoulder straps, for 47c.

Men's Furnishings.

50c white neckband shirts for 29c.

Light and dark shirts, worth 39c for 25e.

35c ties for 12½c.
50c ties for 25c.
25c suspenders for 15c.

Boys' wash suits at away down prices.

Wash Goods.

The balance of our wash goods at still greater reduced prices.

One lot at 4c a yard.

One lot of light and dark lawns and organdies, 15 and 19c qualities, for 6½e.

35c French organdies for 15c.
10c madras for 5c.
12½ dress ginghams for 7½c.

Silks and Dress Goods

15c plaid for 9c.

40c light dress goods, just the thing for children's school dresses, for 19c.

60 and 75c light dress goods for 25c.

50c printed India silks for 25c.
50c printed India silks for 25c.
$1 plaid silks for 59c.
$1.25 plaid and check silks for 59c.

Black silk and satin at greatly reduced prices.

Miscellaneous.

One lot of belts for 5c.

One lot of ladies' bow ties for 10c.

25 and 50c puffs for 12½c.
40 inch muslin for 4½c.
9c lonsdale muslin for 6¾c
60c unbleached damask for 42½c.
Large size towels for 4c.
20c towels for 12½c.
6c crash for 3½c.
8c linen barred crash for 5c.

Fall Dress Goods.

Our new fall dress goods are coming in daily, and we are selling a good deal of it now. We will be pleased to show you our line bofore buying, and we feel certain that we can please you in style and price. Our line of black goods is especially very strong.

STAR BargainStore

138 and 140 Fifth Street.

WELLSVILLE.

JULIA DENNIS FINED

But Not Until There Had Been a Very Warm Time.

LIVERPOOL MAN WAS IN IT

He Interrupted and Was Brought Up In a Hurry—Grace Taylor Was Also a Victim, But Molly Did Not Appear—All the News of Wellsville.

There was a warm time in police court last night when Julia Dennis, Grace Taylor and a Mr. Keenan were tried as a result of the raid Monday night. The police have been watching the place since July 3, and were at last successful. The courtroom was crowded, many persons present being friends of the defendants.

Julia Dennis plead not guilty and Mrs. Pech, Mrs. Sheckler, Mrs. Woods and Z. Whitaker testified for her, and Officers Winn and Madden, Sadie Geisse and Dot Brown told their story for the city. When Officer Winn was asked to give the names of the men he had seen going to the house there was a brethless silence, but Solicitor Wells told him he did not have to tell. Dot Brown said white and colored men frequented the house, and Keenan interrupted with the remark that she ought to know. Mayor Dennis promptly called him to order with the remark that his place was down below.

Keenan was next called, and plead guilty to loitering. The mayor fined him $20 and costs, and if the amount is not paid he will go to Canton. Another charge of furnishing liquor to minors will be entered today.

Grace Taylor, a visitor at the place, also plead guilty and got $5 and costs.

The News of Wellsville.

Repairs have been made on the paved street next to the platform at the upper depot. The sinking of the pavement was caused by the high waters.

D. K. Roller, of Salem, was in town yesterday.

The condition of the gutter at the corner of Third and Main street is such that the health officer should order it cleaned immediately.

Last night was the regular meeting night of the board of health. Members of the board assembled but they found themselves forestalled by the progress of Mayor Dennis's court. The meeting will be held next Tuesday.

Prof. J. L. McDonald's time as school examiner having expired today Judge Boone appointed him for another term.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Krause and Mr. Cornelius Horrigan, of Irondale, took place at the church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Horrigan are very popular among a large circle of friends. They will reside in Irondale.

S. S. Cope went out to Hammondsville on the morning train on business.

Mrs. W. G. Bright, of Bridgeport, is visiting relatives.

Miss Ella Collins, of Allegheny, is visiting E. S. Kelley, Main street.

E. S. Kelley moved in from Spring Grove today.

H. C. Cooper has returned from Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he spent three weeks. On his return trip he took a cold which has kept him closely in the house from Monday until this morning.

Frank R. Mills, of Beaver Falls, Pa., was in town yesterday.

Will R. Stark, of Steubenville, James P. Davis, of Dellroy, were in town on business yesterday.

There were 94 tickets sold at the upper depot yesterday for the excursion to Cascade park.

Capt. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., brother of our townsman, B. D. Beacome, has been raised to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

W. F. Blackburn and family have returned from their sojourn at Hollow Rock camp ground.

Miss Olive Torrance, of Lisbon, is visiting the family of Mrs. M. Bowers, Broadway.

Mrs. W. C. Bunting returned last night from Hollow Rock camp ground.

C. E. Zimmer, Homer Wells' efficient clerk, arrived home last night from a three-weeks' vacation among friends in Muskingum county.

Mrs. Julius Goetz has returned from Pittsburg.

Mrs. Kirk, who has been visiting her daughter in Center street, returned to her home in Salineville yesterday.

Two men were arrested last night, and this morning were taken before Squire Haney on a charge of illegal train riding. They were assessed the usual amount for the ride.

STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE.

A Mountaineer Who Highly Appreciated Really Good Cooking.

As a rule the mountaineer of Kentucky is not a gastronomic connoisseur, and the visitor at his table is quite as likely to hear dried apples referred to as "fruit" as he is to find any other kind of fruit on the table. Occasionally, however, one of them is sufficiently fortunate to get away from his fastnesses, and living temporarily down in the blue grass has an opportunity to acquire some virtues not otherwise obtainable. It was such a one I caught up with one morning in June along the ridge of the Cumberlands.

"I'm looking for a place," I said after a few preliminaries, "where I can stop for a week or so while I look up some timber I have in this neighborhood. Do you know of any?"

"There ain't much uv that sort eround here," he replied, "exceptin you go to Mount Pleasant, an I reckon that's too fer. But hol' on," he broke in with a sudden thought, "thar's the Widder Tackett. She axed me yistidy to see some uv you folks at the mill and tell 'em she had a place to sleep and eat two er three men ef they wuzn't too pertickler."

"Is it a pretty good place?" I inquired thoughtlessly.

The young man's face flushed.

"Well, I reckon," he said with some emphasis. "She's goin to be my mother-in-law come next September."

"Oh, I beg your pardon," I hastened to explain. "I only asked to know if she had good eating. Some of that we get in private houses even in the cities, you know, is not the best in the world."

"Cities be derned," he said with a fine feeling. "Yer ain't never tried the Widder Tackett's pie yet, mister, an yer want to keep still till yer do. Ain't nothin like it nowhere, no matter what kind uv a pie she sets afore yer. It's all ne plusibus unum, an no mistake. Why, I'm tellin you that I sot down to one uv her pies last week, dern ef I recomember what kind it wuz, ef I ever knowed, an I wuz eatin right into it like a hot shovel goin into a snow pile, an Bill Rogers acrost the table frum me called me a liar, an I never said a dern word to him tell I had plum e't my pie and got my teeth picked. Dern my buttons ef I did, colonel."

I did not like to inquire further into the mystery of what happened to Mr. Rogers after the last taste of the pie was safely housed by my informant, but I made a fair guess and went on to see the Widow Tackett concerning board and lodging for one man for one week. —Washington Star.

Banana Flour.

The next dietetic fad is going to be banana flour. Manufacturers are experimenting in this direction and promise soon a meal that will keep as long as wheat flour and make a much more nutritious bread. As already the craze for whole wheat flour is passing, this new albumen will undoubtedly meet a quick welcome when it comes. The use of the banana has developed its great value as an article of food, and the great army of banana consumers are prepared to accept eagerly its further development.—New York Post.

Saved by General Anderson.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—General Aguinaldo has courtmartialed the offenders in the Cavite affray and they were sentenced to death, but it is reported that they were afterward reprieved at the request of General Anderson.

Erie Hospital Willing to Help.

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 31.—St. Vincent's hospital of this city is willing to care for 20 of Pennsylvania's sick soldiers. The tender was wired to Governor Hastings yesterday morning.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

The season for canning Fruits and Vegetables is now at hand, and judging from indications there will be an abundant crop. We take great pleasure in offering to you a complete line of fresh and pure Spices ground by our own mills. (We are the only retail dealers in the Ohio valley who owns and operates their own spice mill.)

We are in a position to supply you with Superior Glass Jars, extra Caps and Rings, Jelly Tumblers and Sealing Wax at prices that defy competition.

PRICE LIST.

Mason Jars, quarts, per doz	50c
Mason Jars, pints, per doz	45c
Jelly Tumblers, per doz	20c
Covered Tumblers, per doz	20c
Porcelined Caps and Rings per doz	20c
Gum Rings, per doz	5c
Crystal Sealing Wax, 2 packages	5c
Standard Package Coffee, per lb	10c
Choice Salmon, per can	10c
Eagle Mustard Sardines, 4 cans	25c
Oil Sardines, 6 cans	25c
Freshed Rolled Oats, 7 pounds	25c
Fresh Lunch Cakes, per pound	8c
Fresh Lemon Cakes, per pound	8c

—SUGAR AWAY DOWN—

Our London Mixed Tea Has No Equal.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

We Lead,
Let Those Who Can Follow.

STORY OF A HAT.

Revealing the Secret of Its Two Trips Around a Table.

A number of literary men were at one time gathered in a well known chophouse in New York. The conversation was of course brilliant, and the repartee sparkled with mirth and wit. During a lull in the talk the door slowly opened, and an old southern darky, grizzled with age, poked his head in and then slowly drew his body in after him. A waiter started to eject him, when one of the gentlemen cried:

"Wait a moment. Let's see what the old boy wants."

The darky bobbed up to the table where this gentleman sat and held out his hat. Throwing a wink to his neighbors, the gentleman took the hat and, making a show of placing something into it, passed it on to the next man, who did likewise. The hat made a tour of the room, to the puzzled wonder of the darky. The last to receive it solemnly handed it back with a polite bow, saying:

"There, sir, don't you think you have something to be thankful for?"

The old darky looked solemnly around the company and, mechanically taking the hat, he said:

"Gen'men, I'ze indeed glad dat I got eben de hat back!"

The reply was so thoroughly enjoyed by the company that the darky left the place a much richer man than when he had entered it.—Kansas City World.

The Country's Call.

When you heard the country callin—so she wasn't callin soft—
Thar warn't no man a-hidin in the old time fodder loft;
Thar wuz patriots by the dozens,
All ye'r brothers an ye'r cousins,
But 'twuz hard work gittin in the army!

They were crowdin fer recruitin from all corners of the states,
They were jumpin of the fences, they were climbin of the gates!
But, with privates by the million
And with colonels by the billion
It was hard work gittin in the army!

BADGES FOR LABOR DAY.

The News Review job department is ready to turn out promptly the finest line of badges for Labor day ever seen in the city. Unions desiring good work can get it at the News Review.

WANTED.

WANTED—Cloak and millinery sales ladies. Must be experienced. Address giving reference and full particulars P. O., box 33, East Liverpool.

WANTED--Have several inquiries for small farms. Send full particulars and terms. E. C. Curry, 205 Walnut street.

WANTED--Two experienced ware dressers. Apply at Globe pottery.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE--Four room house and lot, 92x90, at Woodlawn avenue and St. John street, near Sheridan avenue. Price $2,700. Apply to J. P. Hanlon, 315 Lincoln avenue.

The Ohio Valley Business College

Gives a bread winning education. School rooms newly furnished throughout.

Fall Opening,

Tuesday, Sept. 6, 1898.

DAY AND EVENING SCHOOL.

J. F. COOPER,
President.

ELECTRICITY!

THE OHIO ELECTRIC CO.

Is prepared to furnish anything in the electric line, from a complete plant down to the smallest article, such as Dynamos, Motors, Gas Engines, Switch Boards, Electric Bells, Annunciators, Electric Alarms, Batteries, etc. High grade goods and first-class work.

J. A. SWANEY.

Telephone 130-3.

TREETS ASSESSMENT NOTICE

STREET improvement and sewer assessments, for 1898, are due and payable at the office of the city clerk, city hall, on or before September 1st, 1898. All assessments unpaid at that date will be certified to the county auditor and collected with the addition of 10 per cent. penalty, as provided by law. By order of Council,

J. N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

Money to Loan

IN ANY SUM FROM
$100 TO $10,000,
on easy payment and low rate of interest Full particulars at the
POTTERS' BUILDING & SAVINGS COMPANY
Corner Fifth and Washington Streets.

STAR BargainStore

IN FULL FORCE.

OUR Great Sale is in full force yet, and we are going to make still deeper cuts in Summer Goods to close them out. Read the following examples of what we have in store for you:

Shirt Waists.

Every one to be cleaned out quick. One lot of 50 and 75c waists for 23e.

All 75c and $1 waists for 43c

$1.25 and $1.50 waist; your choice for 65c.

New white waist, with insertion, for 98c.

Light Wrappers to Go.

$1.25 light wrappers for 65c.

Your choice of our best light wrappers for 98c.

Ladies' Furnishings.

12½c oxblood hose for 5c.
20c ribbed hose for 12½c.
12½c ribbed vest for 7½c.
45c gowns for 29c.
75c gowns for 49c.
$1 gowns for 63c.
$1.19 gowns for 75c.

All our high priced gowns at great reduced prices.

Great bargains in muslin and satin skirts.

Umbrella drawers for 19c.
50c drawers for 35c.
75c high bust corsets, with shoulder straps, for 47c.

Men's Furnishings.

50c white neckband shirts for 29c.

Light and dark shirts, worth 39c for 25e.

35c ties for 12½c.
50c ties for 25c.
25c suspenders for 15c.

Boys' wash suits at away down prices.

Wash Goods.

The balance of our wash goods at still greater reduced prices.

One lot at 4c a yard.

One lot of light and dark lawns and organdies, 15 and 19c qualities, for 6½e.

35c French organdies for 15c.
10c madras for 5c.
12½ dress ginghams for 7½c.

Silks and Dress Goods

15c plaid for 9c.

40c light dress goods, just the thing for children's school dresses, for 19c.

60 and 75c light dress goods for 25c.

50c printed India silks for 25c.
50c printed India silks for 25c.
$1 plaid silks for 59c.
$1.25 plaid and check silks for 59c.

Black silk and satin at greatly reduced prices.

Miscellaneous.

One lot of belts for 5c.

One lot of ladies' bow ties for 10c.

25 and 50c puffs for 12½c.
40 inch muslin for 4½c.
9c lonsdale muslin for 6¾c
60c unbleached damask for 42½c.
Large size towels for 4c.
20c towels for 12½c.
6c crash for 3½c.
8c linen barred crash for 5c.

Fall Dress Goods.

Our new fall dress goods are coming in daily, and we are selling a good deal of it now. We will be pleased to show you our line bofore buying, and we feel certain that we can please you in style and price. Our line of black goods is especially very strong.

STAR BargainStore

138 and 140 Fifth Street.

WELLSVILLE.

JULIA DENNIS FINED

But Not Until There Had Been a Very Warm Time.

LIVERPOOL MAN WAS IN IT

He Interrupted and Was Brought Up In a Hurry—Grace Taylor Was Also a Victim, But Molly Did Not Appear—All the News of Wellsville.

There was a warm time in police court last night when Julia Dennis, Grace Taylor and a Mr. Keenan were tried as a result of the raid Monday night. The police have been watching the place since July 3, and were at last successful. The courtroom was crowded, many persons present being friends of the defendants.

Julia Dennis plead not guilty and Mrs. Pech, Mrs. Sheckler, Mrs. Woods and Z. Whitaker testified for her, and Officers Winn and Madden, Sadie Geisse and Dot Brown told their story for the city. When Officer Winn was asked to give the names of the men he had seen going to the house there was a brethless silence, but Solicitor Wells told him he did not have to tell. Dot Brown said white and colored men frequented the house, and Keenan interrupted with the remark that she ought to know. Mayor Dennis promptly called him to order with the remark that his place was down below.

Keenan was next called, and plead guilty to loitering. The mayor fined him $20 and costs, and if the amount is not paid he will go to Canton. Another charge of furnishing liquor to minors will be entered today.

Grace Taylor, a visitor at the place, also plead guilty and got $5 and costs.

The News of Wellsville.

Repairs have been made on the paved street next to the platform at the upper depot. The sinking of the pavement was caused by the high waters.

D. K. Roller, of Salem, was in town yesterday.

The condition of the gutter at the corner of Third and Main street is such that the health officer should order it cleaned immediately.

Last night was the regular meeting night of the board of health. Members of the board assembled but they found themselves forestalled by the progress of Mayor Dennis's court. The meeting will be held next Tuesday.

Prof. J. L. McDonald's time as school examiner having expired today Judge Boone appointed him for another term.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Krause and Mr. Cornelius Horrigan, of Irondale, took place at the church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Horrigan are very popular among a large circle of friends. They will reside in Irondale.

S. S. Cope went out to Hammondsville on the morning train on business.

Mrs. W. G. Bright, of Bridgeport, is visiting relatives.

Miss Ella Collins, of Allegheny, is visiting E. S. Kelley, Main street.

E. S. Kelley moved in from Spring Grove today.

H. C. Cooper has returned from Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he spent three weeks. On his return trip he took a cold which has kept him closely in the house from Monday until this morning.

Frank R. Mills, of Beaver Falls, Pa., was in town yesterday.

Will R. Stark, of Steubenville, James P. Davis, of Dellroy, were in town on business yesterday.

There were 94 tickets sold at the upper depot yesterday for the excursion to Cascade park.

Capt. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., brother of our townsman, B. D. Beacome, has been raised to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

W. F. Blackburn and family have returned from their sojourn at Hollow Rock camp ground.

Miss Olive Torrance, of Lisbon, is visiting the family of Mrs. M. Bowers, Broadway.

Mrs. W. C. Bunting returned last night from Hollow Rock camp ground.

C. E. Zimmer, Homer Wells' efficient clerk, arrived home last night from a three-weeks' vacation among friends in Muskingum county.

Mrs. Julius Goetz has returned from Pittsburg.

Mrs. Kirk, who has been visiting her daughter in Center street, returned to her home in Salineville yesterday.

Two men were arrested last night, and this morning were taken before Squire Haney on a charge of illegal train riding. They were assessed the usual amount for the ride.

STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE.

A Mountaineer Who Highly Appreciated Really Good Cooking.

As a rule the mountaineer of Kentucky is not a gastronomic connoisseur, and the visitor at his table is quite as likely to hear dried apples referred to as "fruit" as he is to find any other kind of fruit on the table. Occasionally, however, one of them is sufficiently fortunate to get away from his fastnesses, and living temporarily down in the blue grass has an opportunity to acquire some virtues not otherwise obtainable. It was such a one I caught up with one morning in June along the ridge of the Cumberlands.

"I'm looking for a place," I said after a few preliminaries, "where I can stop for a week or so while I look up some timber I have in this neighborhood. Do you know of any?"

"There ain't much uv that sort around here," he replied, "exceptin you go to Mount Pleasant, an I reckon that's too fer. But hol' on," he broke in with a sudden thought, "thar's the Widder Tackett. She axed me yistidy to see some uv you folks at the mill and tell 'em she had a place to sleep and eat two er three men ef they wuzn't too pertickler."

"Is it a pretty good place?" I inquired thoughtlessly.

The young man's face flushed.

"Well, I reckon," he said with some emphasis. "She's goin to be my mother-in-law come next September."

"Oh, I beg your pardon," I hastened to explain. "I only asked to know if she had good eating. Some of that we get in private houses even in the cities, you know, is not the best in the world."

"Cities be derned," he said with a fine feeling. "Yer ain't never tried the Widder Tackett's pie yet, mister, an yer want to keep still till yer do. Ain't nothin like it nowhere, no matter what kind uv a pie she sets afore yer. It's all ne plusibus unum, an no mistake. Why, I'm tellin you that I sot down to one uv her pies last week, dern ef I recomember what kind it wuz, ef I ever knowed, an I wuz eatin right into it like a hot shovel goin into a snow pile, an Bill Rogers acrost the table frum me called me a liar, an I never said a dern word to him tell I had plum e't my pie and got my teeth picked. Dern my buttons ef I did, colonel."

I did not like to inquire further into the mystery of what happened to Mr. Rogers after the last taste of the pie was safely housed by my informant, but I made a fair guess and went on to see the Widow Tackett concerning board and lodging for one man for one week. —Washington Star.

Banana Flour.

The next dietetic fad is going to be banana flour. Manufacturers are experimenting in this direction and promise soon a meal that will keep as long as wheat flour and make a much more nutritious bread. As already the craze for whole wheat flour is passing, this new albumen will undoubtedly meet a quick welcome when it comes. The use of the banana has developed its great value as an article of food, and the great army of banana consumers are prepared to accept eagerly its further development.—New York Post.

Saved by General Anderson.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—General Aguinaldo has courtmartialed the offenders in the Cavite affray and they were sentenced to death, but it is reported that they were afterward reprieved at the request of General Anderson.

Erie Hospital Willing to Help.

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 31.—St. Vincent's hospital of this city is willing to care for 20 of Pennsylvania's sick soldiers. The tender was wired to Governor Hastings yesterday morning.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

The season for canning Fruits and Vegetables is now at hand, and judging from indications there will be an abundant crop. We take great pleasure in offering to you a complete line of fresh and pure Spices ground by our own mills. (We are the only retail dealers in the Ohio valley who owns and operates their own spice mill.)

We are in a position to supply you with Superior Glass Jars, extra Caps and Rings, Jelly Tumblers and Sealing Wax at prices that defy competition.

PRICE LIST.

Mason Jars, quarts, per doz	50c
Mason Jars, pints, per doz	45c
Jelly Tumblers, per doz	20c
Covered Tumblers, per doz	20c
Porcelined Caps and Rings per doz	20c
Gum Rings, per doz	5c
Crystal Sealing Wax, 2 packages	5c
Standard Package Coffee, per lb	10c
Choice Salmon, per can	10c
Eagle Mustard Sardines, 4 cans	25c
Oil Sardines, 6 cans	25c
Freshed Rolled Oats, 7 pounds	25c
Fresh Lunch Cakes, per pound	8c
Fresh Lemon Cakes, per pound	8c

—SUGAR AWAY DOWN—

Our London Mixed Tea Has No Equal.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

We Lead,

Let Those Who Can Follow.

STORY OF A HAT.

Revealing the Secret of Its Two Trips Around a Table.

A number of literary men were at one time gathered in a well known chophouse in New York. The conversation was of course brilliant, and the repartee sparkled with mirth and wit. During a lull in the talk the door slowly opened, and an old southern darky, grizzled with age, poked his head in and then slowly drew his body in after him. A waiter started to eject him, when one of the gentlemen cried:

"Wait a moment. Let's see what the old boy wants."

The darky bobbed up to the table where this gentleman sat and held out his hat. Throwing a wink to his neighbors, the gentleman took the hat and, making a show of placing something into it, passed it on to the next man, who did likewise. The hat made a tour of the room, to the puzzled wonder of the darky. The last to receive it solemnly handed it back with a polite bow, saying:

"There, sir, don't you think you have something to be thankful for?"

The old darky looked solemnly around the company and, mechanically taking the hat, he said:

"Gen'men, I'ze indeed glad dat I got eben de hat back!"

The reply was so thoroughly enjoyed by the company that the darky left the place a much richer man than when he had entered it.—Kansas City World.

The Country's Call.

When you heard the country callin—so she wasn't callin soft—
Thar warn't no man a-hidin in the old time fodder loft;
Thar wuz patriots by the dozens,
All ye'r brothers an ye'r cousins,
But 'twuz hard work gittin in the army!

They were crowdin fer recruitin from all corners of the states,
They were jumpin of the fences, they were climbin of the gates!
But, with privates by the million
And with colonels by the billion
It was hard work gittin in the army!

BADGES FOR LABOR DAY.

The News Review job department is ready to turn out promptly the finest line of badges for Labor day ever seen in the city. Unions desiring good work can get it at the News Review.

WANTED.

WANTED—Cloak and millinery sales ladies. Must be experienced. Address giving reference and full particulars P. O., box 33, East Liverpool.

WANTED--Have several inquiries for small farms. Send full particulars and terms. E. C. Curry, 205 Walnut street.

WANTED--Two experienced ware dressers. Apply at Globe pottery.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE--Four room house and lot, 92x90, at Woodlawn avenue and St. John street, near Sheridan avenue. Price $2,700. Apply to J. P. Hanlon, 315 Lincoln avenue.

The Ohio Valley Business College

Gives a bread winning education. School rooms newly furnished throughout.

Fall Opening,

Tuesday, Sept. 6, 1898.

DAY AND EVENING SCHOOL.

J. F. COOPER,

President.

ELECTRICITY!

THE OHIO ELECTRIC CO.

Is prepared to furnish anything in the electric line, from a complete plant down to the smallest article, such as Dynamos, Motors, Gas Engines, Switch Boards, Electric Bells, Annunciators, Electric Alarms, Batteries, etc. High grade goods and first-class work.

J. A. SWANEY.

Telephone 130-3.

TREETS ASSESSMENT NOTICE

STREET improvement and sewer assessments, for 1898, are due and payable at the office of the city clerk, city hall, on or before September 1st, 1898. All assessments unpaid at that date will be certified to the county auditor and collected with the addition of 10 per cent. penalty, as provided by law. By order of Council,

J. N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

Money to Loan

IN ANY SUM FROM

$100 TO $10,000,

on easy payment and low rate of interest Full particulars at the

POTTERS' BUILDING & SAVINGS COMPANY

Corner Fifth and Washington Streets.

STAR BargainStore

IN FULL FORCE.

OUR Great Sale is in full force yet, and we are going to make still deeper cuts in Summer Goods to close them out. Read the following examples of what we have in store for you:

Shirt Waists.

Every one to be cleaned out quick. One lot of 50 and 75c waists for 23c.

All 75c and $1 waists for 43c

$1.25 and $1.50 waist; your choice for 65c.

New white waist, with insertion, for 98c.

Light Wrappers to Go.

$1.25 light wrappers for 65c.

Your choice of our best light wrappers for 98c.

Ladies' Furnishings.

12½c oxblood hose for 5c.
20c ribbed hose for 12½c.
12½c ribbed vest for 7½c.
45c gowns for 29c.
75c gowns for 49c.
$1 gowns for 63c.
$1.19 gowns for 75c.

All our high priced gowns at great reduced prices.

Great bargains in muslin and satin skirts.

Umbrella drawers for 19c.
50c drawers for 35c.
75c high bust corsets, with shoulder straps, for 47c.

Men's Furnishings.

50c white neckband shirts for 29c.

Light and dark shirts, worth 39c for 25c.
35c ties for 12½c.
50c ties for 25c.
25c suspenders for 15c.
Boys' wash suits at away down prices.

Wash Goods.

The balance of our wash goods at still greater reduced prices.

One lot at 4c a yard.

One lot of light and dark lawns and organdies, 15 and 19c qualities, for 6½c.

35c French organdies for 15c.
10c madras for 5c.
12½ dress ginghams for 7½c.

Silks and Dress Goods

15c plaid for 9c.

40c light dress goods, just the thing for children's school dresses, for 19c.

60 and 75c light dress goods for 25c.

50c printed India silks for 25c.
50c printed India silks for 25c.
$1 plaid silks for 59c.
$1.25 plaid and check silks for 59c.

Black silk and satin at greatly reduced prices.

Miscellaneous.

One lot of belts for 5c.

One lot of ladies' bow ties for 10c.

25 and 50c puffs for 12½c.
40 inch muslin for 4½c.
9c lonsdale muslin for 6¾c
60c unbleached damask for 42½c.
Large size towels for 4c.
20c towels for 12½c.
6c crash for 3½c.
8c linen barred crash for 5c.

Fall Dress Goods.

Our new fall dress goods are coming in daily, and we are selling a good deal of it now. We will be pleased to show you our line bofore buying, and we feel certain that we can please you in style and price. Our line of black goods is especially very strong.

STAR BargainStore

138 and 140 Fifth Street.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY

THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.

[Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

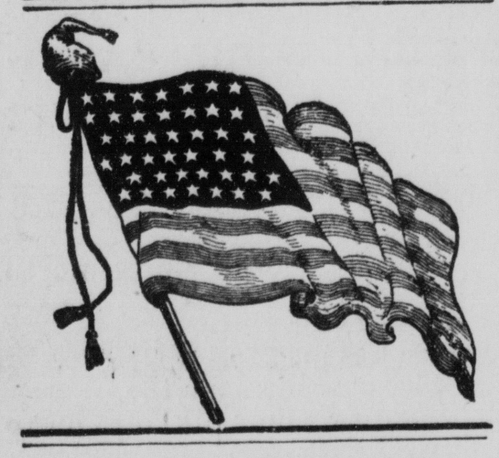
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31.

TYPOGRAPHICAL UNION LABEL EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.



IF Colonel Roosevelt wants to be governor of New York, the chap who represents the other side will seldom be heard of during the campaign.

WHEN Colonel Hard finds it necessary to state his position through the newspapers, he must realize the strength of the criticism to which he is being subjected.

EVEN the political enemies of President McKinley do not accuse him of being in any way responsible for the sickness in the army. The ineficiency, primarily the cause of the trouble, is below the President. Some day the real cause will be known, and his name will be as it is today far beyond even the range of suspicion.

WHILE President McKinley and party were at the railway station in Greensburg the other day, the President noticed a soldier in the crowd. Summoning him to his side the President greeted him warmly, while Mrs. McKinley placed in his hand a bunch of roses. When rulers do those things in Europe they are recorded in history.

CUT THE TAPE.

While system and order and official dignity are probably necessary for the transaction of the business of a nation so great and powerful as this has grown to be, there are times when the people will cheer the man who cuts the red tape which prevents his doing good and for the time makes regulations of his own. There have been such occasions within the past few weeks, and the people are glad that the right man was there to take upon himself the responsibility. But there have also been occasions when the right man did not appear.

It is related that a hospital train, filled with soldiers from Camp Thomas, entered Cleveland. The good people of that hospitable place had prepared all manner of delicacies for the men who had endangered their lives for the Stars and Stripes. They expected to see suffering, but they did not expect so many soldiers almost within the clasp of death. They besought the officer in charge to allow the removal of those most critically ill to the hospitals, but he turned to them a deaf ear. Then they pleaded and brought great men of the city to add their entreaties, but without avail. He had but one answer. His orders were to take those men through, and he would take them dead or alive, he probably meant, but he evidently had sufficient thought for his own well preserved frame to say nothing. Consequently the train went through and the men continued to suffer. There was one man who did not rise above the height of a piece of red tape.

Perhaps there are other men of his training in the army. If there are, and who is there to doubt it, it is probable much of the suffering at Santiago and in the camps of this country can be traced to them. They knew no higher sentiment, recognized no greater position than that which compelled them to follow the lines laid down. The country recognizes the soldier's devotion to duty, and willingly cheers him when he too sees it, but it cannot appreciate the presence of blockheads who know not the use of common sense.

S. A. CAMP MEETING

at Spring Grove opens next Sunday, 4th.

COUNCIL OF WAR

How One Was Held Far Out In the Pacific.

COMMANDERS WERE TOGETHER

They Were Cordially Received by General Green and Arrangements Made to Resist Any Attack the Spanish Might Make—Colonel Hawkins Slept Outside Encampment Limits—Two More Burials. Church Services on Board—Continuation of Captain Palmer's Letter.

Another death and burial at sea this morning. Chief Musician Wise, of the First Colorado United States volunteers, was today consigned to his resting place in the waters of the Pacific, there to await roll call at the hands of the Great Commander. The remains were buried with the honors of war. Pneumonia was the cause of death. God grant comfort to his loved ones at home.

Boatswain Chris Nelson is a firm believer in the adage that "cleanliness is akin to Godliness," and he now has numerous converts to his belief. At 5:30 each morning the brawny boatswain, backed by a corps of assistants, engage in thoroughly washing down the decks, driving all filth and uncleanness into the sea, and thus prevent disease and death. The clever boatswain has kindly consented to give all comers a splendid salt water bath each morning, free of charge, in case they will rise with the lark and seek the forward part of the vessel. This offer has been gladly accepted by a large number, among them the writer, and he can testify that the baths are highly beneficial. Nelson takes especial pains to give me a benefit, and the stream of water from the hose, striking one upon the body with full force, almost floors the recipient, much to the enjoyment of the jolly Jack tars. And here let me say a few words of commendation for the ship's crew of the Zealandia. From captain down I have been accorded the most courteous treatment, and I shall ever carry one and all on the bright side of my ledger of life's experience.

Wednesday, July 6. Drilled a squad of officers in the "exercises" on the hurricane deck at a very early hour this morning. All of the participants, among them Chaplain Hunter, expressed themselves as highly pleased with the health movements, and pronounced them very beneficial, especially so under existing circumstances. Head Steward Seeley and Chief Engineer Keller also took part. Prayer meeting every morning on the hurricane deck, at 6 o'clock, led by the chaplain. Much interest manifested, and good is evidently being accomplished. Some of the attendants are participants in leading in prayer, while all are deeply interested listeners.

Rumored this morning that a strange sail had made its appearance in the distance, and the old story of a wandering Spanish gunboat was revived. Investigation at headquarters demonstrated the fact that the rumor was a false one, gotten up by some practical joker and industriously circulated. At 8:15 a. m., the China signaled "halt," and the other three vessels were ordered by General Green to range alongside the flagship. Then the commanders of the troops in the three vessels took seats in the small boats and were soon standing in the presence of the commander of the expedition, at whose hands they received royal greeting, and they are warm in his praises. A council of war was held and the various commanders of vessels were made acquainted with the fact that there was a possibility of attack by a small Spanish gunboat, and that it had been determined by the commander of the expedition not to submit tamely to capture and imprisonment in Spanish hands, but to offer stout resistance and endeavor to run down the assailant. Consultation demonstrated the fact that the subordinate officers coincided with this plan of procedure, and then the China steamed to the front, gaining a lead of some miles, when she halted and indulged in artillery practice, the gunners doing very satisfactory work.

Thursday, July 7. The regimental commanders remained all night on the China, and were accorded hearty greeting the next day when they came on board, Colonel Hawkins remarking to your correspondent: "Well, sergeant, I've been bowled over at last. I've been regimental commander of the Tenth for almost 20 years, and have made it my boast that in all that time I have never slept outside the encampment limits. But they floored me on this occasion, as the fences were not of a nature permitting me to cross lots." The colonel reports that duty is much more arduous on board the China than upon the Zealandia. The machine upon the China for manufacturing ice was broken yesterday, and the consequence was that there was not a particle of ice on our sister vessel. This was a very sad loss to the sick on board, especially in one very severe case of appendicitis. As soon as Colonel Hawkins reached the deck of his own ship he interviewed the captain and the head steward, and the returning small boat carried back a bag of ice.

July 8. Distant 320 miles from Guam island. Expect to see land by noon tomorrow, in case we continue upon our present course, and to be near Guem island tomorrow night, with the possibility of running in on Sunday morning. We know not what awaits us, fighting or a peaceful reception; but we are ready for emergencies, with arms and accoutrements in first-class condition and ammunition in readiness for immediate issue. The officers have received orders to charge their revolvers. Many of the men will receive their maiden fire in case of a struggle, while there are a number of old veterans on board who have faced the music of battle on more than one occasion. I firmly believe the lads will give good account of themselves in the hour of trial. Our artillerymen on the Zealandia were given an opportunity to practice today, and the fire of the Maxims was exceptionally fine.

July 9. Inspection of arms this morning; muskets found in good condition, with but few exceptions, and these exceptions will be remedied at once. About noon we sighted Rota, or Broken island, on our right or starboard side. A natural formation and looks very much like a fort or fortification, but we are assured by sailors that no fortification made by man exists there. At 3:30 we sight Guam on our left or port side. The officers have not decided whether they will run in or not. No sight of the cruiser Charleston. Rumor has it that if a convoy awaits us, we will make but a brief halt at Guam; but if not, then we will land, fortify and take possession peaceably or otherwise and await the coming of a war vessel from Dewey's fleet. Weather simply delightful and a glorious breeze prevailing. Five minutes of 5 p. m. and the expedition halted and laying to about two and one-half miles off Guam island. All flags at half mast, as the news comes to us that someone has passed from time into eternity on board the Colon. As I write three volleys of musketry ring out, and this assures me that another soldier boy has gone to his reward. He will answer to the Master. God grant that his record may be right by and through the mercy of Him who hath loved us and given Himself for us. Death has now claimed victims on all three vessels of this expedition. How long will it be before he makes a claim upon some comrade on board the Zealandia? May the Giver of all good gifts spare the dear ones at home and give the boys on this steamer time and inclination and earnest desire to prepare for the inevitable. Have just ascertained the name of the deceased. Private Maddox, of the 18th regulars; cause appendicitis. The echo of the last volley fired over the remains had scarcely died away when the signal to steam forward was given, and we are now under full headway in order to seek safe anchorage on the west side of Guam island ere night closes in upon us. The China forges rapidly to the front, and we note her passing around a promontory well in advance, with the prow pointing directly in shore. The next instant there comes a flame of fire from the muzzle of one of her guns, and the first thought of almost everyone on board the Zealandia is that danger and battle awaits us. But this thought vanishes in midair as a cheery voice on the hurricane deck rings out: "Sundown; there she goes!" Immediately afterward the China turns squarely about and heads out for sea and deeper waters, and she is soon ranged alongside the other vessels and signalling "halt" and then "assemble." Whistles toot and signals wave and in a few minutes we are away once more, hunting for Mr. Dewey and Manila. Rumor now has it that our commander discovered fortifications on Guam, as the China went close in, and that he concluded that, as he had lost no fortifications he didn't want to find any, and so bade Guam and her earthworks goodbye, with the promise to return in the sweet afterwhile with fortification searchers, in the shape of Dewey's ten inch pets.

Sunday July 10. Vessels forging ahead as if they were living, breathing, thinking machines, eager to reach Manila and the comrades awaiting us. The boys seem to appreciate the fact that we are approaching the end of our long and monotonous sea voyage and there is corresponding elation and jubilation. The understanding now is that we will reach Manila not later than next Saturday, God willing. Prayer meeting at 6 o'clock this morning, with nice attendance; then came the health exercises; and now, as I write, the drums and fifes are making merry music on the hurricane deck, while the first sergeants of the various companies are reporting their details for guard duty for the next 24 hours. Have just ascertained from reliable source, the information that General Green had orders to run in close to Gaum island and ascertain if a convoy awaited him at San Luis D'Apra, where a small fort has existed for many years with six pounders of an antiquated type erected there on. Discovering no convoy or vessel of any character, General Green obeyed orders and pulled out for Manila. Church services as usual with prayer meeting and Bible class. Companies A and B will be permitted to sleep on the hurricane deck tonight and enjoy the delicious sea breeze.

TO BE CONTINUED TOMORROW.

TO RULE RETAIL CLERKS.

Officers Have Been Elected For Another Term.

The Clerks union at their last meeting elected the following officers. They will be installed at the next meeting:

President, C. C. Beymer; vice president, Miss Grace Ogilvie; first vice president, Miss Jennie Rowe; second vice president, Miss Blanche Plankinton; secretary, Miss Nellie Lloyd; financial secretary, John Anderson; treasurer, Charles Bence; guide, Harry Sutton; guardian, Charles Gray.

It was reported that a few business houses were employing non-union clerks, and a committee were appointed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

Did Not Lose an Eye.

Carl, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peterson, of Second street, who was badly burned about the face several weeks ago with vitrol, has recovered entirely. His eyes are as good as before the occurrance. His parents thought he was going to lose the sight of one of them.

Lost Part of a Finger.

Jack Robinson, a kilnhand at the Goodwin pottery, mashed one of the fingers of his left hand so badly yesterday afternoon that he will lose a part of it. Although the injury was very painful, he was able to continue his work.

Vacation Joys.

Vacation Joys
For girls and boys
So often poor
Mamma annoys.

ONE of the annoyances is unquestionably the cost of Footwear—to keep them well shod at all times—which, however, can be greatly diminished by taking advantage of our Clearance Sale Offerings. The next week will be boys' and girls' week at our store, during which time we will offer such immense bargains in boys' and girls' shoes that you can neither let them go 'round in dilapidated shoes, nor can afford to stay away from our store.

We quote a few prices for example:

Children's Tan Shoes,
with spring heels, sizes 5 to 8, were 65c, and are now..... 39c

Same sizes in our 75c and 85c quality, are now..... 55c

Children's Tan and Oxblood Shoes
Sizes 8½ to 11, were $1.25 and $1.00, and are now..... 75c

Girls' Tan, Button and Lace Shoes
Sizes 12 to 2, were $1.50 and $1.25, and are now..... 75c

Boys' Tan Shoes,
Heel and spring heel, were $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, and $1.75, and are now..... 75c, 98c, and $1.25

P. S.—We are still selling women's $3 tan shoes, kid and vesting tops for $1.98 a pair.

Bendheim's.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, East Liverpool.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 206 Fifth street.

FOR RENT—Furnished room and boarding for two gentlemen. Apply to Mrs. P. R. Knowles, corner Cook and Broadway.

BIG BARGAINS. BARGAINS AND BARGAINS,

For this Week Only.

We are still going to sell flour at 53c per sack.

Fresh country butter 18c per pound.

Strictly fresh eggs 15c per doz.

Matches, 9c per doz. boxes.

Coffee 10c per pound.

All kinds of smoked meats at 10c per pound.

Give Us a Call.

Don't forget the place.

Pittsburg Grocery

Cor. Second and Washington Sts.

Headquarters for Poultry.

Look out for next week's ad.

	PRICE.
Business property on Sixth Street...	$2,800
Residence property on Fifth Street...	2,800
An 8 room dwelling at.....	1,500
An 8 room dwelling on Third St....	1,500

Call and see our list of choice properties at prices to suit all.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,

General Insurance and Real Estate Agency.

First National Bank Building.

Miss Lucile Virginia Reed,

ELOCUTION

and Instrumental Music

In connection with Ohio Valley Business College. For terms call on Prof. J. F. Cooper.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY

THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.

[Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

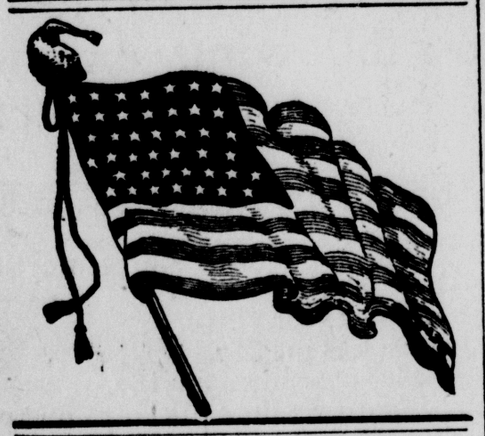
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31.

UNION LABEL

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.



IF Colonel Roosevelt wants to be governor of New York, the chap who represents the other side will seldom be heard of during the campaign.

WHEN Colonel Hard finds it necessary to state his position through the newspapers, he must realize the strength of the criticism to which he is being subjected.

EVEN the political enemies of President McKinley do not accuse him of being in any way responsible for the sickness in the army. The ineficiency, primarily the cause of the trouble, is below the President. Some day the real cause will be known, and his name will be as it is today far beyond even the range of suspicion.

WHILE President McKinley and party were at the railway station in Greensburg the other day, the President noticed a soldier in the crowd. Summoning him to his side the President greeted him warmly, while Mrs. McKinley placed in his hand a bunch of roses. When rulers do those things in Europe they are recorded in history.

CUT THE TAPE.

While system and order and official dignity are probably necessary for the transaction of the business of a nation so great and powerful as this has grown to be, there are times when the people will cheer the man who cuts the red tape which prevents his doing good and for the time makes regulations of his own. There have been such occasions within the past few weeks, and the people are glad that the right man was there to take upon himself the responsibility. But there have also been occasions when the right man did not appear.

It is related that a hospital train, filled with soldiers from Camp Thomas, entered Cleveland. The good people of that hospitable place had prepared all manner of delicacies for the men who had endangered their lives for the Stars and Stripes. They expected to see suffering, but they did not expect so many soldiers almost within the clasp of death. They besought the officer in charge to allow the removal of those most critically ill to the hospitals, but he turned to them a deaf ear. Then they pleaded and brought great men of the city to add their entreaties, but without avail. He had but one answer. His orders were to take those men through, and he would take them dead or alive, he probably meant, but he evidently had sufficient thought for his own well preserved frame to say nothing. Consequently the train went through and the men continued to suffer. There was one man who did not rise above the height of a piece of red tape.

Perhaps there are other men of his training in the army. If there are, and who is there to doubt it, it is probable much of the suffering at Santiago and in the camps of this country can be traced to them. They knew no higher sentiment, recognized no greater position than that which compelled them to follow the lines laid down. The country recognizes the soldier's devotion to duty, and willingly cheers him when he too sees it, but it cannot appreciate the presence of blockheads who know not the use of common sense.

S. A. CAMP MEETING

at Spring Grove opens next Sunday, 4th.

COUNCIL OF WAR

How One Was Held Far Out In the Pacific.

COMMANDERS WERE TOGETHER

They Were Cordially Received by General Green and Arrangements Made to Resist Any Attack the Spanish Might Make—Colonel Hawkins Slept Outside Encampment Limits—Two More Burials. Church Services on Board—Continuation of Captain Palmer's Letter.

Another death and burial at sea this morning. Chief Musician Wise, of the First Colorado United States volunteers, was today consigned to his resting place in the waters of the Pacific, there to await roll call at the hands of the Great Commander. The remains were buried with the honors of war. Pneumonia was the cause of death. God grant comfort to his loved ones at home.

Boatswain Chris Nelson is a firm believer in the adage that "cleanliness is akin to Godliness," and he now has numerous converts to his belief. At 5:30 each morning the brawny boatswain, backed by a corps of assistants, engage in thoroughly washing down the decks, driving all filth and uncleanness into the sea, and thus prevent disease and death. The clever boatswain has kindly consented to give all comers a splendid salt water bath each morning, free of charge, in case they will rise with the lark and seek the forward part of the vessel. This offer has been gladly accepted by a large number, among them the writer, and he can testify that the baths are highly beneficial. Nelson takes especial pains to give me a benefit, and the stream of water from the hose, striking one upon the body with full force, almost floors the recipient, much to the enjoyment of the jolly Jack tars. And here let me say a few words of commendation for the ship's crew of the Zealandia. From captain down I have been accorded the most courteous treatment, and I shall ever carry one and all on the bright side of my ledger of life's experience.

Wednesday, July 6. Drilled a squad of officers in the "exercises" on the hurricane deck at a very early hour this morning. All of the participants, among them Chaplain Hunter, expressed themselves as highly pleased with the health movements, and pronounced them very beneficial, especially so under existing circumstances. Head Steward Seeley and Chief Engineer Keller also took part. Prayer meeting every morning on the hurricane deck, at 6 o'clock, led by the chaplain. Much interest manifested, and good is evidently being accomplished. Some of the attendants are participants in leading in prayer, while all are deeply interested listeners.

Rumored this morning that a strange sail had made its appearance in the distance, and the old story of a wandering Spanish gunboat was revived. Investigation at headquarters demonstrated the fact that the rumor was a false one, gotten up by some practical joker and industriously circulated. At 8:15 a. m., the China signaled "halt," and the other three vessels were ordered by General Green to range alongside the flagship. Then the commanders of the troops in the three vessels took seats in the small boats and were soon standing in the presence of the commander of the expedition, at whose hands they received royal greeting, and they are warm in his praises. A council of war was held and the various commanders of vessels were made acquainted with the fact that there was a possibility of attack by a small Spanish gunboat, and that it had been determined by the commander of the expedition not to submit tamely to capture and imprisonment in Spanish hands, but to offer stout resistance and endeavor to run down the assailant. Consultation demonstrated the fact that the subordinate officers coincided with this plan of procedure, and then the China steamed to the front, gaining a lead of some miles, when she halted and indulged in artillery practice, the gunners doing very satisfactory work.

Thursday, July 7. The regimental commanders remained all night on the China, and were accorded hearty greeting the next day when they came on board, Colonel Hawkins remarking to your correspondent: "Well, sergeant, I've been bowled over at last. I've been regimental commander of the Tenth for almost 20 years, and have made it my boast that in all that time I have never slept outside the encampment limits. But they floored me on this occasion, as the fences were not of a nature permitting me to cross lots." The colonel reports that duty is much more arduous on board the China than upon the Zealandia. The machine upon the China for manufacturing ice was broken yesterday, and the consequence was that there was not a particle of ice on our sister vessel. This was a very sad loss to the sick on board, especially in one very severe case of appendicitis. As soon as Colonel Hawkins reached the deck of his own ship he interviewed the captain and the head steward, and the returning small boat carried back a bag of ice.

July 8. Distant 320 miles from Guam island. Expect to see land by noon tomorrow, in case we continue upon our present course, and to be near Guem island tomorrow night, with the possibility of running in on Sunday morning. We know not what awaits us, fighting or a peaceful reception; but we are ready for emergencies, with arms and accoutrements in first-class condition and ammunition in readiness for immediate issue. The officers have received orders to charge their revolvers. Many of the men will receive their maiden fire in case of a struggle, while there are a number of old veterans on board who have faced the music of battle on more than one occasion. I firmly believe the lads will give good account of themselves in the hour of trial. Our artillerymen on the Zealandia were given an opportunity to practice today, and the fire of the Maxims was exceptionally fine.

July 9. Inspection of arms this morning; muskets found in good condition, with but few exceptions, and these exceptions will be remedied at once. About noon we sighted Rota, or Broken island, on our right or starboard side. A natural formation and looks very much like a fort or fortification, but we are assured by sailors that no fortification made by man exists there. At 3:30 we sight Guam on our left or port side. The officers have not decided whether they will run in or not. No sight of the cruiser Charleston. Rumor has it that if a convoy awaits us, we will make but a brief halt at Guam; but if not, then we will land, fortify and take possession peaceably or otherwise and await the coming of a war vessel from Dewey's fleet. Weather simply delightful and a glorious breeze prevailing. Five minutes of 5 p. m. and the expedition halted and laying to about two and one-half miles off Guam island. All flags at half mast, as the news comes to us that someone has passed from time into eternity on board the Colon. As I write three volleys of musketry ring out, and this assures me that another soldier boy has gone to his reward. He will answer to the Master. God grant that his record may be right by and through the mercy of Him who hath loved us and given Himself for us. Death has now claimed victims on all three vessels of this expedition. How long will it be before he makes a claim upon some comrade on board the Zealandia? May the Giver of all good gifts spare the dear ones at home and give the boys on this steamer time and inclination and earnest desire to prepare for the inevitable. Have just ascertained the name of the deceased. Private Maddox, of the 18th regulars; cause appendicitis. The echo of the last volley fired over the remains had scarcely died away when the signal to steam forward was given, and we are now under full headway in order to seek safe anchorage on the west side of Guam island ere night closes in upon us. The China forges rapidly to the front, and we note her passing around a promontory well in advance, with the prow pointing directly in shore. The next instant there comes a flame of fire from the muzzle of one of her guns, and the first thought of almost everyone on board the Zealandia is that danger and battle awaits us. But this thought vanishes in midair as a cheery voice on the hurricane deck rings out: "Sundown; there she goes!" Immediately afterward the China turns squarely about and heads out for sea and deeper waters, and she is soon ranged alongside the other vessels and signalling "halt" and then "assemble." Whistles toot and signals wave and in a few minutes we are away once more, hunting for Mr. Dewey and Manila. Rumor now has it that our commander discovered fortifications on Guam, as the China went close in, and that he concluded that, as he had lost no fortifications he didn't want to find any, and so bade Guam and her earthworks goodbye, with the promise to return in the sweet afterwhile with fortification searchers, in the shape of Dewey's ten inch pets.

Sunday July 10. Vessels forging ahead as if they were living, breathing, thinking machines, eager to reach Manila and the comrades awaiting us. The boys seem to appreciate the fact that we are approaching the end of our long and monotonous sea voyage and there is corresponding elation and jubilation. The understanding now is that we will reach Manila not later than next Saturday, God willing. Prayer meeting at 6 o'clock this morning, with nice attendance; then came the health exercises; and now, as I write, the drums and fifes are making merry music on the hurricane deck, while the first sergeants of the various companies are reporting their details for guard duty for the next 24 hours. Have just ascertained from reliable source, the information that General Green had orders to run in close to Gaum island and ascertain if a convoy awaited him at San Luis D'Apra, where a small fort has existed for many years with six pounders of an antiquated type erected there on. Discovering no convoy or vessel of any character, General Green obeyed orders and pulled out for Manila. Church services as usual with prayer meeting and Bible class. Companies A and B will be permitted to sleep on the hurricane deck tonight and enjoy the delicious sea breeze.

TO BE CONTINUED TOMORROW.

Vacation Joys.

Vacation Joys
For girls and boys
So often poor
Mamma annoys.

ONE of the annoyances is unquestionably the cost of Footwear—to keep them well shod at all times—which, however, can be greatly diminished by taking advantage of our Clearance Sale Offerings. The next week will be boys' and girls' week at our store, during which time we will offer such immense bargains in boys' and girls' shoes that you can neither let them go 'round in dilapidated shoes, nor can afford to stay away from our store.

We quote a few prices for example:

Children's Tan Shoes,
with spring heels, sizes 5 to 8, were 65c, and are now..... 39c

Same sizes in our 75c and 85c quality, are now..... 55c

Children's Tan and Oxblood Shoes
Sizes 8½ to 11, were $1.25 and $1.00, and are now..... 75c

Girls' Tan, Button and Lace Shoes
Sizes 12 to 2, were $1.50 and $1.25, and are now..... 75c

Boys' Tan Shoes,
Heel and spring heel, were $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, and $1.75, and are now..... 75c, 98c, and $1.25

P. S.—We are still selling women's $3 tan shoes, kid and vesting tops for $1.98 a pair.

Bendheim's.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address PEAL MEDICINE Co., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, East Liverpool.

TO RULE RETAIL CLERKS.

Officers Have Been Elected For Another Term.

The Clerks union at their last meeting elected the following officers. They will be installed at the next meeting:

President, C. C. Beymer; vice president, Miss Grace Ogilvie; first vice president, Miss Jennie Rowe; second vice president, Miss Blanche Plankinton; secretary, Miss Nellie Lloyd; financial secretary, John Anderson; treasurer, Charles Bence; guide, Harry Sutton; guardian, Charles Gray.

It was reported that a few business houses were employing non-union clerks, and a committee were appointed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

Did Not Lose an Eye.

Carl, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peterson, of Second street, who was badly burned about the face several weeks ago with vitrol, has recovered entirely. His eyes are as good as before the occurrance. His parents thought he was going to lose the sight of one of them.

Lost Part of a Finger.

Jack Robinson, a kilnhand at the Goodwin pottery, mashed one of the fingers of his left hand so badly yesterday afternoon that he will lose a part of it. Although the injury was very painful, he was able to continue his work.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 206 Fifth street.

FOR RENT—Furnished room and boarding for two gentlemen. Apply to Mrs. P. R. Knowles, corner Cook and Broadway.

BIG BARGAINS, BARGAINS AND BARGAINS,

For this Week Only.

We are still going to sell flour at 53c per sack.
Fresh country butter 18c per pound.
Strictly fresh eggs 15c per doz.
Matches, 9c per doz. boxes.
Coffee 10c per pound.
All kinds of smoked meats at 10c per pound.

Give Us a Call.

Don't forget the place.

Pittsburg Grocery
Cor. Second and Washington Sts.

Headquarters for Poultry.

Look out for next week's ad.

	PRICE.
Business property on Sixth Street...	$2,800
Residence property on Fifth Street...	2,800
An 8 room dwelling at.....	1,500
An 8 room dwellin on Third St....	1,500

Call and see our list of choice properties at prices to suit all.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,
General Insurance and Real Estate Agency.
First National Bank Building.

Miss Lucile Virginia Reed,
ELOCUTION
and Instrumental Music
In connection with Ohio Valley Business College. For terms call on Prof. J. F. Cooper.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY

THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.

[Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

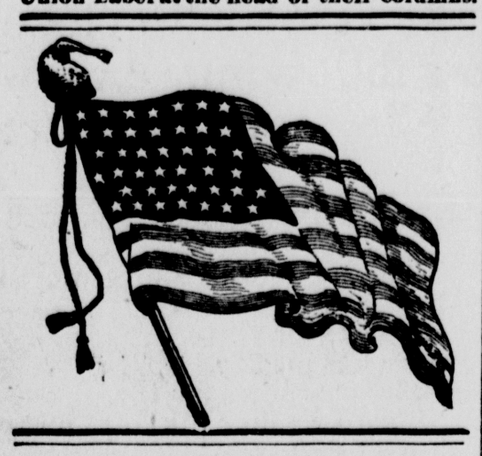
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31.

UNION LABEL — TYPOGRAPHICAL — ESTABLISHED 1891

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.



IF Colonel Roosevelt wants to be governor of New York, the chap who represents the other side will seldom be heard of during the campaign.

WHEN Colonel Hard finds it necessary to state his position through the newspapers, he must realize the strength of the criticism to which he is being subjected.

EVEN the political enemies of President McKinley do not accuse him of being in any way responsible for the sickness in the army. The ineficiency, primarily the cause of the trouble, is below the President. Some day the real cause will be known, and his name will be as it is today far beyond even the range of suspicion.

WHILE President McKinley and party were at the railway station in Greensburg the other day, the President noticed a soldier in the crowd. Summoning him to his side the President greeted him warmly, while Mrs. McKinley placed in his hand a bunch of roses. When rulers do those things in Europe they are recorded in history.

CUT THE TAPE.

While system and order and official dignity are probably necessary for the transaction of the business of a nation so great and powerful as this has grown to be, there are times when the people will cheer the man who cuts the red tape which prevents his doing good and for the time makes regulations of his own. There have been such occasions within the past few weeks, and the people are glad that the right man was there to take upon himself the responsibility. But there have also been occasions when the right man did not appear.

It is related that a hospital train, filled with soldiers from Camp Thomas, entered Cleveland. The good people of that hospitable place had prepared all manner of delicacies for the men who had endangered their lives for the Stars and Stripes. They expected to see suffering, but they did not expect so many soldiers almost within the clasp of death. They besought the officer in charge to allow the removal of those most critically ill to the hospitals, but he turned to them a deaf ear. Then they pleaded and brought great men of the city to add their entreaties, but without avail. He had but one answer. His orders were to take those men through, and he would take them dead or alive, he probably meant, but he evidently had sufficient thought for his own well preserved frame to say nothing. Consequently the train went through and the men continued to suffer. There was one man who did not rise above the height of a piece of red tape.

Perhaps there are other men of his training in the army. If there are, and who is there to doubt it, it is probable much of the suffering at Santiago and in the camps of this country can be traced to them. They knew no higher sentiment, recognized no greater position than that which compelled them to follow the lines laid down. The country recognizes the soldier's devotion to duty, and willingly cheers him when he too sees it, but it cannot appreciate the presence of blockheads who know not the use of common sense.

S. A. CAMP MEETING

at Spring Grove opens next Sunday, 4th.

COUNCIL OF WAR

How One Was Held Far Out In the Pacific.

COMMANDERS WERE TOGETHER

They Were Cordially Received by General Green and Arrangements Made to Resist Any Attack the Spanish Might Make—Colonel Hawkins Slept Outside Encampment Limits—Two More Burials. Church Services on Board—Continuation of Captain Palmer's Letter.

Another death and burial at sea this morning. Chief Musician Wise, of the First Colorado United States volunteers, was today consigned to his resting place in the waters of the Pacific, there to await roll call at the hands of the Great Commander. The remains were buried with the honors of war. Pneumonia was the cause of death. God grant comfort to his loved ones at home.

Boatswain Chris Nelson is a firm believer in the adage that "cleanliness is akin to Godliness," and he now has numerous converts to his belief. At 5:30 each morning the brawny boatswain, backed by a corps of assistants, engage in thoroughly washing down the decks, driving all filth and uncleanness into the sea, and thus prevent disease and death. The clever boatswain has kindly consented to give all comers a splendid salt water bath each morning, free of charge, in case they will rise with the lark and seek the forward part of the vessel. This offer has been gladly accepted by a large number, among them the writer, and he can testify that the baths are highly beneficial. Nelson takes especial pains to give me a benefit, and the stream of water from the hose, striking one upon the body with full force, almost floors the recipient, much to the enjoyment of the jolly Jack tars. And here let me say a few words of commendation for the ship's crew of the Zealandia. From captain down I have been accorded the most courteous treatment, and I shall ever carry one and all on the bright side of my ledger of life's experience.

Wednesday, July 6. Drilled a squad of officers in the "exercises" on the hurricane deck at a very early hour this morning. All of the participants, among them Chaplain Hunter, expressed themselves as highly pleased with the health movements, and pronounced them very beneficial, especially so under existing circumstances. Head Steward Seeley and Chief Engineer Keller also took part. Prayer meeting every morning on the hurricane deck, at 6 o'clock, led by the chaplain. Much interest manifested, and good is evidently being accomplished. Some of the attendants are participants in leading in prayer, while all are deeply interested listeners.

Rumored this morning that a strange sail had made its appearance in the distance, and the old story of a wandering Spanish gunboat was revived. Investigation at headquarters demonstrated the fact that the rumor was a false one, gotten up by some practical joker and industriously circulated. At 8:15 a. m., the China signaled "halt," and the other three vessels were ordered by General Green to range alongside the flagship. Then the commanders of the troops in the three vessels took seats in the small boats and were soon standing in the presence of the commander of the expedition, at whose hands they received royal greeting, and they are warm in his praises. A council of war was held and the various commanders of vessels were made acquainted with the fact that there was a possibility of attack by a small Spanish gunboat, and that it had been determined by the commander of the expedition not to submit tamely to capture and imprisonment in Spanish hands, but to offer stout resistance and endeavor to run down the assailant. Consultation demonstrated the fact that the subordinate officers coincided with this plan of procedure, and then the China steamed to the front, gaining a lead of some miles, when she halted and indulged in artillery practice, the gunners doing very satisfactory work.

Thursday, July 7. The regimental commanders remained all night on the China, and were accorded hearty greeting the next day when they came on board, Colonel Hawkins remarking to your correspondent: "Well, sergeant, I've been bowled over at last. I've been regimental commander of the Tenth for almost 20 years, and have made it my boast that in all that time I have never slept outside the encampment limits. But they floored me on this occasion, as the fences were not of a nature permitting me to cross lots." The colonel reports that duty is much more arduous on board the China than upon the Zealandia. The machine upon the China for manufacturing ice was broken yesterday, and the consequence was that there was not a particle of ice on our sister vessel. This was a very sad loss to the sick on board, especially in one very severe case of appendicitis. As soon as Colonel Hawkins reached the deck of his own ship he interviewed the captain and the head steward, and the returning small boat carried back a bag of ice.

July 8. Distant 320 miles from Guam island. Expect to see land by noon tomorrow, in case we continue upon our present course, and to be near Guem island tomorrow night, with the possibility of running in on Sunday morning. We know not what awaits us, fighting or a peaceful reception; but we are ready for emergencies, with arms and accoutrements in first-class condition and ammunition in readiness for immediate issue. The officers have received orders to charge their revolvers. Many of the men will receive their maiden fire in case of a struggle, while there are a number of old veterans on board who have faced the music of battle on more than one occasion. I firmly believe the lads will give good account of themselves in the hour of trial. Our artillerymen on the Zealandia were given an opportunity to practice today, and the fire of the Maxims was exceptionally fine.

July 9. Inspection of arms this morning; muskets found in good condition, with but few exceptions, and these exceptions will be remedied at once. About noon we sighted Rota, or Broken island, on our right or starboard side. A natural formation and looks very much like a fort or fortification, but we are assured by sailors that no fortification made by man exists there. At 3:30 we sight Guam on our left or port side. The officers have not decided whether they will run in or not. No sight of the cruiser Charleston. Rumor has it that if a convoy awaits us, we will make but a brief halt at Guam; but if not, then we will land, fortify and take possession peaceably or otherwise and await the coming of a war vessel from Dewey's fleet. Weather simply delightful and a glorious breeze prevailing. Five minutes of 5 p. m. and the expedition halted and laying to about two and one-half miles off Guam island. All flags at half mast, as the news comes to us that someone has passed from time into eternity on board the Colon. As I write three volleys of musketry ring out, and this assures me that another soldier boy has gone to his reward. He will answer to the Master. God grant that his record may be right by and through the mercy of Him who hath loved us and given Himself for us. Death has now claimed victims on all three vessels of this expedition. How long will it be before he makes a claim upon some comrade on board the Zealandia? May the Giver of all good gifts spare the dear ones at home and give the boys on this steamer time and inclination and earnest desire to prepare for the inevitable. Have just ascertained the name of the deceased. Private Maddox, of the 18th regulars; cause appendicitis. The echo of the last volley fired over the remains had scarcely died away when the signal to steam forward was given, and we are now under full headway in order to seek safe anchorage on the west side of Guam island ere night closes in upon us. The China forges rapidly to the front, and we note her passing around a promontory well in advance, with the prow pointing directly in shore. The next instant there comes a flame of fire from the muzzle of one of her guns, and the first thought of almost everyone on board the Zealandia is that danger and battle awaits us. But this thought vanishes in midair as a cheery voice on the hurricane deck rings out: "Sundown; there she goes!" Immediately afterward the China turns squarely about and heads out for sea and deeper waters, and she is soon ranged alongside the other vessels and signalling "halt" and then "assemble." Whistles toot and signals wave and in a few minutes we are away once more, hunting for Mr. Dewey and Manila. Rumor now has it that our commander discovered fortifications on Guam, as the China went close in, and that he concluded that, as he had lost no fortifications he didn't want to find any, and so bade Guam and her earthworks goodbye, with the promise to return in the sweet afterwhile with fortification searchers, in the shape of Dewey's ten inch pets.

Sunday July 10. Vessels forging ahead as if they were living, breathing, thinking machines, eager to reach Manila and the comrades awaiting us. The boys seem to appreciate the fact that we are approaching the end of our long and monotonous sea voyage and there is corresponding elation and jubilation. The understanding now is that we will reach Manila not later than next Saturday, God willing. Prayer meeting at 6 o'clock this morning, with nice attendance; then came the health exercises; and now, as I write, the drums and fifes are making merry music on the hurricane deck, while the first sergeants of the various companies are reporting their details for guard duty for the next 24 hours. Have just ascertained from reliable source, the information that General Green had orders to run in close to Gaum island and ascertain if a convoy awaited him at San Luis D'Apra, where a small fort has existed for many years with six pounders of an antiquated type erected there on. Discovering no convoy or vessel of any character, General Green obeyed orders and pulled out for Manila. Church services as usual with prayer meeting and Bible class. Companies A and B will be permitted to sleep on the hurricane deck tonight and enjoy the delicious sea breeze.

TO BE CONTINUED TOMORROW.

TO RULE RETAIL CLERKS.

Officers Have Been Elected For Another Term.

The Clerks union at their last meeting elected the following officers. They will be installed at the next meeting:

President, C. C. Beymer; vice president, Miss Grace Ogilvie; first vice president, Miss Jennie Rowe; second vice president, Miss Blanche Plankinton; secretary, Miss Nellie Lloyd; financial secretary, John Anderson; treasurer, Charles Bence; guide, Harry Sutton; guardian, Charles Gray.

It was reported that a few business houses were employing non-union clerks, and a committee were appointed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

Did Not Lose an Eye.

Carl, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peterson, of Second street, who was badly burned about the face several weeks ago with vitrol, has recovered entirely. His eyes are as good as before the occurrance. His parents thought he was going to lose the sight of one of them.

Lost Part of a Finger.

Jack Robinson, a kilnhand at the Goodwin pottery, mashed one of the fingers of his left hand so badly yesterday afternoon that he will lose a part of it. Although the injury was very painful, he was able to continue his work.

Vacation Joys.

Vacation Joys
For girls and boys
So often poor
Mamma annoys.

ONE of the annoyances is unquestionably the cost of Footwear—to keep them well shod at all times—which, however, can be greatly diminished by taking advantage of our Clearance Sale Offerings. The next week will be boys' and girls' week at our store, during which time we will offer such immense bargains in boys' and girls' shoes that you can neither let them go 'round in dilapidated shoes, nor can afford to stay away from our store.

We quote a few prices for example:

Children's Tan Shoes,
with spring heels, sizes 5 to 8, were 65c, and are now..... 39c

Same sizes in our 75c and 85c quality, are now..... 55c

Children's Tan and Oxblood Shoes
Sizes 8½ to 11, were $1.25 and $1.00, and are now..... 75c

Girls' Tan, Button and Lace Shoes
Sizes 12 to 2, were $1.50 and $1.25, and are now..... 75c

Boys' Tan Shoes,
Heel and spring heel, were $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, and $1.75, and are now..... 75c, 98c, and $1.25

P. S.—We are still selling women's $3 tan shoes, kid and vesting tops for $1.98 a pair.

Bendheim's.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address PEAL MEDICINE Co., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, East Liverpool.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 206 Fifth street.

FOR RENT—Furnished room and boarding for two gentlemen. Apply to Mrs. P. R. Knowles, corner Cook and Broadway.

BIG BARGAINS.
BARGAINS AND BARGAINS,
For this Week Only.

We are still going to sell flour at 53c per sack.
Fresh country butter 18c per pound.
Strictly fresh eggs 15c per doz.
Matches, 9c per doz. boxes.
Coffee 10c per pound.
All kinds of smoked meats at 10c per pound.

Give Us a Call.

Don't forget the place.

Pittsburg Grocery
Cor. Second and Washington Sts.

Headquarters for Poultry.

Look out for next week's ad.

	PRICE.
Business property on Sixth Street...	$2,800
Residence property on Fifth Street...	2,800
An 8 room dwelling at.....	1,500
An 8 room dwellin on Third St....	1,500

Call and see our list of choice properties at prices to suit all.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,
General Insurance and Real Estate Agency.
First National Bank Building.

Miss Lucile Virginia Reed,
ELOCUTION
and Instrumental Music
In connection with Ohio Valley Business College. For terms call on Prof. J. F. Cooper.

ONE MAN IN BED

Other Returned Soldiers Are Far From Well,

ALTHOUGH NONE WILL DIE

From the Disease Contracted While Campaigning—Doctor Hobbs Relates His Experiences at Montauk, and Says the Boys In the General Hospital Will Receive the Best Care Possible.

The scenes of yesterday were re-enacted this morning at the depot when 13 more members of Company E arrived in the city in charge of Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

The party was composed of Sergeant Purinton, Corporal Albright and Privates Reynolds, Cox, McIntosh, Haden, Smith, Carnahan, Hoyt, Reneker, Headley, Campbell and Sweitzer of Company E, and Privates Miller and Hudson, of Company K.

They were met at Pittsburg by J. J. Purinton, who accompanied them to the city. When they reached the depot a large crowd had gathered and a great deal of difficulty was experienced in getting them to their carriages and thence to their homes.

Private Sweitzer is very ill and was unable to walk when he arrived. He was assisted to the ambulance and taken to the home of his brother in Fifth street where he is suffering with typhoid malaria. His mother resides at Moundsville, and will be here soon to nurse her son.

The remainder of the boys are all very weak and present a much more worn out appearance than the party which arrived yesterday. They were almost all taken from the detention hospital by Doctor Hobbs and it is due to his efforts that they were granted furloughs. Private Sweitzer is the only member of the party who is seriously ill,and had he been in the general hospital Doctor Hobbs would not have brought him home but was afraid the patient would not live if left in the quarantine hospital. With the proper treatment it is thought he will recover.

Doctor Hobbs when seen this morning said: "We had a hard time getting to the train as the streets of New York were packed with people. We met with a hearty reception wherever it became known the soldiers were on the train.

"There is not a member of the company who is feeling good, but they are not all ill. Sergeant Hanley is still on duty, but has chills at intervals. Sixty-day furloughs were procured for Sergeant Trump and Private Beatty, but they were not able to travel when our party left. They are both ill with malaria and have a slight trace of typhoid fever, but are confined to the general hospital and are receiving the best of treatment, and could not have better care if they were at home.

"There is no use sending anybody to New York to look after the boys, as they are getting every attention possible and receiving the best of care. The only thing a person can do for them is to secure them furloughs and bring them home. I think the company will all be home within two weeks."

SOON AS POSSIBLE

The Eighth Ohio Will, According to Secretary Alger, Be Sent Home.

Hon. G. P. Ikirt this morning sent the following telegram to Secretary R. A. Alger:

"Eighth Ohio from Santiago on board Mohawk seem to have few well men. Can not regiment be furloughed without delay?

G. P. IKIRT."

He received the following reply in a short time:

"The Eighth Ohio will be sent home as soon as possible. I was present when the entire regiment marched off the ship, and every man took a large sandwich and a quantity of milk upon debarkation, so of course your information as to the deplorable condition of the men is incorrect.

R. A. ALGER,
Secretary of War."

According to the statement of parties who were at Montauk Point, Secretary Alger saw only the well men leave the ship.

DISCUSSING IT.

Doctor Hobbs May Again Be Sent to Camp Wikoff.

The Red Cross society met last evening at the parish building of St. Stephen's church, and appointed a committee to meet with the citizens' committee for the purpose of deciding on the advisability of sending a man to Montauk Point to look after the wants of Company E and secure furloughs for all those who are able to come home.

The committee are this afternoon discussing the advisability of sending Doctor Hobbs to New York, but at the time of going to press have not reached a decision.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THE OLIVETTE

Sank This Morning at Fernandina and No One Knows the Reason at Present.

FERNANDINA, FLA., Aug. 31.—(Special).—The hospital ship Olivette anchored near quarantine here and sank this morning. The cause of the accident at present unknown. The hospital corps and the crew were on board when the boat went down, but they all escaped without injury.

An investigation will be instituted at once.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Vessels of the Navy Have Sailed From Porto Rico.

PONCE, PORTO RICO, Aug. 4.—[Special]—The monitors Puriton, Amphitrite, Terror and the Montgomery sailed this morning for Newport, R. I.

MORE MONEY.

New Contributions For the Relief of Soldiers.

The funds which will be used in caring for Company E are coming in rapidly, and the committee have now received the following amounts: Previously reported, $195.75; Cartwright Bros. and employes, $31.90; Junior American Mechanics, $25; Ohio Valley Gas company, $10; Vodrey pottery and employes, $31.50; Laughlin pottery and employes, $22.50. Total, $316.65.

There are still many potteries to hear from, and the fund will undoubtedly go over $500.

In addition to the amount turned into the committee, the soliciting committee, who have not near completed their work, have collected almost $100.

NEED MONEY.

The Soldiers Friend Cannot Now Do Its Duty.

A meeting of the Soldiers Friend society has been called for this evening at Grand Army hall for the purpose of discussing the situation.

The society was organized for the purpose of looking after the families of Company E, and has done good work. Its funds, however, are about exausted, and little more can be done. In addition to its regular work, the society feels it could do much toward helping those sick soldiers who need help.

Bicycle Policeman's Achievement.

While playing with some other boys at One Hundred and Fourth street and Second avenue, New York, the other morning Leo Starzky, 13 years old, of 2033 Second avenue was bitten by a large, black dog owned by Henry Boker of 1885 Third avenue. Young Starzky's left hand was badly lacerated.

Bicycle Policeman Fogarty placed the little fellow in front of him on his wheel and scorched to the Harlem hospital, where the boy's wounds were cauterized. The surgeons there stated that Fogarty's prompt action had probably saved the boy from lockjaw.

At Spring Grove.

Miss Ella West last evening very pleasantly entertained a few friends at the campground.

C. R. Arnold and family yesterday moved to Wellsville from the ground.

LABOR DAY.

Spend it at the Salvation Army camp meeting at Spring Grove.

THE JURY IS STILL OUT

No Decision In the Condemnation Case.

SEVERAL SUITS POSTPONED

It Is Possible They Will Never Come Up Again For Efforts Looking to a Settlement Are Being Made—An Expensive Case.

LISBON, Aug. 31.—[Special]—After hearing the testimony in the case of Liverpool against the Cleveland and Pittsburg yesterday afternoon the jury was dismissed until this morning. Testimony was taken in the cases against J. M. Aten, Old Roman company and W. E. Curry. The case against Burford Bros. was settled, the city paying $1. The case against G. C. Peterson, who owns tract 8, was dismissed, as the sewer line may be changed at that point. The cases against the railroad, Golding Sons company and Thomas Starkey were continued three weeks. As the city may reach an amicable settlement, the cases may never come up. All witnesses were allowed to go home.

When court convened this morning the attorneys proceeded to argue, occupying two hours. After Judge Boone had given the jury his charge, the jury retired.

The jury at this hour has not reached a conclusion, and is still out. The fees of jurors and their other expenses to the present amount to $106.70.

Why He Failed.

A Wellington Chinese trader known as William Joe Gett, formerly a Chinese interpreter, failed some time ago. Here is an extract from his "statement of the causes of bankruptcy," which, written in red ink, covered four pages of foolscap. After detailing his trading experiences the Celestial writes:—

"I see my troubles endless to come. I can't get my money to pay. I am helpless. During last three years over 36 creditors support my business. During last two months not a one let me have a penny on tick. Fish never can live in a dry pond without water. Engine can't move along without well supply of coal. Boy can't fly his kite without tail on it. Housekeeper pour out all tea to the cup no refilled water—how she give you more tea you require? All empty out just the way like my business."—Sydney Mail.

Labor Day Excursion to New Brighton.

Monday Sept. 5 one fare for round trip from Wellsville and intermediate ticket stations; good returning same day only. *

PERSONAL MENTION.

—W. W. Hole, of Salem was in the city to day attending to some important business.

—Charles Brownfield, who has been spending several days in Scottdale visiting relatives, has returned to the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watson, of Sixth street, who have been visiting in the east, returned to the city last evening.

—Enoch Elden, of this city, after remaining several weeks in the east, including Atlantic City, has returned home.

—Miss Mattie Lowe, of Fifth street, left this morning for Steubenville where she will remain several days visiting friends.

—Mrs. F. A. Leonard, who has been several months at New Florence, Pa., has returned to her home in West Market street.

—Doctor and Mrs. A. B. Marshall left today for Wooster, where they will spend tomorrow. They will leave Friday for their home in Des Moines.

—Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Basil avenue, who have been spending several weeks at Mackinac, have returned to the city. Mrs. Johnson made the trip in search of health.

Opening of the
NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.
J. A. NORRIS, Manager.
One Solid Week Commencing
Monday, Aug. 29.
JAMES DURKIN
And his company, presenting a modern repertoire of plays at popular prices. Monday evening the sensational comedy drama
"An American Hero."
Magnificent Scenery.
Startling Mechanical effects.
Vaudeville features.
Kleeney & Stockdale,
The Musical Artists.
Neva Carlotta,
Premier Danseuse.
Wilfred V. Lucas,
Baritone, Stereopticon and Illustrated Songs.
Monday, Ladies' night. Seats on sale at Reed's Drug Store.
ADMISSION: 10c, 20c, 30c.

OUR PICTURE SALE

Is now going on. The prices for framed pictures are lower than the frames would cost regularly.

There are all kinds at all prices from 28c upward.

THE TIME OF YEAR

has arrived to arrange your house for fall and winter.

As the long evenings approach you want an inviting house for yourself and family.

We have anticipated your wants and have just what you need.

No matter what room you want a floor covering for, we have it.

LINOLEUMS AND OIL CLOTHS FOR KITCHEN at 15c per yard up.

INGRAIN AND HEMP CARPETS FOR BED ROOMS from 12½c yd. up.

SITTING AND DINING ROOM CARPETS IN ALL THE POPULAR KINDS.

AND FOR YOUR PARLOR OUR LINE OF BRUSSELS IS THE LOWEST WE HAVE EVER SHOWN.

WE CAN GIVE YOU ELEGANT VELVETS at 70c per yard.

YOUR WINDOWS

will also need some attention, and we pride ourselves on our complete

Shade and Lace Curtain Department.

We can give you just what you need to make your windows the "correct thing."

PORTIERES

are also in this department, and as nothing in your house so much shows your taste as the decorations, you should have the proper colors and designs to go with your carpets, and the proper place to get them is right here.

THERE IS ANOTHER FEATURE

of the Big Store that pleases people, Namely: We furnish your home and let you pay for it as you can.

This

CREDIT SYSTEM

is convenient, as you will find if you try it.

THE S. G. HARD CO
THE BIG STORE

ONE MAN IN BED

Other Returned Soldiers Are Far From Well,

ALTHOUGH NONE WILL DIE

From the Disease Contracted While Campaigning—Doctor Hobbs Relates His Experiences at Montauk, and Says the Boys In the General Hospital Will Receive the Best Care Possible.

The scenes of yesterday were re-enacted this morning at the depot when 13 more members of Company E arrived in the city in charge of Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

The party was composed of Sergeant Purinton, Corporal Albright and Privates Reynolds, Cox, McIntosh, Haden, Smith, Carnahan, Hoyt, Reneker, Headley, Campbell and Sweitzer of Company E, and Privates Miller and Hudson, of Company K.

They were met at Pittsburg by J. J. Purinton, who accompanied them to the city. When they reached the depot a large crowd had gathered and a great deal of difficulty was experienced in getting them to their carriages and thence to their homes.

Private Sweitzer is very ill and was unable to walk when he arrived. He was assisted to the ambulance and taken to the home of his brother in Fifth street where he is suffering with typhoid malaria. His mother resides at Moundsville, and will be here soon to nurse her son.

The remainder of the boys are all very weak and present a much more worn out appearance than the party which arrived yesterday. They were almost all taken from the detention hospital by Doctor Hobbs and it is due to his efforts that they were granted furloughs. Private Sweitzer is the only member of the party who is seriously ill,and had he been in the general hospital Doctor Hobbs would not have brought him home but was afraid the patient would not live if left in the quarantine hospital. With the proper treatment it is thought he will recover.

Doctor Hobbs when seen this morning said: "We had a hard time getting to the train as the streets of New York were packed with people. We met with a hearty reception wherever it became known the soldiers were on the train.

"There is not a member of the company who is feeling good, but they are not all ill. Sergeant Hanley is still on duty, but has chills at intervals. Sixty-day furloughs were procured for Sergeant Trump and Private Beatty, but they were not able to travel when our party left. They are both ill with malaria and have a slight trace of typhoid fever, but are confined to the general hospital and are receiving the best of treatment, and could not have better care if they were at home.

"There is no use sending anybody to New York to look after the boys, as they are getting every attention possible and receiving the best of care. The only thing a person can do for them is to secure them furloughs and bring them home. I think the company will all be home within two weeks."

SOON AS POSSIBLE

The Eighth Ohio Will, According to Secretary Alger, Be Sent Home.

Hon. G. P. Ikirt this morning sent the following telegram to Secretary R. A. Alger:

"Eighth Ohio from Santiago on board Mohawk seem to have few well men. Can not regiment be furloughed without delay?

G. P. IKIRT."

He received the following reply in a short time:

"The Eighth Ohio will be sent home as soon as possible. I was present when the entire regiment marched off the ship, and every man took a large sandwich and a quantity of milk upon debarkation, so of course your information as to the deplorable condition of the men is incorrect.

R. A. ALGER,
Secretary of War."

According to the statement of parties who were at Montauk Point, Secretary Alger saw only the well men leave the ship.

DISCUSSING IT.

Doctor Hobbs May Again Be Sent to Camp Wikoff.

The Red Cross society met last evening at the parish building of St. Stephen's church, and appointed a committee to meet with the citizens' committee for the purpose of deciding on the advisability of sending a man to Montauk Point to look after the wants of Company E and secure furloughs for all those who are able to come home.

The committee are this afternoon discussing the advisability of sending Doctor Hobbs to New York, but at the time of going to press have not reached a decision.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THE OLIVETTE

Sank This Morning at Fernandina and No One Knows the Reason at Present.

FERNANDINA, FLA., Aug. 31.—(Special).—The hospital ship Olivette anchored near quarantine here and sank this morning. The cause of the accident at present unknown. The hospital corps and the crew were on board when the boat went down, but they all escaped without injury.

An investigation will be instituted at once.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Vessels of the Navy Have Sailed From Porto Rico.

PONCE, PORTO RICO, Aug. 4.—[Special]—The monitors Puriton, Amphitrite, Terror and the Montgomery sailed this morning for Newport, R. I.

MORE MONEY.

New Contributions For the Relief of Soldiers.

The funds which will be used in caring for Company E are coming in rapidly, and the committee have now received the following amounts: Previously reported, $195.75; Cartwright Bros. and employes, $31.90; Junior American Mechanics, $25; Ohio Valley Gas company, $10; Vodrey pottery and employes, $31.50; Laughlin pottery and employes, $22.50. Total, $316.65.

There are still many potteries to hear from, and the fund will undoubtedly go over $500.

In addition to the amount turned into the committee, the soliciting committee, who have not near completed their work, have collected almost $100.

NEED MONEY.

The Soldiers Friend Cannot Now Do Its Duty.

A meeting of the Soldiers Friend society has been called for this evening at Grand Army hall for the purpose of discussing the situation.

The society was organized for the purpose of looking after the families of Company E, and has done good work. Its funds, however, are about exausted, and little more can be done. In addition to its regular work, the society feels it could do much toward helping those sick soldiers who need help.

Bicycle Policeman's Achievement.

While playing with some other boys at One Hundred and Fourth street and Second avenue, New York, the other morning Leo Starzky, 13 years old, of 2033 Second avenue was bitten by a large, black dog owned by Henry Boker of 1885 Third avenue. Young Starzky's left hand was badly lacerated.

Bicycle Policeman Fogarty placed the little fellow in front of him on his wheel and scorched to the Harlem hospital, where the boy's wounds were cauterized. The surgeons there stated that Fogarty's prompt action had probably saved the boy from lockjaw.

At Spring Grove.

Miss Ella West last evening very pleasantly entertained a few friends at the campground.

C. R. Arnold and family yesterday moved to Wellsville from the ground.

LABOR DAY.

Spend it at the Salvation Army camp meeting at Spring Grove.

THE JURY IS STILL OUT

No Decision In the Condemnation Case.

SEVERAL SUITS POSTPONED

It Is Possible They Will Never Come Up Again For Efforts Looking to a Settlement Are Being Made—An Expensive Case.

LISBON, Aug. 31.—[Special]—After hearing the testimony in the case of Liverpool against the Cleveland and Pittsburg yesterday afternoon the jury was dismissed until this morning. Testimony was taken in the cases against J. M. Aten, Old Roman company and W. E. Curry. The case against Burford Bros. was settled, the city paying $1. The case against G. C. Peterson, who owns tract 8, was dismissed, as the sewer line may be changed at that point. The cases against the railroad, Golding Sons company and Thomas Starkey were continued three weeks. As the city may reach an amicable settlement, the cases may never come up. All witnesses were allowed to go home.

When court convened this morning the attorneys proceeded to argue, occupying two hours. After Judge Boone had given the jury his charge, the jury retired.

The jury at this hour has not reached a conclusion, and is still out. The fees of jurors and their other expenses to the present amount to $106.70.

Why He Failed.

A Wellington Chinese trader known as William Joe Gett, formerly a Chinese interpreter, failed some time ago. Here is an extract from his "statement of the causes of bankruptcy," which, written in red ink, covered four pages of foolscap. After detailing his trading experiences the Celestial writes:—

"I see my troubles endless to come. I can't get my money to pay. I am helpless. During last three years over 36 creditors support my business. During last two months not a one let me have a penny on tick. Fish never can live in a dry pond without water. Engine can't move along without well supply of coal. Boy can't fly his kite without tail on it. Housekeeper pour out all tea to the cup no refilled water—how she give you more tea you require? All empty out just the way like my business."—Sydney Mail.

Labor Day Excursion to New Brighton.

Monday Sept. 5 one fare for round trip from Wellsville and intermediate ticket stations; good returning same day only. *

PERSONAL MENTION.

—W. W. Hole, of Salem was in the city to day attending to some important business.

—Charles Brownfield, who has been spending several days in Scottdale visiting relatives, has returned to the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watson, of Sixth street, who have been visiting in the east, returned to the city last evening.

—Enoch Elden, of this city, after remaining several weeks in the east, including Atlantic City, has returned home.

—Miss Mattie Lowe, of Fifth street, left this morning for Steubenville where she will remain several days visiting friends.

—Mrs. F. A. Leonard, who has been several months at New Florence, Pa., has returned to her home in West Market street.

—Doctor and Mrs. A. B. Marshall left today for Wooster, where they will spend tomorrow. They will leave Friday for their home in Des Moines.

—Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Basil avenue, who have been spending several weeks at Mackinac, have returned to the city. Mrs. Johnson made the trip in search of health.

Opening of the

NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

J. A. NORRIS, Manager.

One Solid Week Commencing

Monday, Aug. 29.

JAMES DURKIN

And his company, presenting a modern repertoire of plays at popular prices. Monday evening the sensational comedy drama

"An American Hero."

Magnificent Scenery.
Startling Mechanical effects.
Vaudeville features.

Kleeney & Stockdale,
The Musical Artists.

Neva Carlotta,
Premier Danseuse.

Wilfred V. Lucas,
Baritone, Stereopticon and Illustrated Songs.

Monday, Ladies' night. Seats on sale at Reed's Drug Store.

ADMISSION: 10c, 20c, 30c.

OUR PICTURE SALE

Is now going on. The prices for framed pictures are lower than the frames would cost regularly.

There are all kinds at all prices from 28c upward.

THE TIME OF YEAR

has arrived to arrange your house for fall and winter.

As the long evenings approach you want an inviting house for yourself and family.

We have anticipated your wants and have just what you need.

No matter what room you want a floor covering for, we have it.

LINOLEUMS AND OIL CLOTHS FOR KITCHEN at 15c per yard up.

INGRAIN AND HEMP CARPETS FOR BED ROOMS from 12½c yd. up.

SITTING AND DINING ROOM CARPETS IN ALL THE POPULAR KINDS.

AND FOR YOUR PARLOR OUR LINE OF BRUSSELS IS THE LOWEST WE HAVE EVER SHOWN.

WE CAN GIVE YOU ELEGANT VELVETS at 70c per yard.

YOUR WINDOWS

will also need some attention, and we pride ourselves on our complete

Shade and Lace Curtain Department.

We can give you just what you need to make your windows the "correct thing."

PORTIERES

are also in this department, and as nothing in your house so much shows your taste as the decorations, you should have the proper colors and designs to go with your carpets, and the proper place to get them is right here.

THERE IS ANOTHER FEATURE

of the Big Store that pleases people, Namely: We furnish your home and let you pay for it as you can.

This

CREDIT SYSTEM

is convenient, as you will find if you try it.

THE S. G. HARD CO

THE BIG STORE

ONE MAN IN BED

Other Returned Soldiers Are Far From Well,

ALTHOUGH NONE WILL DIE

From the Disease Contracted While Campaigning—Doctor Hobbs Relates His Experiences at Montauk, and Says the Boys In the General Hospital Will Receive the Best Care Possible.

The scenes of yesterday were re-enacted this morning at the depot when 13 more members of Company E arrived in the city in charge of Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

The party was composed of Sergeant Purinton, Corporal Albright and Privates Reynolds, Cox, McIntosh, Haden, Smith, Carnahan, Hoyt, Reneker, Headley, Campbell and Sweitzer of Company E, and Privates Miller and Hudson, of Company K.

They were met at Pittsburg by J. J. Purinton, who accompanied them to the city. When they reached the depot a large crowd had gathered and a great deal of difficulty was experienced in getting them to their carriages and thence to their homes.

Private Sweitzer is very ill and was unable to walk when he arrived. He was assisted to the ambulance and taken to the home of his brother in Fifth street where he is suffering with typhoid malaria. His mother resides at Moundsville, and will be here soon to nurse her son.

The remainder of the boys are all very weak and present a much more worn out appearance than the party which arrived yesterday. They were almost all taken from the detention hospital by Doctor Hobbs and it is due to his efforts that they were granted furloughs. Private Sweitzer is the only member of the party who is seriously ill,and had he been in the general hospital Doctor Hobbs would not have brought him home but was afraid the patient would not live if left in the quarantine hospital. With the proper treatment it is thought he will recover.

Doctor Hobbs when seen this morning said: "We had a hard time getting to the train as the streets of New York were packed with people. We met with a hearty reception wherever it became known the soldiers were on the train.

"There is not a member of the company who is feeling good, but they are not all ill. Sergeant Hanley is still on duty, but has chills at intervals. Sixty-day furloughs were procured for Sergeant Trump and Private Beatty, but they were not able to travel when our party left. They are both ill with malaria and have a slight trace of typhoid fever, but are confined to the general hospital and are receiving the best of treatment, and could not have better care if they were at home.

"There is no use sending anybody to New York to look after the boys, as they are getting every attention possible and receiving the best of care. The only thing a person can do for them is to secure them furloughs and bring them home. I think the company will all be home within two weeks."

SOON AS POSSIBLE

The Eighth Ohio Will, According to Secretary Alger, Be Sent Home.

Hon. G. P. Ikirt this morning sent the following telegram to Secretary R. A. Alger:

"Eighth Ohio from Santiago on board Mohawk seem to have few well men. Can not regiment be furloughed without delay?

G. P. IKIRT."

He received the following reply in a short time:

"The Eighth Ohio will be sent home as soon as possible. I was present when the entire regiment marched off the ship, and every man took a large sandwich and a quantity of milk upon debarkation, so of course your information as to the deplorable condition of the men is incorrect.

R. A. ALGER,
Secretary of War."

According to the statement of parties who were at Montauk Point, Secretary Alger saw only the well men leave the ship.

DISCUSSING IT.

Doctor Hobbs May Again Be Sent to Camp Wikoff.

The Red Cross society met last evening at the parish building of St. Stephen's church, and appointed a committee to meet with the citizens' committee for the purpose of deciding on the advisability of sending a man to Montauk Point to look after the wants of Company E and secure furloughs for all those who are able to come home.

The committee are this afternoon discussing the advisability of sending Doctor Hobbs to New York, but at the time of going to press have not reached a decision.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THE OLIVETTE

Sank This Morning at Fernandina and No One Knows the Reason at Present.

FERNANDINA, FLA., Aug. 31.—(Special).—The hospital ship Olivette anchored near quarantine here and sank this morning. The cause of the accident at present unknown. The hospital corps and the crew were on board when the boat went down, but they all escaped without injury.

An investigation will be instituted at once.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Vessels of the Navy Have Sailed From Porto Rico.

PONCE, PORTO RICO, Aug. 4.—[Special]—The monitors Puriton, Amphitrite, Terror and the Montgomery sailed this morning for Newport, R. I.

MORE MONEY.

New Contributions For the Relief of Soldiers.

The funds which will be used in caring for Company E are coming in rapidly, and the committee have now received the following amounts: Previously reported, $195.75; Cartwright Bros. and employes, $31.90; Junior American Mechanics, $25; Ohio Valley Gas company, $10; Vodrey pottery and employes, $31.50; Laughlin pottery and employes, $22.50. Total, $316.65.

There are still many potteries to hear from, and the fund will undoubtedly go over $500.

In addition to the amount turned into the committee, the soliciting committee, who have not near completed their work, have collected almost $100.

NEED MONEY.

The Soldiers Friend Cannot Now Do Its Duty.

A meeting of the Soldiers Friend society has been called for this evening at Grand Army hall for the purpose of discussing the situation.

The society was organized for the purpose of looking after the families of Company E, and has done good work. Its funds, however, are about exausted, and little more can be done. In addition to its regular work, the society feels it could do much toward helping those sick soldiers who need help.

Bicycle Policeman's Achievement.

While playing with some other boys at One Hundred and Fourth street and Second avenue, New York, the other morning Leo Starzky, 13 years old, of 2033 Second avenue was bitten by a large, black dog owned by Henry Boker of 1885 Third avenue. Young Starzky's left hand was badly lacerated.

Bicycle Policeman Fogarty placed the little fellow in front of him on his wheel and scorched to the Harlem hospital, where the boy's wounds were cauterized. The surgeons there stated that Fogarty's prompt action had probably saved the boy from lockjaw.

At Spring Grove.

Miss Ella West last evening very pleasantly entertained a few friends at the campground.

C. R. Arnold and family yesterday moved to Wellsville from the ground.

LABOR DAY.

Spend it at the Salvation Army camp meeting at Spring Grove.

THE JURY IS STILL OUT

No Decision In the Condemnation Case.

SEVERAL SUITS POSTPONED

It Is Possible They Will Never Come Up Again For Efforts Looking to a Settlement Are Being Made—An Expensive Case.

LISBON, Aug. 31.—[Special]—After hearing the testimony in the case of Liverpool against the Cleveland and Pittsburg yesterday afternoon the jury was dismissed until this morning. Testimony was taken in the cases against J. M. Aten, Old Roman company and W. E. Curry. The case against Burford Bros. was settled, the city paying $1. The case against G. C. Peterson, who owns tract 8, was dismissed, as the sewer line may be changed at that point. The cases against the railroad, Golding Sons company and Thomas Starkey were continued three weeks. As the city may reach an amicable settlement, the cases may never come up. All witnesses were allowed to go home.

When court convened this morning the attorneys proceeded to argue, occupying two hours. After Judge Boone had given the jury his charge, the jury retired.

The jury at this hour has not reached a conclusion, and is still out. The fees of jurors and their other expenses to the present amount to $106.70.

Why He Failed.

A Wellington Chinese trader known as William Joe Gett, formerly a Chinese interpreter, failed some time ago. Here is an extract from his "statement of the causes of bankruptcy," which, written in red ink, covered four pages of foolscap. After detailing his trading experiences the Celestial writes:—

"I see my troubles endless to come. I can't get my money to pay. I am helpless. During last three years over 36 creditors support my business. During last two months not a one let me have a penny on tick. Fish never can live in a dry pond without water. Engine can't move along without well supply of coal. Boy can't fly his kite without tail on it. Housekeeper pour out all tea to the cup no refilled water—how she give you more tea you require? All empty out just the way like my business."—Sydney Mail.

Labor Day Excursion to New Brighton.

Monday Sept. 5 one fare for round trip from Wellsville and intermediate ticket stations; good returning same day only. *

PERSONAL MENTION.

—W. W. Hole, of Salem was in the city to day attending to some important business.

—Charles Brownfield, who has been spending several days in Scottdale visiting relatives, has returned to the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watson, of Sixth street, who have been visiting in the east, returned to the city last evening.

—Enoch Elden, of this city, after remaining several weeks in the east, including Atlantic City, has returned home.

—Miss Mattie Lowe, of Fifth street, left this morning for Steubenville where she will remain several days visiting friends.

—Mrs. F. A. Leonard, who has been several months at New Florence, Pa., has returned to her home in West Market street.

—Doctor and Mrs. A. B. Marshall left today for Wooster, where they will spend tomorrow. They will leave Friday for their home in Des Moines.

—Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Basil avenue, who have been spending several weeks at Mackinac, have returned to the city. Mrs. Johnson made the trip in search of health.

Opening of the

NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

J. A. NORRIS, Manager.

One Solid Week Commencing

Monday, Aug. 29.

JAMES DURKIN

And his company, presenting a modern repertoire of plays at popular prices. Monday evening the sensational comedy drama

"An American Hero."

Magnificent Scenery.
Startling Mechanical effects.
Vaudeville features.

Kleeney & Stockdale,
The Musical Artists.

Neva Carlotta,
Premier Danseuse.

Wilfred V. Lucas,
Baritone, Stereopticon and Illustrated Songs.

Monday, Ladies' night. Seats on sale at Reed's Drug Store.

ADMISSION: 10c, 20c, 30c.

OUR PICTURE SALE

Is now going on. The prices for framed pictures are lower than the frames would cost regularly.

There are all kinds at all prices from 28c upward.

THE TIME OF YEAR

has arrived to arrange your house for fall and winter.

As the long evenings approach you want an inviting house for yourself and family.

We have anticipated your wants and have just what you need.

No matter what room you want a floor covering for, we have it.

LINOLEUMS AND OIL CLOTHS FOR KITCHEN at 15c per yard up.

INGRAIN AND HEMP CARPETS FOR BED ROOMS from 12½c yd. up.

SITTING AND DINING ROOM CARPETS IN ALL THE POPULAR KINDS.

AND FOR YOUR PARLOR OUR LINE OF BRUSSELS IS THE LOWEST WE HAVE EVER SHOWN.

WE CAN GIVE YOU ELEGANT VELVETS at 70c per yard.

YOUR WINDOWS

will also need some attention, and we pride ourselves on our complete

Shade and Lace Curtain Department.

We can give you just what you need to make your windows the "correct thing."

PORTIERES

are also in this department, and as nothing in your house so much shows your taste as the decorations, you should have the proper colors and designs to go with your carpets, and the proper place to get them is right here.

THERE IS ANOTHER FEATURE

of the Big Store that pleases people, Namely: We furnish your home and let you pay for it as you can.

This

CREDIT SYSTEM

is convenient, as you will find if you try it.

THE S. G. HARD CO

THE BIG STORE

COLLECTED MUCH MONEY

But It Was Soon Sent Out by the Auditor.

LIVERPOOL GETS ITS SHARE

Thousands of Dollars Are Returned to the City From Lisbon After the Semi-annual Settlement—How the Money Is Distributed In the County.

LISBON, Aug. 31.[Special]—Deputy Auditor Frank Adams has completed the semi-annual settlement with the county treasurer. The amount that each township receives for township, road and school is indicated as follows:

Liverpool, $2,356.31: St. Clair, $1,590.13; Middleton, $2,712.77; Unity, $964.92; Yellow Creek, $1,533.81; Madison, $589.18; Elk Run, $1,320.75; Fairfield, $2,085.68; Washington, $1,052.81; Wayne, $1,356.40; Center, $2,089; Salem, $3,313 02; Franklin, $1,097.85; Hanover, $2,031.74; Butler, $2,022.95; Perry, $1,695.15; West $2,916.25; Knox, $2,304.71.

Total received by townships exclusive of school funds is $11,343.33. The total school fund is $83,640.25.

The corporations receive the following: Liverpool, $21,684.11; Rogers, $1,777.21; Palestine, 3,188.45; Wellsville, $11,541.56; Columbiana, $4,079.40; Salineville, $2,768.80; Lisbon, $6,123.01; Washingtonville, $334.65; Leetonia, $4,942.20; Hanover $191.73; Salem, $14,191.55; total $69,222.67.

The county retains $56,690.37, divided as follows: County fund, $24,894.70; poor, $11,133.40; bridge, $11,121,15; building, $1,123.12; soldiers' relief, $1,106.60; children's home, $3,332.72; refunder, $1,297.84; treasurer's fees, $1,964.72; interest and bond redemption, $561.54.

The total amount of taxes collected was $244,217.23.

FELL OFF A CAR.

Mr. Green Was Groaning When Passengers Picked Him Up.

Early last evening as street cars passed the Lythe switch the passengers on the east bound car in charge of George Hale, saw a man fall from the rear platform of the west bound car and alight on his head.

The car was stopped, and a number of the passengers went back where they found the man laying on the rails groaning at a great rate. He was assisted to his feet and an examination made and it was found he was a great deal more frightened than hurt. His name is Green and he lives in this city.

DUTCH ZOELLARS SHOT.

That Is the Report Which Comes From Down the River.

Word received in the city yesterday stated that Dutch Zoellars, who is well known here, had been shot in a quarrel at Springtown, W. Va., a small village about 12 miles from Sistersville.

No particulars were given, except the fact that Zoellars had been shot three times and was in a dangerous condition. An effort is now being made to ascertain the truth of the report.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The Ladies Will Discuss the Situation.

Mrs. Calhoun, president of the Hospital association, has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon at the Young Men's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

All members of the association and all other ladies interested in the hospital project are earnestly requested to be present.

Mercer Will Improve.

"Winnie Mercer's batting is bound to improve" says Jimmy McGuire. "He has been relieved of the responsibility of pitching and can apply both his eye and mind to the ball."

McGuire is the first catcher Mercer ever pitched to, and is probably better able to judge our own Winnie than any man in the league.

Excursions to Steubenville.

Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, the Pennsylvania company will sell low rate excursion tickets to Steubenville from East Liverpool for the races; return coupons good Saturday, Sept. 3, inclusive. *

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceler. Leave your order ta once.

HEAR SEC. SULLY

on "Job" Sunday afternoon at Spring Grove.

RHYME OF RHYMES.

Wild on the mountain peak the wind
  Repeats its old refrain,
Like ghosts of mortals who have sinned
  And fain would sin again.

For "wind" I do not rhyme to "mind,"
  Like many mortal men.
"Again" (when one reflects) 'twere kind
  To rhyme as if "agen."

I never met a single soul
  Who spoke of "wind" as "wined,"
And yet we use it, on the whole,
  To rhyme to "find" and "blind."

We say, "Now don't do that agen,"
  When people give us pain.
In poetry, nine times in ten,
  It rhymes to "Spain" or "Dane."

Oh, which is wrong or which is right?
  Oh, which is right or wrong?
The sound in prose familiar quite
  Or those we meet in song?

To hold that "love" can rhyme to "prove"
  Requires some force of will,
Yet in the ancient lyric groove
  We meet them rhyming still.

This was our learned fathers' wont
  In prehistoric times.
We follow it, or if we don't
  We oft run short of rhymes.
—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

DICK'S GOOD TIME.

A Very Human Boy Enjoying His Well Earned Reward.

A portly gentleman sat on the porch and smiled while a small boy, also smiling, painted the front fence.

"Look at that boy," the portly man remarked to a visitor. "He thinks he is having a good time. A small boy is surely the drollest creature on earth. When I was a youngster, I remember that there were certain kinds of work I considered play, and one of them was painting. I was always crazy to paint. Many times I have taken a bucket of muddy water and an old paint brush and have spent a whole half day putting a thick coat on the side of my father's barn.

"So with my boy Dick, the little chap painting the fence. He has always been crazy to paint. He is enjoying himself now—you can see he is, and he will paint that whole fence, too, just as well as he knows how. I don't care if it is a trifle smeared. He's getting joy, solid joy, thicker than the paint on his hands and clothes.

"There's a mean side to it too. He wanted to paint the fence, and I wanted the weeds pulled out of the yard. So, like an underhanded rascal, I bargained with him. I told him that if he would pull all the weeds out I would let him paint the fence. He went through the other job like a soldier—he hates to pull weeds; all boys do—and now he thinks he is getting his reward. It is a downright shame to fool him that way, don't you think so?"

The portly gentleman chuckled again, and the small boy, wild with joy, went on plastering paint on the fence.—Detroit Free Press.

Crossing the Threshold.

Crossing the threshold was and is the most critical period of the wedding day with all races, not even excepting the Anglo-Saxon.

The superstitious fears of the many, always particularly alert on the occasion of a marriage, culminate in this final act of the drama. The lifting of the bride over the threshold or her stepping across it is the signal in Persia, Arabia and among the Copts of Egypt for the sacrifice of a goat or a sheep. Among the Aenezes, according to Burckhardt, the bridegroom simply kills a lamb in front of his father-in-law's tent, and the ceremony, but for the running of the bride from one tent to another, is complete. Perhaps the purest symbolical act is that of the Transylvanian Saxon bridal pair, who step over the threshold with their hands tied together. Some of these Transylvanian customs are remarkable and must be survivals from a very ancient period. The bridegroom never wears the shirt made for him by the bride except on his wedding day and at his burial, just as the veil of the Japanese bride becomes one day her shroud.—London Spectator.

Dickens In Evening Dress.

When Charles Dickens was to make his first appearance in Boston before an American audience as a reader, an immense crowd awaited him. The enthusiasm of the people for the most popular novelist then living had risen to fever heat. One of the most ardent of his admirers afterward told this little incident of the evening:

"With a few gentlemen who wished to welcome and show him attention I was in the little room at the back of the platform when Dickens entered it. He was a rather stout man with a somewhat red face, and I saw to my surprise, that he was dressed in an exaggerated servility to the extreme fashion.

"More than this, he wore a boutonniere in each buttonhole, and two watches, the chains of which were strung aggressively across his chest. There was a gaudy bad taste in his appearance which his friends regretted, knowing how distasteful it would be to most of his admirers who appreciated his genius and enjoyed his writings.

"No one, of course, could broach the subject to him, and he appeared that night and every other night of his engagement in the same attire. The universal comment was, 'Why, this is a petit maitre.' How can a man with such tastes be the creator of Tiny Tim and Sam Weller!"—Youth's Companion.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

GAME PLAQUES

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant, English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION

packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER

to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

REDUCED FARES

To Various Points via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines as indicated in the following paragraphs. Although concessions in fare are authorized for meetings of certain Orders, tickets may be obtained by any person whether a member of the order or interested in the event. The reduced rates will be open to everybody.

To Cincinnati, Ohio.--September 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, for the G. A. R. National Encampment. Good returning until Septembr 13th, with privilege of extension until October 2d.

To Pittsburg, Pa.—October 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good returning until October 17th, account Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. Return limit may be extended until October 31st.

During the excursion season special rates will also be in effect via Pennsylvania Lines for special and local events. For particular information please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer In Colorado.

Colorado is particularly inviting as a summer haven. The climate is remarkable for its invigorating effect, and the state is rich in grand scenery and points of interest where a vacation may be pleasantly spent. Special arrangements are being made for the entertainment of visitors who are this season expected to be attracted to the seclusion and quiet of the Rockies and the hills and canyons of that great wonderland.

Colorado today is nearer home than in former years. The fast schedules of the Pennsylvania route and connecting lines bring the centennial state within easy reach, and the cost of a trip thither is no longer a luxury. The special low rate tourist tickets over the Pennsylvania lines places the cost for transportation within the limit of the usual allowance for vacation trips. For special information about rates, time of trains and other details please apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, D. P. agt., Pittsburg, Pa. *

Excursion via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Traverse City, Petoskey and Mackinac Island, the most popular resorts in Northern Michigan, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines, Tuesday, Sept. 6th. The round trip rate from East Liverpool will be $10 to Petoskey or Traverse City, and $11 to Mackinac Island. Tickets will be good going on regular trains on the dates specified and good returning 30 days. For special information on the subject apply to Ticket Agent Adam Hill at East Liverpool, O. *

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the ocean, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent, or address your requests to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa

Take Your Choice.

An excursion to those popular northern Michigan resorts will run via Pennsylvania lines Tuesday, Sept. 6th. See Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, about it. *

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains-Central Time

Westward.	335 AM	337 PM	339 PM	341 PM	359 AM
Pittsburgh ...lv.	†5 45	†1 30	†4 30	*11 00	†7 30
Rochester.....“	6 40	2 15	5 25	11 50	8 25
Beaver.....“	6 45	2 20	5 33	11 55	8 30
Vanport.....“	6 50	.....	5 38	11 59	8 34
Industry.....“	7 00	.....	5 50	12 10	8 44
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 03	.....	5 55	12 11	f8 48
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 11	2 40	6 04	12 20	8 55
East Liverpool...“	7 20	2 49	6 14	12 30	9 05
Wellsville.....ar.	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop.“	7 46	.....		12 50
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52	.....		12 55
Hammondsville“	8 01	.....		f1 03
Irondale.....“	8 06	3 22		f1 06
Salineville.....“	8 25	3 38		1 27
Bayard.....“	9 09	4 10		2 05
Alliance.....{ar.	9 40	4 33	Daily.	2 30
Alliance.....{lv.	10 05	4 38		2 35
Ravenna.....“	10 40	5 05		3 10
Hudson.....“	11 02	5 25		3 30
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville.....lv.	7 47	3 10	6 55	†5 55	†11 02
Wellsville Shop.“	7 52	3 13	6 58	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek.....“	7 57	3 18	7 04	6 05	11 10
Port Homer.....“	f8 03	f3 23	f7 09	f6 09	.....
Empire.....“	8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville.....“	f8 17	f3 33	7 18	6 21	11 23
Toronto.....“	8 21	3 38	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia.....“	f8 28	f3 43	f7 30	6 37	.....
Steubenville...{ar.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Steubenville...{lv.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Mingo Jc.....“	8 51	4 07	7 53	7 05	11 53
Brilliant.....“	8 58	4 14	8 00	7 14	12 01
Rush Run.....“	9 07	4 23	8 09	7 24	12 10
Portland.....“	9 14	4 30	8 15	7 30	12 16
Yorkville.....“	f9 19	f4 35	8 20	7 37	12 21
Martins Ferry.....“	9 32	4 45	8 28	7 52	12 28
Bridgeport.....“	9 40	4 50	8 35	7 58	12 35
Bellaire.....ar.	9 50	5 05	8 45	8 10	12 45
	AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

Through Coaches on Trains 336, 359, 337 and 360 between Cleveland and Bellaire.

Eastward.	340 AM	336 AM		338 PM	360 PM	48 PM
Bellaire.....lv.	†4 45	†9 00	Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.	†4 45	†1 00	†2 45
Bridgeport.....“	4 53	9 09		4 54	1 10	2 58
Martins Ferry...“	5 01	9 15		5 02	1 16	3 06
Yorkville.....“	f5 10	.....		5 12		f3 17
Portland.....“	5 15	9 28		5 19	1 28	3 22
Rush Run.....“	5 20	9 33		5 24		3 27
Brilliant.....“	5 28	9 41		5 34	1 42	3 35
Mingo Jc.....“	5 35	9 48		5 41	1 50	3 42
Steubenville...{ar.	5 44	9 56		5 50	1 58	3 51
Steubenville...{lv.	5 44	9 56		5 50	1 58	4 00
Costonia.....“	f6 00	10 12				f4 15
Toronto.....“	6 07	10 17		6 11	2 19	4 22
Elliottsville.....“	6 11	10 19				f4 24
Empire.....“	6 13	10 27		6 21	2 27	4 32
Port Homer.....“	f6 20	10 31				4 38
Yellow Creek.....“	6 26	10 37		6 33		4 44
Wellsville Shop.“	6 31	10 42		6 38		4 49
Wellsville.....ar.	6 35	10 50		6 41	2 45	4 56
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42		Nos. 338 and 342 connect in Union Station, Pitts., with thro' trains East.		3 05	*Daily.
Wellsville Shop.“	7 46				.....
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52				.....
Hammondsville“	8 01				.....
Irondale.....“	8 06				3 22
Salineville.....“	8 25				3 38
Bayard.....“	9 09				4 10
Alliance.....{ar.	9 40				4 33
Alliance.....{lv.	10 05				4 38
Ravenna.....“	10 40				5 05
Hudson.....“	11 02				5 25	342
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10				6 25	AM
Wellsville.....lv.	6 45	10 57	†Daily Except Sunday.	6 51	3 10	*3 50
East Liverpool...“	6 57	11 07		7 00	3 20	4 01
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 07	11 18		7 08	3 30	4 12
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 20	11 24			f3 38	f4 20
Industry.....“	7 25	11 30		7 22	3 42	4 25
Vanport.....“	7 34	11 40			f3 53	f4 35
Beaver.....“	7 40	11 45		7 36	3 58	4 40
Rochester.....“	7 50	11 50		7 42	4 12	4 45
Pittsburgh...ar.	8 50	12 40		8 30	5 10	5 40
	AM	PM		PM	PM	AM

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager. E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

6-28-98.-H PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

Is Your Head Clear? Do you feel a boundless energy in your blood? You can have these and renewed vitality by taking a dose of Paragon Tea before retiring. Constipation Cured. 25 cents for one months treatment. All druggists. Send 2 cent stamp for sample. S. R. FEIL & CO. Cleveland, O.

UNION LABELS.

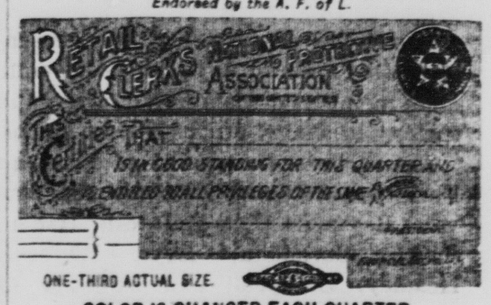
It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

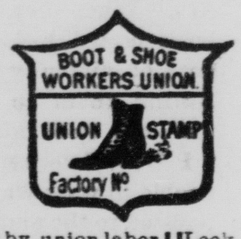


ONE-THIRD ACTUAL SIZE.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

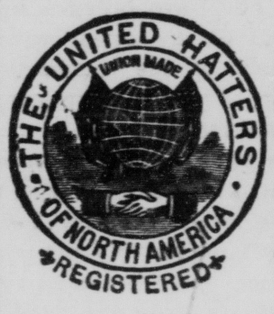


The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.



This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

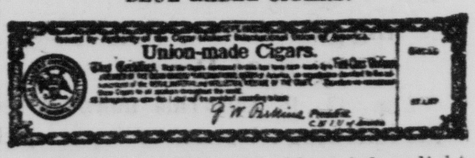
You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

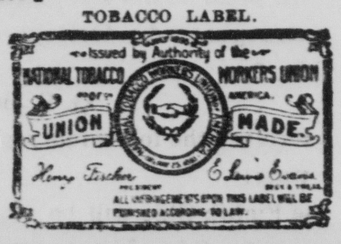
The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.



This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.



The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

COLLECTED MUCH MONEY

But It Was Soon Sent Out by the Auditor.

LIVERPOOL GETS ITS SHARE

Thousands of Dollars Are Returned to the City From Lisbon After the Semi-annual Settlement—How the Money Is Distributed In the County.

LISBON, Aug. 31.[Special]—Deputy Auditor Frank Adams has completed the semi-annual settlement with the county treasurer. The amount that each township receives for township, road and school is indicated as follows:

Liverpool, $2,356.31: St. Clair, $1,590.13; Middleton, $2,712.77; Unity, $964.92; Yellow Creek, $1,533.81; Madison, $589.18; Elk Run, $1,320.75; Fairfield, $2,085.68; Washington, $1,052.81; Wayne, $1,356.40; Center, $2,089; Salem, $3,313.02; Franklin, $1,097.85; Hanover, $2,031.74; Butler, $2,022.95; Perry, $1,695.15; West $2,916.25; Knox, $2,304.71.

Total received by townships exclusive of school funds is $11,343.33. The total school fund is $83,640.25.

The corporations receive the following: Liverpool, $21,684.11; Rogers, $1,777.21; Palestine, 3,188.45; Wellsville, $11,541.56; Columbiana, $4,079.40; Salineville, $2,768.80; Lisbon, $6,123.01; Washingtonville, $334.65; Leetonia, $4,942.20; Hanover $191.73; Salem, $14,191.55; total $69,222.67.

The county retains $56,690.37, divided as follows: County fund, $24,894.70; poor, $11,133.40; bridge, $11,121.15; building, $1,123.12; soldiers' relief, $1,106.60; children's home, $3,332.72; refunder, $1,297.84; treasurer's fees, $1,964.72; interest and bond redemption, $561.54.

The total amount of taxes collected was $244,217.33.

FELL OFF A CAR.

Mr. Green Was Groaning When Passengers Picked Him Up.

Early last evening as street cars passed the Lythe switch the passengers on the east bound car in charge of George Hale, saw a man fall from the rear platform of the west bound car and alight on his head.

The car was stopped, and a number of the passengers went back where they found the man laying on the rails groaning at a great rate. He was assisted to his feet and an examination made and it was found he was a great deal more frightened than hurt. His name is Green and he lives in this city.

DUTCH ZOELLARS SHOT.

That Is the Report Which Comes From Down the River.

Word received in the city yesterday stated that Dutch Zoellars, who is well known here, had been shot in a quarrel at Springtown, W. Va., a small village about 12 miles from Sistersville.

No particulars were given, except the fact that Zoellars had been shot three times and was in a dangerous condition. An effort is now being made to ascertain the truth of the report.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The Ladies Will Discuss the Situation.

Mrs. Calhoun, president of the Hospital association, has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon at the Young Men's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

All members of the association and all other ladies interested in the hospital project are earnestly requested to be present.

Mercer Will Improve.

"Winnie Mercer's batting is bound to improve" says Jimmy McGuire. "He has been relieved of the responsibility of pitching and can apply both his eye and mind to the ball."

McGuire is the first catcher Mercer ever pitched to, and is probably better able to judge our own Winnie than any man in the league.

Excursions to Steubenville.

Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, the Pennsylvania company will sell low rate excursion tickets to Steubenville from East Liverpool for the races; return coupons good Saturday, Sept. 3, inclusive. *

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceler. Leave your order ta once.

HEAR SEC. SULLY

on "Job" Sunday afternoon at Spring Grove.

RHYME OF RHYMES.

Wild on the mountain peak the wind
  Repeats its old refrain,
Like ghosts of mortals who have sinned
  And fain would sin again.

For "wind" I do not rhyme to "mind,"
  Like many mortal men.
"Again" (when one reflects) 'twere kind
  To rhyme as if "agen."

I never met a single soul
  Who spoke of "wind" as "wined,"
And yet we use it, on the whole,
  To rhyme to "find" and "blind."

We say, "Now don't do that agen,"
  When people give us pain.
In poetry, nine times in ten,
  It rhymes to "Spain" or "Dane."

Oh, which is wrong or which is right?
  Oh, which is right or wrong?
The sound in prose familiar quite
  Or those we meet in song?

To hold that "love" can rhyme to "prove"
  Requires some force of will,
Yet in the ancient lyric groove
  We meet them rhyming still.

This was our learned fathers' wont
  In prehistoric times.
We follow it, or if we don't
  We oft run short of rhymes.
—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

DICK'S GOOD TIME.

A Very Human Boy Enjoying His Well Earned Reward.

A portly gentleman sat on the porch and smiled while a small boy, also smiling, painted the front fence.

"Look at that boy," the portly man remarked to a visitor. "He thinks he is having a good time. A small boy is surely the drollest creature on earth. When I was a youngster, I remember that there were certain kinds of work I considered play, and one of them was painting. I was always crazy to paint. Many times I have taken a bucket of muddy water and an old paint brush and have spent a whole half day putting a thick coat on the side of my father's barn.

"So with my boy Dick, the little chap painting the fence. He has always been crazy to paint. He is enjoying himself now—you can see he is, and he will paint that whole fence, too, just as well as he knows how. I don't care if it is a trifle smeared. He's getting joy, solid joy, thicker than the paint on his hands and clothes.

"There's a mean side to it too. He wanted to paint the fence, and I wanted the weeds pulled out of the yard. So, like an underhanded rascal, I bargained with him. I told him that if he would pull all the weeds out I would let him paint the fence. He went through the other job like a soldier—he hates to pull weeds; all boys do—and now he thinks he is getting his reward. It is a downright shame to fool him that way, don't you think so?"

The portly gentleman chuckled again, and the small boy, wild with joy, went on plastering paint on the fence.—Detroit Free Press.

Crossing the Threshold.

Crossing the threshold was and is the most critical period of the wedding day with all races, not even excepting the Anglo-Saxon.

The superstitious fears of the many, always particularly alert on the occasion of a marriage, culminate in this final act of the drama. The lifting of the bride over the threshold or her stepping across it is the signal in Persia, Arabia and among the Copts of Egypt for the sacrifice of a goat or a sheep. Among the Aenezes, according to Burckhardt, the bridegroom simply kills a lamb in front of his father-in-law's tent, and the ceremony, but for the running of the bride from one tent to another, is complete. Perhaps the purest symbolical act is that of the Transylvanian Saxon bridal pair, who step over the threshold with their hands tied together. Some of these Transylvanian customs are remarkable and must be survivals from a very ancient period. The bridegroom never wears the shirt made for him by the bride except on his wedding day and at his burial, just as the veil of the Japanese bride becomes one day her shroud.—London Spectator.

Dickens In Evening Dress.

When Charles Dickens was to make his first appearance in Boston before an American audience as a reader, an immense crowd awaited him. The enthusiasm of the people for the most popular novelist then living had risen to fever heat. One of the most ardent of his admirers afterward told this little incident of the evening:

"With a few gentlemen who wished to welcome and show him attention I was in the little room at the back of the platform when Dickens entered it. He was a rather stout man with a somewhat red face, and I saw to my surprise, that he was dressed in an exaggerated servility to the extreme fashion.

"More than this, he wore a boutonniere in each buttonhole, and two watches, the chains of which were strung aggressively across his chest. There was a gaudy bad taste in his appearance which his friends regretted, knowing how distasteful it would be to most of his admirers who appreciated his genius and enjoyed his writings.

"No one, of course, could broach the subject to him, and he appeared that night and every other night of his engagement in the same attire. The universal comment was, 'Why, this is a petit maitre.' How can a man with such tastes be the creator of Tiny Tim and Sam Weller!"—Youth's Companion.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

GAME PLAQUES

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant,
English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION

packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER

to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

REDUCED FARES

To Various Points via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines as indicated in the following paragraphs. Although concessions in fare are authorized for meetings of certain Orders, tickets may be obtained by any person whether a member of the order or interested in the event. The reduced rates will be open to everybody.

To Cincinnati, Ohio.—September 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, for the G. A. R. National Encampment. Good returning until September 13th, with privilege of extension until October 2d.

To Pittsburg, Pa.—October 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good returning until October 17th, account Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. Return limit may be extended until October 31st.

During the excursion season special rates will also be in effect via Pennsylvania Lines for special and local events. For particular information please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer In Colorado.

Colorado is particularly inviting as a summer haven. The climate is remarkable for its invigorating effect, and the state is rich in grand scenery and points of interest where a vacation may be pleasantly spent. Special arrangements are being made for the entertainment of visitors who are this season expected to be attracted to the seclusion and quiet of the Rockies and the hills and canyons of that great wonderland.

Colorado today is nearer home than in former years. The fast schedules of the Pennsylvania route and connecting lines bring the centennial state within easy reach, and the cost of a trip thither is no longer a luxury. The special low rate tourist tickets over the Pennsylvania lines places the cost for transportation within the limit of the usual allowance for vacation trips. For special information about rates, time of trains and other details please apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, D. P. agt., Pittsburg, Pa. *

Excursion via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Traverse City, Petoskey and Mackinac Island, the most popular resorts in Northern Michigan, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines, Tuesday, Sept. 6th. The round trip rate from East Liverpool will be $10 to Petoskey or Traverse City, and $11 to Mackinac Island. Tickets will be good going on regular trains on the dates specified and good returning 30 days. For special information on the subject apply to Ticket Agent Adam Hill at East Liverpool, O. *

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the ocean, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent, or address your requests to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa

Take Your Choice.

An excursion to those popular northern Michigan resorts will run via Pennsylvania lines Tuesday, Sept. 6th. See Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, about it. *

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains-Central Time

Through Coaches on Trains 336, 338, 339, 337 and 360 between Cleveland and Bellaire.

Westward.	335 AM	337 PM	339 PM	341 PM	359 AM
Pittsburgh ...lv.	†5 45	†1 30	†4 30	†11 00	†7 30
Rochester ... "	6 40	2 15	5 25	11 50	8 25
Beaver ... "	6 45	2 20	5 30	11 55	8 30
Vanport ... "	6 50	....	5 35	11 00	8 34
Industry ... "	7 00	....	5 50	12 10	8 44
Cooks Ferry ... "	7 03	....	5 55	12 11	f8 48
Smiths Ferry ... "	7 11	2 48	6 04	12 20	8 55
East Liverpool ... "	7 20	2 49	6 14	12 30	9 05
Wellsville ... ar.	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville ... lv.	7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop ... "	7 46	....		12 50
Yellow Creek ... "	7 52	....		12 55
Hammondsville ... "	8 01			f1 03
Irondale ... "	8 06	3 22		f1 06
Salineville ... "	8 25	3 38		1 27
Bayard ... "	9 09	4 10		2 05
Alliance ... ar.	9 40	4 33		2 30
Alliance ... lv.	10 05	4 38	Calling stop.	2 35
Ravenna ... "	10 40	5 05		3 10
Hudson ... "	11 02	5 25		3 30
Cleveland ... ar.	12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville ... lv.	7 47	3 10	6 55	†5 55	†11 02
Wellsville Shop ... "	7 52	3 13	6 58	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek ... "	7 57	3 18	7 04	6 05	11 10
Port Homer ... "	f8 03	f3 23	f7 09	f6 09	....
Empire ... "	8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville ... "	8 17	3 33	7 18	6 21	11 23
Toronto ... "	8 21	3 38	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia ... "	f8 28	f3 43	f7 30	6 37	....
Steubenville ... ar.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Steubenville ... lv.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Mingo Jc ... "	8 51	4 07	7 53	7 05	11 53
Brilliant ... "	8 58	4 14	8 00	7 14	12 01
Rush Run ... "	9 07	4 23	8 09	7 24	12 10
Portland ... "	9 14	4 30	8 15	7 30	12 16
Yorkville ... "	f9 19	f4 35	8 20	7 37	12 21
Martins Ferry ... "	9 32	4 45	8 30	7 52	12 30
Bridgeport ... "	9 40	4 50	8 35	7 58	12 35
Bellaire ... ar.	9 50	5 05	8 45	8 10	12 45
	AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

Eastward.	340 AM	336 AM		338 PM	360 PM	48 PM
Bellaire ... lv.	†4 45	†9 00	Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.	†4 45	†1 00	†2 45
Bridgeport ... "	4 53	9 03		4 54	1 10	2 53
Martins Ferry ... "	5 01	9 15		5 02	1 16	3 01
Yorkville ... "	f5 10	....		5 12	....	f3 11
Portland ... "	5 15	9 28		5 19	1 28	3 17
Rush Run ... "	5 20	9 33		5 24	....	3 22
Brilliant ... "	5 28	9 41		5 34	1 42	3 30
Mingo Jc ... "	5 35	9 48		5 41	1 50	3 37
Steubenville ... ar.	5 44	9 56		5 50	1 58	3 46
Steubenville ... lv.	5 44	9 56		5 50	1 58	4 00
Costonia ... "	f6 00	10 12		....	....	f4 15
Toronto ... "	6 07	10 17		6 11	2 19	4 22
Elliottsville ... "	6 11	10 19		....	....	f4 26
Empire ... "	6 13	10 27		6 21	2 27	4 32
Port Homer ... "	f6 20	10 31		....	....	f4 39
Yellow Creek ... "	6 26	10 37		6 35	....	4 45
Wellsville Shop ... "	6 31	10 42		6 40	....	4 50
Wellsville ... ar.	6 35	10 50		6 41	2 45	4 55
Wellsville ... lv.	7 42		Nos. 338 and 343 connect in Union Station, Pitts., with thro' trains East.		3 05	*Daily. |Meals.
Wellsville Shop ... "	7 46				....
Yellow Creek ... "	7 52				....
Hammondsville ... "	8 01				....
Irondale ... "	8 06				....	5 22
Salineville ... "	8 25				....	5 38
Bayard ... "	9 09				....	6 10
Alliance ... ar.	9 40				....	6 33
Alliance ... lv.	10 05				....	6 38
Ravenna ... "	10 40				....	7 05
Hudson ... "	11 02				....	7 25
Cleveland ... ar.	12 10				....	8 25
Wellsville ... lv.	6 45	10 57	†Daily Except Sunday.	6 51	3 10	*3 50
East Liverpool ... "	6 57	11 07		7 03	3 26	4 01
Smiths Ferry ... "	7 07	11 18		7 13	3 36	4 12
Cooks Ferry ... "	7 20	11 24		....	f3 42	f4 20
Industry ... "	7 25	11 30		7 22	3 47	4 25
Vanport ... "	7 34	11 40		....	f3 56	f4 35
Beaver ... "	7 40	11 45		7 36	3 58	4 40
Rochester ... "	7 50	11 50		7 42	4 12	4 45
Pittsburgh ... ar.	8 50	12 40		8 30	5 10	5 40
	AM	PM		PM	PM	AM

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager. E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

6-25-98.-H PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

Is Your Head Clear? Do you feel a boundless energy in your blood? You can have these and renewed vitality by taking a dose of Paragon Tea before retiring. Constipation Cured. 25 cents for one months treatment. All druggists. Send 2 cent stamp for sample. S. B. NEIL & CO. Cleveland, O.

UNION LABELS.

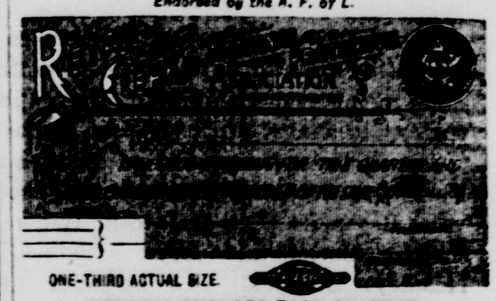
It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

Endorsed by the A. F. of L.



ONE-THIRD ACTUAL SIZE.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.

The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

BOOT & SHOE WORKERS UNION. UNION STAMP. Factory No.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

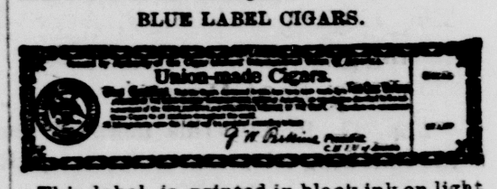
You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

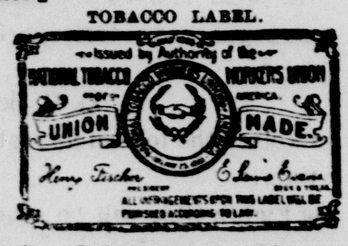
The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.



This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.



The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

COLLECTED MUCH MONEY

But It Was Soon Sent Out by the Auditor.

LIVERPOOL GETS ITS SHARE

Thousands of Dollars Are Returned to the City From Lisbon After the Semi-annual Settlement—How the Money Is Distributed In the County.

LISBON, Aug. 31.[Special]—Deputy Auditor Frank Adams has completed the semi-annual settlement with the county treasurer. The amount that each township receives for township, road and school is indicated as follows:

Liverpool, $3,356.31; St. Clair, $1,590.13; Middleton, $2,712.77; Unity, $964.92; Yellow Creek, $1,533.81; Madison, $589.18; Elk Run, $1,320.75; Fairfield, $2,085.68; Washington, $1,052.81; Wayne, $1,356.40; Center, $2,089; Salem, $3,313.02; Franklin, $1,097.85; Hanover, $2,031.74; Butler, $2,022.95; Perry, $1,695.15; West $2,916.25; Knox, $2,304.71.

Total received by townships exclusive of school funds is $11,343.33. The total school fund is $83,640.25.

The corporations receive the following: Liverpool, $21,684.11; Rogers, $1,777.21; Palestine, 3,188.45; Wellsville, $11,541.56; Columbiana, $4,079.40; Salineville, $2,768.80; Lisbon, $6,123.01; Washingtonville, $334.65; Leetonia, $4,942.20; Hanover $191.73; Salem, $14,191.55; total $69,222.67.

The county retains $56,690.37, divided as follows: County fund, $24,894.70; poor, $11,133.40; bridge, $11,121.15; building, $1,123.12; soldiers' relief, $1,106.60; children's home, $3,333.72; refunder, $1,397.64; treasurer's fees, $1,964.72; interest and bond redemption, $561.54.

The total amount of taxes collected was $244,217.23.

FELL OFF A CAR.

Mr. Green Was Groaning When Passengers Picked Him Up.

Early last evening as street cars passed the Lythe switch the passengers on the east bound car in charge of George Hale, saw a man fall from the rear platform of the west bound car and alight on his head.

The car was stopped, and a number of the passengers went back where they found the man laying on the rails groaning at a great rate. He was assisted to his feet and an examination made and it was found he was a great deal more frightened than hurt. His name is Green and he lives in this city.

DUTCH ZOELLARS SHOT.

That Is the Report Which Comes From Down the River.

Word received in the city yesterday stated that Dutch Zoellars, who is well known here, had been shot in a quarrel at Springtown, W. Va., a small village about 12 miles from Sistersville.

No particulars were given, except the fact that Zoellars had been shot three times and was in a dangerous condition. An effort is now being made to ascertain the truth of the report.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The Ladies Will Discuss the Situation.

Mrs. Calhoun, president of the Hospital association, has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon at the Young Men's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

All members of the association and all other ladies interested in the hospital project are earnestly requested to be present.

Mercer Will Improve.

"Winnie Mercer's batting is bound to improve" says Jimmy McGuire. "He has been relieved of the responsibility of pitching and can apply both his eye and mind to the ball."

McGuire is the first catcher Mercer ever pitched to, and is probably better able to judge our own Winnie than any man in the league.

Excursions to Steubenville.

Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, the Pennsylvania company will sell low rate excursion tickets to Steubenville from East Liverpool for the races; return coupons good Saturday, Sept. 3, inclusive. *

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceler. Leave your order at once.

HEAR SEC. SULLY

on "Job" Sunday afternoon at Spring Grove.

RHYME OF RHYMES.

Wild on the mountain peak the wind
Repeats its old refrain,
Like ghosts of mortals who have sinned
And fain would sin again.

For "wind" I do not rhyme to "mind,"
Like many mortal men.
"Again" (when one reflects) 'twere kind
To rhyme as if "agen."

I never met a single soul
Who spoke of "wind" as "wined,"
And yet we use it, on the whole,
To rhyme to "find" and "blind."

We say, "Now don't do that agen,"
When people give us pain.
In poetry, nine times in ten,
It rhymes to "Spain" or "Dane."

Oh, which is wrong or which is right?
Oh, which is right or wrong?
The sound in prose familiar quite
Or those we meet in song?

To hold that "love" can rhyme to "prove"
Requires some force of will,
Yet in the ancient lyric groove
We meet them rhyming still.

This was our learned fathers' wont
In prehistoric times.
We follow it, or if we don't
We oft run short of rhymes.
—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

DICK'S GOOD TIME.

A Very Human Boy Enjoying His Well Earned Reward.

A portly gentleman sat on the porch and smiled while a small boy, also smiling, painted the front fence.

"Look at that boy," the portly man remarked to a visitor. "He thinks he is having a good time. A small boy is surely the drollest creature on earth. When I was a youngster, I remember that there were certain kinds of work I considered play, and one of them was painting. I was always crazy to paint. Many times I have taken a bucket of muddy water and an old paint brush and have spent a whole half day putting a thick coat on the side of my father's barn.

"So with my boy Dick, the little chap painting the fence. He has always been crazy to paint. He is enjoying himself now—you can see he is, and he will paint that whole fence, too, just as well as he knows how. I don't care if it is a trifle smeared. He's getting joy, solid joy, thicker than the paint on his hands and clothes.

"There's a mean side to it too. He wanted to paint the fence, and I wanted the weeds pulled out of the yard. So, like an underhanded rascal, I bargained with him. I told him that if he would pull all the weeds out I would let him paint the fence. He went through the other job like a soldier—he hates to pull weeds; all boys do—and now he thinks he is getting his reward. It is a downright shame to fool him that way, don't you think so?"

The portly gentleman chuckled again, and the small boy, wild with joy, went on plastering paint on the fence.—Detroit Free Press.

Crossing the Threshold.

Crossing the threshold was and is the most critical period of the wedding day with all races, not even excepting the Anglo-Saxon.

The superstitious fears of the many, always particularly alert on the occasion of a marriage, culminate in this final act of the drama. The lifting of the bride over the threshold or her stepping across it is the signal in Persia, Arabia and among the Copts of Egypt for the sacrifice of a goat or a sheep. Among the Aenezes, according to Burckhardt, the bridegroom simply kills a lamb in front of his father-in-law's tent, and the ceremony, but for the running of the bride from one tent to another, is complete. Perhaps the purest symbolical act is that of the Transylvanian Saxon bridal pair, who step over the threshold with their hands tied together. Some of these Transylvanian customs are remarkable and must be survivals from a very ancient period. The bridegroom never wears the shirt made for him by the bride except on his wedding day and at his burial, just as the veil of the Japanese bride becomes one day her shroud.—London Spectator.

Dickens In Evening Dress.

When Charles Dickens was to make his first appearance in Boston before an American audience as a reader, an immense crowd awaited him. The enthusiasm of the people for the most popular novelist then living had risen to fever heat. One of the most ardent of his admirers afterward told this little incident of the evening:

"With a few gentlemen who wished to welcome and show him attention I was in the little room at the back of the platform when Dickens entered it. He was a rather stout man with a somewhat red face, and I saw to my surprise, that he was dressed in an exaggerated servility to the extreme fashion.

"More than this, he wore a boutonniere in each buttonhole, and two watches, the chains of which were strung aggressively across his chest. There was a gaudy bad taste in his appearance which his friends regretted, knowing how distasteful it would be to most of his admirers who appreciated his genius and enjoyed his writings.

"No one, of course, could broach the subject to him, and he appeared that night and every other night of his engagement in the same attire. The universal comment was, 'Why, this is a petit maitre.' How can a man with such tastes be the creator of Tiny Tim and Sam Weller!"—Youth's Companion.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

GAME PLAQUES

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant,
English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

REDUCED FARES

To Various Points via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines as indicated in the following paragraphs. Although concessions in fare are authorized for meetings of certain Orders, tickets may be obtained by any person whether a member of the order or interested in the event. The reduced rates will be open to everybody.

To Cincinnati, Ohio.--September 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, for the G. A. R. National Encampment. Good returning until Septembr 13th, with privilege of extension until October 2d.

To Pittsburg, Pa.—October 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good returning until October 17th, account Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. Return limit may be extended until October 31st.

During the excursion season special rates will also be in effect via Pennsylvania Lines for special and local events. For particular information please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer In Colorado.

Colorado is particularly inviting as a summer haven. The climate is remarkable for its invigorating effect, and the state is rich in grand scenery and points of interest where a vacation may be pleasantly spent. Special arrangements are being made for the entertainment of visitors who are this season expected to be attracted to the seclusion and quiet of the Rockies and the hills and canyons of that great wonderland.

Colorado today is nearer home than in former years. The fast schedules of the Pennsylvania route and connecting lines bring the centennial state within easy reach, and the cost of a trip thither is no longer a luxury. The special low rate tourist tickets over the Pennsylvania lines places the cost for transportation within the limit of the usual allowance for vacation trips. For special information about rates, time of trains and other details please apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, D. P. agt., Pittsburg, Pa. *

Excursion via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Traverse City, Petoskey and Mackinac Island, the most popular resorts in Northern Michigan, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines, Tuesday, Sept. 6th. The round trip rate from East Liverpool will be $10 to Petoskey or Traverse City, and $11 to Mackinac Island. Tickets will be good going on regular trains on the dates specified and good returning 30 days. For special information on the subject apply to Ticket Agent Adam Hill at East Liverpool, O. *

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the ocean, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent, or address your requests to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa

Take Your Choice.

An excursion to those popular northern Michigan resorts will run via Pennsylvania lines Tuesday, Sept. 6th. See Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, about it. *

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div.

Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains-Central Time

Through Coaches on Trains 336, 339, 359, 337 and 360 between Cleveland and Bellaire.

Westward.	335 AM	337 PM	339 PM	341 PM	359 AM
Pittsburgh lv.	†5 45	†1 30	†4 30	*11 00	†7 30
Rochester "	6 40	2 15	5 25	11 58	8 25
Beaver "	6 45	2 20	5 31	12 03	8 30
Vanport "	6 50	....	5 36	12 08	8 34
Industry "	7 00	....	5 50	12 10	8 44
Cooks Ferry "	7 03	....	5 55	12 11	f8 48
Smiths Ferry "	7 11	2 40	6 04	12 20	8 55
East Liverpool "	7 20	2 49	6 14	12 30	9 05
Wellsville ar.	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville lv.	7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop "	7 46	....		12 50
Yellow Creek "	7 52	....		12 55
Hammondsville "	8 01	....		f1 03
Irondale "	8 06	3 22		f1 06
Salineville "	8 25	3 38		1 27
Bayard "	9 09	4 10		2 05
Alliance ar.	9 40	4 33		2 30
Alliance lv.	10 05	4 38		2 35
Ravenna "	10 40	5 06		3 10
Hudson "	11 02	5 25		3 30
Cleveland ar.	12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville lv.	7 47	3 10	6 55	†5 55	†11 02
Wellsville Shop "	7 52	3 13	6 58	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek "	7 57	3 18	7 04	6 05	11 10
Port Homer "	f8 03	f3 23	f7 09	f6 09	....
Empire "	8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville "	f8 17	3 33	7 18	6 21	11 23
Toronto "	8 21	3 38	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia "	f8 28	f3 43	f7 30	6 37	....
Steubenville ar.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Steubenville lv.	8 44	4 00	7 46	6 55	11 45
Mingo Jc "	8 51	4 07	7 53	7 05	11 53
Brilliant "	8 58	4 14	8 00	7 14	12 01
Rush Run "	9 07	4 23	8 09	7 24	12 10
Portland "	9 14	4 30	8 15	7 30	12 16
Yorkville "	f9 19	f4 35	f8 20	7 37	12 21
Martins Ferry "	9 32	4 45	8 33	7 52	12 28
Bridgeport "	9 40	4 50	8 35	7 58	12 35
Bellaire ar.	9 50	5 05	8 45	8 10	12 45
	AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

Flag stop.

Eastward.	340 AM	336 AM	338 PM	360 PM	48 PM
Bellaire lv.	†4 45	†9 00	†4 45	†1 00	†2 45
Bridgeport "	4 53	9 09	4 54	1 10	2 55
Martins Ferry "	5 01	9 15	5 02	1 16	3 02
Yorkville "	f5 10	....	5 12	....	f3 12
Portland "	5 15	9 28	5 19	1 28	3 17
Rush Run "	5 20	9 33	5 24	....	3 22
Brilliant "	5 28	9 41	5 34	1 42	3 32
Mingo Jc "	5 35	9 48	5 41	1 50	3 41
Steubenville ar.	5 44	9 56	5 50	1 58	3 50
Steubenville lv.	5 44	9 56	5 50	1 58	3 50
Costonia "	f6 00	10 12	f6 06	....	f4 15
Toronto "	6 07	10 17	6 11	2 19	4 20
Elliottsville "	6 11	10 19	....	....	f4 24
Empire "	6 13	10 27	6 21	2 27	4 27
Port Homer "	f6 20	10 31	....	....	4 37
Yellow Creek "	6 26	10 37	6 33	....	4 44
Wellsville Shop "	6 31	10 42	6 38	....	4 50
Wellsville ar.	6 35	10 50	6 41	2 45	4 56
Wellsville lv.	7 42			3 05
Wellsville Shop "	7 46			....
Yellow Creek "	7 52			....
Hammondsville "	8 01			....
Irondale "	8 06			3 22
Salineville "	8 25			3 38
Bayard "	9 09			4 10
Alliance ar.	9 40			4 33
Alliance lv.	10 05			4 38
Ravenna "	10 40			5 06
Hudson "	11 02			5 25
Cleveland ar.	12 10			6 25
Wellsville lv.	6 45	10 57	6 51	3 10	†3 50
East Liverpool "	6 57	11 07	7 03	3 20	4 01
Smiths Ferry "	7 07	11 18	7 08	3 30	4 12
Cooks Ferry "	7 20	11 24	....	3 36	f4 20
Industry "	7 25	11 30	7 22	3 42	4 25
Vanport "	7 34	11 40	....	3 53	f4 35
Beaver "	7 40	11 45	7 36	3 58	4 40
Rochester "	7 50	11 50	7 42	4 12	4 45
Pittsburgh ar.	8 50	12 40	8 30	5 10	5 40
	AM	PM	PM	PM	AM

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.

Nos. 338 and 342 connect in Union Station, Pitts., with thro' trains East.

*Daily. †Meals. ‡Daily Except Sunday.

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager. E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

6-26-98.-H PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

Is Your Head Clear? Do you feel a boundless energy in your blood? You can have these and renewed vitality by taking a dose of Paragon Tea before retiring. Constipation Cured. 25 cents for one months treatment. All druggists. Send 2 cent stamp for sample. S. B. FEIL & CO. Cleveland, O.

UNION LABELS.

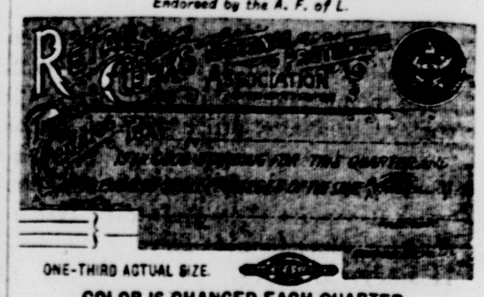
It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

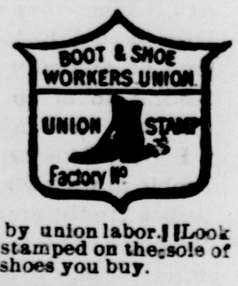
Endorsed by the A. F. of L.



COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.



The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

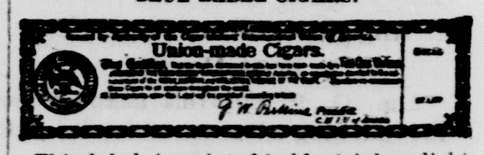
You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

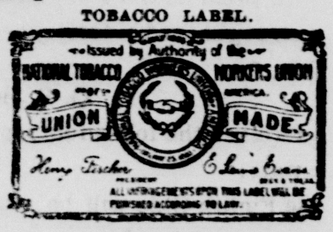
The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.



This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.



The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Opened by President Yount This Morning.

MINISTERS ARE ALL HERE

The Attendance Is Very Large, and an Exceptionally Good Convention Is Expected, What Was Done This Morning and Afternoon.

The fifty-sixth convention, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, began its work in this city today.

A number of ministers arrived yesterday, but the majority came in this morning, and a well-dressed, intelligent lot they are. They are being well cared for, and will doubtless leave East Liverpool knowing much more of the city than they ever knew before.

The first session of the synod was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, it being a confessional service. There were many greetings among friends who had not met for a year prior to the hour, St. John's church at Third and Jackson streets being well filled.

At 10 o'clock President Yount delivered the synodical sermon, and it was followed by communion service. The sermon was a splendid effort, being logical and eloquent. The reverend gentleman touched upon a number of matters most important, and did it so well that the discourse was received by all present with enthusiasm. Synod then adjourned for the noon recess.

The first business in the afternoon was the presentation of the president's report, a lengthy document which covers every detail of the year. It shows that two highly esteemed and venerable ministers had been called away during the year, Rev. Carl E. Cossman, D. D., of Lunenburg, N S., and Prof. David McKee, of Shenango. They were earnest workers in the cause, and their demise was deeply regretted. Twelve pastors resigned their charges, and 21 were installed. Three accepted calls and six were dismissed to other synods. One congregation was dismissed to another synod. Six ministers made application for admission to the synod, and the corner stones of three churches were laid.

The following churches were consecrated during the year: St. Matthew, Rose Bay, N. S.; Mission of Mt. Calvary of McKee's; Trinity, McKean, Pa.; Holy Trinity, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Peter, Evans City, Pa.; Penn, Penn Station, Pa., First church, Butler, Pa. The report deals at length with the consecration of these churches, and gives the names of the pastors and those who took prominent part in the services.

Thiel college day was mentioned, and the president said 58 congregations had contributed $561.79, while 16 congregations had given $174.84 to Greensburg seminary. The opinion that the observance of the day will increase from year to year was expressed.

Because a provision of the constitution does not give the president any discretion in authorizing the installation of pastors not already members of the synod, the president asked some action on the part of the synod.

In speaking of finances the president said the showing was most encouraging. Last year the aggregate was $16,745.80, and this year $20,394.31.

The synod is in session as the NEWS REVIEW goes to press.

This evening a mission meeting will be held, Rev. C. L. Boecele delivering the German address and Rev. J. C. Kunzman preaching in English.

GOT THEIR PICTURES.

The Boys Were Photographed as They Left The Train.

When the train carrying those members of Company E who were successful in obtaining a furlough arrived in the city this morning, a large crowd gathered at the Second street crossing. In the crowd not less than 15 cameras were seen, and as the boys came from the train numerous pictures were taken. One of those who had a camera said he was going to present each member of Company E with a picture of the poor boys who came home today.

On the River.

Packet navigation on the Ohio is seriously threatened. There is still enough water to enable the boats to come in, but within the next 36 hours there will not be unless a rise materializes. This is not promised. In the Pittsburg harbor the river rose nearly three inches Monday night. At the wharf this morning the marks registered five feet and falling.

The Ben Hur is up tonight and the Queen City is down. The Kanawha went down last night with a good trip.

G. A. R. DAYLIGHT SPECIAL

To Cincinnati For the National Encampment.

Arrangments have been made to take G. A. R. veterans and friends to the national encampment at Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania lines in quick time. For their accommodation a daylight special will be run Monday, Sept. 5. A cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers, their families and friends who may wish to enjoy the trip to the Thirty-second National Encampment on the daylight special to join the party at any of the stations given in the following table, which includes the round trip rate and time of train:

			Central time.
$5.30	from	Wheeling	Leave 6:00 a m
5.30	"	Wellsburg	" 6:30 a m
5.10	"	Steubenville	" 6:57 a m
5.10	"	Mingo Junc	" 7:05 a m
5.10	"	Cadiz	" 5:25 a m
4.85	"	Jewett	" 7:48 a m
4.75	"	Scio	" 7:56 a m
4.60	"	Bowerston	" 8:05 a m
4.40	"	Dennison	" 8:25 a m
4.40	"	Uhrichsville	" 8:28 a m
3.90	"	N. Comerst'n	" 8:55 a m
$5.10	from	Bellaire	Leave 4:45 a m
5.10	"	Bridgeport	" 4:53 a m
5.10	"	M'tin's Ferry	" 5:01 a m
$5.50	from	E. Liverpool	Leave 5:45 a m
5.50	"	Wellsville	" 5:55 a m
5.30	"	Toronto	" 6:30 a m
$4.30	from	Philadelphia	Leave 6:10 a m
4.30	"	Canal Dover	" 6:20 a m

Arrive Cincinnati 3:00 p. m. same day without changing cars.

Excursion tickets to Cincinnati for the national encampment will also be sold at the above rates for all regular trains Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Tickets will be good returning until Sept. 13, with privilege to extend return limit to Oct. 2 inclusive. For particular information please apply to Pennsylvania lines ticket agent at any of the stations given above or address J. K. Dillon, department passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburg. *

To Reform Our Spelling.

A committee, consisting of William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, and M. Balliet of Springfield, Mass., appointed by the National Education association for an amendment of spelling of certain words in common use, has completed its labors.

Words simplified are as follows: Program (programme), altho (although), thorofare (thoroughfare), tho (though), thoro (thorough), thru (through), thruout (throughout), prolog (prologue), demagog (demagogue), catalog (catalogue), decalog (decalogue) pedagog (pedagogue).

Changes will be submitted to the executive committee of the national association. The words given are samples of changes. The idea of the committee was to spell the words exactly as they sounded.

Lively In Its Old Age.

Santiago is nearly 400 years old, but the venerable city has had a livelier time within the last two months than in all the former period of its history. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It Might Stick a Little.

The nation will endeavor to carry out its declaration with regard to Cuba, but there will be much difficulty in inducing the flag to come down.—Galveston News.

The Battlefield.

Once this soft turf, this rivulet's sands,
Were trampled by a hurrying crowd,
And fiery hearts and armed hands
Encountered in the battle cloud.

Ah, never shall the land forget
How gushed the lifeblood of her brave—
Gushed, warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save!

Now all is calm and fresh and still;
Alone the chirp of flitting bird
And talk of children on the hill
And bell of wandering kine are heard.

No solemn host goes trailing by,
The black mouthed gun and staggering wain.
Men start not at the battlecry—
Oh, be it never heard again!

Soon rested those who fought, but thou
Who minglest in the harder strife
For truths which men receive not now
Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! Lingering long
Through weary day and weary year;
A wild and many weaponed throng
Hang on thy front and flank and rear.

Yet nerve thy spirit to the proof
And blench not at thy chosen lot;
The timid good may stand aloof,
The sage may frown—yet faint thou not.

Nor heed the shaft too surely cast,
The foul and hissing bolt of scorn,
For with thy side shall dwell at last
The victory of endurance born.

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers,
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain
And dies among his worshipers.

Yea, though thou lie upon the dust
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,
Another hand the standard wave
Till from the trumpet's mouth is pealed
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE BENNINGTON'S CRACK CREW GOT A COSTLY SURPRISE.

The Story of a Fourth of July Rowing Contest at Honolulu Which Emptied the Pockets and Lacerated the Feelings of Uncle Sam's Jackies.

"About as dismal a Fourth of July as ever I experienced on board a man-o'-war," said an ex-sailor of the navy now living in Washington to a reporter, "was Independence day not many years ago down in the harbor of Honolulu. The Bennington had an all star racing boat's crew. The eight had just happened to be assigned to the Bennington in a bunch before she left for her Pacific cruise, and several of the oarsmen had been members of the Columbia's crack boat's crew that walloped all of the British navy's boats' crews in English waters a few years before.

The Bennington's cutter was one of the best in the navy, and she had been built for a racer. Before we left the Mare Island navy yard for south Pacific waters the ship's racing crew had easily beaten all of the other crews of the ships lying at the yard, including the tiptop crew of the Olympia and the Boston's fine crew. We thought that we were about as warm as they make 'em after our crew put it on so many other man-o'-war crews, giving them a couple of minutes the start of us, too, on numerous occasions and still beating them disgracefully.

"The people of Honolulu arranged an aquatic festival for the Fourth of July—the Americans down there celebrated the Fourth just as enthusiastically as we do up here—and the Bennington's crew figured in it largely. Our ship's colors were at the fore in the two races that were run with picked Kanaka crews, and the third and last race of the day was one in which our crackajack eight was to figure, the other races having been won by subcrews practically picked at random from among the strongest seamen.

"We thought this race was at our mercy. It was to be a four sided affair—one crew of Kanaka sugar field workers, a crew of Kanaka policemen and the racing crew of the yacht Eleanor, belonging to Mr. Slater of Providence, that had pulled into Honolulu harbor from Japan a few days before. Our crew didn't pay much attention to the yacht's racing crew and were only figuring on the distance they could beat the crew of Kanaka policemen, which seemed the most formidable.

"The race was over the four mile course carefully blocked out in the harbor—which was very smooth—by the Honolulu aquatic sportsmen, and the start was first rate. There wasn't a man, fore or aft, on the Bennington that didn't stand to go broke to the extent of at least a month's pay on the success of the Bennington's crew, and we had to give 3 to 1, too, for it was generally conceded that we had the race at our mercy.

"The start, as I said, was good, and the Bennington's crew showed in front first and started out apparently to make a runaway race of it. The Kanaka policemen's crew trailed after them, pulling steadily, then the Kanaka sugar workers and, a good ten lengths to the rear, the Eleanor's crew. This was the way it looked for the finish when the Bennington's crew rounded the stakeboat and started for the return trip.

"Some of the Honolulu men who had their money up on the two Kanaka crews actually began to square accounts, and the cry, 'It's all over—Bennington!' was heard all over the bay. When the stakeboat was rounded, it was noticed that the Eleanor's boat was sort of getting a move on itself, and the men were working like machines at a long, steady stroke that certainly looked as if it was cutting down the Bennington's lead and the lead of the two Kanaka boats.

"Two minutes after the stakeboat was rounded the Eleanor's gang were right abreast of the Kanaka cutters and gaining on them with every stroke, and the cox'un of the Bennington's cutter, hearing the yells of warning from the Bennington bluejackets ashore, looked behind him and saw the Eleanor cutter only two lengths behind him and coming like an electric launch. Our crew was tired, and that's all there was about it.

"The Eleanor's crew had held themselves in for the finish, and they certainly did make a Garrison finish of it. The yacht's cutter shot ahead of our cutter a good mile from home, and then, to make the thing more galling, the crew actually stopped rowing until the Bennington's crew was alongside again. Then they took to the oars again, and from then on it was a howling farce. The Eleanor's crew just romped their cutter in ten lengths ahead of our cutter and the Kanakas a quarter of a mile in the rear.

"You never saw such a disgusted lot of men in your life as the men and officers on the Bennington. The Eleanor's ship company had taken all of the 3 to 1 money they could get on board our ship, for they knew they had a good thing up their sleeve. The Eleanor's crew on the whole trip around the world that was wound up at San Francisco had not been beaten once in a cutter race, and the yacht's sailors had made all kinds of money in betting on their crew. It was a minor sort of consolation for us when we found out that five of the Eleanor's racing crew were ex-American man-o'-war's men."—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why that Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office.

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review Job Department.

INDIAN AND TIGER.

A Clever Trick by Which the Former Outwitted the Latter.

According to a good and true tiger story in Cornhill, an Indian who had learned some of the elementary principles of jugglery and contortion went out one evening to walk upon a ridgy plain. When he reached the top of one of the mounds, he saw a tiger ahead of him, 500 or 600 yards away. Before the man could hide behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at its topmost speed.

Having no means of defense, there was nothing for the man to do but to race for the nearest tree, but though he tried it and put forth his utmost strength the tiger steadily gained upon him.

What was he to do? In sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight in running over a ridge he halted, stretched out his legs at right angles, curled down his head so as to look between his legs to the rear and extended his arms upward in a fantastic manner, like the sails of a windmill.

In a few seconds the tiger hove in sight, and at that instant the face of the object assumed a hideous grimace. A prolonged yell arose, such as had perhaps never before pierced the ear of any tiger, and the sails of the windmill began to revolve backward and forward as if a sudden whirlwind had burst upon the scene.

The tiger recoiled. What, he evidently thought, is this? There stood a ferocious star shaped monster, gigantic against the sky. Its hideous head was situated in the very center of its body—nay, its viselike jaws, between which those fiendish roars were issuing, were actually placed above its two fiery eyes. Its limbs were furiously clamoring for action, and the man he had been chasing, where was he? Already devoured by this terrible beast? The tiger could not pause to reflect. He turned tail, and as he disappeared over a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

Call For a New Deal.

Lord Salisbury seems to have been outplayed by Russia in the Chinese game. The question is, What is our friend J. Bull going to do about it?—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE POWER OF SHADOWS.

A Gloomy View of the Power of Certain Popular Superstitions.

As antique runners passed from hand to hand the sacred torch, so the generations transmit to the generations which succeed them all that they have of light and knowledge, leaving them as a heritage the care of continuing the divine work of enfranchisement and of helping to dissipate the shadows of ignorance.

Little by little these clouds are vanquished and disappear, and the touch of intelligence flames the more radiantly in the midst of the travailing masses.

But all of a sudden a veil covers the torch—something surges up which seems like the darkness of another age. One feels that in a corner of this civilization monstrous things have place. Here they burn a woman accused of sorcery; there in Suabia a tribunal condemns to four days of imprisonment a laborer who had disinterred the corpse of an infant. He wanted to make bracelets of its finger nails, which, according to a belief held in that country, constitute a sovereign remedy against colic.

And all the stories of vampires, of elfs, return to the mind with all the victims they have made and are making still.

It seems in reading such things that the "power of shadows" is still impenetrable to all that science has done and that, as I have said, the effort is vain.—Figaro.

On the Eating of Loons.

Man is a creature of prejudice. In Scotland he will not eat eels; in Connecticut he will not eat sturgeon, the royal fish of England, where the first one taken in the Thames goes to the queen's table; in New York he will not eat lampreys, miscalled "lamper eels," which are delicacies in Connecticut, and in England some old king—I never could keep a record of kings—died from a surfeit of lampreys. With these prejudices in mind, and I hate all prejudices except those which I entertain, I decided to eat the loon.

There may be differences among loons, as there are between pigeons and squabs. I prefer an adult pigeon to a squab, there is better chewing on it, but if a man wants real hard chewing, with a flavor of raw fish, let him tackle an adult loon. That bird could not be picked. It was skinned, and in its stomach there was a catfish recently swallowed, one partly digested and the bones of another. The triggers of the pectoral fins of the catfish were set, but the stomach of the loon did not seem to be troubled by that fact.—Fred Mather in Forest and Stream.

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Opened by President Yount This Morning.

MINISTERS ARE ALL HERE

The Attendance Is Very Large, and an Exceptionally Good Convention Is Expected. What Was Done This Morning and Afternoon.

The fifty-sixth convention, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, began its work in this city today.

A number of ministers arrived yesterday, but the majority came in this morning, and a well-dressed, intelligent lot they are. They are being well cared for, and will doubtless leave East Liverpool knowing much more of the city than they ever knew before.

The first session of the synod was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, it being a confessional service. There were many greetings among friends who had not met for a year prior to the hour, St. John's church at Third and Jackson streets being well filled.

At 10 o'clock President Yount delivered the synodical sermon, and it was followed by communion service. The sermon was a splendid effort, being logical and eloquent. The reverend gentleman touched upon a number of matters most important, and did it so well that the discourse was received by all present with enthusiasm. Synod then adjourned for the noon recess.

The first business in the afternoon was the presentation of the president's report, a lengthy document which covers every detail of the year. It shows that two highly esteemed and venerable ministers had been called away during the year, Rev. Carl E. Cossman, D. D., of Lunenburg, N S., and Prof. David McKee, of Shenango. They were earnest workers in the cause, and their demise was deeply regretted. Twelve pastors resigned their charges, and 21 were installed. Three accepted calls and six were dismissed to other synods. One congregation was dismissed to another synod. Six ministers made application for admission to the synod, and the corner stones of three churches were laid.

The following churches were consecrated during the year: St. Matthew, Rose Bay, N. S.; Mission of Mt. Calvary of McKee's; Trinity, McKean, Pa.; Holy Trinity, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Peter, Evans City, Pa.; Penn, Penn Station, Pa., First church, Butler, Pa. The report deals at length with the consecration of these churches, and gives the names of the pastors and those who took prominent part in the services.

Thiel college day was mentioned, and the president said 58 congregations had contributed $561.79, while 16 congregations had given $174.84 to Greensburg seminary. The opinion that the observance of the day will increase from year to year was expressed.

Because a provision of the constitution does not give the president any discretion in authorizing the installation of pastors not already members of the synod, the president asked some action on the part of the synod.

In speaking of finances the president said the showing was most encouraging. Last year the aggregate was $16,745.80, and this year $20,394.31.

The synod is in session as the NEWS REVIEW goes to press.

This evening a mission meeting will be held, Rev. C. L. Boecele delivering the German address and Rev. J. C. Kunzman preaching in English.

GOT THEIR PICTURES.

The Boys Were Photographed as They Left The Train.

When the train carrying those members of Company E who were successful in obtaining a furlough arrived in the city this morning, a large crowd gathered at the Second street crossing. In the crowd not less than 15 cameras were seen, and as the boys came from the train numerous pictures were taken. One of those who had a camera said he was going to present each member of Company E with a picture of the poor boys who came home today.

On the River.

Packet navigation on the Ohio is seriously threatened. There is still enough water to enable the boats to come in, but within the next 36 hours there will not be unless a rise materializes. This is not promised. In the Pittsburg harbor the river rose nearly three inches Monday night. At the wharf this morning the marks registered five feet and falling.

The Ben Hur is up tonight and the Queen City is down. The Kanawha went down last night with a good trip.

G. A. R. DAYLIGHT SPECIAL

To Cincinnati For the National Encampment.

Arrangments have been made to take G. A. R. veterans and friends to the national encampment at Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania lines in quick time. For their accommodation a daylight special will be run Monday, Sept. 5. A cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers, their families and friends who may wish to enjoy the trip to the Thirty-second National Encampment on the daylight special to join the party at any of the stations given in the following table, which includes the round trip rate and time of train:

			Central time.
$5.30	from	Wheeling.....	Leave 6:00 a m
5.30	"	Wellsburg.....	" 6:30 a m
5.10	"	Steubenville..	" 6:57 a m
5.10	"	Mingo Junc...	" 7:05 a m
5.10	"	Cadiz.....	" 5:25 a m
4.85	"	Jewett.....	" 7:48 a m
4.75	"	Scio.....	" 7:56 a m
4.60	"	Bowerston.....	" 8:05 a m
4.40	"	Dennison	" 8:25 a m
4.40	"	Uhrichsville..	" 8:28 a m
3.90	"	N. Comerst'n	" 8:55 a m
$5.10	from	Bellaire.....	Leave 4:45 a m
5.10	"	Bridgeport...	" 4:53 a m
5.10	"	M'tin's Ferry	" 5:01 a m
$5.50	from	E. Liverpool..	Leave 5:45 a m
5.50	"	Wellsville.....	" 5:55 a m
5.30	"	Toronto.....	" 6:30 a m
$4.30	from	Philadelphia..	Leave 6:10 a m
4.30	"	Canal Dover..	" 6:20 a m

Arrive Cincinnati 3:00 p. m. same day without changing cars.

Excursion tickets to Cincinnati for the national encampment will also be sold at the above rates for all regular trains Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Tickets will be good returning until Sept. 13, with privilege to extend return limit to Oct. 2 inclusive. For particular information please apply to Pennsylvania lines ticket agent at any of the stations given above or address J. K. Dillon, department passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburg. *

To Reform Our Spelling.

A committee, consisting of William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, and M. Balliet of Springfield, Mass., appointed by the National Education association for an amendment of spelling of certain words in common use, has completed its labors.

Words simplified are as follows: Program (programme), altho (although), thorofare (thoroughfare), tho (though), thoro (thorough), thru (through), thruout (throughout), prolog (prologue), demagog (demagogue), catalog (catalogue), decalog (decalogue) pedagog (pedagogue).

Changes will be submitted to the executive committee of the national association. The words given are samples of changes. The idea of the committee was to spell the words exactly as they sounded.

Lively In Its Old Age.

Santiago is nearly 400 years old, but the venerable city has had a livelier time within the last two months than in all the former period of its history. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It Might Stick a Little.

The nation will endeavor to carry out its declaration with regard to Cuba, but there will be much difficulty in inducing the flag to come down.—Galveston News.

The Battlefield.

Once this soft turf, this rivulet's sands,
Were trampled by a hurrying crowd,
And fiery hearts and armed hands
Encountered in the battle cloud.

Ah, never shall the land forget
How gushed the lifeblood of her brave—
Gushed, warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save!

Now all is calm and fresh and still;
Alone the chirp of flitting bird
And talk of children on the hill
And bell of wandering kine are heard.

No solemn host goes trailing by,
The black mouthed gun and staggering wain.
Men start not at the battlecry—
Oh, be it never heard again!

Soon rested those who fought, but thou
Who minglest in the harder strife
For truths which men receive not now
Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! Lingering long
Through weary day and weary year;
A wild and many weaponed throng
Hang on thy front and flank and rear.

Yet nerve thy spirit to the proof
And blench not at thy chosen lot;
The timid good may stand aloof,
The sage may frown—yet faint thou not.

Nor heed the shaft too surely cast,
The foul and hissing bolt of scorn,
For with thy side shall dwell at last
The victory of endurance born.

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers,
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain
And dies among his worshipers.

Yea, though thou lie upon the dust
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,
Another hand the standard wave
Till from the trumpet's mouth is pealed
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE BENNINGTON'S CRACK CREW GOT A COSTLY SURPRISE.

The Story of a Fourth of July Rowing Contest at Honolulu Which Emptied the Pockets and Lacerated the Feelings of Uncle Sam's Jackies.

"About as dismal a Fourth of July as ever I experienced on board a man-o'-war," said an ex-sailor of the navy now living in Washington to a reporter, "was Independence day not many years ago down in the harbor of Honolulu. The Bennington had an all star racing boat's crew. The eight had just happened to be assigned to the Bennington in a bunch before she left for her Pacific cruise, and several of the oarsmen had been members of the Columbia's crack boat's crew that walloped all of the British navy's boats' crews in English waters a few years before.

The Bennington's cutter was one of the best in the navy, and she had been built for a racer. Before we left the Mare Island navy yard for south Pacific waters the ship's racing crew had easily beaten all of the other crews of the ships lying at the yard, including the tiptop crew of the Olympia and the Boston's fine crew. We thought that we were about as warm as they make 'em after our crew put it on so many other man-o'-war crews, giving them a couple of minutes the start of us, too, on numerous occasions and still beating them disgracefully.

"The people of Honolulu arranged an aquatic festival for the Fourth of July—the Americans down there celebrated the Fourth just as enthusiastically as we do up here—and the Bennington's crew figured in it largely. Our ship's colors were at the fore in the two races that were run with picked Kanaka crews, and the third and last race of the day was one in which our crackajack eight was to figure, the other races having been won by subcrews practically picked at random from among the strongest seamen.

"We thought this race was at our mercy. It was to be a four sided affair—one crew of Kanaka sugar field workers, a crew of Kanaka policemen and the racing crew of the yacht Eleanor, belonging to Mr. Slater of Providence, that had pulled into Honolulu harbor from Japan a few days before. Our crew didn't pay much attention to the yacht's racing crew and were only figuring on the distance they could beat the crew of Kanaka policemen, which seemed the most formidable.

"The race was over the four mile course carefully blocked out in the harbor—which was very smooth—by the Honolulu aquatic sportsmen, and the start was first rate. There wasn't a man, fore or aft, on the Bennington that didn't stand to go broke to the extent of at least a month's pay on the success of the Bennington's crew, and we had to give 3 to 1, too, for it was generally conceded that we had the race at our mercy.

"The start, as I said, was good, and the Bennington's crew showed in front first and started out apparently to make a runaway race of it. The Kanaka policemen's crew trailed after them, pulling steadily, then the Kanaka sugar workers and, a good ten lengths to the rear, the Eleanor's crew. This was the way it looked for the finish when the Bennington's crew rounded the stakeboat and started for the return trip.

"Some of the Honolulu men who had their money up on the two Kanaka crews actually began to square accounts, and the cry, 'It's all over—Bennington!' was heard all over the bay. When the stakeboat was rounded, it was noticed that the Eleanor's boat was sort of getting a move on itself, and the men were working like machines at a long, steady stroke that certainly looked as if it was cutting down the Bennington's lead and the lead of the two Kanaka boats.

"Two minutes after the stakeboat was rounded the Eleanor's gang were right abreast of the Kanaka cutters and gaining on them with every stroke, and the cox'un of the Bennington's cutter, hearing the yells of warning from the Bennington bluejackets ashore, looked behind him and saw the Eleanor cutter only two lengths behind him and coming like an electric launch. Our crew was tired, and that's all there was about it.

"The Eleanor's crew had held themselves in for the finish, and they certainly did make a Garrison finish of it. The yacht's cutter shot ahead of our cutter a good mile from home, and then, to make the thing more galling, the crew actually stopped rowing until the Bennington's crew was alongside again. Then they took to the oars again, and from then on it was a howling farce. The Eleanor's crew just romped their cutter in ten lengths ahead of our cutter and the Kanakas a quarter of a mile in the rear.

"You never saw such a disgusted lot of men in your life as the men and officers on the Bennington. The Eleanor's ship company had taken all of the 3 to 1 money they could get on board our ship, for they knew they had a good thing up their sleeve. The Eleanor's crew on the whole trip around the world that was wound up at San Francisco had not been beaten once in a cutter race, and the yacht's sailors had made all kinds of money in betting on their crew. It was a minor sort of consolation for us when we found out that five of the Eleanor's racing crew were ex-American man-o'-war's men."—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why that Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office.

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review Job Department.

INDIAN AND TIGER.

A Clever Trick by Which the Former Outwitted the Latter.

According to a good and true tiger story in Cornhill, an Indian who had learned some of the elementary principles of jugglery and contortion went out one evening to walk upon a ridgy plain. When he reached the top of one of the mounds, he saw a tiger ahead of him, 500 or 600 yards away. Before the man could hide behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at its topmost speed.

Having no means of defense, there was nothing for the man to do but to race for the nearest tree, but though he tried it and put forth his utmost strength the tiger steadily gained upon him.

What was he to do? In sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight in running over a ridge he halted, stretched out his legs at right angles, curled down his head so as to look between his legs to the rear and extended his arms upward in a fantastic manner, like the sails of a windmill.

In a few seconds the tiger hove in sight, and at that instant the face of the object assumed a hideous grimace. A prolonged yell arose, such as had perhaps never before pierced the ear of any tiger, and the sails of the windmill began to revolve backward and forward as if a sudden whirlwind had burst upon the scene.

The tiger recoiled. What, he evidently thought, is this? There stood a ferocious star shaped monster, gigantic against the sky. Its hideous head was situated in the very center of its body—nay, its viselike jaws, between which those fiendish roars were issuing, were actually placed above its two fiery eyes. Its limbs were furiously clamoring for action, and the man he had been chasing, where was he? Already devoured by this terrible beast? The tiger could not pause to reflect. He turned tail, and as he disappeared over a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

Call For a New Deal.

Lord Salisbury seems to have been outplayed by Russia in the Chinese game. The question is, What is our friend J. Bull going to do about it?—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE POWER OF SHADOWS.

A Gloomy View of the Power of Certain Popular Superstitions.

As antique runners passed from hand to hand the sacred torch, so the generations transmit to the generations which succeed them all that they have of light and knowledge, leaving them as a heritage the care of continuing the divine work of enfranchisement and of helping to dissipate the shadows of ignorance.

Little by little these clouds are vanquished and disappear, and the touch of intelligence flames the more radiantly in the midst of the travailing masses.

But all of a sudden a veil covers the torch—something surges up which seems like the darkness of another age. One feels that in a corner of this civilization monstrous things have place. Here they burn a woman accused of sorcery; there in Suabia a tribunal condemns to four days of imprisonment a laborer who had disinterred the corpse of an infant. He wanted to make bracelets of its finger nails, which, according to a belief held in that country, constitute a sovereign remedy against colic.

And all the stories of vampires, of elfs, return to the mind with all the victims they have made and are making still.

It seems in reading such things that the "power of shadows" is still impenetrable to all that science has done and that, as I have said, the effort is vain.—Figaro.

On the Eating of Loons.

Man is a creature of prejudice. In Scotland he will not eat eels; in Connecticut he will not eat sturgeon, the royal fish of England, where the first one taken in the Thames goes to the queen's table; in New York he will not eat lampreys, miscalled "lamper eels," which are delicacies in Connecticut, and in England some old king—I never could keep a record of kings—died from a surfeit of lampreys. With these prejudices in mind, and I hate all prejudices except those which I entertain, I decided to eat the loon.

There may be differences among loons, as there are between pigeons and squabs. I prefer an adult pigeon to a squab, there is better chewing on it, but if a man wants real hard chewing, with a flavor of raw fish, let him tackle an adult loon. That bird could not be picked. It was skinned, and in its stomach there was a catfish recently swallowed, one partly digested and the bones of another. The triggers of the pectoral fins of the catfish were set, but the stomach of the loon did not seem to be troubled by that fact.—Fred Mather in Forest and Stream.

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Opened by President Yount This Morning.

MINISTERS ARE ALL HERE

The Attendance Is Very Large, and an Exceptionally Good Convention Is Expected. What Was Done This Morning and Afternoon.

The fifty-sixth convention, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, began its work in this city today.

A number of ministers arrived yesterday, but the majority came in this morning, and a well-dressed, intelligent lot they are. They are being well cared for, and will doubtless leave East Liverpool knowing much more of the city than they ever knew before.

The first session of the synod was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, it being a confessional service. There were many greetings among friends who had not met for a year prior to the hour, St. John's church at Third and Jackson streets being well filled.

At 10 o'clock President Yount delivered the synodical sermon, and it was followed by communion service. The sermon was a splendid effort, being logical and eloquent. The reverend gentleman touched upon a number of matters most important, and did it so well that the discourse was received by all present with enthusiasm. Synod then adjourned for the noon recess.

The first business in the afternoon was the presentation of the president's report, a lengthy document which covers every detail of the year. It shows that two highly esteemed and venerable ministers had been called away during the year, Rev. Carl E. Cossman, D. D., of Lunenburg, N S., and Prof. David McKee, of Shenango. They were earnest workers in the cause, and their demise was deeply regretted. Twelve pastors resigned their charges, and 21 were installed. Three accepted calls and six were dismissed to other synods. One congregation was dismissed to another synod. Six ministers made application for admission to the synod, and the corner stones of three churches were laid.

The following churches were consecrated during the year: St. Matthew, Rose Bay, N. S.; Mission of Mt. Calvary of McKee's; Trinity, McKean, Pa.; Holy Trinity, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Peter, Evans City, Pa.; Penn, Penn Station, Pa., First church, Butler, Pa. The report deals at length with the consecration of these churches, and gives the names of the pastors and those who took prominent part in the services.

Thiel college day was mentioned, and the president said 58 congregations had contributed $561.79, while 16 congregations had given $174.84 to Greensburg seminary. The opinion that the observance of the day will increase from year to year was expressed.

Because a provision of the constitution does not give the president any discretion in authorizing the installation of pastors not already members of the synod, the president asked some action on the part of the synod.

In speaking of finances the president said the showing was most encouraging. Last year the aggregate was $16,745.80, and this year $20,394.31.

The synod is in session as the NEWS REVIEW goes to press.

This evening a mission meeting will be held, Rev. C. L. Boecele delivering the German address and Rev. J. C. Kunzman preaching in English.

GOT THEIR PICTURES.

The Boys Were Photographed as They Left The Train.

When the train carrying those members of Company E who were successful in obtaining a furlough arrived in the city this morning, a large crowd gathered at the Second street crossing. In the crowd not less than 15 cameras were seen, and as the boys came from the train numerous pictures were taken. One of those who had a camera said he was going to present each member of Company E with a picture of the poor boys who came home today.

On the River.

Packet navigation on the Ohio is seriously threatened. There is still enough water to enable the boats to come in, but within the next 36 hours there will not be unless a rise materializes. This is not promised. In the Pittsburg harbor the river rose nearly three inches Monday night. At the wharf this morning the marks registered five feet and falling.

The Ben Hur is up tonight and the Queen City is down. The Kanawha went down last night with a good trip.

G. A. R. DAYLIGHT SPECIAL

To Cincinnati For the National Encampment.

Arrangments have been made to take G. A. R. veterans and friends to the national encampment at Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania lines in quick time. For their accommodation a daylight special will be run Monday, Sept. 5. A cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers, their families and friends who may wish to enjoy the trip to the Thirty-second National Encampment on the daylight special to join the party at any of the stations given in the following table, which includes the round trip rate and time of train:

				Central time.
$5.30	from	Wheeling	Leave	6:00 a m
5.30	"	Wellsburg	"	6:30 a m
5.10	"	Steubenville	"	6:57 a m
5.10	"	Mingo Junc	"	7:05 a m
5.10	"	Cadiz	"	5:25 a m
4.85	"	Jewett	"	7:48 a m
4.75	"	Scio	"	7:56 a m
4.60	"	Bowerston	"	8:05 a m
4.40	"	Dennison	"	8:25 a m
4.40	"	Uhrichsville	"	8:28 a m
3.90	"	N. Comerst'n	"	8:55 a m
$5.10	from	Bellaire	Leave	4:45 a m
5.10	"	Bridgeport	"	4:53 a m
5.10	"	M'tin's Ferry	"	5:01 a m
$5.50	from	E. Liverpool	Leave	5:45 a m
5.50	"	Wellsville	"	5:55 a m
5.30	"	Toronto	"	6:30 a m
$4.30	from	Philadelphia	Leave	6:10 a m
4.30	"	Canal Dover	"	6:20 a m

Arrive Cincinnati 3:00 p. m. same day without changing cars.

Excursion tickets to Cincinnati for the national encampment will also be sold at the above rates for all regular trains Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Tickets will be good returning until Sept. 13, with privilege to extend return limit to Oct. 2 inclusive. For particular information please apply to Pennsylvania lines ticket agent at any of the stations given above or address J. K. Dillon, department passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburg. *

To Reform Our Spelling.

A committee, consisting of William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, and M. Balliet of Springfield, Mass., appointed by the National Education association for an amendment of spelling of certain words in common use, has completed its labors.

Words simplified are as follows: Program (programme), altho (although), thorofare (thoroughfare), tho (though), thoro (thorough), thru (through), thruout (throughout), prolog (prologue), demagog (demagogue), catalog (catalogue), decalog (decalogue) pedagog (pedagogue).

Changes will be submitted to the executive committee of the national association. The words given are samples of changes. The idea of the committee was to spell the words exactly as they sounded.

Lively In Its Old Age.

Santiago is nearly 400 years old, but the venerable city has had a livelier time within the last two months than in all the former period of its history. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It Might Stick a Little.

The nation will endeavor to carry out its declaration with regard to Cuba, but there will be much difficulty in inducing the flag to come down.—Galveston News.

The Battlefield.

Once this soft turf, this rivulet's sands,
Were trampled by a hurrying crowd,
And fiery hearts and armed hands
Encountered in the battle cloud.

Ah, never shall the land forget
How gushed the lifeblood of her brave—
Gushed, warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save!

Now all is calm and fresh and still;
Alone the chirp of flitting bird
And talk of children on the hill
And bell of wandering kine are heard.

No solemn host goes trailing by,
The black mouthed gun and staggering wain.
Men start not at the battlecry—
Oh, be it never heard again!

Soon rested those who fought, but thou
Who minglest in the harder strife
For truths which men receive not now
Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! Lingering long
Through weary day and weary year;
A wild and many weaponed throng
Hang on thy front and flank and rear.

Yet nerve thy spirit to the proof
And blench not at thy chosen lot;
The timid good may stand aloof,
The sage may frown—yet faint thou not.

Nor heed the shaft too surely cast,
The foul and hissing bolt of scorn,
For with thy side shall dwell at last
The victory of endurance born.

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers,
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain
And dies among his worshipers.

Yea, though thou lie upon the dust
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,
Another hand the standard wave
Till from the trumpet's mouth is pealed
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE BENNINGTON'S CRACK CREW GOT A COSTLY SURPRISE.

The Story of a Fourth of July Rowing Contest at Honolulu Which Emptied the Pockets and Lacerated the Feelings of Uncle Sam's Jackies.

"About as dismal a Fourth of July as ever I experienced on board a man-o'-war," said an ex-sailor of the navy now living in Washington to a reporter, "was Independence day not many years ago down in the harbor of Honolulu. The Bennington had an all star racing boat's crew. The eight had just happened to be assigned to the Bennington in a bunch before she left for her Pacific cruise, and several of the oarsmen had been members of the Columbia's crack boat's crew that walloped all of the British navy's boats' crews in English waters a few years before.

The Bennington's cutter was one of the best in the navy, and she had been built for a racer. Before we left the Mare Island navy yard for south Pacific waters the ship's racing crew had easily beaten all of the other crews of the ships lying at the yard, including the tiptop crew of the Olympia and the Boston's fine crew. We thought that we were about as warm as they make 'em after our crew put it on so many other man-o'-war crews, giving them a couple of minutes the start of us, too, on numerous occasions and still beating them disgracefully.

"The people of Honolulu arranged an aquatic festival for the Fourth of July—the Americans down there celebrated the Fourth just as enthusiastically as we do up here—and the Bennington's crew figured in it largely. Our ship's colors were at the fore in the two races that were run with picked Kanaka crews, and the third and last race of the day was one in which our crackajack eight was to figure, the other races having been won by subcrews practically picked at random from among the strongest seamen.

"We thought this race was at our mercy. It was to be a four sided affair—one crew of Kanaka sugar field workers, a crew of Kanaka policemen and the racing crew of the yacht Eleanor, belonging to Mr. Slater of Providence, that had pulled into Honolulu harbor from Japan a few days before. Our crew didn't pay much attention to the yacht's racing crew and were only figuring on the distance they could beat the crew of Kanaka policemen, which seemed the most formidable.

"The race was over the four mile course carefully blocked out in the harbor—which was very smooth—by the Honolulu aquatic sportsmen, and the start was first rate. There wasn't a man, fore or aft, on the Bennington that didn't stand to go broke to the extent of at least a month's pay on the success of the Bennington's crew, and we had to give 3 to 1, too, for it was generally conceded that we had the race at our mercy.

"The start, as I said, was good, and the Bennington's crew showed in front first and started out apparently to make a runaway race of it. The Kanaka policemen's crew trailed after them, pulling steadily, then the Kanaka sugar workers and, a good ten lengths to the rear, the Eleanor's crew. This was the way it looked for the finish when the Bennington's crew rounded the stakeboat and started for the return trip.

"Some of the Honolulu men who had their money up on the two Kanaka crews actually began to square accounts, and the cry, 'It's all over—Bennington!' was heard all over the bay. When the stakeboat was rounded, it was noticed that the Eleanor's boat was sort of getting a move on itself, and the men were working like machines at a long, steady stroke that certainly looked as if it was cutting down the Bennington's lead and the lead of the two Kanaka boats.

"Two minutes after the stakeboat was rounded the Eleanor's gang were right abreast of the Kanaka cutters and gaining on them with every stroke, and the cox'un of the Bennington's cutter, hearing the yells of warning from the Bennington bluejackets ashore, looked behind him and saw the Eleanor cutter only two lengths behind him and coming like an electric launch. Our crew was tired, and that's all there was about it.

"The Eleanor's crew had held themselves in for the finish, and they certainly did make a Garrison finish of it. The yacht's cutter shot ahead of our cutter a good mile from home, and then, to make the thing more galling, the crew actually stopped rowing until the Bennington's crew was alongside again. Then they took to the oars again, and from then on it was a howling farce. The Eleanor's crew just romped their cutter in ten lengths ahead of our cutter and the Kanakas a quarter of a mile in the rear.

"You never saw such a disgusted lot of men in your life as the men and officers on the Bennington. The Eleanor's ship company had taken all of the 3 to 1 money they could get on board our ship, for they knew they had a good thing up their sleeve. The Eleanor's crew on the whole trip around the world that was wound up at San Francisco had not been beaten once in a cutter race, and the yacht's sailors had made all kinds of money in betting on their crew. It was a minor sort of consolation for us when we found out that five of the Eleanor's racing crew were ex-American man-o'-war's men."—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why that Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office.

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review Job Department.

INDIAN AND TIGER.

A Clever Trick by Which the Former Outwitted the Latter.

According to a good and true tiger story in Cornhill, an Indian who had learned some of the elementary principles of jugglery and contortion went out one evening to walk upon a ridgy plain. When he reached the top of one of the mounds, he saw a tiger ahead of him, 500 or 600 yards away. Before the man could hide behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at its topmost speed.

Having no means of defense, there was nothing for the man to do but to race for the nearest tree, but though he tried it and put forth his utmost strength the tiger steadily gained upon him.

What was he to do? In sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight in running over a ridge he halted, stretched out his legs at right angles, curled down his head so as to look between his legs to the rear and extended his arms upward in a fantastic manner, like the sails of a windmill.

In a few seconds the tiger hove in sight, and at that instant the face of the object assumed a hideous grimace. A prolonged yell arose, such as had perhaps never before pierced the ear of any tiger, and the sails of the windmill began to revolve backward and forward as if a sudden whirlwind had burst upon the scene.

The tiger recoiled. What, he evidently thought, is this? There stood a ferocious star shaped monster, gigantic against the sky. Its hideous head was situated in the very center of its body—nay, its viselike jaws, between which those fiendish roars were issuing, were actually placed above its two fiery eyes. Its limbs were furiously clamoring for action, and the man he had been chasing, where was he? Already devoured by this terrible beast? The tiger could not pause to reflect. He turned tail, and as he disappeared over a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

Call For a New Deal.

Lord Salisbury seems to have been outplayed by Russia in the Chinese game. The question is, What is our friend J. Bull going to do about it?—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE POWER OF SHADOWS.

A Gloomy View of the Power of Certain Popular Superstitions.

As antique runners passed from hand to hand the sacred torch, so the generations transmit to the generations which succeed them all that they have of light and knowledge, leaving them as a heritage the care of continuing the divine work of enfranchisement and of helping to dissipate the shadows of ignorance.

Little by little these clouds are vanquished and disappear, and the touch of intelligence flames the more radiantly in the midst of the travailing masses.

But all of a sudden a veil covers the torch—something surges up which seems like the darkness of another age. One feels that in a corner of this civilization monstrous things have place. Here they burn a woman accused of sorcery; there in Suabia a tribunal condemns to four days of imprisonment a laborer who had disinterred the corpse of an infant. He wanted to make bracelets of its finger nails, which, according to a belief held in that country, constitute a sovereign remedy against colic.

And all the stories of vampires, of elfs, return to the mind with all the victims they have made and are making still.

It seems in reading such things that the "power of shadows" is still impenetrable to all that science has done and that, as I have said, the effort is vain.—Figaro.

On the Eating of Loons.

Man is a creature of prejudice. In Scotland he will not eat eels; in Connecticut he will not eat sturgeon, the royal fish of England, where the first one taken in the Thames goes to the queen's table; in New York he will not eat lampreys, miscalled "lamper eels," which are delicacies in Connecticut, and in England some old king—I never could keep a record of kings—died from a surfeit of lampreys. With these prejudices in mind, and I hate all prejudices except those which I entertain, I decided to eat the loon.

There may be differences among loons, as there are between pigeons and squabs. I prefer an adult pigeon to a squab, there is better chewing on it, but if a man wants real hard chewing, with a flavor of raw fish, let him tackle an adult loon. That bird could not be picked. It was skinned, and in its stomach there was a catfish recently swallowed, one partly digested and the bones of another. The triggers of the pectoral fins of the catfish were set, but the stomach of the loon did not seem to be troubled by that fact.—Fred Mather in Forest and Stream.

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The street force were busy today cleaning the principal streets.

The Chevalier club will entertain their friends at dancing next week.

Mrs. W. S. Hight, of Bucyrus, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner.

The Second M. E, Sunday school will picnic Thursday at the campground.

Mayor Bough, who spent yesterday in Lisbon, returned to the city late last night.

The work of remodeling the Little block in the Diamond was commenced yesterday morning.

Frank Crawford last evening entertained a number of friends at his residence pear West Point.

A number of young people from the city will this evening attend a social given at the Madison church.

The excursion which left this city yesterday morning for New Castle, returned to this place at 9 o'clock last night.

C. L. Moore, of Second street, who has been visiting in Wheeling for several days, returned to the city today.

Mrs. Robinson, of Gardendale, who has been suffering with typhoid fever for several weeks, is now able to be out.

Yesterday afternoon a car load of melons was received in the lower freight yards. This is the third car that has been received within 10 days.

Night Watchman Maple of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, who has been spending several days in the country, returned to the city last evening.

Mrs. H. O. Wensch and children, of Fifth street, who have been spending weeks in Saratoga, Troy and Albany, N. Y., returned to this city today.

Rev. Albert Wilson, of McKeesport, Pa., will preach tomorrow night in the hall on Sheridan avenue, where the Free Methodist church holds its services.

Several families from this city who have been spending some time at Hollow Rock, have returned. A large number will return to the city the last of the week.

Most of the new machinery that will be used in the new addition to the Vodrey pottery has been placed in position. Within the next few weeks the new plant will be started.

The trustees of the campground met last evening and made arrangements for a stockholders meeting to be held Sept. 9. Plans for next year were discussed but no conclusion reached.

James Stevenson this morning left for New Athens where he will become a student in Franklin college. He was home on a vacation, and will complete his ministerial education in about two years.

John Morrow, a cook in a Sixth street restaurant, is suffering with a very sore left hand the result of several splinters being under the nail of a finger. The injury is very painful although not serious.

The collector of the directory firm who recently issued a directory of this city and Salem placed 200 books while in the city. The books cost $3 each, and with the advertising, it is said, over $2,000 was collected.

The Labor day committee met last night and furthered arrangements for the celebration. A number of persons were appointed to take charge of the gate and they will all be sworn in as special officers.

No arrests were made last night or this morning and the jail is empty. No cases have been before Mayor Bough since last week, and taking everything into consideration business has not been as slow for a long time.

Will Palmert, a well known and highly esteemed young man of West End, was recently married to Miss Emma Anderson at the home of the bride's parents in Buffalo. They have the congratulations of many friends.

FIRST LADY OF INDIA

MRS. GEORGE N. CURZON WILL HOLD SOCIAL SWAY AT SIMLA.

As Wife of Viceroy Curzon She Will Have Great Power—Will Occupy Highest Position Held by a Woman Outside of Royalty—Her Sound American Ideas.

Next November a Chicago girl will occupy the throne of India as the representative of Victoria, empress of that great country. When George N. Curzon enters upon his duties as viceroy of India, his beautiful wife will become the "first lady" of that land, and a member of the British peerage. Her title will be Lady Curzon of Kedleston, and for five years she will rule as the social queen of the Indian empire.

The American girl whom Queen Victoria has made the vice reine of 300,000,000 subjects was formerly Mary Victoria Leiter of Chicago. She was born in Chicago May 29, 1870, at the Leiter homestead, which at that time was located on Michigan terrace, where the Auditorium now stands. Shortly after her birth her father built a home on Calumet avenue, in which the family lived until their removal to Washington in 1880. Up to that time Mr. Leiter was actively engaged in business in Chicago, and Mary Victoria Leiter was receiving an education from private tutors and governesses. When Mr. Leiter withdrew from his Chicago enterprises, the family home was removed to Washington, where Miss Leiter grew to young womanhood. While her childhood was an extremely simple one her education was acquired from the best instructors, and at an early age she was proficient in the French and German languages and music and familiar with art. Up to the time of her formal introduction to the social world of Washington she led the life of a schoolgirl. Her days were divided into hours of study and recreation, and her social pleasures were few. Miss Leiter accompanied her father on several of his European trips, her sisters Daisy and Nannie also being of the party. When she made her debut in Washington, at the age of 18, she at once became the acknowledged belle of the city. Beautiful of face, with a slender, graceful figure, regular features and dark hair and eyes, Mary Victoria Leiter, even as a girl, had an individuality and magnetism that were remarkable. A bright conversationalist and possessing much general information on important topics of the day, she was a born leader and always the center of a group of prominent people.

Shortly after her introduction to Washington's social life the Leiter family went to London for the season. Mary Leiter was presented at court, and there, as in America, became a belle. It was during one of her subsequent seasons in London that she met George Nathaniel Curzon, eldest son of Lord Scarsdale.

Young Curzon gained considerable fame through a series of prize essays that finally made him a medalist in the Royal Geographical society. He paid marked attention to Miss Leiter, and the following year came to America to woo her. The announcement of her engagement to Mr. Curzon followed shortly after his arrival here and created considerable sensation in both countries. They were married April 25, 1895, at St. John's church, in Washington. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Curzon returned to England and took up their residence in London.

Mrs. Curzon has always been prominent in the social life of her adopted country, but it is said that the American girl has infected her husband with the ideas of her native land instead of becoming entirely Anglicised herself. As vice reine of India Mrs. Curzon will occupy the highest position that can be held by a woman outside of the royal family. Her word will be the social law of the country, and at the royal palace in Simla and the various viceregal residences she will rule supreme. American women have made some exceptional international marriages, but it remained for a Chicago girl to become the representative of the world's greatest ruler.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

THRIVING KANSAS.

A Bushel of Wheat Produced This Year For Every Inhabitant of the United States.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—"The state of Kansas this year produced one bushel of wheat for every man, woman and child in the United States. This does not include Hawaii or Porto Rico," said Editor Frank P. McLennan of the Topeka State Journal yesterday. This was said in regard to the one crop of wheat alone for this year, and is illustrative of the general excellent condition in all branches of industry throughout Kansas.

Akron Artilleryman Dead.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., Aug. 31.—J. C. Winter of Akron, O., private in Battery M, Fifth United States artillery, died yesterday morning in the hospital tent at Fort Hancock.

Spanish Standard For McKinley.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — Captain Harry Alvin Hall of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, is here one of a committee to present President McKinley with a Spanish standard captured in a fight in Porto Rico.

Where You May Spend A Delightful Vacation

A WEEK AMONG THE 10,000 ISLANDS OF GEORGIAN BAY ON THE EXCLUSIVE PASSENGER STEAMER,

THE NEW CARMONA

LEAVING CLEVELAND EVERY MONDAY AT 7 P. M.

FARE FOR ROUND TRIP, including meals and Cabin Berth $17

W. J. BROWN, Passenger Agent.
110 Woodward Ave. Detroit Mich.

KLONDIKERS' GOLD STOLEN.

Passengers and Baggage on Steamer Reaching Seattle Searched, but the Treasure Was Not Found.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 31.— The steamer Roanoke arrived here yesterday from St. Michael, Alaska, with 459 passengers and gold dust which a conservative estimate places at $1,500,000.

A majority of the passengers were men who went to Dawson in last year's rush. They have no gold, but lots of experience. The fortunate passengers numbered about 75. Of these probably 25 had over $10,000 each. The amounts held by the remaining 50 range from $100 to $50,000.

The passengers and baggage were searched for three sacks of stolen gold dust, but the missing gold was not found. The bags contained $24,000. The gold was taken from a stateroom on the Roanoke while she was lying at St. Michael.

Among the Roanoke's passengers were Dr. Sheldon Jackson, United States commissioner of education for Alaska.

Conditions at Dawson and St. Michael have undergone no material change since last reports. People are arriving daily at St. Michael from up the river in small boats.

MISSIONARIES IN DANGER.

United States Consul at Canton, China, Protested Over the Failure to Protect Them From Rebels.

HONGKONG, Aug. 31.—The Kwang-Si rebellion, which has been quiescent for some time, shows signs of serious recrudescence. The rebels are in great force 50 miles northwest of Canton and are preparing to attack the city. Tan, the viceroy of Lang Kwang, protested against the surrender of Kwang-Chow to the French and then resigned.

The viceroy of Canton, having failed to dispatch troops to suppress the rebellion in Hainan and protect the American missionaries, the United States consul at Canton has made strong representations to the acting viceroy reiterating his demand for the prompt suppression of the general disturbances.

GOOD QUEEN VICTORIA.

Peace Proposal of the Czar Said to Have Been Suggested by Her.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—In some quarters it is alleged that the czar's pronouncement for peace was directly inspired by Queen Victoria, whose greatest hope is that her reign may not again be disturbed by war.

The queen, confessedly, has long sought to restrain Emperor William and it is not unlikely she used her great influence with the czarina to secure the czar's support.

WILHELMINA OF AGE.

Queen Regent of Holland Will Soon Turn Over the Throne to the Young Lady.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 31.—The queen regent of Holland, in a proclamation issued yesterday, upon the occasion of the end of her regency, her daughter, Queen Wilhemina, coming of age today, expressed warm pleasure at seeing the whole nation "ranged joyously around the throne of the young queen," thanked God that her dearest wish had been heard, and, after thanking the people fof their loving and faithful support of herself, invokes God's blessing upon the youthful sovereign.

WALTER WELLMAN COMING BACK.

The Greenland Expedition Reaches Tromsoe—No Word From Andree.

TROMSOE, Norway, Aug. 31.—The steam whaler Fridtjof, having on board Walter Wellman and members of his expedition to Greenland, has returned after landing an expedition at Cape Tegathoff, on the southern part of Halls island. While the Wellman party were returning they met the expedition to Franz Josef land under Dr. A. G. Northorst, at Koenigskar island, and were informed that all search for Prof. Andree, the missing balloonist, had proved futile.

YESTERDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 0 runs, 3 hits and 7 errors; Boston, 8 runs, 13 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Hart and Schriver; Nichols and Bergen. Umpires, Lynch and Andrews. Attendance, 1,200.

At Louisville—Louisville, 4 runs, 8 hits and 1 error; Baltimore, 2 runs, 7 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Dowling and Kittredge; Maul and Robinson. Umpires, Swartwood and Warner. Attendance, 1,800.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 1 run, 6 hits and 4 errors; Philadelphia, 9 runs, 13 hits and 2 errors. Batteries, Dwyer, Peitz and Wood; Orth and Murphy. Umpires, Gaffney and Brown. Attendance, 1,200.

At Chicago—Chicago, 1 run, 5 hits and 2 errors; New York, 0 runs, 3 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Griffith and Donahue; Meekin and Grady. Umpires, McDonald and O'Day. Attendance, 3,000.

League Standing.

	W	L	Pc.		W	L	Pc.
Boston	71	40	.640	Pittsburg	56	59	.487
Cincinnati	72	43	.626	Phila	52	56	.481
Baltimore	67	40	.626	Louisville	46	68	.404
Cleveland	65	46	.586	Brooklyn	42	65	.392
Chicago	64	50	.561	Wash	40	71	.360
New York	62	49	.559	St Louis	32	82	.281

Games Scheduled For Today.

Brooklyn at Chicago, Washington at Cincinnati, Boston at Cleveland, Baltimore at Louisville, New York at Pittsburg and Philadelphia at St. Louis.

Yesterday's Interstate League Games.

At Fort Wayne—Fort Wayne, 9 runs, 12 hits and 3 errors; Grand Rapids, 4 runs, 8 hits and 3 errors. Batteries, Reiman and Patterson. Harper and Cote.

At Springfield—Springfield, 4 runs, 5 hits and 5 errors; Youngstown, 9 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Poole and Graffius; B. Mil- and Donovan.

At Toledo—Toledo, 10 runs, 16 hits and 5 errors; Mansfield, 10 runs, 10 hits and 9 errors. Batteries, Ferguson and Arthur; G. Kellum and Belt. Called on account of darkness.

At Dayton—Dayton, 3 runs, 8 hits and 5 errors; New Castle, 6 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Rosebrough and Lattimer; C. Smith and Barckley.

THE MARKETS.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—No. 2 red new, 64@65c.

CORN—No. 2 yellow ear, 40@41c; No. 2 yellow, shelled, 36@36½c; high mixed, shelled, 35@36c.

OATS—No. 1 white, new, 25@26c; No. 2 white, clipped, 26½@27c; extra new, No. 3 white, 24@24½c; light mixed, 23½@24c.

HAY—No. 1 timothy, old, $9.50@9.75; do new $8.50@9.00; No. 2, $7.50@8.00; No. 1 clover, mixed, $7.00@8.00; wagon hay, $9.50@10.00 for timothy.

POULTRY—Live—Large chickens, 60@70c per pair; small, 45@55c; spring chickens, 25@50c per pair; ducks, 40@50c per pair; turkeys, 7@8c per pound; geese, 50@70c per pair. Dressed—Fancy chickens, 12@13c per pound; spring chickens, 14@15c; ducks, 11@12c; turkeys, 13@15c; geese, 7@8c.

BUTTER—Elgin prints, 21@21½c; extra creamery, 20@20½c; Ohio, fancy creamery, 18@18½c; country roll, 13@15c; low grades and cooking, 9@11c.

CHEESE—New York, full cream, new make, 8½@8¾c; new Ohios, full cream, 8@8½c; Wisconsin Swiss, 11½@12c; limburger, new, 9½@10c; brick cheese, 5-pound average, 9½@10c.

EGGS—Strictly fresh Pennsylvania and Ohio in cases, 13@13½c; candled, 14@14½c.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

CATTLE—The supply on Monday 110 cars; market 10@15c lower on best cattle and 20@30c lower on common and medium. We quote prices: Extra, $5.25@5.40; prime, $5.10@5.20; good, $4.90@5.00; tidy, $4.60@4.80; fair, $4.00@4.40; common, $3.50@3.85; heifers, $3.25@4.25; fat oxen, $2.25@4.00; common to good fat bulls and cows, $2.00@4.00; good fresh cows, $40.00@50.00; common to good fresh cows and springers, $20.00@40.00.

HOGS—Receipts on Monday 30 loads; market ruled steady at the previous week's closing prices. Today supply light; market steady on best grades, others slow. We quote sales: Prime mediums, $4.25@4.30; good Yorkers, $4.20@4.25; heavy hogs, $4.10@4.15; common to fair Yorkers, $4.05@4.10; grassers and stubblers, $3.85@4.00; pigs, as to quality, $3.70@4.00; roughs, $2.50@3.60; skips and common pigs, $3.00@3.50.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts on Monday 12 loads; market strong. Supply today light; market steady. We quote: Choice, $4.60@4.65; good, $4.40@4.50; fair, $4.00@4.25; common, $3.25@3.75; choice spring lambs, $5.60@5.80; common to good, $4.00@5.40; veal calves, $7.00@7.25; heavy and thin calves, $4.00@5.00.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.

HOGS—Market steady at $3.25@4.10.

CATTLE—Market steady at $2.80@4.90.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady at $2.25@4.25. Lambs—Market steady at $3.75@6.00.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—Spot market steady; No. 2 red, 73⅞@74⅛c f. o. b. afloat; to arrive, 74⅞c.

CORN—Spot market firm; No. 2, 36⅜c f. o. b. afloat.

OATS—Spot market dull; No. 2, 26½@27c; No. 2 white, new, 28@29c.

CATTLE—No trade of importance. Feeling weak. Cables firm. Live cattle, 11@12c per pound dressed weight; refrigerator beef, 8¼@8¾c per pound.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady; good to choice lambs 10c higher.

The Many Rich Prizes

Captured by Uncle Sam didn't drop into his hat through sheer luck--strength and shrewd judgment won them. Business successes are won in the same way. It isn't luck that enables us to offer you the most expert, scientific optical service to be found anywhere, at extremely low prices. It is full and perfect equipment, investment and enterprise. We employ a first class Oculist, a medical doctor especially educated in the treatment of the eye. When you come to us you take no chances, but are sure of first class service. Examination free of charge. Why not have the best?

M. WADE, JEWELER.

205 Market St., East Liverpool, Ohio

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY.
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, J. M. KELLY, B. C. SIMMS, W. L. THOMPSON, O. C. VODREY, JNO. C. THOMPSON, JAS. N. VODREY

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 50,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts!

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

An 8 Minute Walk From the Diamond

will take you to the Huston Lots—the best Low Priced ones in the city—$1.25 to $300 eache.

TERMS EASY.

Call for particulars.

Elijah W. Hill, J. P.

Fire Insurance and Real Estate, 105 Sixth Street.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushion Rubber Stamps.

THE NEWS REVIEW

H. A. MOWLS. LODGE RIDDLE

MOWLS & RIDDLE, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

HUSTON BLOCK. LISBON, OHIO

GO TO HASSEY'S

—For The—
Original BOSS ICE CREAM.
All Flavors. 206 Sixth Street.

Dr. J. N. VODREY
DENTIST,
Room 4, Porter Building,
DIAMOND.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,
Surgeon Dentist,
Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.
Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.

ALL the News in the News Review.

COLLECTED MUCH MONEY

But It Was Soon Sent Out by the Auditor.

LIVERPOOL GETS ITS SHARE

Thousands of Dollars Are Returned to the City From Lisbon After the Semi-annual Settlement—How the Money Is Distributed In the County.

LISBON, Aug. 31.[Special]—Deputy Auditor Frank Adams has completed the semi-annual settlement with the county treasurer. The amount that each township receives for township, road and school is indicated as follows:

Liverpool, $2,356.31: St. Clair, $1,590.13; Middleton, $2,712.77; Unity, $964.92; Yellow Creek, $1,533.81; Madison, $589.18; Elk Run, $1,320.75; Fairfield, $2,085.68; Washington, $1,052.81; Wayne, $1,856.40; Center, $2,089; Salem, $3,313.02; Franklin, $1,097.85; Hanover, $2,031.74; Butler, $2,022.95; Perry, $1,695.15; West $2,916.25; Knox, $2,304.71.

Total received by townships exclusive of school funds is $11,343.33. The total school fund is $83,640.25.

The corporations receive the following: Liverpool, $21,684.11; Rogers, $1,777.21; Palestine, 3,188.45; Wellsville, $11,541.56; Columbiana, $4,079.40; Salineville, $2,768.80; Lisbon, $6,123.01; Washingtonville, $334.65; Leetonia, $4,942.20; Hanover $191.73; Salem, $14,191.55; total $69,222.67.

The county retains $56,690.37, divided as follows: County fund, $24,894.70; poor, $11,133.40; bridge, $11,121,15; building, $1,133.12; soldiers' relief, $1,106.60; children's home, $3,332.72; refunder, $1,397.84; treasurer's fees, $1,964.72; interest and bond redemption, $561.54.

The total amount of taxes collected was $244,217.23.

FELL OFF A CAR.

Mr. Green Was Groaning When Passengers Picked Him Up.

Early last evening as street cars passed the Lythe switch the passengers on the east bound car in charge of George Hale, saw a man fall from the rear platform of the west bound car and alight on his head.

The car was stopped, and a number of the passengers went back where they found the man laying on the rails groaning at a great rate. He was assisted to his feet and an examination made and it was found he was a great deal more frightened than hurt. His name is Green and he lives in this city.

DUTCH ZOELLARS SHOT.

That Is the Report Which Comes From Down the River.

Word received in the city yesterday stated that Dutch Zoellars, who is well known here, had been shot in a quarrel at Springtown, W. Va., a small village about 12 miles from Sistersville.

No particulars were given, except the fact that Zoellars had been shot three times and was in a dangerous condition. An effort is now being made to ascertain the truth of the report.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The Ladies Will Discuss the Situation.

Mrs. Calhoun, president of the Hospital association, has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon at the Young Men's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

All members of the association and all other ladies interested in the hospital project are earnestly requested to be present.

Mercer Will Improve.

"Winnie Mercer's batting is bound to improve" says Jimmy McGuire. "He has been relieved of the responsibility of pitching and can apply both his eye and mind to the ball."

McGuire is the first catcher Mercer ever pitched to, and is probably better able to judge our own Winnie than any man in the league.

Excursions to Steubenville.

Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, the Pennsylvania company will sell low rate excursion tickets to Steubenville from East Liverpool for the races; return coupons good Saturday, Sept. 3, inclusive. *

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceler. Leave your order ta once.

HEAR SEC. SULLY

on "Job" Sunday afternoon at Spring Grove.

RHYME OF RHYMES.

Wild on the mountain peak the wind
Repeats its old refrain,
Like ghosts of mortals who have sinned
And fain would sin again.

For "wind" I do not rhyme to "mind,"
Like many mortal men.
"Again" (when one reflects) 'twere kind
To rhyme as if "agen."

I never met a single soul
Who spoke of "wind" as "wined,"
And yet we use it, on the whole,
To rhyme to "find" and "blind."

We say, "Now don't do that agen,"
When people give us pain.
In poetry, nine times in ten,
It rhymes to "Spain" or "Dane."

Oh, which is wrong or which is right?
Oh, which is right or wrong?
The sound in prose familiar quite
Or those we meet in song?

To hold that "love" can rhyme to "prove"
Requires some force of will,
Yet in the ancient lyric groove
We meet them rhyming still.

This was our learned fathers' wont
In prehistoric times.
We follow it, or if we don't
We oft run short of rhymes.
—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

DICK'S GOOD TIME.

A Very Human Boy Enjoying His Well Earned Reward.

A portly gentleman sat on the porch and smiled while a small boy, also smiling, painted the front fence.

"Look at that boy," the portly man remarked to a visitor. "He thinks he is having a good time. A small boy is surely the drollest creature on earth. When I was a youngster, I remember that there were certain kinds of work I considered play, and one of them was painting. I was always crazy to paint. Many times I have taken a bucket of muddy water and an old paint brush and have spent a whole half day putting a thick coat on the side of my father's barn.

"So with my boy Dick, the little chap painting the fence. He has always been crazy to paint. He is enjoying himself now—you can see he is, and he will paint that whole fence, too, just as well as he knows how. I don't care if it is a trifle smeared. He's getting joy, solid joy, thicker than the paint on his hands and clothes.

"There's a mean side to it too. He wanted to paint the fence, and I wanted the weeds pulled out of the yard. So, like an underhanded rascal, I bargained with him. I told him that if he would pull all the weeds out I would let him paint the fence. He went through the other job like a soldier—he hates to pull weeds; all boys do—and now he thinks he is getting his reward. It is a downright shame to fool him that way, don't you think so?"

The portly gentleman chuckled again, and the small boy, wild with joy, went on plastering paint on the fence.—Detroit Free Press.

Crossing the Threshold.

Crossing the threshold was and is the most critical period of the wedding day with all races, not even excepting the Anglo-Saxon.

The superstitious fears of the many, always particularly alert on the occasion of a marriage, culminate in this final act of the drama. The lifting of the bride over the threshold or her stepping across it is the signal in Persia, Arabia and among the Copts of Egypt for the sacrifice of a goat or a sheep. Among the Aenezes, according to Burckhardt, the bridegroom simply kills a lamb in front of his father-in-law's tent, and the ceremony, but for the running of the bride from one tent to another, is complete. Perhaps the purest symbolical act is that of the Transylvanian Saxon bridal pair, who step over the threshold with their hands tied together. Some of these Transylvanian customs are remarkable and must be survivals from a very ancient period. The bridegroom never wears the shirt made for him by the bride except on his wedding day and at his burial, just as the veil of the Japanese bride becomes one day her shroud.—London Spectator.

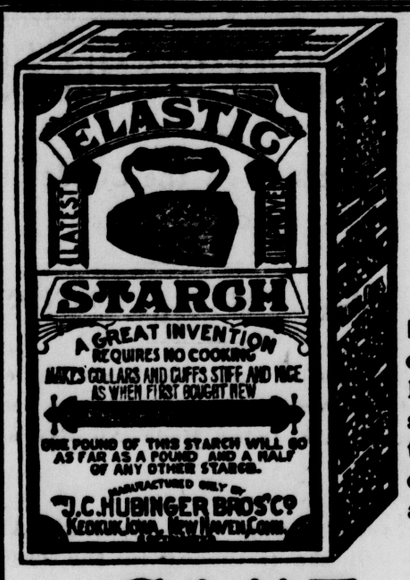
Dickens In Evening Dress.

When Charles Dickens was to make his first appearance in Boston before an American audience as a reader, an immense crowd awaited him. The enthusiasm of the people for the most popular novelist then living had risen to fever heat. One of the most ardent of his admirers afterward told this little incident of the evening:

"With a few gentlemen who wished to welcome and show him attention I was in the little room at the back of the platform when Dickens entered it. He was a rather stout man with a somewhat red face, and I saw to my surprise, that he was dressed in an exaggerated servility to the extreme fashion.

"More than this, he wore a boutonniere in each buttonhole, and two watches, the chains of which were strung aggressively across his chest. There was a gaudy bad taste in his appearance which his friends regretted, knowing how distasteful it would be to most of his admirers who appreciated his genius and enjoyed his writings.

"No one, of course, could broach the subject to him, and he appeared that night and every other night of his engagement in the same attire. The universal comment was, 'Why, this is a petit maitre.' How can a man with such tastes be the creator of Tiny Tim and Sam Weller!"—Youth's Companion.



A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

GAME PLAQUES

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant,
English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

REDUCED FARES

To Various Points via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines as indicated in the following paragraphs. Although concessions in fare are authorized for meetings of certain Orders, tickets may be obtained by any person whether a member of the order or interested in the event. The reduced rates will be open to everybody.

To Cincinnati, Ohio.--September 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, for the G. A. R. National Encampment. Good returning until Septembr 13th, with privilege of extension until October 2d.

To Pittsburg, Pa.—October 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good returning until October 17th, account Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. Return limit may be extended until October 31st.

During the excursion season special rates will also be in effect via Pennsylvania Lines for special and local events. For particular information please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer In Colorado.

Colorado is particularly inviting as a summer haven. The climate is remarkable for its invigorating effect, and the state is rich in grand scenery and points of interest where a vacation may be pleasantly spent. Special arrangements are being made for the entertainment of visitors who are this season expected to be attracted to the seclusion and quiet of the Rockies and the hills and canyons of that great wonderland.

Colorado today is nearer home than in former years. The fast schedules of the Pennsylvania route and connecting lines bring the centennial state within easy reach, and the cost of a trip thither is no longer a luxury. The special low rate tourist tickets over the Pennsylvania lines places the cost for transportation within the limit of the usual allowance for vacation trips. For special information about rates, time of trains and other details please apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, D. P. agt., Pittsburg, Pa. *

Excursion via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Traverse City, Petoskey and Mackinac Island, the most popular resorts in Northern Michigan, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines, Tuesday, Sept. 6th. The round trip rate from East Liverpool will be $10 to Petoskey or Traverse City, and $11 to Mackinac Island. Tickets will be good going on regular trains on the dates specified and good returning 30 days. For special information on the subject apply to Ticket Agent Adam Hill at East Liverpool, O. *

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the ocean, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent, or address your requests to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa

Take Your Choice.

An excursion to those popular northern Michigan resorts will run via Pennsylvania lines Tuesday, Sept. 6th. See Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, about it. *

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains-Central Time

Westward.	335 AM	337 PM	339 PM	341 PM	359 AM
Pittsburgh ...lv.	†5 45	†1 30	†4 30	*11 00	†7 30
Rochester.....“	6 40	2 15	5 25	11 50	8 25
Beaver.....“	6 45	2 20	5 30	11 55	8 30
Vanport.....“	6 50	.....	5 35	11 59	8 34
Industry.....“	7 00	.....	5 50	12 10	8 44
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 03	.....	5 55	12 11	f8 48
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 11	2 40	6 04	12 20	8 55
East Liverpool...“	7 20	2 49	6 14	12 30	9 05
Wellsville.....ar.	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop.“	7 46	.....		12 50
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52	.....		12 55
Hammondsville“	8 01	.....		f1 03
Irondale.....“	8 06	3 22		f1 06
Salineville.....“	8 25	3 38		1 27
Bayard.....“	9 09	4 10		2 05
Alliance.....ar.	9 40	4 33		2 30
Alliance.....lv.	10 05	4 38		2 35
Ravenna.....“	10 40	5 06		3 10
Hudson.....“	11 02	5 25		3 30
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville.....lv.	7 47	3 10	6 55	†5 55	†11 02
Wellsville Shop.“	7 52	3 13	6 58	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek.....“	7 57	3 18	7 04	6 05	11 10
Port Homer.....“	f8 03	f3 23	f7 09	f6 09	.....
Empire.....“	8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville.....“	f8 17	3 33	7 18	6 21	11 23
Toronto.....“	8 21	3 37	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia.....“	f8 28	f3 43	f7 30	6 37	.....
Steubenville...ar.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Steubenville...lv.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Mingo Jc.....“	8 51	4 07	7 53	7 05	11 53
Brilliant.....“	8 58	4 14	8 00	7 14	12 01
Rush Run.....“	9 07	4 23	8 09	7 24	12 10
Portland.....“	9 14	4 30	8 15	7 30	12 16
Yorkville.....“	f9 19	f4 35	8 20	7 37	12 21
Martins Ferry.....“	9 32	4 45	8 30	7 52	12 28
Bridgeport.....“	9 40	4 50	8 35	7 58	12 35
Bellaire.....ar.	9 50	5 05	8 45	8 10	12 45
	AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

Through Coaches on Trains 336, 359, 337 and 360 between Cleveland and Bellaire.

Eastward.	340 AM	336 AM		338 PM	360 PM	48 PM
Bellaire.....lv.	†4 45	†9 00	Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.	†4 45	†1 00	†2 45
Bridgeport.....“	4 53	9 09		4 54	1 10	2 53
Martins Ferry...“	5 01	9 15		5 02	1 18	3 02
Yorkville.....“	f5 10	.....		f5 12	.....	f3 12
Portland.....“	5 15	9 28		5 19	1 28	3 17
Rush Run.....“	5 20	9 33		5 24	.....	3 22
Brilliant.....“	5 28	9 41		5 34	1 42	3 32
Mingo Jc.....“	5 35	9 48		5 41	1 50	3 39
Steubenville...ar.	5 44	9 56		5 50	1 58	3 48
Steubenville...lv.	5 44	9 56		5 50	1 58	3 48
Costonia.....“	f6 00	10 12		.....	f4 15	f4 04
Toronto.....“	6 07	10 17		6 11	2 19	4 20
Elliottsville.....“	6 11	10 19		.....	f4 23	f4 08
Empire.....“	6 13	10 27		6 21	2 27	4 27
Port Homer.....“	f6 20	10 31		.....	.....	f4 34
Yellow Creek.....“	6 26	10 37		.....	.....	4 40
Wellsville Shop.“	6 31	10 42		.....	.....	4 45
Wellsville.....ar.	6 35	10 50		6 41	2 45	4 55
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42		Nos. 338 and 342 connect in Union Station, Pitts., with thro' trains East.		3 05	*Daily. |Meals.
Wellsville Shop.“	7 46				.....
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52				.....
Hammondsville“	8 01				.....
Irondale.....“	8 06				.....
Salineville.....“	8 25				.....
Bayard.....“	9 09				.....
Alliance.....ar.	9 40				.....
Alliance.....lv.	10 05				.....
Ravenna.....“	10 40				.....
Hudson.....“	11 02				.....
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10				6 25
Wellsville.....lv.	6 45	10 57		6 51	3 10	*3 50
East Liverpool...“	6 57	11 07		7 01	3 20	4 01
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 07	11 18		7 11	3 30	4 12
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 20	11 24		.....	f3 36	f4 20
Industry.....“	7 25	11 30		7 22	3 42	4 25
Vanport.....“	7 34	11 40		.....	f3 53	f4 35
Beaver.....“	7 40	11 45		7 36	3 58	4 40
Rochester.....“	7 50	11 50		7 42	4 12	4 45
Pittsburgh...ar.	8 50	12 40		8 30	5 10	5 40
	AM	PM		PM	PM	AM

†Daily Except Sunday.

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager. E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

6-26-98.-H PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

IS Your Head Clear? Do you feel a boundless energy in your blood? You can have these and renewed vitality by taking a dose of Paragon Tea before retiring. Constipation Cured. 25 cents for one months treatment. All druggists. Send 2 cent stamp for sample. S. B. FEIL & CO. Cleveland, O.

UNION LABELS.

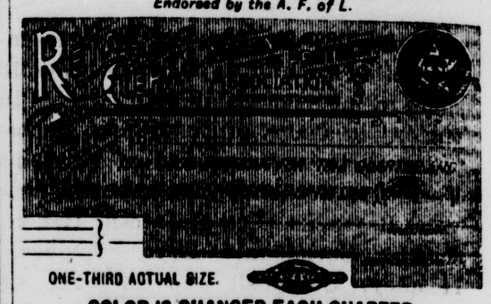
It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

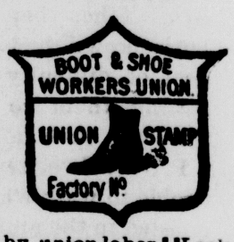


ONE-THIRD ACTUAL SIZE.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.



The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

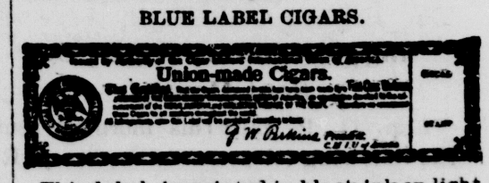
UNION MADE CLOTHES.

You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

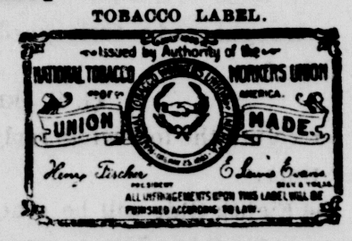
"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold. The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.



This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.



The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

COLLECTED MUCH MONEY

But It Was Soon Sent Out by the Auditor.

LIVERPOOL GETS ITS SHARE

Thousands of Dollars Are Returned to the City From Lisbon After the Semi-annual Settlement—How the Money Is Distributed In the County.

LISBON, Aug. 31.[Special]—Deputy Auditor Frank Adams has completed the semi-annual settlement with the county treasurer. The amount that each township receives for township, road and school is indicated as follows:

Liverpool, $2,356.31: St. Clair, $1,590.13; Middleton, $2,712.77; Unity, $964.92; Yellow Creek, $1,533.81; Madison, $589.18; Elk Run, $1,320.75; Fairfield, $2,085.68; Washington, $1,052.81; Wayne, $1,856.40; Center, $2,089; Salem, $3,313.02; Franklin, $1,097.85; Hanover, $2,031.74; Butler, $2,022.95; Perry, $1,695.15; West $2,916.25; Knox, $2,304.71.

Total received by townships exclusive of school funds is $11,343.33. The total school fund is $83,640.25.

The corporations receive the following: Liverpool, $21,684.11; Rogers, $1,777.21; Palestine, 3,188.45; Wellsville, $11,541.56; Columbiana, $4,079.40; Salineville, $2,768.80; Lisbon, $6,123.01; Washingtonville, $334.65; Leetonia, $4,942.20; Hanover $191.73; Salem, $14,191.55; total $69,222.67.

The county retains $56,690.37, divided as follows: County fund, $24,894.70; poor, $11,133.40; bridge, $11,121,15; building, $1,123.12; soldiers' relief, $1,106.60; children's home, $3,332.72; refunder, $1,297.84; treasurer's fees, $1,964.72; interest and bond redemption, $561.54.

The total amount of taxes collected was $244,217.23.

FELL OFF A CAR.

Mr. Green Was Groaning When Passengers Picked Him Up.

Early last evening as street cars passed the Lythe switch the passengers on the east bound car in charge of George Hale, saw a man fall from the rear platform of the west bound car and alight on his head.

The car was stopped, and a number of the passengers went back where they found the man laying on the rails groaning at a great rate. He was assisted to his feet and an examination made and it was found he was a great deal more frightened than hurt. His name is Green and he lives in this city.

DUTCH ZOELLARS SHOT.

That Is the Report Which Comes From Down the River.

Word received in the city yesterday stated that Dutch Zoellars, who is well known here, had been shot in a quarrel at Springtown, W. Va., a small village about 12 miles from Sistersville.

No particulars were given, except the fact that Zoellars had been shot three times and was in a dangerous condition. An effort is now being made to ascertain the truth of the report.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The Ladies Will Discuss the Situation.

Mrs. Calhoun, president of the Hospital association, has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon at the Young Men's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

All members of the association and all other ladies interested in the hospital project are earnestly requested to be present.

Mercer Will Improve.

"Winnie Mercer's batting is bound to improve" says Jimmy McGuire. "He has been relieved of the responsibility of pitching and can apply both his eye and mind to the ball."

McGuire is the first catcher Mercer ever pitched to, and is probably better able to judge our own Winnie than any man in the league.

Excursions to Steubenville.

Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, the Pennsylvania company will sell low rate excursion tickets to Steubenville from East Liverpool for the races; return coupons good Saturday, Sept. 3, inclusive. *

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceler. Leave your order ta once.

HEAR SEC. SULLY

on "Job" Sunday afternoon at Spring Grove.

RHYME OF RHYMES.

Wild on the mountain peak the wind
Repeats its old refrain,
Like ghosts of mortals who have sinned
And fain would sin again.

For "wind" I do not rhyme to "mind,"
Like many mortal men.
"Again" (when one reflects) 'twere kind
To rhyme as if "agen."

I never met a single soul
Who spoke of "wind" as "wined,"
And yet we use it, on the whole,
To rhyme to "find" and "blind."

We say, "Now don't do that agen,"
When people give us pain.
In poetry, nine times in ten,
It rhymes to "Spain" or "Dane."

Oh, which is wrong or which is right?
Oh, which is right or wrong?
The sound in prose familiar quite
Or those we meet in song?

To hold that "love" can rhyme to "prove"
Requires some force of will,
Yet in the ancient lyric groove
We meet them rhyming still.

This was our learned fathers' wont
In prehistoric times.
We follow it, or if we don't
We oft run short of rhymes.
—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

DICK'S GOOD TIME.

A Very Human Boy Enjoying His Well Earned Reward.

A portly gentleman sat on the porch and smiled while a small boy, also smiling, painted the front fence.

"Look at that boy," the portly man remarked to a visitor. "He thinks he is having a good time. A small boy is surely the drollest creature on earth. When I was a youngster, I remember that there were certain kinds of work I considered play, and one of them was painting. I was always crazy to paint. Many times I have taken a bucket of muddy water and an old paint brush and have spent a whole half day putting a thick coat on the side of my father's barn.

"So with my boy Dick, the little chap painting the fence. He has always been crazy to paint. He is enjoying himself now—you can see he is, and he will paint that whole fence, too, just as well as he knows how. I don't care if it is a trifle smeared. He's getting joy, solid joy, thicker than the paint on his hands and clothes.

"There's a mean side to it too. He wanted to paint the fence, and I wanted the weeds pulled out of the yard. So, like an underhanded rascal, I bargained with him. I told him that if he would pull all the weeds out I would let him paint the fence. He went through the other job like a soldier—he hates to pull weeds; all boys do—and now he thinks he is getting his reward. It is a downright shame to fool him that way, don't you think so?"

The portly gentleman chuckled again, and the small boy, wild with joy, went on plastering paint on the fence.—Detroit Free Press.

Crossing the Threshold.

Crossing the threshold was and is the most critical period of the wedding day with all races, not even excepting the Anglo-Saxon.

The superstitious fears of the many, always particularly alert on the occasion of a marriage, culminate in this final act of the drama. The lifting of the bride over the threshold or her stepping across it is the signal in Persia, Arabia and among the Copts of Egypt for the sacrifice of a goat or a sheep. Among the Aenezes, according to Burckhardt, the bridegroom simply kills a lamb in front of his father-in-law's tent, and the ceremony, but for the running of the bride from one tent to another, is complete. Perhaps the purest symbolical act is that of the Transylvanian Saxon bridal pair, who step over the threshold with their hands tied together. Some of these Transylvanian customs are remarkable and must be survivals from a very ancient period. The bridegroom never wears the shirt made for him by the bride except on his wedding day and at his burial, just as the veil of the Japanese bride becomes one day her shroud.—London Spectator.

Dickens In Evening Dress.

When Charles Dickens was to make his first appearance in Boston before an American audience as a reader, an immense crowd awaited him. The enthusiasm of the people for the most popular novelist then living had risen to fever heat. One of the most ardent of his admirers afterward told this little incident of the evening:

"With a few gentlemen who wished to welcome and show him attention I was in the little room at the back of the platform when Dickens entered it. He was a rather stout man with a somewhat red face, and I saw to my surprise, that he was dressed in an exaggerated servility to the extreme fashion.

"More than this, he wore a boutonniere in each buttonhole, and two watches, the chains of which were strung aggressively across his chest. There was a gaudy bad taste in his appearance which his friends regretted, knowing how distasteful it would be to most of his admirers who appreciated his genius and enjoyed his writings.

"No one, of course, could broach the subject to him, and he appeared that night and every other night of his engagement in the same attire. The universal comment was, 'Why, this is a petit maitre.' How can a man with such tastes be the creator of Tiny Tim and Sam Weller!"—Youth's Company.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

GAME PLAQUES

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant,
English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

REDUCED FARES

To Various Points via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines as indicated in the following paragraphs. Although concessions in fare are authorized for meetings of certain Orders, tickets may be obtained by any person whether a member of the order or interested in the event. The reduced rates will be open to everybody.

To Cincinnati, Ohio.--September 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, for the G. A. R. National Encampment. Good returning until Septembr 13th, with privilege of extension until October 2d.

To Pittsburg, Pa.—October 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good returning until October 17th, account Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. Return limit may be extended until October 31st.

During the excursion season special rates will also be in effect via Pennsylvania Lines for special and local events. For particular information please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer In Colorado.

Colorado is particularly inviting as a summer haven. The climate is remarkable for its invigorating effect, and the state is rich in grand scenery and points of interest where a vacation may be pleasantly spent. Special arrangements are being made for the entertainment of visitors who are this season expected to be attracted to the seclusion and quiet of the Rockies and the hills and canyons of that great wonderland.

Colorado today is nearer home than in former years. The fast schedules of the Pennsylvania route and connecting lines bring the centennial state within easy reach, and the cost of a trip thither is no longer a luxury. The special low rate tourist tickets over the Pennsylvania lines places the cost for transportation within the limit of the usual allowance for vacation trips. For special information about rates, time of trains and other details please apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, D. P. agt., Pittsburg, Pa. *

Excursion via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Traverse City, Petoskey and Mackinac Island, the most popular resorts in Northern Michigan, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines, Tuesday, Sept. 6th. The round trip rate from East Liverpool will be $10 to Petoskey or Traverse City, and $11 to Mackinac Island. Tickets will be good going on regular trains on the dates specified and good returning 30 days. For special information on the subject apply to Ticket Agent Adam Hill at East Liverpool, O. *

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the ocean, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent, or address your requests to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa

Take Your Choice.

An excursion to those popular northern Michigan resorts will run via Pennsylvania lines Tuesday, Sept. 6th. See Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, about it. *

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains-Central Time

Westward.	335 AM	337 PM	339 PM	341 PM	359 AM
Pittsburgh ...lv.	†5 45	†1 30	†4 30	*11 00	†7 30
Rochester.....“	6 40	2 15	5 25	11 50	8 25
Beaver.....“	6 45	2 20	5 30	11 55	8 30
Vanport.....“	6 50	.....	5 33	11 59	8 34
Industry.....“	7 00	.....	5 50	12 10	8 44
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 03	.....	5 55	12f11	f8 48
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 11	2 40	6 04	12 20	8 55
East Liverpool...“	7 20	2 49	6 14	12 30	9 05
Wellsville.....ar.	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop..“	7 46	.....		12 50
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52	.....		12f55
Hammondsville“	8 01	.....		f1 03
Irondale.....“	8 06	3 22		f1 06
Salineville.....“	8 25	3 38		1 27
Bayard.....“	9 09	4 10		2 05
Alliance.....{ar.	9 40	4 33		2 30
Alliance.....{lv.	10 05	4 38	Flag stop.	2 35
Ravenna.....“	10 40	5 06		3 10
Hudson.....“	11 02	5 25		3 30
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville.....lv.	7 47	3 10	6 55	†5 55	†11 02
Wellsville Shop..“	7 52	3 13	6 58	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek.....“	7 57	3 18	7 04	6 05	11 10
Port Homer.....“	f8 03	3 23	f7 09	f6 09	.....
Empire.....“	8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville.....“	f8 17	3 33	7 19	6 21	11 23
Toronto.....“	8 21	3 38	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia.....“	f8 28	f3 43	f7 30	6 37	.....
Steubenville...{ar.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Steubenville...{lv.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Mingo Jc.....“	8 51	4 07	7 53	7 05	11 53
Brilliant.....“	8 58	4 14	8 00	7 14	12 01
Rush Run.....“	9 07	4 23	8 09	7 24	12 10
Portland.....“	9 14	4 30	8 15	7 30	12 16
Yorkville.....“	f9 19	f4 35	f8 20	7 37	12f21
Martins Ferry....“	9 32	4 45	8 33	7 52	12 28
Bridgeport.....“	9 40	4 50	8 45	8 10	12 35
Bellaire.....ar.	9 50	5 05	8 55	8 20	12 45
	AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

Through Coaches on Trains 336, 359, 337 and 360 between Cleveland and Bellaire.

Eastward.	340 AM	336 AM	338 PM	360 PM	48 PM
Bellaire.....lv.	†4 45	†9 00	†4 45	†1 00	†2 45
Bridgeport.....“	4 53	9 09	4 55	1 10	2 55
Martins Ferry...“	5 01	9 15	5 02	1 16	3 02
Yorkville.....“	f5 10	.....	f5 12	.....	f3 12
Portland.....“	5 15	9 28	5 19	1 28	3 17
Rush Run.....“	5 20	9 33	5 24	.....	3 22
Brilliant.....“	5 28	9 41	5 34	1 42	3 30
Mingo Jc.....“	5 35	9 48	5 41	1 50	3 37
Steubenville...{ar.	5 44	9 56	5 50	1 58	3 46
Steubenville...{lv.	5 44	9 56	5 50	.....	f4 15
Costonia.....“	f6 00	10f12	6 04	.....	f4 24
Toronto.....“	6 07	10 17	6 11	2 19	f4 31
Elliottsville.....“	6 11	10f19	6 14	.....	f4 34
Empire.....“	6 13	10 27	6 21	2 27	4 37
Port Homer.....“	f6 20	10f31	f6 28	.....	f4 44
Yellow Creek.....“	6 26	10 37	6 34	.....	4 50
Wellsville Shop..“	6 31	10 42	6 39	.....	4 55
Wellsville.....ar.	6 35	10 50	6 41	2 45	4 58
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42			3 05
Wellsville Shop..“	7 46			.....
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52			.....
Hammondsville“	8 01			.....
Irondale.....“	8 06			3 22
Salineville.....“	8 25			3 38
Bayard.....“	9 09			4 10
Alliance.....{ar.	9 40			4 33
Alliance.....{lv.	10 05			4 38
Ravenna.....“	10 40			5 06
Hudson.....“	11 02			5 25
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10			6 25
Wellsville.....lv.	6 45	10 57	6 51	3 10	*3 50
East Liverpool...“	6 57	11 07	7 00	3 20	4 01
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 07	11 18	7 08	3 30	4 12
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 20	11 24		3 38	f4 20
Industry.....“	7 25	11 30	7 22	3 42	4 25
Vanport.....“	7 34	11 40		3 52	f4 35
Beaver.....“	7 40	11 45	7 36	3 58	4 40
Rochester.....“	7 50	11 50	7 42	4 12	4 45
Pittsburgh ...ar.	8 50	12 40	8 30	5 10	5 40
	AM	PM	PM	PM	AM

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.

Nos. 338 and 342 connect in Union Station, Pitts., with thro' trains East.

†Daily Except Sunday.

*Daily. |Meals. 342 AM

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager. E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

6-26-98.-H PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

IS YOUR HEAD CLEAR? Do you feel a boundless energy in your blood? You can have these and renewed vitality by taking a dose of Paragon Tea before retiring. Constipation Cured. 25 cents for one months treatment. All druggists. Send 2 cent stamp for sample. S. B. FEIL & CO. Cleveland, O.

UNION LABELS.

It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

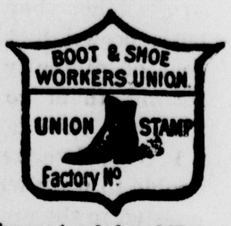
Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

ONE-THIRD ACTUAL SIZE.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.



The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

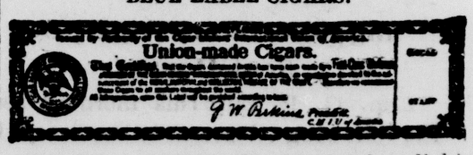
You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

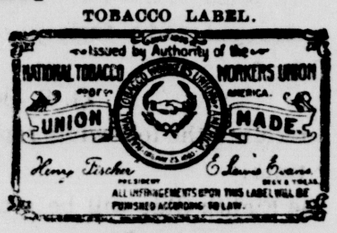
The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.



This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.



The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Opened by President Yount This Morning.

MINISTERS ARE ALL HERE

The Attendance Is Very Large, and an Exceptionally Good Convention Is Expected. What Was Done This Morning and Afternoon.

The fifty-sixth convention, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, began its work in this city today.

A number of ministers arrived yesterday, but the majority came in this morning, and a well-dressed, intelligent lot they are. They are being well cared for, and will doubtless leave East Liverpool knowing much more of the city than they ever knew before.

The first session of the synod was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, it being a confessional service. There were many greetings among friends who had not met for a year prior to the hour, St. John's church at Third and Jackson streets being well filled.

At 10 o'clock President Yount delivered the synodical sermon, and it was followed by communion service. The sermon was a splendid effort, being logical and eloquent. The reverend gentleman touched upon a number of matters most important, and did it so well that the discourse was received by all present with enthusiasm. Synod then adjourned for the noon recess.

The first business in the afternoon was the presentation of the president's report, a lengthy document which covers every detail of the year. It shows that two highly esteemed and venerable ministers had been called away during the year, Rev. Carl E. Cossman, D. D., of Lunenburg, N S., and Prof. David McKee, of Shenango. They were earnest workers in the cause, and their demise was deeply regretted. Twelve pastors resigned their charges, and 21 were installed. Three accepted calls and six were dismissed to other synods. One congregation was dismissed to another synod. Six ministers made application for admission to the synod, and the corner stones of three churches were laid.

The following churches were consecrated during the year: St. Matthew, Rose Bay, N. S.; Mission of Mt. Calvary of McKee's; Trinity, McKean, Pa.; Holy Trinity, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Peter, Evans City, Pa.; Penn, Penn Station, Pa., First church, Butler, Pa. The report deals at length with the consecration of these churches, and gives the names of the pastors and those who took prominent part in the services.

Thiel college day was mentioned, and the president said 58 congregations had contributed $561.79, while 16 congregations had given $174.84 to Greensburg seminary. The opinion that the observance of the day will increase from year to year was expressed.

Because a provision of the constitution does not give the president any discretion in authorizing the installation of pastors not already members of the synod, the president asked some action on the part of the synod.

In speaking of finances the president said the showing was most encouraging. Last year the aggregate was $16,745.80, and this year $20,394.31.

The synod is in session as the NEWS REVIEW goes to press.

This evening a mission meeting will be held, Rev. C. L. Boecele delivering the German address and Rev. J. C. Kunzman preaching in English.

GOT THEIR PICTURES.

The Boys Were Photographed as They Left The Train.

When the train carrying those members of Company E who were successful in obtaining a furlough arrived in the city this morning, a large crowd gathered at the Second street crossing. In the crowd not less than 15 cameras were seen, and as the boys came from the train numerous pictures were taken. One of those who had a camera said he was going to present each member of Company E with a picture of the poor boys who came home today.

On the River.

Packet navigation on the Ohio is seriously threatened. There is still enough water to enable the boats to come in, but within the next 36 hours there will not be unless a rise materializes. This is not promised. In the Pittsburg harbor the river rose nearly three inches Monday night. At the wharf this morning the marks registered five feet and falling.

The Ben Hur is up tonight and the Queen City is down. The Kanawha went down last night with a good trip.

G. A. R. DAYLIGHT SPECIAL

To Cincinnati For the National Encampment.

Arrangments have been made to take G. A. R. veterans and friends to the national encampment at Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania lines in quick time. For their accommodation a daylight special will be run Monday, Sept. 5. A cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers, their families and friends who may wish to enjoy the trip to the Thirty-second National Encampment on the daylight special to join the party at any of the stations given in the following table, which includes the round trip rate and time of train:

				Central time.
$5.30	from	Wheeling	Leave	6:00 a m
5.30	"	Wellsburg	"	6:30 a m
5.10	"	Steubenville	"	6:57 a m
5.10	"	Mingo Junc	"	7:05 a m
5.10	"	Cadiz	"	5:25 a m
4.85	"	Jewett	"	7:48 a m
4.75	"	Scio	"	7:56 a m
4.60	"	Bowerston	"	8:05 a m
4.40	"	Dennison	"	8:25 a m
4.40	"	Uhrichsville	"	8:28 a m
3.90	"	N. Comerst'n	"	8:55 a m
$5.10	from	Bellaire	Leave	4:45 a m
5.10	"	Bridgeport	"	4:53 a m
5.10	"	M'tin's Ferry	"	5:01 a m
$5.50	from	E. Liverpool	Leave	5:45 a m
5.50	"	Wellsville	"	5:55 a m
5.30	"	Toronto	"	6:30 a m
$4.30	from	Philadelphia	Leave	6:10 a m
4.30	"	Canal Dover	"	6:20 a m

Arrive Cincinnati 3:00 p. m. same day without changing cars.

Excursion tickets to Cincinnati for the national encampment will also be sold at the above rates for all regular trains Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Tickets will be good returning until Sept. 13, with privilege to extend return limit to Oct. 2 inclusive. For particular information please apply to Pennsylvania lines ticket agent at any of the stations given above or address J. K. Dillon, department passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburg. *

To Reform Our Spelling.

A committee, consisting of William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, and M. Balliet of Springfield, Mass., appointed by the National Education association for an amendment of spelling of certain words in common use, has completed its labors.

Words simplified are as follows: Program (programme), altho (although), thorofare (thoroughfare), tho (though), thoro (thorough), thru (through), thruout (throughout), prolog (prologue), demagog (demagogue), catalog (catalogue), decalog (decalogue) pedagog (pedagogue).

Changes will be submitted to the executive committee of the national association. The words given are samples of changes. The idea of the committee was to spell the words exactly as they sounded.

Lively In Its Old Age.

Santiago is nearly 400 years old, but the venerable city has had a livelier time within the last two months than in all the former period of its history. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It Might Stick a Little.

The nation will endeavor to carry out its declaration with regard to Cuba, but there will be much difficulty in inducing the flag to come down.—Galveston News.

The Battlefield.

Once this soft turf, this rivulet's sands,
Were trampled by a hurrying crowd,
And fiery hearts and armed hands
Encountered in the battle cloud.

Ah, never shall the land forget
How gushed the lifeblood of her brave—
Gushed, warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save!

Now all is calm and fresh and still;
Alone the chirp of flitting bird
And talk of children on the hill
And bell of wandering kine are heard.

No solemn host goes trailing by,
The black mouthed gun and staggering wain.
Men start not at the battlecry—
Oh, be it never heard again!

Soon rested those who fought, but thou
Who minglest in the harder strife
For truths which men receive not now
Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! Lingering long
Through weary day and weary year;
A wild and many weaponed throng
Hang on thy front and flank and rear.

Yet nerve thy spirit to the proof
And blench not at thy chosen lot;
The timid good may stand aloof,
The sage may frown—yet faint thou not.

Nor heed the shaft too surely cast,
The foul and hissing bolt of scorn,
For with thy side shall dwell at last
The victory of endurance born.

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers,
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain
And dies among his worshipers.

Yea, though thou lie upon the dust
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,
Another hand the standard wave
Till from the trumpet's mouth is pealed
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE BENNINGTON'S CRACK CREW GOT A COSTLY SURPRISE.

The Story of a Fourth of July Rowing Contest at Honolulu Which Emptied the Pockets and Lacerated the Feelings of Uncle Sam's Jackies.

"About as dismal a Fourth of July as ever I experienced on board a man-o'-war," said an ex-sailor of the navy now living in Washington to a reporter, "was Independence day not many years ago down in the harbor of Honolulu. The Bennington had an all star racing boat's crew. The eight had just happened to be assigned to the Bennington in a bunch before she left for her Pacific cruise, and several of the oarsmen had been members of the Columbia's crack boat's crew that walloped all of the British navy's boats' crews in English waters a few years before.

The Bennington's cutter was one of the best in the navy, and she had been built for a racer. Before we left the Mare Island navy yard for south Pacific waters the ship's racing crew had easily beaten all of the other crews of the ships lying at the yard, including the tiptop crew of the Olympia and the Boston's fine crew. We thought that we were about as warm as they make 'em after our crew put it on so many other man-o'-war crews, giving them a couple of minutes the start of us, too, on numerous occasions and still beating them disgracefully.

"The people of Honolulu arranged an aquatic festival for the Fourth of July—the Americans down there celebrated the Fourth just as enthusiastically as we do up here—and the Bennington's crew figured in it largely. Our ship's colors were at the fore in the two races that were run with picked Kanaka crews, and the third and last race of the day was one in which our crackajack eight was to figure, the other races having been won by subcrews practically picked at random from among the strongest seamen.

"We thought this race was at our mercy. It was to be a four sided affair—one crew of Kanaka sugar field workers, a crew of Kanaka policemen and the racing crew of the yacht Eleanor, belonging to Mr. Slater of Providence, that had pulled into Honolulu harbor from Japan a few days before. Our crew didn't pay much attention to the yacht's racing crew and were only figuring on the distance they could beat the crew of Kanaka policemen, which seemed the most formidable.

"The race was over the four mile course carefully blocked out in the harbor—which was very smooth—by the Honolulu aquatic sportsmen, and the start was first rate. There wasn't a man, fore or aft, on the Bennington that didn't stand to go broke to the extent of at least a month's pay on the success of the Bennington's crew, and we had to give 3 to 1, too, for it was generally conceded that we had the race at our mercy.

"The start, as I said, was good, and the Bennington's crew showed in front first and started out apparently to make a runaway race of it. The Kanaka policemen's crew trailed after them, pulling steadily, then the Kanaka sugar workers and, a good ten lengths to the rear, the Eleanor's crew. This was the way it looked for the finish when the Bennington's crew rounded the stakeboat and started for the return trip.

"Some of the Honolulu men who had their money up on the two Kanaka crews actually began to square accounts, and the cry, 'It's all over—Bennington!' was heard all over the bay. When the stakeboat was rounded, it was noticed that the Eleanor's boat was sort of getting a move on itself, and the men were working like machines at a long, steady stroke that certainly looked as if it was cutting down the Bennington's lead and the lead of the two Kanaka boats.

"Two minutes after the stakeboat was rounded the Eleanor's gang were right abreast of the Kanaka cutters and gaining on them with every stroke, and the cox'un of the Bennington's cutter, hearing the yells of warning from the Bennington bluejackets ashore, looked behind him and saw the Eleanor cutter only two lengths behind him and coming like an electric launch. Our crew was tired, and that's all there was about it.

"The Eleanor's crew had held themselves in for the finish, and they certainly did make a Garrison finish of it. The yacht's cutter shot ahead of our cutter a good mile from home, and then, to make the thing more galling, the crew actually stopped rowing until the Bennington's crew was alongside again. Then they took to the oars again, and from then on it was a howling farce. The Eleanor's crew just romped their cutter in ten lengths ahead of our cutter and the Kanakas a quarter of a mile in the rear.

"You never saw such a disgusted lot of men in your life as the men and officers on the Bennington. The Eleanor's ship company had taken all of the 3 to 1 money they could get on board our ship, for they knew they had a good thing up their sleeve. The Eleanor's crew on the whole trip around the world that was wound up at San Francisco had not been beaten once in a cutter race, and the yacht's sailors had made all kinds of money in betting on their crew. It was a minor sort of consolation for us when we found out that five of the Eleanor's racing crew were ex-American man-o'-war's men."—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why that Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office.

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review Job Department.

INDIAN AND TIGER.

A Clever Trick by Which the Former Outwitted the Latter.

According to a good and true tiger story in Cornhill, an Indian who had learned some of the elementary principles of jugglery and contortion went out one evening to walk upon a ridgy plain. When he reached the top of one of the mounds, he saw a tiger ahead of him, 500 or 600 yards away. Before the man could hide behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at its topmost speed.

Having no means of defense, there was nothing for the man to do but to race for the nearest tree, but though he tried it and put forth his utmost strength the tiger steadily gained upon him.

What was he to do? In sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight in running over a ridge he halted, stretched out his legs at right angles, curled down his head so as to look between his legs to the rear and extended his arms upward in a fantastic manner, like the sails of a windmill.

In a few seconds the tiger hove in sight, and at that instant the face of the object assumed a hideous grimace. A prolonged yell arose, such as had perhaps never before pierced the ear of any tiger, and the sails of the windmill began to revolve backward and forward as if a sudden whirlwind had burst upon the scene.

The tiger recoiled. What, he evidently thought, is this? There stood a ferocious star shaped monster, gigantic against the sky. Its hideous head was situated in the very center of its body—nay, its viselike jaws, between which those fiendish roars were issuing, were actually placed above its two fiery eyes. Its limbs were furiously clamoring for action, and the man he had been chasing, where was he? Already devoured by this terrible beast? The tiger could not pause to reflect. He turned tail, and as he disappeared over a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

Call For a New Deal.

Lord Salisbury seems to have been outplayed by Russia in the Chinese game. The question is, What is our friend J. Bull going to do about it?—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE POWER OF SHADOWS.

A Gloomy View of the Power of Certain Popular Superstitions.

As antique runners passed from hand to hand the sacred torch, so the generations transmit to the generations which succeed them all that they have of light and knowledge, leaving them as a heritage the care of continuing the divine work of enfranchisement and of helping to dissipate the shadows of ignorance.

Little by little these clouds are vanquished and disappear, and the touch of intelligence flames the more radiantly in the midst of the travailing masses.

But all of a sudden a veil covers the torch—something surges up which seems like the darkness of another age. One feels that in a corner of this civilization monstrous things have place. Here they burn a woman accused of sorcery; there in Suabia a tribunal condemns to four days of imprisonment a laborer who had disinterred the corpse of an infant. He wanted to make bracelets of its finger nails, which, according to a belief held in that country, constitute a sovereign remedy against colic.

And all the stories of vampires, of elfs, return to the mind with all the victims they have made and are making still.

It seems in reading such things that the "power of shadows" is still impenetrable to all that science has done and that, as I have said, the effort is vain.—Figaro.

On the Eating of Loons.

Man is a creature of prejudice. In Scotland he will not eat eels; in Connecticut he will not eat sturgeon, the royal fish of England, where the first one taken in the Thames goes to the queen's table; in New York he will not eat lampreys, miscalled "lamper eels," which are delicacies in Connecticut, and in England some old king—I never could keep a record of kings—died from a surfeit of lampreys. With these prejudices in mind, and I hate all prejudices except those which I entertain, I decided to eat the loon.

There may be differences among loons, as there are between pigeons and squabs. I prefer an adult pigeon to a squab, there is better chewing on it, but if a man wants real hard chewing, with a flavor of raw fish, let him tackle an adult loon. That bird could not be picked. It was skinned, and in its stomach there was a catfish recently swallowed, one partly digested and the bones of another. The triggers of the pectoral fins of the catfish were set, but the stomach of the loon did not seem to be troubled by that fact.—Fred Mather in Forest and Stream.

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Opened by President Yount This Morning.

MINISTERS ARE ALL HERE

The Attendance Is Very Large, and an Exceptionally Good Convention Is Expected, What Was Done This Morning and Afternoon.

The fifty-sixth convention, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, began its work in this city today.

A number of ministers arrived yesterday, but the majority came in this morning, and a well-dressed, intelligent lot they are. They are being well cared for, and will doubtless leave East Liverpool knowing much more of the city than they ever knew before.

The first session of the synod was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, it being a confessional service. There were many greetings among friends who had not met for a year prior to the hour, St. John's church at Third and Jackson streets being well filled.

At 10 o'clock President Yount delivered the synodical sermon, and it was followed by communion service. The sermon was a splendid effort, being logical and eloquent. The reverend gentleman touched upon a number of matters most important, and did it so well that the discourse was received by all present with enthusiasm. Synod then adjourned for the noon recess.

The first business in the afternoon was the presentation of the president's report, a lengthy document which covers every detail of the year. It shows that two highly esteemed and venerable ministers had been called away during the year, Rev. Carl E. Cossman, D. D., of Lunenburg, N S., and Prof. David McKee, of Shenango. They were earnest workers in the cause, and their demise was deeply regretted. Twelve pastors resigned their charges, and 21 were installed. Three accepted calls and six were dismissed to other synods. One congregation was dismissed to another synod. Six ministers made application for admission to the synod, and the corner stones of three churches were laid.

The following churches were consecrated during the year: St. Matthew, Rose Bay, N. S.; Mission of Mt. Calvary of McKee's; Trinity, McKean, Pa.; Holy Trinity, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Peter, Evans City, Pa.; Penn, Penn Station, Pa., First church, Butler, Pa. The report deals at length with the consecration of these churches, and gives the names of the pastors and those who took prominent part in the services.

Thiel college day was mentioned, and the president said 58 congregations had contributed $561.79, while 16 congregations had given $174.84 to Greensburg seminary. The opinion that the observance of the day will increase from year to year was expressed.

Because a provision of the constitution does not give the president any discretion in authorizing the installation of pastors not already members of the synod, the president asked some action on the part of the synod.

In speaking of finances the president said the showing was most encouraging. Last year the aggregate was $16,745.80, and this year $20,394.31.

The synod is in session as the NEWS REVIEW goes to press.

This evening a mission meeting will be held, Rev. C. L. Boecele delivering the German address and Rev. J. C. Kunzman preaching in English.

GOT THEIR PICTURES.

The Boys Were Photographed as They Left The Train.

When the train carrying those members of Company E who were successful in obtaining a furlough arrived in the city this morning, a large crowd gathered at the Second street crossing. In the crowd not less than 15 cameras were seen, and as the boys came from the train numerous pictures were taken. One of those who had a camera said he was going to present each member of Company E with a picture of the poor boys who came home today.

On the River.

Packet navigation on the Ohio is seriously threatened. There is still enough water to enable the boats to come in, but within the next 36 hours there will not be unless a rise materializes. This is not promised. In the Pittsburg harbor the river rose nearly three inches Monday night. At the wharf this morning the marks registered five feet and falling.

The Ben Hur is up tonight and the Queen City is down. The Kanawha went down last night with a good trip.

G. A. R. DAYLIGHT SPECIAL

To Cincinnati For the National Encampment.

Arrangments have been made to take G. A. R. veterans and friends to the national encampment at Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania lines in quick time. For their accommodation a daylight special will be run Monday, Sept. 5. A cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers, their families and friends who may wish to enjoy the trip to the Thirty-second National Encampment on the daylight special to join the party at any of the stations given in the following table, which includes the round trip rate and time of train:

			Central time.
$5.30	from	Wheeling	Leave 6:00 a m
5.30	"	Wellsburg	" 6:30 a m
5.10	"	Steubenville	" 6:57 a m
5.10	"	Mingo Junc	" 7:05 a m
5.10	"	Cadiz	" 5:25 a m
4.85	"	Jewett	" 7:48 a m
4.75	"	Scio	" 7:56 a m
4.60	"	Bowerston	" 8:05 a m
4.40	"	Dennison	" 8:25 a m
4.40	"	Uhrichsville	" 8:28 a m
3.90	"	N. Comerst'n	" 8:55 a m
$5.10	from	Bellaire	Leave 4:45 a m
5.10	"	Bridgeport	" 4:53 a m
5.10	"	M'tin's Ferry	" 5:01 a m
$5.50	from	E. Liverpool	Leave 5:45 a m
5.50	"	Wellsville	" 5:55 a m
5.30	"	Toronto	" 6:30 a m
$4.30	from	Philadelphia	Leave 6:10 a m
4.30	"	Canal Dover	" 6:20 a m

Arrive Cincinnati 3:00 p. m. same day without changing cars.

Excursion tickets to Cincinnati for the national encampment will also be sold at the above rates for all regular trains Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Tickets will be good returning until Sept. 13, with privilege to extend return limit to Oct. 2 inclusive. For particular information please apply to Pennsylvania lines ticket agent at any of the stations given above or address J. K. Dillon, department passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburg. *

To Reform Our Spelling.

A committee, consisting of William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, and M. Balliet of Springfield, Mass., appointed by the National Education association for an amendment of spelling of certain words in common use, has completed its labors.

Words simplified are as follows: Program (programme), altho (although), thorofare (thoroughfare), tho (though), thoro (thorough), thru (through), thruout (throughout), prolog (prologue), demagog (demagogue), catalog (catalogue), decalog (decalogue) pedagog (pedagogue).

Changes will be submitted to the executive committee of the national association. The words given are samples of changes. The idea of the committee was to spell the words exactly as they sounded.

Lively In Its Old Age.

Santiago is nearly 400 years old, but the venerable city has had a livelier time within the last two months than in all the former period of its history. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It Might Stick a Little.

The nation will endeavor to carry out its declaration with regard to Cuba, but there will be much difficulty in inducing the flag to come down.—Galveston News.

The Battlefield.

Once this soft turf, this rivulet's sands,
Were trampled by a hurrying crowd,
And fiery hearts and armed hands
Encountered in the battle cloud.

Ah, never shall the land forget
How gushed the lifeblood of her brave—
Gushed, warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save!

Now all is calm and fresh and still;
Alone the chirp of flitting bird
And talk of children on the hill
And bell of wandering kine are heard.

No solemn host goes trailing by,
The black mouthed gun and staggering wain.
Men start not at the battlecry—
Oh, be it never heard again!

Soon rested those who fought, but thou
Who minglest in the harder strife
For truths which men receive not now
Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! Lingering long
Through weary day and weary year;
A wild and many weaponed throng
Hang on thy front and flank and rear.

Yet nerve thy spirit to the proof
And blench not at thy chosen lot;
The timid good may stand aloof,
The sage may frown—yet faint thou not.

Nor heed the shaft too surely cast,
The foul and hissing bolt of scorn,
For with thy side shall dwell at last
The victory of endurance born.

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers,
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain
And dies among his worshipers.

Yea, though thou lie upon the dust
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,
Another hand the standard wave
Till from the trumpet's mouth is pealed
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE BENNINGTON'S CRACK CREW GOT A COSTLY SURPRISE.

The Story of a Fourth of July Rowing Contest at Honolulu Which Emptied the Pockets and Lacerated the Feelings of Uncle Sam's Jackies.

"About as dismal a Fourth of July as ever I experienced on board a man-o'-war," said an ex-sailor of the navy now living in Washington to a reporter, "was Independence day not many years ago down in the harbor of Honolulu. The Bennington had an all star racing boat's crew. The eight had just happened to be assigned to the Bennington in a bunch before she left for her Pacific cruise, and several of the oarsmen had been members of the Columbia's crack boat's crew that walloped all of the British navy's boats' crews in English waters a few years before.

The Bennington's cutter was one of the best in the navy, and she had been built for a racer. Before we left the Mare Island navy yard for south Pacific waters the ship's racing crew had easily beaten all of the other crews of the ships lying at the yard, including the tiptop crew of the Olympia and the Boston's fine crew. We thought that we were about as warm as they make 'em after our crew put it on so many other man-o'-war crews, giving them a couple of minutes the start of us, too, on numerous occasions and still beating them disgracefully.

"The people of Honolulu arranged an aquatic festival for the Fourth of July—the Americans down there celebrated the Fourth just as enthusiastically as we do up here—and the Bennington's crew figured in it largely. Our ship's colors were at the fore in the two races that were run with picked Kanaka crews, and the third and last race of the day was one in which our crackajack eight was to figure, the other races having been won by subcrews practically picked at random from among the strongest seamen.

"We thought this race was at our mercy. It was to be a four sided affair—one crew of Kanaka sugar field workers, a crew of Kanaka policemen and the racing crew of the yacht Eleanor, belonging to Mr. Slater of Providence, that had pulled into Honolulu harbor from Japan a few days before. Our crew didn't pay much attention to the yacht's racing crew and were only figuring on the distance they could beat the crew of Kanaka policemen, which seemed the most formidable.

"The race was over the four mile course carefully blocked out in the harbor—which was very smooth—by the Honolulu aquatic sportsmen, and the start was first rate. There wasn't a man, fore or aft, on the Bennington that didn't stand to go broke to the extent of at least a month's pay on the success of the Bennington's crew, and we had to give 3 to 1, too, for it was generally conceded that we had the race at our mercy.

"The start, as I said, was good, and the Bennington's crew showed in front first and started out apparently to make a runaway race of it. The Kanaka policemen's crew trailed after them, pulling steadily, then the Kanaka sugar workers and, a good ten lengths to the rear, the Eleanor's crew. This was the way it looked for the finish when the Bennington's crew rounded the stakeboat and started for the return trip.

"Some of the Honolulu men who had their money up on the two Kanaka crews actually began to square accounts, and the cry, 'It's all over—Bennington!' was heard all over the bay. When the stakeboat was rounded, it was noticed that the Eleanor's boat was sort of getting a move on itself, and the men were working like machines at a long, steady stroke that certainly looked as if it was cutting down the Bennington's lead and the lead of the two Kanaka boats.

"Two minutes after the stakeboat was rounded the Eleanor's gang were right abreast of the Kanaka cutters and gaining on them with every stroke, and the cox'un of the Bennington's cutter, hearing the yells of warning from the Bennington bluejackets ashore, looked behind him and saw the Eleanor cutter only two lengths behind him and coming like an electric launch. Our crew was tired, and that's all there was about it.

"The Eleanor's crew had held themselves in for the finish, and they certainly did make a Garrison finish of it. The yacht's cutter shot ahead of our cutter a good mile from home, and then, to make the thing more galling, the crew actually stopped rowing until the Bennington's crew was alongside again. Then they took to the oars again, and from then on it was a howling farce. The Eleanor's crew just romped their cutter in ten lengths ahead of our cutter and the Kanakas a quarter of a mile in the rear.

"You never saw such a disgusted lot of men in your life as the men and officers on the Bennington. The Eleanor's ship company had taken all of the 3 to 1 money they could get on board our ship, for they knew they had a good thing up their sleeve. The Eleanor's crew on the whole trip around the world that was wound up at San Francisco had not been beaten once in a cutter race, and the yacht's sailors had made all kinds of money in betting on their crew. It was a minor sort of consolation for us when we found out that five of the Eleanor's racing crew were ex-American man-o'-war's men."—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why that Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office.

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review Job Department.

INDIAN AND TIGER.

A Clever Trick by Which the Former Outwitted the Latter.

According to a good and true tiger story in Cornhill, an Indian who had learned some of the elementary principles of jugglery and contortion went out one evening to walk upon a ridgy plain. When he reached the top of one of the mounds, he saw a tiger ahead of him, 500 or 600 yards away. Before the man could hide behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at its topmost speed.

Having no means of defense, there was nothing for the man to do but to race for the nearest tree, but though he tried it and put forth his utmost strength the tiger steadily gained upon him.

What was he to do? In sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight in running over a ridge he halted, stretched out his legs at right angles, curled down his head so as to look between his legs to the rear and extended his arms upward in a fantastic manner, like the sails of a windmill.

In a few seconds the tiger hove in sight, and at that instant the face of the object assumed a hideous grimace. A prolonged yell arose, such as had perhaps never before pierced the ear of any tiger, and the sails of the windmill began to revolve backward and forward as if a sudden whirlwind had burst upon the scene.

The tiger recoiled. What, he evidently thought, is this? There stood a ferocious star shaped monster, gigantic against the sky. Its hideous head was situated in the very center of its body—nay, its viselike jaws, between which those fiendish roars were issuing, were actually placed above its two fiery eyes. Its limbs were furiously clamoring for action, and the man he had been chasing, where was he? Already devoured by this terrible beast? The tiger could not pause to reflect. He turned tail, and as he disappeared over a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

Call For a New Deal.

Lord Salisbury seems to have been outplayed by Russia in the Chinese game. The question is, What is our friend J. Bull going to do about it?—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE POWER OF SHADOWS.

A Gloomy View of the Power of Certain Popular Superstitions.

As antique runners passed from hand to hand the sacred torch, so the generations transmit to the generations which succeed them all that they have of light and knowledge, leaving them as a heritage the care of continuing the divine work of enfranchisement and of helping to dissipate the shadows of ignorance.

Little by little these clouds are vanquished and disappear, and the touch of intelligence flames the more radiantly in the midst of the travailing masses.

But all of a sudden a veil covers the torch—something surges up which seems like the darkness of another age. One feels that in a corner of this civilization monstrous things have place. Here they burn a woman accused of sorcery; there in Suabia a tribunal condemns to four days of imprisonment a laborer who had disinterred the corpse of an infant. He wanted to make bracelets of its finger nails, which, according to a belief held in that country, constitute a sovereign remedy against colic.

And all the stories of vampires, of elfs, return to the mind with all the victims they have made and are making still.

It seems in reading such things that the "power of shadows" is still impenetrable to all that science has done and that, as I have said, the effort is vain.—Figaro.

On the Eating of Loons.

Man is a creature of prejudice. In Scotland he will not eat eels; in Connecticut he will not eat sturgeon, the royal fish of England, where the first one taken in the Thames goes to the queen's table; in New York he will not eat lampreys, miscalled "lamper eels," which are delicacies in Connecticut, and in England some old king—I never could keep a record of kings—died from a surfeit of lampreys. With these prejudices in mind, and I hate all prejudices except those which I entertain, I decided to eat the loon.

There may be differences among loons, as there are between pigeons and squabs. I prefer an adult pigeon to a squab, there is better chewing on it, but if a man wants real hard chewing, with a flavor of raw fish, let him tackle an adult loon. That bird could not be picked. It was skinned, and in its stomach there was a catfish recently swallowed, one partly digested and the bones of another. The triggers of the pectoral fins of the catfish were set, but the stomach of the loon did not seem to be troubled by that fact.—Fred Mather in Forest and Stream.

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The street force were busy today cleaning the principal streets.

The Chevalier club will entertain their friends at dancing next week.

Mrs. W. S. Hight, of Bucyrus, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner.

The Second M. E. Sunday school will picnic Thursday at the campground.

Mayor Bough, who spent yesterday in Lisbon, returned to the city late last night.

The work of remodeling the Little block in the Diamond was commenced yesterday morning.

Frank Crawford last evening entertained a number of friends at his residence pear West Point.

A number of young people from the city will this evening attend a social given at the Madison church.

The excursion which left this city yesterday morning for New Castle, returned to this place at 9 o'clock last night.

C. L. Moore, of Second street, who has been visiting in Wheeling for several days, returned to the city today.

Mrs. Robinson, of Gardendale, who has been suffering with typhoid fever for several weeks, is now able to be out.

Yesterday afternoon a car load of melons was received in the lower freight yards. This is the third car that has been received within 10 days.

Night Watchman Maple of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, who has been spending several days in the country, returned to the city last evening.

Mrs. H. O. Wensch and children, of Fifth street, who have been spending weeks in Saratoga, Troy and Albany, N. Y., returned to this city today.

Rev. Albert Wilson, of McKeesport, Pa., will preach tomorrow night in the hall on Sheridan avenue, where the Free Methodist church holds its services.

Several families from this city who have been spending some time at Hollow Rock, have returned. A large number will return to the city the last of the week.

Most of the new machinery that will be used in the new addition to the Vodrey pottery has been placed in position. Within the next few weeks the new plant will be started.

The trustees of the campground met last evening and made arrangements for a stockholders meeting to be held Sept. 9. Plans for next year were discussed but no conclusion reached.

James Stevenson this morning left for New Athens where he will become a student in Franklin college. He was home on a vacation, and will complete his ministerial education in about two years.

John Morrow, a cook in a Sixth street restaurant, is suffering with a very sore left hand the result of several splinters being under the nail of a finger. The injury is very painful although not serious.

The collector of the directory firm who recently issued a directory of this city and Salem placed 200 books while in the city. The books cost $3 each, and with the advertising, it is said, over $2,000 was collected.

The Labor day committee met last night and furthered arrangements for the celebration. A number of persons were appointed to take charge of the gate and they will all be sworn in as special officers.

No arrests were made last night or this morning and the jail is empty. No cases have been before Mayor Bough since last week, and taking everything into consideration business has not been as slow for a long time.

Will Palmert, a well known and highly esteemed young man of West End, was recently married to Miss Emma Anderson at the home of the bride's parents in Buffalo. They have the congratulations of many friends.

FIRST LADY OF INDIA

MRS. GEORGE N. CURZON WILL HOLD SOCIAL SWAY AT SIMLA.

As Wife of Viceroy Curzon She Will Have Great Power—Will Occupy Highest Position Held by a Woman Outside of Royalty—Her Sound American Ideas.

Next November a Chicago girl will occupy the throne of India as the representative of Victoria, empress of that great country. When George N. Curzon enters upon his duties as viceroy of India, his beautiful wife will become the "first lady" of that land, and a member of the British peerage. Her title will be Lady Curzon of Kedleston, and for five years she will rule as the social queen of the Indian empire.

The American girl whom Queen Victoria has made the vice reine of 300,000,000 subjects was formerly Mary Victoria Leiter of Chicago. She was born in Chicago May 29, 1870, at the Leiter homestead, which at that time was located on Michigan terrace, where the Auditorium now stands. Shortly after her birth her father built a home on Calumet avenue, in which the family lived until their removal to Washington in 1880. Up to that time Mr. Leiter was actively engaged in business in Chicago, and Mary Victoria Leiter was receiving an education from private tutors and governesses. When Mr. Leiter withdrew from his Chicago enterprises, the family home was removed to Washington, where Miss Leiter grew to young womanhood. While her childhood was an extremely simple one her education was acquired from the best instructors, and at an early age she was proficient in the French and German languages and music and familiar with art. Up to the time of her formal introduction to the social world of Washington she led the life of a schoolgirl. Her days were divided into hours of study and recreation, and her social pleasures were few. Miss Leiter accompanied her father on several of his European trips, her sisters Daisy and Nannie also being of the party. When she made her debut in Washington, at the age of 18, she at once became the acknowledged belle of the city. Beautiful of face, with a slender, graceful figure, regular features and dark hair and eyes, Mary Victoria Leiter, even as a girl, had an individuality and magnetism that were remarkable. A bright conversationalist and possessing much general information on important topics of the day, she was a born leader and always the center of a group of prominent people.

Shortly after her introduction to Washington's social life the Leiter family went to London for the season. Mary Leiter was presented at court, and there, as in America, became a belle. It was during one of her subsequent seasons in London that she met George Nathaniel Curzon, eldest son of Lord Scarsdale.

Young Curzon gained considerable fame through a series of prize essays that finally made him a medalist in the Royal Geographical society. He paid marked attention to Miss Leiter, and the following year came to America to woo her. The announcement of her engagement to Mr. Curzon followed shortly after his arrival here and created considerable sensation in both countries. They were married April 25, 1895, at St. John's church, in Washington. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Curzon returned to England and took up their residence in London.

Mrs. Curzon has always been prominent in the social life of her adopted country, but it is said that the American girl has infected her husband with the ideas of her native land instead of becoming entirely Anglicised herself. As vice reine of India Mrs. Curzon will occupy the highest position that can be held by a woman outside of the royal family. Her word will be the social law of the country, and at the royal palace in Simla and the various viceregal residences she will rule supreme. American women have made some exceptional international marriages, but it remained for a Chicago girl to become the representative of the world's greatest ruler.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

THRIVING KANSAS.

A Bushel of Wheat Produced This Year For Every Inhabitant of the United States.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—"The state of Kansas this year produced one bushel of wheat for every man, woman and child in the United States. This does not include Hawaii or Porto Rico," said Editor Frank P. McLennan of the Topeka State Journal yesterday. This was said in regard to the one crop of wheat alone for this year, and is illustrative of the general excellent condition in all branches of industry throughout Kansas.

Akron Artilleryman Dead.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., Aug. 31.—J. C. Winter of Akron, O., private in Battery M, Fifth United States artillery, died yesterday morning in the hospital tent at Fort Hancock.

Spanish Standard For McKinley.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — Captain Harry Alvin Hall of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, is here one of a committee to present President McKinley with a Spanish standard captured in a fight in Porto Rico.

Where You May Spend A Delightful Vacation

A WEEK AMONG THE 10,000 ISLANDS OF GEORGIAN BAY ON THE EXCLUSIVE PASSENGER STEAMER,

THE NEW CARMONA

LEAVING CLEVELAND EVERY MONDAY AT 7 P. M.

FARE FOR ROUND TRIP, including meals and Cabin Berth $17

W. J. BROWN, Passenger Agent.
110 Woodward Ave. Detroit Mich.

KLONDIKERS' GOLD STOLEN.

Passengers and Baggage on Steamer Reaching Seattle Searched, but the Treasure Was Not Found.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 31.—The steamer Roanoke arrived here yesterday from St. Michael, Alaska, with 459 passengers and gold dust which a conservative estimate places at $1,500,000.

A majority of the passengers were men who went to Dawson in last year's rush. They have no gold, but lots of experience. The fortunate passengers numbered about 75. Of these probably 25 had over $10,000 each. The amounts held by the remaining 50 range from $100 to $50,000.

The passengers and baggage were searched for three sacks of stolen gold dust, but the missing gold was not found. The bags contained $24,000. The gold was taken from a stateroom on the Roanoke while she was lying at St. Michael.

Among the Roanoke's passengers were Dr. Sheldon Jackson, United States commissioner of education for Alaska.

Conditions at Dawson and St. Michael have undergone no material change since last reports. People are arriving daily at St. Michael from up the river in small boats.

MISSIONARIES IN DANGER.

United States Consul at Canton, China, Protested Over the Failure to Protect Them From Rebels.

HONGKONG, Aug. 31.—The Kwang-Si rebellion, which has been quiescent for some time, shows signs of serious recrudescence. The rebels are in great force 50 miles northwest of Canton and are preparing to attack the city. Tan, the viceroy of Lang Kwang, protested against the surrender of Kwang-Chow to the French and then resigned.

The viceroy of Canton, having failed to dispatch troops to suppress the rebellion in Hainan and protect the American missionaries, the United States consul at Canton has made strong representations to the acting viceroy reiterating his demand for the prompt suppression of the general disturbances.

GOOD QUEEN VICTORIA.

Peace Proposal of the Czar Said to Have Been Suggested by Her.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—In some quarters it is alleged that the czar's pronouncement for peace was directly inspired by Queen Victoria, whose greatest hope is that her reign may not again be disturbed by war.

The queen, confessedly, has long sought to restrain Emperor William and it is not unlikely she used her great influence with the czarina to secure the czar's support.

WILHELMINA OF AGE.

Queen Regent of Holland Will Soon Turn Over the Throne to the Young Lady.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 31.—The queen regent of Holland, in a proclamation issued yesterday, upon the occasion of the end of her regency, her daughter, Queen Wilhemina, coming of age today, expressed warm pleasure at seeing the whole nation "ranged joyously around the throne of the young queen," thanked God that her dearest wish had been heard, and, after thanking the people fof their loving and faithful support of herself, invokes God's blessing upon the youthful sovereign.

WALTER WELLMAN COMING BACK.

The Greenland Expedition Reaches Tromsoe—No Word From Andree.

TROMSOE, Norway, Aug. 31.—The steam whaler Fridtjof, having on board Walter Wellman and members of his expedition to Greenland, has returned after landing an expedition at Cape Tegathoff, on the southern part of Halls island. While the Wellman party were returning they met the expedition to Franz Josef land under Dr. A. G. Northorst, at Koenigskar island, and were informed that all search for Prof. Andree, the missing balloonist, had proved futile.

YESTERDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 0 runs, 3 hits and 7 errors; Boston, 3 runs, 13 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Hart and Schriver; Nichols and Bergen. Umpires, Lynch and Andrews. Attendance, 1,200.

At Louisville—Louisville, 4 runs, 8 hits and 1 error; Baltimore, 2 runs, 7 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Dowling and Kittredge; Maul and Robinson. Umpires, Swartwood and Warner. Attendance, 1,800.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 1 run, 6 hits and 4 errors; Philadelphia, 9 runs, 13 hits and 2 errors. Batteries, Dwyer, Peitz and Wood; Orth and Murphy. Umpires, Gaffney and Brown. Attendance, 1,200.

At Chicago—Chicago, 1 run, 5 hits and 2 errors; New York, 0 runs, 3 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Griffith and Donahue; Meekin and Grady. Umpires, McDonald and O'Day. Attendance, 3,000.

League Standing.

	W	L	Pc.		W	L	Pc.
Boston	71	40	.640	Pittsburg	56	59	.487
Cincinnati	72	43	.626	Phila	52	56	.481
Baltimore	67	40	.626	Louisville	46	68	.404
Cleveland	65	46	.586	Brooklyn	42	65	.392
Chicago	64	50	.561	Wash	40	71	.360
New York	62	49	.559	St Louis	32	83	.281

Games Scheduled For Today.

Brooklyn at Chicago, Washington at Cincinnati, Boston at Cleveland, Baltimore at Louisville, New York at Pittsburg and Philadelphia at St. Louis.

Yesterday's Interstate League Games.

At Fort Wayne—Fort Wayne, 9 runs, 12 hits and 3 errors; Grand Rapids, 4 runs, 8 hits and 3 errors. Batteries, Reiman and Patterson. Harper and Cote.

At Springfield—Springfield, 4 runs, 5 hits and 5 errors; Youngstown, 9 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Poole and Graffius; B. Mil- and Donovan.

At Toledo—Toledo, 10 runs, 16 hits and 5 errors; Mansfield, 10 runs, 10 hits and 9 errors. Batteries, Ferguson and Arthur; G. Kellum and Belt. Called on account of darkness.

At Dayton—Dayton, 3 runs, 8 hits and 5 errors; New Castle, 6 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Rosebrough and Lattimer; C. Smith and Barckley.

THE MARKETS.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—No. 2 red new, 64@65c.

CORN—No. 2 yellow ear, 40@41c; No. 2 yellow, shelled, 36@36½c; high mixed, shelled, 35@36c.

OATS—No. 1 white, new, 25@26c; No. 2 white, clipped, 26½@27c; extra new, No. 3 white, 24@24½c; light mixed, 23½@24c.

HAY—No. 1 timothy, old, $9.50@9.75; do new $8.50@9.00; No. 2, $7.50@8.00; No. 1 clover, mixed, $7.00@8.00; wagon hay, $9.50@10.00 for timothy.

POULTRY—Live—Large chickens, 60@70c per pair; small, 45@55c; spring chickens, 25@50c per pair; ducks, 40@50c per pair; turkeys, 7@8c per pound; geese, 50@70c per pair. Dressed—Fancy chickens, 12@13c per pound; spring chickens, 14@15c; ducks, 11@12c; turkeys, 13@15c; geese, 7@8c.

BUTTER—Elgin prints, 21@21½c; extra creamery, 20@20½c; Ohio, fancy creamery, 18@18½c; country roll, 13@15c; low grades and cooking, 9@11c.

CHEESE—New York, full cream, new make, 8½@8¾c; new Ohios, full cream, 8@8½c; Wisconsin Swiss, 11½@12c; limburger, new, 9½@10c; brick cheese, 5-pound average, 9½@10c.

EGGS—Strictly fresh Pennsylvania and Ohio in cases, 13@13½c; candled, 14@14½c.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

CATTLE—The supply on Monday 110 cars; market 10@15c lower on best cattle and 20@30c lower on common and medium. We quote prices: Extra, $5.25@5.40; prime, $5.10@5.20; good, $4.90@5.00; tidy, $4.60@4.80; fair, $4.00@4.40; common, $3.50@3.85; heifers, $3.25@4.25; fat oxen, $2.25@4.00; common to good fat bulls and cows, $2.00@4.00; good fresh cows, $40.00@50.00; common to good fresh cows and springers, $20.00@40.00.

HOGS—Receipts on Monday 30 loads; market ruled steady at the previous week's closing prices. Today supply light; market steady on best grades, others slow. We quote sales: Prime mediums, $4.25@4.30; good Yorkers, $4.20@4.25; heavy hogs, $4.10@4.15; common to fair Yorkers, $4.05@4.10; grassers and stubblers, $3.85@4.00; pigs, as to quality, $3.70@4.00; roughs, $2.50@3.60; skips and common pigs, $3.00@3.50.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts on Monday 12 loads; market strong. Supply today light; market steady. We quote: Choice, $4.60@4.65; good, $4.40@4.50; fair, $4.00@4.25; common, $3.25@3.75; choice spring lambs, $5.60@5.80; common to good, $4.00@5.40; veal calves, $7.00@7.25; heavy and thin calves, $4.00@5.00.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.

HOGS—Market steady at $3.25@4.10.

CATTLE—Market steady at $2.80@4.90.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady at $2.25@4.25. Lambs—Market steady at $3.75@6.00.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—Spot market steady; No. 2 red, 73⅞@74⅛c f. o. b. afloat; to arrive, 74⅞c.

CORN—Spot market firm; No. 2, 36¾c f. o. b. afloat.

OATS—Spot market dull; No. 2, 26½@27c; No. 2 white, new, 28@29c.

CATTLE—No trade of importance. Feeling weak. Cables firm. Live cattle, 11@12c per pound dressed weight; refrigerator beef, 8¾@8¾c per pound.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady; good to choice lambs 10c higher.

The Many Rich Prizes

Captured by Uncle Sam didn't drop into his hat through sheer luck--strength and shrewd judgment won them. Business successes are won in the same way. It isn't luck that enables us to offer you the most expert, scientific optical service to be found anywhere, at extremely low prices. It is full and perfect equipment, investment and enterprise. We employ a first class Oculist, a medical doctor especially educated in the treatment of the eye. When you come to us you take no chances, but are sure of first class service. Examination free of charge. Why not have the best?

M. WADE, JEWELER.

205 Market St., East Liverpool, Ohio

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY.
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, W. L. THOMPSON.
J. M. KELLY. O. C. VODREY.
B. C. SIMMS. JNO. C. THOMPSON.
JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 50,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts!

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

An 8 Minute Walk From the Diamond

will take you to the Huston Lots—the best Low Priced ones in the city—$1.25 to $300 eache.

TERMS EASY.

Call for particulars.

Elijah W. Hill, J. P.

Fire Insurance and Real Estate, 105 Sixth Street.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushion Rubber Stamps.

THE NEWS REVIEW

H. A. MOWLS. LODGE RIDDLE

MOWLS & RIDDLE, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

HUSTON BLOCK. LISBON, OHIO

GO TO HASSEY'S

—For The—

Original BOSS ICE CREAM.

All Flavors. 206 Sixth Street.

Dr. J. N. VODREY
DENTIST,
Room 4, Porter Building,
DIAMOND.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,
Surgeon Dentist,
Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.
Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.

ALL the News in the News Review.

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The street force were busy today cleaning the principal streets.

The Chevalier club will entertain their friends at dancing next week.

Mrs. W. S. Hight, of Bucyrus, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner.

The Second M. E. Sunday school will picnic Thursday at the campground.

Mayor Bough, who spent yesterday in Lisbon, returned to the city late last night.

The work of remodeling the Little block in the Diamond was commenced yesterday morning.

Frank Crawford last evening entertained a number of friends at his residence pear West Point.

A number of young people from the city will this evening attend a social given at the Madison church.

The excursion which left this city yesterday morning for New Castle, returned to this place at 9 o'clock last night.

C. L. Moore, of Second street, who has been visiting in Wheeling for several days, returned to the city today.

Mrs. Robinson, of Gardendale, who has been suffering with typhoid fever for several weeks, is now able to be out.

Yesterday afternoon a car load of melons was received in the lower freight yards. This is the third car that has been received within 10 days.

Night Watchman Maple of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, who has been spending several days in the country, returned to the city last evening.

Mrs. H. O. Wensch and children, of Fifth street, who have been spending weeks in Saratoga, Troy and Albany, N. Y., returned to this city today.

Rev. Albert Wilson, of McKeesport, Pa., will preach tomorrow night in the hall on Sheridan avenue, where the Free Methodist church holds its services.

Several families from this city who have been spending some time at Hollow Rook, have returned. A large number will return to the city the last of the week.

Most of the new machinery that will be used in the new addition to the Vodrey pottery has been placed in position. Within the next few weeks the new plant will be started.

The trustees of the campground met last evening and made arrangements for a stockholders meeting to be held Sept. 9. Plans for next year were discussed but no conclusion reached.

James Stevenson this morning left for New Athens where he will become a student in Franklin college. He was home on a vacation, and will complete his ministerial education in about two years.

John Morrow, a cook in a Sixth street restaurant, is suffering with a very sore left hand the result of several splinters being under the nail of a finger. The injury is very painful although not serious.

The collector of the directory firm who recently issued a directory of this city and Salem placed 200 books while in the city. The books cost $3 each, and with the advertising, it is said, over $2,000 was collected.

The Labor day committee met last night and furthered arrangements for the celebration. A number of persons were appointed to take charge of the gate and they will all be sworn in as special officers.

No arrests were made last night or this morning and the jail is empty. No cases have been before Mayor Bough since last week, and taking everything into consideration business has not been as slow for a long time.

Will Palmert, a well known and highly esteemed young man of West End, was recently married to Miss Emma Anderson at the home of the bride's parents in Buffalo. They have the congratulations of many friends.

FIRST LADY OF INDIA

MRS. GEORGE N. CURZON WILL HOLD SOCIAL SWAY AT SIMLA.

As Wife of Viceroy Curzon She Will Have Great Power—Will Occupy Highest Position Held by a Woman Outside of Royalty—Her Sound American Ideas.

Next November a Chicago girl will occupy the throne of India as the representative of Victoria, empress of that great country. When George N. Curzon enters upon his duties as viceroy of India, his beautiful wife will become the "first lady" of that land, and a member of the British peerage. Her title will be Lady Curzon of Kedleston, and for five years she will rule as the social queen of the Indian empire.

The American girl whom Queen Victoria has made the vice reine of 300,000,000 subjects was formerly Mary Victoria Leiter of Chicago. She was born in Chicago May 29, 1870, at the Leiter homestead, which at that time was located on Michigan terrace, where the Auditorium now stands. Shortly after her birth her father built a home on Calumet avenue, in which the family lived until their removal to Washington in 1880. Up to that time Mr. Leiter was actively engaged in business in Chicago, and Mary Victoria Leiter was receiving an education from private tutors and governesses. When Mr. Leiter withdrew from his Chicago enterprises, the family home was removed to Washington, where Miss Leiter grew to young womanhood. While her childhood was an extremely simple one her education was acquired from the best instructors, and at an early age she was proficient in the French and German languages and music and familiar with art. Up to the time of her formal introduction to the social world of Washington she led the life of a schoolgirl. Her days were divided into hours of study and recreation, and her social pleasures were few. Miss Leiter accompanied her father on several of his European trips, her sisters Daisy and Nannie also being of the party. When she made her debut in Washington, at the age of 18, she at once became the acknowledged belle of the city. Beautiful of face, with a slender, graceful figure, regular features and dark hair and eyes, Mary Victoria Leiter, even as a girl, had an individuality and magnetism that were remarkable. A bright conversationalist and possessing much general information on important topics of the day, she was a born leader and always the center of a group of prominent people.

Shortly after her introduction to Washington's social life the Leiter family went to London for the season. Mary Leiter was presented at court, and there, as in America, became a belle. It was during one of her subsequent seasons in London that she met George Nathaniel Curzon, eldest son of Lord Scarsdale.

Young Curzon gained considerable fame through a series of prize essays that finally made him a medalist in the Royal Geographical society. He paid marked attention to Miss Leiter, and the following year came to America to woo her. The announcement of her engagement to Mr. Curzon followed shortly after his arrival here and created considerable sensation in both countries. They were married April 25, 1895, at St. John's church, in Washington. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Curzon returned to England and took up their residence in London.

Mrs. Curzon has always been prominent in the social life of her adopted country, but it is said that the American girl has infected her husband with the ideas of her native land instead of becoming entirely Anglicised herself. As vice reine of India Mrs. Curzon will occupy the highest position that can be held by a woman outside of the royal family. Her word will be the social law of the country, and at the royal palace in Simla and the various viceregal residences she will rule supreme. American women have made some exceptional international marriages, but it remained for a Chicago girl to become the representative of the world's greatest ruler.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

THRIVING KANSAS.

A Bushel of Wheat Produced This Year For Every Inhabitant of the United States.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—"The state of Kansas this year produced one bushel of wheat for every man, woman and child in the United States. This does not include Hawaii or Porto Rico," said Editor Frank P. McLennan of the Topeka State Journal yesterday. This was said in regard to the one crop of wheat alone for this year, and is illustrative of the general excellent condition in all branches of industry throughout Kansas.

Akron Artilleryman Dead.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., Aug. 31.—J. C. Winter of Akron, O., private in Battery M, Fifth United States artillery, died yesterday morning in the hospital tent at Fort Hancock.

Spanish Standard For McKinley.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — Captain Harry Alvin Hall of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, is here one of a committee to present President McKinley with a Spanish standard captured in a fight in Porto Rico.

Where You May Spend A Delightful Vacation

A WEEK AMONG THE 10,000 ISLANDS OF GEORGIAN BAY ON THE EXCLUSIVE PASSENGER STEAMER,

THE NEW CARMONA

LEAVING CLEVELAND EVERY MONDAY AT 7 P. M.

FARE FOR ROUND TRIP, including meals and Cabin Berth $17

W. J. BROWN, Passenger Agent.
110 Woodward Ave. Detroit Mich.

KLONDIKERS' GOLD STOLEN.

Passengers and Baggage on Steamer Reaching Seattle Searched, but the Treasure Was Not Found.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 31.—The steamer Roanoke arrived here yesterday from St. Michael, Alaska, with 459 passengers and gold dust which a conservative estimate places at $1,500,000.

A majority of the passengers were men who went to Dawson in last year's rush. They have no gold, but lots of experience. The fortunate passengers numbered about 75. Of these probably 25 had over $10,000 each. The amounts held by the remaining 50 range from $100 to $50,000.

The passengers and baggage were searched for three sacks of stolen gold dust, but the missing gold was not found. The bags contained $24,000. The gold was taken from a stateroom on the Roanoke while she was lying at St. Michael.

Among the Roanoke's passengers were Dr. Sheldon Jackson, United States commissioner of education for Alaska.

Conditions at Dawson and St. Michael have undergone no material change since last reports. People are arriving daily at St. Michael from up the river in small boats.

MISSIONARIES IN DANGER.

United States Consul at Canton, China, Protested Over the Failure to Protect Them From Rebels.

HONGKONG, Aug. 31.—The Kwang-Si rebellion, which has been quiescent for some time, shows signs of serious recrudescence. The rebels are in great force 50 miles northwest of Canton and are preparing to attack the city. Tan, the viceroy of Lang Kwang, protested against the surrender of Kwang-Chow to the French and then resigned.

The viceroy of Canton, having failed to dispatch troops to suppress the rebellion in Hainan and protect the American missionaries, the United States consul at Canton has made strong representations to the acting viceroy reiterating his demand for the prompt suppression of the general disturbances.

GOOD QUEEN VICTORIA.

Peace Proposal of the Czar Said to Have Been Suggested by Her.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—In some quarters it is alleged that the czar's pronouncement for peace was directly inspired by Queen Victoria, whose greatest hope is that her reign may not again be disturbed by war.

The queen, confessedly, has long sought to restrain Emperor William and it is not unlikely she used her great influence with the czarina to secure the czar's support.

WILHELMINA OF AGE.

Queen Regent of Holland Will Soon Turn Over the Throne to the Young Lady.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 31.—The queen regent of Holland, in a proclamation issued yesterday, upon the occasion of the end of her regency, her daughter, Queen Wilhemina, coming of age today, expressed warm pleasure at seeing the whole nation "ranged joyously around the throne of the young queen," thanked God that her dearest wish had been heard, and, after thanking the people fof their loving and faithful support of herself, invokes God's blessing upon the youthful sovereign.

WALTER WELLMAN COMING BACK.

The Greenland Expedition Reaches Tromsoe—No Word From Andree.

TROMSOE, Norway, Aug. 31.—The steam whaler Fridtjof, having on board Walter Wellman and members of his expedition to Greenland, has returned after landing an expedition at Cape Tegathoff, on the southern part of Halls island. While the Wellman party were returning they met the expedition to Franz Josef land under Dr. A. G. Northorst, at Koenigskar island, and were informed that all search for Prof. Andree, the missing balloonist, had proved futile.

YESTERDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 0 runs, 3 hits and 7 errors; Boston, 8 runs, 13 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Hart and Schriver; Nichols and Bergen. Umpires, Lynch and Andrews. Attendance, 1,200.

At Louisville—Louisville, 4 runs, 8 hits and 1 error; Baltimore, 2 runs, 7 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Dowling and Kittredge; Maul and Robinson. Umpires, Swartwood and Warner. Attendance, 1,800.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 1 run, 6 hits and 4 errors; Philadelphia, 9 runs, 13 hits and 2 errors. Batteries, Dwyer, Peitz and Wood; Orth and Murphy. Umpires, Gaffney and Brown. Attendance, 1,200.

At Chicago—Chicago, 1 run, 5 hits and 2 errors; New York, 0 runs, 3 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Griffith and Donahue; Meekin and Grady. Umpires, McDonald and O'Day. Attendance, 3,000.

League Standing.

	W	L	Pc.		W	L	Pc.
Boston.....	71	40	.640	Pittsburg..	56	59	.487
Cincinnati.	72	43	.626	Phila.....	52	56	.481
Baltimore.	67	40	.626	Louisville..	46	68	.404
Cleveland..	65	46	.586	Brooklyn...	42	65	.392
Chicago....	64	50	.561	Wash.....	40	71	.360
New York.	62	49	.559	St Louis...	32	82	.281

Games Scheduled For Today.

Brooklyn at Chicago, Washington at Cincinnati, Boston at Cleveland, Baltimore at Louisville, New York at Pittsburg and Philadelphia at St. Louis.

Yesterday's Interstate League Games.

At Fort Wayne—Fort Wayne, 9 runs, 12 hits and 3 errors; Grand Rapids, 4 runs, 8 hits and 3 errors. Batteries, Reiman and Patterson. Harper and Cote.

At Springfield—Springfield, 4 runs, 5 hits and 5 errors; Youngstown, 9 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Poole and Graffius; B. Mil- and Donovan.

At Toledo—Toledo, 10 runs, 16 hits and 5 errors; Mansfield, 10 runs, 10 hits and 9 errors. Batteries, Ferguson and Arthur; G. Kellum and Belt. Called on account of darkness.

At Dayton—Dayton, 3 runs, 8 hits and 5 errors; New Castle, 6 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Rosebrough and Lattimer; C. Smith and Barckley.

THE MARKETS.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—No. 2 red new, 64@65c.

CORN—No. 2 yellow ear, 40@41c; No. 2 yellow, shelled, 36@36½c; high mixed, shelled, 35@36c.

OATS—No. 1 white, new, 25@26c; No. 2 white, clipped, 26½@27c; extra new, No. 3 white, 24@24½c; light mixed, 23½@24c.

HAY—No. 1 timothy, old, $9.50@9.75; do new $8.50@9.00; No. 2, $7.50@8.00; No. 1 clover, mixed, $7.00@8.00; wagon hay, $9.50@10.00 for timothy.

POULTRY—Live—Large chickens, 60@70c per pair; small, 45@55c; spring chickens, 25@50c per pair; ducks, 40@50c per pair; turkeys, 7@8c per pound; geese, 50@70c per pair. Dressed—Fancy chickens, 12@13c per pound; spring chickens, 14@15c; ducks, 11@12c; turkeys, 13@15c; geese, 7@8c.

BUTTER—Elgin prints, 21@21½c; extra creamery, 20@20½c; Ohio, fancy creamery, 18@18½c; country roll, 13@15c; low grades and cooking, 9@11c.

CHEESE—New York, full cream, new make, 8½@8¾c; new Ohios, full cream, 8@8½c; Wisconsin Swiss, 11½@12c; limburger, new, 9½@10c; brick cheese, 5-pound average, 9½@10c.

EGGS—Strictly fresh Pennsylvania and Ohio in cases, 13@13½c; candled, 14@14½c.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

CATTLE—The supply on Monday 110 cars; market 10@15c lower on best cattle and 20@30c lower on common and medium. We quote prices: Extra, $5.25@5.40; prime, $5.10@5.20; good, $4.90@5.00; tidy, $4.60@4.80; fair, $4.00@4.40; common, $3.50@3.85; heifers, $3.25@4.25; fat oxen, $2.25@4.00; common to good fat bulls and cows. $2.00@4.00; good fresh cows, $40.00@50.00; common to good fresh cows and springers, $20.00@40.00.

HOGS—Receipts on Monday 30 loads; market ruled steady at the previous week's closing prices. Today supply light; market steady on best grades, others slow. We quote sales: Prime mediums, $4.25@4.30; good Yorkers, $4.20@4.25; heavy hogs, $4.10@4.15; common to fair Yorkers, $4.05@4.10; grassers and stubblers, $3.85@4.00; pigs, as to quality, $3.70@4.00; roughs, $2.50@3.60; skips and common pigs, $3.00@3.50.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts on Monday 12 loads; market strong. Supply today light; market steady. We quote: Choice, $4.60@4.65; good, $4.40@4.50; fair, $4.00@4.25; common, $3.25@3.75; choice spring lambs, $5.60@5.80; common to good, $4.00@5.40; veal calves, $7.00@7.25; heavy and thin calves, $4.00@5.00.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.

HOGS—Market steady at $3.25@4.10.

CATTLE—Market steady at $2.80@4.90.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady at $2.25@4.25. Lambs—Market steady at $3.75@6.00.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—Spot market steady; No. 2 red, 73⅞@74⅞c f. o. b. afloat; to arrive, 74⅞c.

CORN—Spot market firm; No. 2, 36¾c f. o. b. afloat.

OATS—Spot market dull; No. 2, 26½@27c; No. 2 white, new, 28@29c.

CATTLE—No trade of importance. Feeling weak. Cables firm. Live cattle, 11@12c per pound dressed weight; refrigerator beef, 8¼@8¾c per pound.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady; good to choice lambs 10c higher.

The Many Rich Prizes

Captured by Uncle Sam didn't drop into his hat through sheer luck--strength and shrewd judgment won them. Business successes are won in the same way. It isn't luck that enables us to offer you the most expert, scientific optical service to be found anywhere, at extremely low prices. It is full and perfect equipment, investment and enterprise. We employ a first class Oculist, a medical doctor especially educated in the treatment of the eye. When you come to us you take no chances, but are sure of first class service. Examination free of charge. Why not have the best?

M. WADE, JEWELER.

205 Market St., East Liverpool, Ohio

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY.
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, W. L. THOMPSON.
J. M. KELLY. O. O. VODREY.
B. C. SIMMS. JNO. C. THOMPSON.
JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 50,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts!

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

An 8 Minute Walk From the Diamond

will take you to the Huston Lots—the best Low Priced ones in the city—$1.25 to $300 eache.

TERMS EASY.

Call for particulars.

Elijah W. Hill, J. P.

Fire Insurance and Real Estate, 105 Sixth Street.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushion Rubber Stamps.

THE NEWS REVIEW

H. A. MOWLS. LODGE RIDDLE

MOWLS & RIDDLE, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

HUSTON BLOCK. LISBON, OHIO

GO TO HASSEY'S —For The— Original BOSS ICE CREAM.

All Flavors. 206 Sixth Street.

Dr. J. N. VODREY DENTIST, Room 4, Porter Building, DIAMOND.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum, Surgeon Dentist,

Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.

Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.

ALL the News in the News Review.

EVENING NEWS REVIEW.

14TH YEAR. NO. 71. EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31, 1898. TWO CENTS

DEFENDERS OF CAMPS.

Grosvenor Could See Little Wrong at Dunn Loring.

ALLEN IS OF LIKE OPINION.

Men Suffered Good Deal at Camp Thomas, but No Worse Than In Civil War. Newspaper Sensationalism, Said Governor Black of New York.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Grosvenor of Ohio called at the war department yesterday in company with ex-Representative Thompson to report to Secretary Alger the results of their visit of inspection of the camp at Dunn Loring, and particularly the state of affairs in the Seventh Ohio volunteer regiment.

General Grosvenor was emphatic in his approval of what he saw. He said: "I never saw a body of soldiers better fed, better clothed and better sheltered than is the Seventh Ohio regiment at present. So much for the general condition. Now as to particulars: There were 1,300 men in the regiment. Except from suicide there have been but two deaths among them since the organization four and a half months ago. Including the men who were furloughed to go home and recuperate and those in the hospitals, there were only 41 men not able to report for duty yesterday morning. A finer, abler set of men I never saw in my life."

Continuing, General Grosvenor said that the dissatisfaction among the soldiers was all traceable to the fact that they had not been able to get to the front. On the whole he (Grosvenor) was satisfied the men were very much better off than were the soldiers in the Civil war.

This last view was confirmed by Senator Allen of Nebraska, who called at the war department to get some news of the whereabouts of the Second Nebraska regiment, which he was told was enroute from Chickamauga to Omaha.

He said the main complaint among the men was their enforced detention at the camps instead of being sent to the front. So far as their physical condition was concerned, while the men had suffered a good deal at Camp Thomas, so far as he could judge from his own experience in the Civil war, they were certainly no worse off than the soldiers then engaged.

CHATTANOOGA, Aug. 31.—Governor Black was seen last night by an Associated Press representative and was asked as to the conditions as he found them in the camps of the New York regiments, as well as those at division hospitals.

Governor Black said there appeared to be "a perfect hydrophobia" among newspapers over the condition of the soldiers, that the press bristled with such phrases as "hollow eyed" and "starving," in articles descriptive of the troops. He gave it as his opinion that the matter was exaggerated, "manufactured in newspaper offices," and the outcome and result of "journalistic knavery."

When assured that his views would be printed verbatim, and not withheld because they failed to concur with the present "newspaper craze," his excellency gave the following interview in part:

"My impression," said Governor Black, "of the camp of the New York troops at Chickamauga park is not half as bad as I expected it would be. The unfortunate condition of the camp and hospitals has, beyond a doubt, been very greatly exaggerated by the papers.

"The division hospital in which the sick soldiers of the Ninth New York infantry are quartered is certainly in a very bad condition. The present state of this hospital ought never to have been permitted to exist and should be corrected also.

"I think that the troops at Chickamauga Park should have been moved long before any sickness broke out in the ranks.

"This Sternberg hospital is in excellent condition. I do not see that it could be made any better. It is admirable both in plan and management."

The case of Private Nunn of the ambulance company, who was transferred from the Ninth New York, was reported to the governor by Captain O'Connor of Company A, Ninth New York, and was reported by the governor to Washington for investigation. Captain O'Connor's statement was that he had found the body of Nunn lying naked in a division hospital two days after death, infested by maggets, that an autopsy had been held and that no preparation had been made for the care or internment of the body up to the time found. The affair will likely result in the trial of Captain O'Connor by courtmartial.

900 MAY HAVE DIED.

Report That Three Spanish Vessels Were Lost Near the Philippines, Early In the War.

TACOMA, Aug. 31.—Early in the war Admiral Dewey captured the Spanish gunboat Leyte, as it was returning to Manila from one of the Philippine islands. The Hongkong Daily Press says the Leyte had been towing three vessels loaded with 900 Spaniards who were fleeing for fear of falling into the insurgents' hands.

A severe storm came up and compelled the Leyte to leave her tows and make for Manila to secure assistance. Later American warships were sent to look for the three vessels, but they were nowhere to be found. It is believed that they foundered with all on board.

Colonel Van Horn Dead.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The war department was notified yesterday morning that Colonel Charles G. Van Horn, Eighth infantry, died Monday night at Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming. He ranked No. 3 in the line list of colonels. He was born in Ohio.

A Filibuster Case Closed.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, Aug. 31.—The case of the Cuban filibuster steamer Bermuda has been closed with the sale of the vessel intact as she is lying at Port Antonio, for $12,500, to a shipping firm of this city in behalf of her Boston owners.

TEN MORE MEN DIED.

Wheeler Ordered Investigation at Camp Wikoff — Two of the Dead Eighth Ohio Boys.

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—Ten soldiers died at Camp Wikoff yesterday. They were:

Charles E. Chapin, sergeant, Company L, Second Massachusetts, died in an isolated tent, diagnosis refused.

Fred Isueller, Company H, Eighth infantry, typhoid fever.

—— Murphy, Troop F, Second cavalry, acute uraemia.

Unkown soldier, acute uraemia.

William H. Newcomb, Company H, Twenty-first infantry, typhoid fever; getting along well, but Monday night left his cot, walked into one of the kitchens, found a watermelon, ate ravenously of it and in a short time was dead.

John G. Trouthard, Company K, Eighth Ohio, pernicious malaria.

Earl Immler, Company D, Eighth Chio, typhoid fever.

Victor E. Jolin, Company E, Third infantry, dysentery.

W. A. Marshall, Company G, First Illinois.

Private Waldron, Company A, First Illinois, typhoid fever, died on a transport.

The transports Berlin, San Marcos and Specialist arrived at Camp Wikoff yesterday, carrying soldiers from Cuba, and landed them. There were 256 sick.

The tug C. P. Raymond left this city East river yesterday loaded with delicacies and medicine for the men of the First Illinois infantry, at Montauk Point. The tug was chartered by seven gentlemen from different parts of the state of Illinois.

Camp Wikoff is to be investigated. General Wheeler has ordered General Albert Ames, chief of staff on General Kent's staff, to conduct an investigation. He has almost autocratic powers.

MANY ILL IN PORTO RICO.

National Relief Commission Representatives Bring Back Reports. Rendered Great Aid.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The yacht May, home from Ponce, whither she had taken the national relief commissioners, arrived here yesterday at noon. The relief commissioners report that of the 16,000 American soldiers in Porto Rico 1,000 were sick when the May left on Aug. 22. More than half these cases require prompt and careful treatment. Typhoid was not on the increase, but diarrhoea, dysentery and dengue were. The report says the medical authorities in Porto Rico agree that the sick list is increasing.

The members of the commission who went to Porto Rico are ex-Minister to Italy William Potter, William Van Rensselaer, L. C. Van Uxen and Dr. C. G. Graff.

Attached to a report made by the representative of the national relief commission is a letter from General Miles thanking the commissioners on behalf of the army for the supplies and for a big consignment of American flags; also a letter from Colonel Greenleaf, expressing thanks for the gift of an ice-making machine, in which he says: "I cannot adequately express the satisfaction with which the results of this donation will be received by the sick. Ice in this country is an expensive luxury, costing $30 per ton in Porto Rican money, which necessitates the exercise of rigid economy on the part of our medical officers in its use. To have the output of such a machine at our disposal is a blessing, the benefits of which can only be appreciated by those who have served in these hospitals."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Surgeon General Sternberg says that it is true there is sickness in Porto Rico, but it is not alarming.

It is probably climatic conditions which is causing sickness among the troops in Porto Rico.

For Army Camp Near Toledo.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Representative Southard of Ohio has been here, seeking to have an army camp established at the old Fort Meigs battleground, ten miles south of Toledo, where there is high ground and plenty of water, or at Put-in-Bay, on Lake Erie. The war department has agreed to consider the matter, but has given no further assurance.

HELD A CONFERENCE.

Day, White and the President Together In Cleveland.

THE JUSTICE HAD NOT DECIDED.

Announced at Close of Meeting, That No Conclusion Was Reached, but Hope Was Expressed That White Would Accept a Peace Commissionership.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—A conference of great importance was held at Col. Herrick's home last night. President McKinley, Secretary Day and Justice White were the conferrees and they were closeted together after dinner until a late hour. It was admitted that the conversation had to do with the appointment on the peace commission offered by the president to Justice White, but at a late hour it was announced that no definite conclusion had been reached, although hope was expressed that Justice White would see his way clear to accept the appointment.

President McKinley and Mrs. McKinley spent yesterday quietly at the home of Colonel Myron T. Herrick, Euclid Heights. Both are in the best of health and spirits. About 7:30 they appeared on the veranda and had a magnificent view of the city and lake.

A detail of police is guarding the grounds night and day during their stay. They will remain in Cleveland until tomorrow. That day they will go to Canton and from there to New York, where they will arrive Friday night. Saturday the president will inspect Camp Wikoff, at Montauk Point.

During their morning drive yesterday the president and Colonel Herrick went to the Shaker lakes and over the boulevard, through Wade and Gordon parks. Upon returning to Colonel Herrick's home, on Euclid heights, the president took a nap, and, after lunch, received Postmaster George Gordon of Chicago. Mr. Gordon presented the invitation of Chicago to attend the big peace jubilee in that city. President McKinley thanked Chicago and Postmaster Gordon, but deferred any definite answer, in view of possible demands that may be made upon him as chief executive. Later, the president and Colonel Herrick took another drive, this time out into the country. During the afternoon Miss Helen McKinley, the president's sister, and Miss McKinley, his niece, of Canton, called at the Herrick house.

Justice White and Secretary of State Day arrived at the house about 6 o'clock last evening, undoubtedly to consult with the president over the former's decision as to acting as one of the peace commissioners.

At dinner were President and Mrs. McKinley, Colonel and Mrs. Herrick, Justice White, Secretary Day, Assistant President's Secretary Cortelyou, Mrs. M. A. Hanna and Miss Hanna.

Mrs. McKinley was indisposed by a slight cold and remained within doors during yesterday.

The workmen engaged on a fine new residence being built across the boulevard from Col. Herrick's home did a graceful and patriotic thing yesterday. In front of the house, between the sidewalk and the roadway, is an ugly, rough board shed for the storage of tools, etc. The workmen clubbed together, purchased an immense American flag and with it covered the roof and side toward the temporary home of the president.

EIGHTH OHIO BOYS.

Seventeen Arrived Home and Were Given a Great Welcome—Denial by Colonel Hard.

ALLIANCE, O., Aug. 31.—Yesterday forenoon when 17 sick and weary members of Company K, Eighth Ohio, arrived on the 10 o'clock train. Their reception was in the nature of an ovation from the great crowd.

Private Patterson is the worst and is helpless from a severe attack of typhoid fever. His condition is critical. Private Osburn was very weak, having safely passed through one of the worst forms of yellow fever at Santiago.

Privates Hoppes and Grubb are sick with malarial fever. The balance are convalescening and are: Commissary Sergeant Charles Cooper, Sergeant Dobson, Corporals Whit, Ballard, Curtis and Bowman, and Privates Shaffer, Dew, Grimes, Walser, Hutson, David, Dobson, Campbell, Oglive and Hospital Corpsman Vinton Buell.

WOOSTER, O., Aug. 31.—Colonel C. V. Hard of the Eighth regiment, O. V. I., yesterday afternoon wired a statement to this city from Montauk Point, N. Y., denying charges of starvation and neglect of Eighth Ohio boys.

SICK IN HOSPITALS.

Over Fifty Placed In Philadelphia Institutions From the Pennsylvania Train.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—The state hospital train from the Chickamauga camp arrived here about 9 o'clock yesterday morning, having on board a number of sick soldiers whose homes are located in this city and vicinity. A number of ambulances and police patrol wagons were in waiting and the sick men were hurried to hospitals as fast as they could be taken from the cars.

Governor Hastings personally superintended the removal of the sick soldiers from the train to the ambulances. The sick numbered over 50 and were principally Philadelphia soldiers.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Aug. 31.—The state hospital train carrying the sick members of the Ninth regiment arrived here yesterday morning. Ambulances and stretchers were in waiting and the invalids were tenderly cared for until they arrived at the hospital. There are 28 cases, but only 8 are thought to be serious.

Pennsylvania Soldier Died.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31.—Daniel Tubbs, a private in Company B, Thirteenth Pennsylvania, died yesterday morning in the Medi-Chirurgical hospital. Tubbs was brought from Dunn Loring, Va., on Thursday night suffering from typhoid fever. His home was in Taylor, Pa.

SEC. ALGER'S OPINION.

Said Not to Believe Miles Said All He Is Credited With—Merritt May Side With Miles.

WASHINGTON Aug. 31.—Secretary Alger was quoted yesterday as saying he did not believe General Miles made half of the statements credited to him by the Kansas City Star correspondent. The secretary is quoted as having the opinion that General Miles evidently intended to draw the army administration into a discussion which would lead to an official inquiry which in turn would clear up some matters which he wished to have exposed in justice to himself.

Secretary Alger said: "If we do ask General Miles whether he gave that interview or not we will not publish the fact and the newspapers won't know anything about it. There is an evident desire to have a controversy on this subject, but there can be none and the war department will take no part in one."

General Corbin said yesterday: "I have issued no order of any importance except upon the authority and by direction of the secretary of war or the president of the United States. They are amply able, I take it, to protect themselves and so far as I am concerned there are no explanations or apologies to make."

NEW YORK, Aug. 31.—A bitter fight inside the war department is threatened between Secretary Alger, General Corbin and others on one side and General Miles, General Merritt and their friends on the other. Miles has already aired his grievances, and it is reported that Merritt has a few, too. There is a long enmity between Alger and Merritt, dating from the courtmartial of Alger by a board of which Merritt was a member.

Merritt's partisans alleged that Alger sent him to Manila to be rid of him. President McKinley, it was said, without Alger's knowledge, ordered Merritt to go to Paris and then come home. Alger at first denied this order, not having heard it.

DELICACIES FOR THE SICK.

Patients In Camp Meade Hospital Given an Increase In Subsistence Money.

CAMP MEADE, MIDDLETOWN, Pa., Aug. 31.—Colonel Girard, chief medical officer of the Second army corps, received a telegram yesterday morning from Secretary of War Alger authorizing him to increase the subsistence of the patients in the general hospitals from 20 to 60 cents a day. This will insure the sick ice, milk and other delicacies, which they could not heretofore buy out of their subsistence money.

Semi-official advices were received yesterday by the officers of the First Rhode Island regiment that it would be sent to the Philippines as an army of occupation. The Twelfth Pennsylvania regiment, commanded by Colonel James E. Coryell of Williamsport, reached camp yesterday morning from Camp Alger and was located near the Eighteentn regiment and Sixteenth Pennsylvania battalion. The Eighth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania regiments are expected here by Saturday.

MERRITT SAILS FOR PARIS.

General Otis Military Governor of Manilla Now—Philippine Insurgent Coming—Greene's Muster Out.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—The United States transport China left here yesterday having on board Major General Merritt and his staff. The general is bound for Paris, where he will take part in the Spanish-American peace conference. Major General Otis is acting governor of Manila. Generals Greene and Babcock, with their staffs, are bound for Washington.

Opacible, the insurgent leader, is going to Hongkong in order to confer with the insurgent junta there. He will receive Aguinaldo's final instructions by cable.

Agonillo, another of the insurgent leaders, is going to Washington.

Weather Forecast.

Partly cloudy; light southwesterly winds.

MAY SPLIT UP SAMOA.

Death of King Malietoa Likely to Cause Such Action.

PROBABLY A PROBLEM FOR HAY.

This Government Might Take the Island of Tuitwila For a Naval Station—England Would Likely Take the Largest One and Germany Next In Size.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—The state department had not by yesterday been officially advised of the reported death of King Malieton of Samoa, and in all likelihood must remain in official ignorance of the event for some time to come, owing to the slow means of communication at the disposal of the department. It is the general impression here that the death of the king will result in the overthrow of the present form of government of the islands, maintained as it is by the joint action of the United States, Great Britain and Germany. Official reports to the state department show that this government is the most expensive and unsatisfactory of any in the world, having regard to the population of the Samoan group.

In the capital city, Apia, there is maintained a tripartite municipal government at vast proportional expense, while the reports show that 32 ratepayers are obliged to bear the entire cost. For some years back the existing arrangement for the government of the Samoan group has been satisfactory to none of the three governments, yet it has been continued for the reason that nothing better could be suggested that would be acceptable to the three nations. Now there are indications that at least one of the parties is coming around to what was a favorite plan of settlement of the state department, namely, a disruption of the present tripartite government, and an absolute division of the islands of the group between the United States, Great Britain and Germany.

The principal object of our government has been to retain possession of a coaling or a full naval station in the islands, so as to afford a base of naval operations in the vicinity of Australasia, as well as to ensure an open port for our merchant steamers on the long voyage from San Francisco to Australia. The United States now holds title to some ground for a coaling statien at Pago Pago, on the island of Tuitwila. This island is the least in size of any of the group, but is more than large enough to support a naval station, so that it has been the plan of the state department to acquire it as a whole in event of the dissolution of the tripartite agreement.

Basing the division on the existing interests of the three nations, Germany, holding the largest interest, would take the island second in size, possessing the capital, Apia, while Great Britain would receive the largest of the group but the second in commercial importance. It is probable that among the first duties falling to Mr. Hay, when he assumes the office of secretary of state, will be the consideration of some plan to tide over the crisis expected to follow the death of the king.

FOR NATIONAL MILITIA.

Major Hayes Proposed a Plan—Thinks Cooks and Homesickness Caused Complaint Among Troops.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 31.—Major Webb C. Hayes, son of the late President Hayes, who is said to be the only volunteer officer that served in both the Cuban and Porto Rican campaigns, and who is accompanying President McKinley on his present trip, has proposed a plan to the chief executive, providing that the president shall appoint an adjutant general for each state; that as many bodies of militia shall be raised in each state as circumstances require, and that all officers of such militia shall be nominated by the governors of the various states. They would then be under the direct control of the national government.

Major Hayes, when asked what he thought of the charges of starvation from the regiments at the front, said:

"Look at me. Do I looked starved? I lived on the same rations as the soldiers and have grown fleshy on that fare."

Hayes was attired in the brown canvas uniform of a field officer and looked brown as his suit, and rugged as a veteran.

"I may be wrong," said he, "but in my opinion, the greatest cause for complaint is summed up in 'cooks and homesickness.'"

General Weyler's Policy.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—General Weyler, according to a special dispatch from Madrid, published here yesterday afternoon, has outlined his future policy. He proposes, it appears, to be independent both of the government and the opposition, "always aiming to preserve the country and to reorganize the army." He said the united republicans have no personal animus against the queen, their only object being to "adopt a firm, international stand, one result which would be to check in some measure England's ambition."

Buy Now and Save Money

We mean your school shoes, as we are giving you special prices on lots of them.

5 to 8, tan or black, 48c

8½ to 11, tan or black, 75c

11½ to 2, tan or black, 98c

Buy at once and save the price of a book.

W. H. GASS, 220 Diamond.

THEY ASK FOR DELAY

Trust Promoters Are Not Yet Ready.

FROM SEPTEMBER TO DECEMBER

It Is Now Proposed to Have the Options Extended, and Manufacturing Potters Manifest a Disposition to Permit the Change at Old Prices.

The combination of American potteries will not be consummated Sept. 28, as so many people in this city have confidently expected.

It will be remembered that the options taken some time ago on the Liverpool potteries extended to Sept. 28, the promoters of the trust being confident they could close the deal at that time. Since then there have been changes, and the trust will not then be a living, moving reality.

The other day the pottery companies whose plants are under option received a letter asking if they would consent to an extension of time until December 31. The reason given was that all potteries in the country could not be brought under the protecting wing of the trust at present, but the extension would greatly facilitate the work.

The NEWS REVIEW can state on authority that there is a disposition in this city to grant the request, and the options will be extended until the last day of the year.

HUNTED AN HOUR

Before He Located the Lady For Whom He Sought.

A good story is being told upon a prominent young man of the city.

A few evenings ago he made an engagement to call upon a young lady of his acquaintance, but not knowing exactly where she lived he carefully hunted up the number of her home. When he arrived at the street he found the numbers of the houses had long since been removed, and after wandering around the street for over an hour he found another lady acquaintance who showed him the house he sought.

CARING FOR MRS. EDDY.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell Have Gone to Yankeesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Lessell, of this city, this morning left for Marietta and from their will drive to Yankeesburg. They will go the home of Mrs. Eddy, whose son died on the transport Mohawk while coming from Santiago to Montauk Point, L. I. Mr. Lessel was the soldiers' brother-in-law, and this morning said that no expense would be spared in the attempts to relieve Mrs. Eddy of her suffering. They will remain there several weeks.

BY REQUEST.

Secretary Sully has been requested to repeat an address on "Job" which he delivered at the Christian church a few weeks ago. He will speak on this subject at the Salvation Army camp-meeting at Spring Grove on Sunday afternoon.

Changes at Light Plant.

John Isle, for several months employed at the light plant as an electrician, left last night for Gallipolis. Mr. Young, who superintended the work at the Gallipolis plant, has returned to the city and today resumed his work at the plant in this place.

FOR SALE.

One set of Morgan & Wright bicycle tires. Cheap. Call at News Review.

EATING IN GERMANY.

THE SARCASMS OF A VICTIM WHO SURVIVED ITS CHARMS.

He Kicks All the Way Down the Bill of Fare and Is Particularly Irritated Over a Dish of Powdered Horse Radish Served With Frozen Whipped Cream.

When you have examined the constitution of the German cuisine, you are tempted to grow loquacious. You are conscious of having discovered that the psychology of a nation cannot be constructed upon a mere analysis of its made dishes. Your estimate of Brillat-Savarin sinks. He could not tell you what you are, even from all the menus of your lifetime. Freiligrath's philosophic conclusion that "man is what he eats" you straightway qualify as true only when referring to cannibalism. And you will aver that only in the case of paleolithic man can you construct a man from the crumbs that fall from his dinner table. And this you will want to prove, and consequently will grow talkative with presenting of much evidence.

And yet, in your sane moments, you will have a sneaking affection for the statement that a German is a German because he eats what he eats. As a general rule he may be said to eat five times a day. But his hunger is constantly being stilled.

He starts early in the day with a cup of cafe au lait and a small buttered roll. This keeps him going till 11 o'clock, when he demolishes a slice of buttered rye bread spread with slices of hard boiled egg, raw chopped beef or cheese. This he washes down with a glass of ale, thus stilling his inner man till dinner time. Dinner takes place toward 1 o'clock and consists of soup (generally nourishing), a plate of meat, with potatoes and fruit (cranberries, prunes or apricots), occasionally cheese, seldom sweets, rarely a green vegetable.

Three hours later coffee is taken, served with a piece of cake or thick bread and butter. This is the hour precious to the gossip and the busybody, the time for spreading scandal. Toward 8 o'clock the appetite again asserts itself. The hour of the ubiquitous sausages has arrived. Their name is legion, and they share the honors with slices of ham, smoked goose breast, pieces of raw pickled herring, and in summer hard boiled eggs and potato salad.

Such is the German method of spreading the meals over the day. Of course there are exceptions. Many families have two ample meals a day, but the bulk of the population eats mostly buttered bread and snacks. In justice to Germany one must say that the fare in many a home will compare favorably with that of many an American family.

In the German restaurant the cuisine is on the whole monotonous and the food singularly insipid. All meats seem to have the same flavor, all are served with the same heavy, viscous sauces, and invariably escorted with the same soaplike potatoes. Stodginess and heaviness are the great blots on the German fare. The element of variety, too, seems considered superfluous.

In the concrete the subject is almost too painful to face, the difficulty being to steer clear of exclamations denoting positive offensiveness. Some of the kickshaws which figure regularly upon the German table are reputed to be most sustaining. They certainly are intensely and ostentatiously wonder inspiring.

One preparation is everywhere met with under the name (more or less phonetically spelled) of beefsteak a la tartare. Its basis is raw chopped beef; this, spread out into a pat of elliptical shape, is crowned with the raw yolk of an egg, raw finely chopped onion is sprinkled over it, a garniture of gherkins is added, and the whole is eaten with much gusto and no worse consequences than a durable thirst.

In many of the dishes you discover all the humor, feeling and imagination of a Wagnerian composition. You find the resolute desire to build up harmony upon discord. Of this nature may be considered the traditional menu of New Year's eve, carp, pancake and punch. These three, brought into immediate juxtaposition and consumed in plethoric quantities, generally have the desired effect—that of inducing a hysterical good humor.

For stodginess nothing beats the favorite dish, panache. It consists of pickled pork, sour cabbage and a puree of split peas boiled down to the consistency of stiff dough. Experiments on this mass produce deplorable capers and cause one to grunt mournfully. A variety of this diet is found in Berlin. You substitute boiled balls of dough and indifferent prunes for the peas and cabbage, and you have the dish popularly termed "the Silesian kingdom of heaven." Cold eels, imbedded in a translucid, glutinous substance, figure in all workmen's taverns, while roast goose is de rigueur for all solemnities.

A dainty which we have recently met with in Berlin recalled Darwin's remark that "hardly any experiment is so absurd as not to be worth trying." It consisted of finely powdered horse radish served up with frozen whipped cream.

One may sum up one's judgment by saying of German cooking what the art critic said of nature, "It has infinite potentialities." Not the least of these is its ambition to discover victims that survive its charms only in the form that the walls of Jericho survived the trumpet blast of Joshua.—Lippincott's Magazine.

IMPRESSIONS OF PORTO RICO

The Island and Its Inhabitants as Seen by One of General Miles' Staff.

Lieutenant Colonel Arthur S. Wagner, assistant adjutant general, formerly chief of the bureau of military information of the war department, returned to Washington recently from Ponce, Porto Rico, where he has been with the staff of General Miles. From the time he landed with Miles' army near Ponce, Porto Rico, until he left the island, Colonel Wagner said, the heartiness with which the mass of Porto Ricans welcomed the advent of the American troops was an impressive fact.

"The manner in which the Porto Ricans welcomed the army with bananas, cocoanuts, bouquets and cigars seems amusing here," he said, "but it was evident to us in Porto Rico that the offerings were sincere tributes and not indicative of a fickle temperament among the people. When one realizes the fact that they have been obliged to pay a tax of $8 on a barrel of flour, making the price $35, Porto Rican money, or $17 in United States currency, it is not hard to believe that they are glad to be relieved from Spanish oppression. Two or three mayors of towns in signing papers of allegiance voluntarily added "U. S. A." to the name of the town and of the island, and they seemed proud of it too. When I was ill with malarial fever, a native physician, remarkably well educated and cultured, attended me. He remarked one day, as he used a physician's thermometer, that he had nothing but a centigrade scale, but since he had become an American citizen he must get a Fahrenheit. When I got well, I asked him for my bill, but he declined any compensation for his services, assuring me that he was glad to do anything for American officers.

"A house where I had lodgings while in Ponce was the residence of a very intelligent native lady and her daughter. The lady talked very enthusiastically about the prospects of American sovereignty in Porto Rico, and her daughter discussed the evils of Spanish rule in the island in a way which showed that she had a very good idea of the former government and its effect upon the oppressed people of Porto Rico. These incidents are a few of the many which came to my notice during General Miles' campaign, and I reached the gratifying conclusion that Porto Rico would be a very desirable possession for the United States, and that the people generally would be good citizens. The most inferior part of the native population is very inferior indeed, but the more intelligent people are numerous enough to dominate the masses and give a general character to the inhabitants."—New York Sun.

PHILIPPINE LABOR PROBLEM

Only Eastern Race That Can Solve It Said to Be the Chinese.

A labor question will face the ruler of the Philippines very early, and ther is only one eastern race that can solv it. The Spaniards recognized the fact long ago, but the priest disliked the Chinaman because he was so irreligious. Honest Juan de la Concepcion records that in 1662, when there was a pretty general massacre of the Mongols—who were incited to rebellion with that very object—"the original intention of the Spaniards was to kill every Chinaman," but they desisted from the wholesale slaughter, "in view of the inconvenience which would have ensued from the want of tradesmen and merchants." Just 60 years before there had been a massacre of the Chinese, one of many, which brought serious consequences, for when the Celestials were extirpated, or nearly so, it was found that they were "the only industrious, skillful, wealth producing portion of the population." They are so today, and for that reason one anticipates that the experience of Singapore will be repeated at Manila.

Your lazy Malay will recede before the Mongol, who has served an apprenticeship of 60 generations to labor and can do everything. I shall never forget standing on a hill overlooking Kiao-Chau bay, the new German possession, and seeing what Chinese industry can effect. The view embraced perhaps ten square miles of rugged country, deeply scored by mountain torrents. Wherever a few yards, in some cases no larger than a kitchen floor, could be terraced out of the ravine or side of the hillock, it was done, and the whole landscape was like a garden for perfect tillage. These are the people who will make an earthly paradise of the Philippines, not the dolce far niente, indolent natives. A curious turning of the tables if the Americans should invite the Celestials to quit the Pacific slope for Luzon and Mindanao!—London Telegraph.

Coffee In the Hawaiian Islands.

Coffee is now being produced in considerable quantities in the Hawaiian Islands. Consul General Haywood expresses the opinion that the amount may be greatly increased with profit to those undertaking it. The number of coffee plantations is now between 200 and 300. The sum required to enter successfully upon coffee producing is from $5,000 to $20,000, and the Hawaiian foreign office estimates that the money so invested will be repaid to the investors with more than 100 per cent interest at the end of seven years from the establishment of the plantation.

During the visit of Li Hung Chang, the "Grand Old Man of China," to this country, the New York Sun said of him: "He is a large, strong, impressive specimen of manhood. He has a massive frame, a shapely head, a commanding face and well posed features. He is a keen observant of mankind, of life and of things. He is seventy-four years of age and still in the hey-day of his power."

If a Chinaman, usually regarded by us as a barbarian, can live to a healthy, hale old age, why cannot Americans, with their more advanced civilization, do the same? The reporters discovered during Li Hung Chang's stay in this country, that he took every thought for his health. He lived upon the simplest of diets and never passed a day without consulting his physician. He limited his toil to a reasonable number of hours, and would not deviate from his rule in this matter. American men follow just the opposite practice. They work to the limit of endurance, will not even take the proper time for eating, resting and sleeping, and never think of their health until it is gone. There is a wonderful medicine for hard-working men. It is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It takes the place of a physician. It keeps away ill-health and restores health when it is lost. It is the great appetite sharpener, blood-maker and flesh-builder. It makes the digestion perfect, the liver active and the blood pure and rich. Medicine dealers sell it.

"My husband had been a robust young man," writes Mrs. M. J. Tedder, of Ellington, Reynolds Co., Mo. "When he was 31 years old he began to cough very hard. He had pains through his chest and lungs. His mother and the rest of his family had died with consumption. He continued to cough every winter, until in 1883 he had an attack of pneumonia. His cough grew worse and worse. He would vomit immediately after his meals. In 1888 he coughed night and day. He was getting very weak and had no appetite. He commenced Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets.' He improved. His appetite got better. When he had taken seven bottles he looked like a new man and felt like a new person. He weighs more than he ever weighed before. He gained twenty-eight pounds and is cured."

SPEAK OUT.

The Search-Light of Publicity is Pleasing East Liverpool People.

Publicity is what the people want.
Let the public speak on the subject.
There has been too much claim—too little proof.
Claims made by strangers are not proof.
Claims endorsed by strangers are not proof.
There is only one kind of proof for an East Liverpool citizen.
The experience of people we know.
When friends and neighbors endorse,
Make public statements of their case,
There can be no question about such evidence.
This is the proof we have,
Which backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills.
No other kidney pills, no other kidney remedy,
Can produce such proof.
Here is one case of the many we have:

Mrs. Henry Bevington, who resides at the corner of Avondale and Shaw avenue, says: "During three years I was troubled with my kidneys, having a dull steady aching pain in the back. When stooping over or sitting for some time it would change to quick pang as I arose to an upright position. My back tired out easily when walking or standing long and I often had headaches, dizziness and in the morning great depression. I took medicines, many of them, but found Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at W. & W. Pharmacy to be more suitable for my complaint than anything I ever tried. I had no trouble with my back, did not have the headache as I did, rested well, felt refreshed in the morning and got up earlier than I did before taking them. I give Doan's Kidney Pills credit for my better health and advise others to use them, as I am sure they will find them up to their representation."

Doan's Kidney Pills are for sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents per box. Sent by mail on receipt of price by Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no other.

MADE ME A MAN

AJAX TABLETS POSITIVELY CURE ALL Nervous Diseases—Failing Memory, Impotency, Sleeplessness, etc., caused by Abuse or other Excesses and Indiscretions. They quickly and surely restore Lost Vitality in old or young, and fit a man for study, business or marriage. Prevent Insanity and Consumption if taken in time. Their use shows immediate improvement and effects a CURE where all other fail. Insist upon having the genuine Ajax Tablets. They have cured thousands and will cure you. We give a positive written guarantee to effect a cure in each case or refund the money. Price 50 CTS. per package; or six pkges (full treatment) for $2.50. By mail, in plain wrapper, upon receipt of price. Circular free. AJAX REMEDY CO., 79 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill.

For sale in East Liverpool, Ohio, by John I Hodson and the W. & W. Pharmacy.

Close Figuring on Warships' Sea Speed.

The navy department officials at Washington made close calculations upon the time the warships would arrive at New York for the naval pageant of Aug. 20. In announcing the hour at which the parade would take place up North river they calculated the time it would take the fleet to come from Santiago and the preciseness with which the programme was carried out as to time shows how accurately they can measure the time required for warships to cover a certain distance.—New York World.

The trade between Japan and Formosa has more than quintupled since 1895.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

Finest Print Shop IN EASTERN OHIO

We Print Everything.

From an Election Sticker to a 3-Sheet Poster.

HIGH GRADE
COLOR PRINTING,
ART CATALOGUES,
EMBOSSING,
HALF TONE WORK,
IM. LITHOGRAPHY,
IM. TYPE WRITER,
&c., &c., &c.

WE AIM TO DO CAREFUL, CORRECT PRINTING, TO MAKE SOMETHING ATTRACTIVE.

OUR WORK EMBRACES
CARDS,
LETTER HEADS,
INVOICE SHEETS,
INVITATIONS,
FOLDERS,
CIRCULARS,
BILLS, &c.

Book Work.

No matter what the size or class of job, with our facilities we can compete with the world in quality of work and price.

Our Type.

Customers may have the benefit of a large assortment of borders, ornaments, initials, etc. Every new face of type patented always finds room in our job department. None but first-class printers are employed, which means the best possible results obtainable from the material.

Our Presses.

The "Century" Pony for high grade book and half tone work (finest machine manufactured). Improved Gordons for commercial work, and a large Babcock for poster printing; presided over by a pressman late in charge of the finest presses in one of the largest printing houses in the world.

In a Nut Shell

High Wages,
Fine Equipment,
Artistic Workmen.

Tells the Story.

THE NEWS REVIEW PRESS.

WELLSVILLE.

JULIA DENNIS FINED

But Not Until There Had Been a Very Warm Time.

LIVERPOOL MAN WAS IN IT

He Interrupted and Was Brought Up In a Hurry—Grace Taylor Was Also a Victim, But Molly Did Not Appear—All the News of Wellsville.

There was a warm time in police court last night when Julia Dennis, Grace Taylor and a Mr. Keenan were tried as a result of the raid Monday night. The police have been watching the place since July 3, and were at last successful. The courtroom was crowded, many persons present being friends of the defendants.

Julia Dennis plead not guilty and Mrs. Pech, Mrs. Sheckler, Mrs. Woods and Z. Whitaker testified for her, and Officers Winn and Madden, Sadie Geisse and Dot Brown told their story for the city. When Officer Winn was asked to give the names of the men he had seen going to the house there was a brethless silence, but Solicitor Wells told him he did not have to tell. Dot Brown said white and colored men frequented the house, and Keenan interrupted with the remark that she ought to know. Mayor Dennis promptly called him to order with the remark that his place was down below.

Keenan was next called, and plead guilty to loitering. The mayor fined him $20 and costs, and if the amount is not paid he will go to Canton. Another charge of furnishing liquor to minors will be entered today.

Grace Taylor, a visitor at the place, also plead guilty and got $5 and costs.

The News of Wellsville.

Repairs have been made on the paved street next to the platform at the upper depot. The sinking of the pavement was caused by the high waters.

D. K. Roller, of Salem, was in town yesterday.

The condition of the gutter at the corner of Third and Main street is such that the health officer should order it cleaned immediately.

Last night was the regular meeting night of the board of health. Members of the board assembled but they found themselves forestalled by the progress of Mayor Dennis's court. The meeting will be held next Tuesday.

Prof. J. L. McDonald's time as school examiner having expired today Judge Boone appointed him for another term.

The marriage of Miss Lizzie Krause and Mr. Cornelius Horrigan, of Irondale, took place at the church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. and Mrs. Horrigan are very popular among a large circle of friends. They will reside in Irondale.

S. S. Cope went out to Hammondsville on the morning train on business.

Mrs. W. G. Bright, of Bridgeport, is visiting relatives.

Miss Ella Collins, of Allegheny, is visiting E. S. Kelley, Main street.

E. S. Kelley moved in from Spring Grove today.

H. C. Cooper has returned from Mt. Clemens, Mich., where he spent three weeks. On his return trip he took a cold which has kept him closely in the house from Monday until this morning.

Frank R. Mills, of Beaver Falls, Pa., was in town yesterday.

Will R. Stark, of Steubenville, James P. Davis, of Dellroy, were in town on business yesterday.

There were 94 tickets sold at the upper depot yesterday for the excursion to Cascade park.

Capt. John H. Beacom, U. S. A., brother of our townsman, B. D. Beacome, has been raised to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

W. F. Blackburn and family have returned from their sojourn at Hollow Rock camp ground.

Miss Olive Torrance, of Lisbon, is visiting the family of Mrs. M. Bowers, Broadway.

Mrs. W. C. Bunting returned last night from Hollow Rock camp ground.

C. E. Zimmer, Homer Wells' efficient clerk, arrived home last night from a three-weeks' vacation among friends in Muskingum county.

Mrs. Julius Goetz has returned from Pittsburg.

Mrs. Kirk, who has been visiting her daughter in Center street, returned to her home in Salineville yesterday.

Two men were arrested last night, and this morning were taken before Squire Haney on a charge of illegal train riding. They were assessed the usual amount for the ride.

STANDARD OF EXCELLENCE.

A Mountaineer Who Highly Appreciated Really Good Cooking.

As a rule the mountaineer of Kentucky is not a gastronomic connoisseur, and the visitor at his table is quite as likely to hear dried apples referred to as "fruit" as he is to find any other kind of fruit on the table. Occasionally, however, one of them is sufficiently fortunate to get away from his fastnesses, and living temporarily down in the blue grass has an opportunity to acquire some virtues not otherwise obtainable. It was such a one I caught up with one morning in June along the ridge of the Cumberlands.

"I'm looking for a place," I said after a few preliminaries, "where I can stop for a week or so while I look up some timber I have in this neighborhood. Do you know of any?"

"There ain't much uv that sort eround here," he replied, "exceptin you go to Mount Pleasant, an I reckon that's too fer. But hol' on," he broke in with a sudden thought, "thar's the Widder Tackett. She axed me yistidy to see some uv you folks at the mill and tell 'em she had a place to sleep and eat two er three men ef they wuzn't too pertickler."

"Is it a pretty good place?" I inquired thoughtlessly.

The young man's face flushed.

"Well, I reckon," he said with some emphasis. "She's goin to be my mother-in-law come next September."

"Oh, I beg your pardon," I hastened to explain. "I only asked to know if she had good eating. Some of that we get in private houses even in the cities, you know, is not the best in the world."

"Cities be derned," he said with a fine feeling. "Yer ain't never tried the Widder Tackett's pie yet, mister, an yer want to keep still till yer do. Ain't nothin like it nowhere, no matter what kind uv a pie she sets afore yer. It's all ne plusibus unum, an no mistake. Why, I'm tellin you that I sot down to one uv her pies last week, dern ef I recomember what kind it wuz, ef I ever knowed, an I wuz eatin right into it like a hot shovel goin into a snow pile, an Bill Rogers acrost the table frum me called me a liar, an I never said a dern word to him tell I had plum e't my pie and got my teeth picked. Dern my buttons ef I did, colonel."

I did not like to inquire further into the mystery of what happened to Mr. Rogers after the last taste of the pie was safely housed by my informant, but I made a fair guess and went on to see the Widow Tackett concerning board and lodging for one man for one week. —Washington Star.

Banana Flour.

The next dietetic fad is going to be banana flour. Manufacturers are experimenting in this direction and promise soon a meal that will keep as long as wheat flour and make a much more nutritious bread. As already the craze for whole wheat flour is passing, this new albumen will undoubtedly meet a quick welcome when it comes. The use of the banana has developed its great value as an article of food, and the great army of banana consumers are prepared to accept eagerly its further development.—New York Post.

Saved by General Anderson.

MANILA, Aug. 31.—General Aguinaldo has courtmartialed the offenders in the Cavite affray and they were sentenced to death, but it is reported that they were afterward reprieved at the request of General Anderson.

Erie Hospital Willing to Help.

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 31.—St. Vincent's hospital of this city is willing to care for 20 of Pennsylvania's sick soldiers. The tender was wired to Governor Hastings yesterday morning.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

The season for canning Fruits and Vegetables is now at hand, and judging from indications there will be an abundant crop. We take great pleasure in offering to you a complete line of fresh and pure Spices ground by our own mills. (We are the only retail dealers in the Ohio valley who owns and operates their own spice mill.)

We are in a position to supply you with Superior Glass Jars, extra Caps and Rings, Jelly Tumblers and Sealing Wax at prices that defy competition.

PRICE LIST.

Mason Jars, quarts, per doz	50c
Mason Jars, pints, per doz	45c
Jelly Tumblers, per doz	20c
Covered Tumblers, per doz	20c
Porcelined Caps and Rings per doz	20c
Gum Rings, per doz	5c
Crystal Sealing Wax, 2 packages	5c
Standard Package Coffee, per lb	10c
Choice Salmon, per can	10c
Eagle Mustard Sardines, 4 cans	25c
Oil Sardines, 6 cans	25c
Freshed Rolled Oats, 7 pounds	25c
Fresh Lunch Cakes, per pound	8c
Fresh Lemon Cakes, per pound	8c

—SUGAR AWAY DOWN—

Our London Mixed Tea Has No Equal.

ATLANTIC TEA CO.

We Lead,

Let Those Who Can Follow.

STORY OF A HAT.

Revealing the Secret of Its Two Trips Around a Table.

A number of literary men were at one time gathered in a well known chophouse in New York. The conversation was of course brilliant, and the repartee sparkled with mirth and wit. During a lull in the talk the door slowly opened, and an old southern darky, grizzled with age, poked his head in and then slowly drew his body in after him. A waiter started to eject him, when one of the gentlemen cried:

"Wait a moment. Let's see what the old boy wants."

The darky bobbed up to the table where this gentleman sat and held out his hat. Throwing a wink to his neighbors, the gentleman took the hat and, making a show of placing something into it, passed it on to the next man, who did likewise. The hat made a tour of the room, to the puzzled wonder of the darky. The last to receive it solemnly handed it back with a polite bow, saying:

"There, sir, don't you think you have something to be thankful for?"

The old darky looked solemnly around the company and, mechanically taking the hat, he said:

"Gen'men, I'ze indeed glad dat I got eben de hat back!"

The reply was so thoroughly enjoyed by the company that the darky left the place a much richer man than when he had entered it.—Kansas City World.

The Country's Call.

When you heard the country callin—so she wasn't callin soft—
Thar warn't no man a-hidin in the old time fodder loft;
Thar wuz patriots by the dozens,
All ye'r brothers an ye'r cousins,
But 'twuz hard work gittin in the army!

They were crowdin fer recruitin from all corners of the states,
They were jumpin of the fences, they were climbin of the gates!
But, with privates by the million
And with colonels by the billion
It was hard work gittin in the army!

BADGES FOR LABOR DAY.

The News Review job department is ready to turn out promptly the finest line of badges for Labor day ever seen in the city. Unions desiring good work can get it at the News Review.

WANTED.

WANTED—Cloak and millinery sales ladies. Must be experienced. Address giving reference and full particulars P. O., box 33, East Liverpool.

WANTED--Have several inquiries for small farms. Send full particulars and terms. E. C. Curry, 205 Walnut street.

WANTED--Two experienced ware dressers. Apply at Globe pottery.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE--Four room house and lot, 92x90, at Woodlawn avenue and St. John street, near Sheridan avenue. Price $2,700. Apply to J. P. Hanlon, 315 Lincoln avenue.

The Ohio Valley Business College

Gives a bread winning education. School rooms newly furnished throughout.

Fall Opening,

Tuesday, Sept. 6, 1898.

DAY AND EVENING SCHOOL.

J. F. COOPER,

President.

ELECTRICITY!

THE OHIO ELECTRIC CO.

Is prepared to furnish anything in the electric line, from a complete plant down to the smallest article, such as Dynamos, Motors, Gas Engines, Switch Boards, Electric Bells, Annunciators, Electric Alarms, Batteries, etc. High grade goods and first-class work.

J. A. SWANEY.

Telephone 130-3.

TREETS ASSESSMENT NOTICE

STREET improvement and sewer assessments, for 1898, are due and payable at the office of the city clerk, city hall, on or before September 1st, 1898. All assessments unpaid at that date will be certified to the county auditor and collected with the addition of 10 per cent. penalty, as provided by law.

By order of Council,

J. N. HANLEY,
City Clerk.

Money to Loan

IN ANY SUM FROM

$100 TO $10,000,

on easy payment and low rate of interest Full particulars at the

POTTERS' BUILDING & SAVINGS COMPANY

Corner Fifth and Washington Streets.

STAR BargainStore

IN FULL FORCE.

OUR Great Sale is in full force yet, and we are going to make still deeper cuts in Summer Goods to close them out. Read the following examples of what we have in store for you:

Shirt Waists.

Every one to be cleaned out quick. One lot of 50 and 75c waists for 23e.

All 75c and $1 waists for 43c

$1.25 and $1.50 waist; your choice for 65c.

New white waist, with insertion, for 98c.

Light Wrappers to Go.

$1.25 light wrappers for 65c.

Your choice of our best light wrappers for 98c.

Ladies' Furnishings.

12½c oxblood hose for 5c.
20c ribbed hose for 12½c.
12½c ribbed vest for 7½c.
45c gowns for 29c.
75c gowns for 49c.
$1 gowns for 63c.
$1.19 gowns for 75c.

All our high priced gowns at great reduced prices.

Great bargains in muslin and satin skirts.

Umbrella drawers for 19c.
50c drawers for 35c.
75c high bust corsets, with shoulder straps, for 47c.

Men's Furnishings.

50c white neckband shirts for 29c.

Light and dark shirts, worth 39c for 25e.
35c ties for 12½c.
50c ties for 25c.
25c suspenders for 15c.
Boys' wash suits at away down prices.

Wash Goods.

The balance of our wash goods at still greater reduced prices.

One lot at 4c a yard.

One lot of light and dark lawns and organdies, 15 and 19c qualities, for 6½e.

35c French organdies for 15c.
10c madras for 5c.
12½ dress ginghams for 7½c.

Silks and Dress Goods

15c plaid for 9c.
40c light dress goods, just the thing for children's school dresses, for 19c.
60 and 75c light dress goods for 25c.
50c printed India silks for 25c.
50c printed India silks for 25c.
$1 plaid silks for 59c.
$1.25 plaid and check silks for 59c.

Black silk and satin at greatly reduced prices.

Miscellaneous.

One lot of belts for 5c.
One lot of ladies' bow ties for 10c.
25 and 50c puffs for 12½c.
40 inch muslin for 4½c.
9c lonsdale muslin for 6¾c
60c unbleached damask for 42½c.
Large size towels for 4c.
20c towels for 12½c.
6c crash for 3½c.
8c linen barred crash for 5c.

Fall Dress Goods.

Our new fall dress goods are coming in daily, and we are selling a good deal of it now. We will be pleased to show you our line bofore buying, and we feel certain that we can please you in style and price. Our line of black goods is especially very strong.

STAR BargainStore

138 and 140 Fifth Street.

The News Review.

LEADING DAILY OF COLUMBIANA COUNTY.

PUBLISHED DAILY EXCEPT SUNDAY BY

THE NEWS REVIEW COMPANY.

HARRY PALMER, Manager and Proprietor.

[Entered as second class matter at the East Liverpool, O., postoffice.]

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:

(Postage free in United States and Canada.)

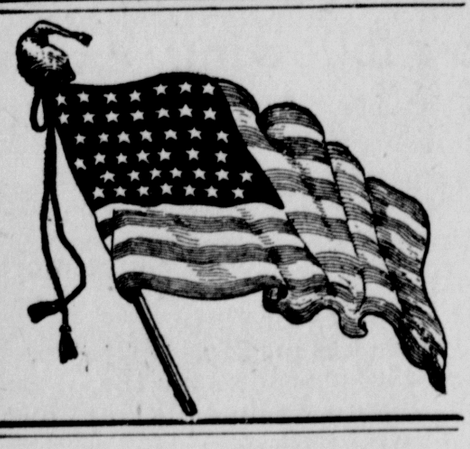
One Year in Advance.....$5 00
Three Months.....1 25
By the Week.....10

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 31.

UNION LABEL — TYPOGRAPHICAL — EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, No. 44

UNION PAPERS.

All Union papers of East Liverpool are known to the various craft and unions of the city by the printing of the above Union Label at the head of their columns.



IF Colonel Roosevelt wants to be governor of New York, the chap who represents the other side will seldom be heard of during the campaign.

WHEN Colonel Hard finds it necessary to state his position through the newspapers, he must realize the strength of the criticism to which he is being subjected.

EVEN the political enemies of President McKinley do not accuse him of being in any way responsible for the sickness in the army. The ineficiency, primarily the cause of the trouble, is below the President. Some day the real cause will be known, and his name will be as it is today far beyond even the range of suspicion.

WHILE President McKinley and party were at the railway station in Greensburg the other day, the President noticed a soldier in the crowd. Summoning him to his side the President greeted him warmly, while Mrs. McKinley placed in his hand a bunch of roses. When rulers do those things in Europe they are recorded in history.

CUT THE TAPE.

While system and order and official dignity are probably necessary for the transaction of the business of a nation so great and powerful as this has grown to be, there are times when the people will cheer the man who cuts the red tape which prevents his doing good and for the time makes regulations of his own. There have been such occasions within the past few weeks, and the people are glad that the right man was there to take upon himself the responsibility. But there have also been occasions when the right man did not appear.

It is related that a hospital train, filled with soldiers from Camp Thomas, entered Cleveland. The good people of that hospitable place had prepared all manner of delicacies for the men who had endangered their lives for the Stars and Stripes. They expected to see suffering, but they did not expect so many soldiers almost within the clasp of death. They besought the officer in charge to allow the removal of those most critically ill to the hospitals, but he turned to them a deaf ear. Then they pleaded and brought great men of the city to add their entreaties, but without avail. He had but one answer. His orders were to take those men through, and he would take them dead or alive, he probably meant, but he evidently had sufficient thought for his own well preserved frame to say nothing. Consequently the train went through and the men continued to suffer. There was one man who did not rise above the height of a piece of red tape.

Perhaps there are other men of his training in the army. If there are, and who is there to doubt it, it is probable much of the suffering at Santiago and in the camps of this country can be traced to them. They knew no higher sentiment, recognized no greater position than that which compelled them to follow the lines laid down. The country recognizes the soldier's devotion to duty, and willingly cheers him when he too sees it, but it cannot appreciate the presence of blockheads who know not the use of common sense.

S. A. CAMP MEETING

at Spring Grove opens next Sunday, 4th.

COUNCIL OF WAR

How One Was Held Far Out In the Pacific.

COMMANDERS WERE TOGETHER

They Were Cordially Received by General Green and Arrangements Made to Resist Any Attack the Spanish Might Make—Colonel Hawkins Slept Outside Encampment Limits—Two More Burials. Church Services on Board—Continuation of Captain Palmer's Letter.

Another death and burial at sea this morning. Chief Musician Wise, of the First Colorado United States volunteers, was today consigned to his resting place in the waters of the Pacific, there to await roll call at the hands of the Great Commander. The remains were buried with the honors of war. Pneumonia was the cause of death. God grant comfort to his loved ones at home.

Boatswain Chris Nelson is a firm believer in the adage that "cleanliness is akin to Godliness," and he now has numerous converts to his belief. At 5:30 each morning the brawny boatswain, backed by a corps of assistants, engage in thoroughly washing down the decks, driving all filth and uncleanness into the sea, and thus prevent disease and death. The clever boatswain has kindly consented to give all comers a splendid salt water bath each morning, free of charge, in case they will rise with the lark and seek the forward part of the vessel. This offer has been gladly accepted by a large number, among them the writer, and he can testify that the baths are highly beneficial. Nelson takes especial pains to give me a benefit, and the stream of water from the hose, striking one upon the body with full force, almost floors the recipient, much to the enjoyment of the jolly Jack tars. And here let me say a few words of commendation for the ship's crew of the Zealandia. From captain down I have been accorded the most courteous treatment, and I shall ever carry one and all on the bright side of my ledger of life's experience.

Wednesday, July 6. Drilled a squad of officers in the "exercises" on the hurricane deck at a very early hour this morning. All of the participants, among them Chaplain Hunter, expressed themselves as highly pleased with the health movements, and pronounced them very beneficial, especially so under existing circumstances. Head Steward Seeley and Chief Engineer Keller also took part. Prayer meeting every morning on the hurricane deck, at 6 o'clock, led by the chaplain. Much interest manifested, and good is evidently being accomplished. Some of the attendants are participants in leading in prayer, while all are deeply interested listeners.

Rumored this morning that a strange sail had made its appearance in the distance, and the old story of a wandering Spanish gunboat was revived. Investigation at headquarters demonstrated the fact that the rumor was a false one, gotten up by some practical joker and industriously circulated. At 8:15 a. m., the China signaled "halt," and the other three vessels were ordered by General Green to range alongside the flagship. Then the commanders of the troops in the three vessels took seats in the small boats and were soon standing in the presence of the commander of the expedition, at whose hands they received royal greeting, and they are warm in his praises. A council of war was held and the various commanders of vessels were made acquainted with the fact that there was a possibility of attack by a small Spanish gunboat, and that it had been determined by the commander of the expedition not to submit tamely to capture and imprisonment in Spanish hands, but to offer stout resistance and endeavor to run down the assailant. Consultation demonstrated the fact that the subordinate officers coincided with this plan of procedure, and then the China steamed to the front, gaining a lead of some miles, when she halted and indulged in artillery practice, the gunners doing very satisfactory work.

Thursday, July 7. The regimental commanders remained all night on the China, and were accorded hearty greeting the next day when they came on board, Colonel Hawkins remarking to your correspondent: "Well, sergeant, I've been bowled over at last. I've been regimental commander of the Tenth for almost 20 years, and have made it my boast that in all that time I have never slept outside the encampment limits. But they floored me on this occasion, as the fences were not of a nature permitting me to cross lots." The colonel reports that duty is much more arduous on board the China than upon the Zealandia. The machine upon the China for manufacturing ice was broken yesterday, and the consequence was that there was not a particle of ice on our sister vessel. This was a very sad loss to the sick on board, especially in one very severe case of appendicitis. As soon as Colonel Hawkins reached the deck of his own ship he interviewed the captain and the head steward, and the returning small boat carried back a bag of ice.

July 8. Distant 320 miles from Guam island. Expect to see land by noon tomorrow, in case we continue upon our present course, and to be near Guem island tomorrow night, with the possibility of running in on Sunday morning. We know not what awaits us, fighting or a peaceful reception; but we are ready for emergencies, with arms and accoutrements in first-class condition and ammunition in readiness for immediate issue. The officers have received orders to charge their revolvers. Many of the men will receive their maiden fire in case of a struggle, while there are a number of old veterans on board who have faced the music of battle on more than one occasion. I firmly believe the lads will give good account of themselves in the hour of trial. Our artillerymen on the Zealandia were given an opportunity to practice today, and the fire of the Maxims was exceptionally fine.

July 9. Inspection of arms this morning; muskets found in good condition, with but few exceptions, and these exceptions will be remedied at once. About noon we sighted Rota, or Broken island, on our right or starboard side. A natural formation and looks very much like a fort or fortification, but we are assured by sailors that no fortification made by man exists there. At 3:30 we sight Guam on our left or port side. The officers have not decided whether they will run in or not. No sight of the cruiser Charleston. Rumor has it that if a convoy awaits us, we will make but a brief halt at Guam; but if not, then we will land, fortify and take possession peaceably or otherwise and await the coming of a war vessel from Dewey's fleet. Weather simply delightful and a glorious breeze prevailing. Five minutes of 5 p. m. and the expedition halted and laying to about two and one-half miles off Guam island. All flags at half mast, as the news comes to us that someone has passed from time into eternity on board the Colon. As I write three volleys of musketry ring out, and this assures me that another soldier boy has gone to his reward. He will answer to the Master. God grant that his record may be right by and through the mercy of Him who hath loved us and given Himself for us. Death has now claimed victims on all three vessels of this expedition. How long will it be before he makes a claim upon some comrade on board the Zealandia? May the Giver of all good gifts spare the dear ones at home and give the boys on this steamer time and inclination and earnest desire to prepare for the inevitable. Have just ascertained the name of the deceased. Private Maddox, of the 18th regulars; cause appendicitis. The echo of the last volley fired over the remains had scarcely died away when the signal to steam forward was given, and we are now under full headway in order to seek safe anchorage on the west side of Guam island ere night closes in upon us. The China forges rapidly to the front, and we note her passing around a promontory well in advance, with the prow pointing directly in shore. The next instant there comes a flame of fire from the muzzle of one of her guns, and the first thought of almost everyone on board the Zealandia is that danger and battle awaits us. But this thought vanishes in midair as a cheery voice on the hurricane deck rings out: "Sundown; there she goes!" Immediately afterward the China turns squarely about and heads out for sea and deeper waters, and she is soon ranged alongside the other vessels and signalling "halt" and then "assemble." Whistles toot and signals wave and in a few minutes we are away once more, hunting for Mr. Dewey and Manila. Rumor now has it that our commander discovered fortifications on Guam, as the China went close in, and that he concluded that, as he had lost no fortifications he didn't want to find any, and so bade Guam and her earthworks goodbye, with the promise to return in the sweet afterwhile with fortification searchers, in the shape of Dewey's ten inch pets.

Sunday July 10. Vessels forging ahead as if they were living, breathing, thinking machines, eager to reach Manila and the comrades awaiting us. The boys seem to appreciate the fact that we are approaching the end of our long and monotonous sea voyage and there is corresponding elation and jubilation. The understanding now is that we will reach Manila not later than next Saturday, God willing. Prayer meeting at 6 o'clock this morning, with nice attendance; then came the health exercises; and now, as I write, the drums and fifes are making merry music on the hurricane deck, while the first sergeants of the various companies are reporting their details for guard duty for the next 24 hours. Have just ascertained from reliable source, the information that General Green had orders to run in close to Gaum island and ascertain if a convoy awaited him at San Luis D'Apra, where a small fort has existed for many years with six pounders of an antiquated type erected there on. Discovering no convoy or vessel of any character, General Green obeyed orders and pulled out for Manila. Church services as usual with prayer meeting and Bible class. Companies A and B will be permitted to sleep on the hurricane deck tonight and enjoy the delicious sea breeze.

TO BE CONTINUED TOMORROW.

TO RULE RETAIL CLERKS.

Officers Have Been Elected For Another Term.

The Clerks union at their last meeting elected the following officers. They will be installed at the next meeting:

President, C. C. Beymer; vice president, Miss Grace Ogilvie; first vice president, Miss Jennie Rowe; second vice president, Miss Blanche Plankinton; secretary, Miss Nellie Lloyd; financial secretary, John Anderson; treasurer, Charles Bence; guide, Harry Sutton; guardian, Charles Gray.

It was reported that a few business houses were employing non-union clerks, and a committee were appointed to investigate the matter and report at the next meeting.

Did Not Lose an Eye.

Carl, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Peterson, of Second street, who was badly burned about the face several weeks ago with vitrol, has recovered entirely. His eyes are as good as before the occurrance. His parents thought he was going to lose the sight of one of them.

Lost Part of a Finger.

Jack Robinson, a kilnhand at the Goodwin pottery, mashed one of the fingers of his left hand so badly yesterday afternoon that he will lose a part of it. Although the injury was very painful, he was able to continue his work.

Vacation Joys.

Vacation Joys
For girls and boys
So often poor
Mamma annoys.

ONE of the annoyances is unquestionably the cost of Footwear—to keep them well shod at all times—which, however, can be greatly diminished by taking advantage of our Clearance Sale Offerings. The next week will be boys' and girls' week at our store, during which time we will offer such immense bargains in boys' and girls' shoes that you can neither let them go 'round in dilapidated shoes, nor can afford to stay away from our store.

We quote a few prices for example:

Children's Tan Shoes,
with spring heels, sizes 5 to 8, were 65c, and are now..... 39c

Same sizes in our 75c and 85c quality, are now..... 55c

Children's Tan and Oxblood Shoes
Sizes 8½ to 11, were $1.25 and $1.00, and are now..... 75c

Girls' Tan, Button and Lace Shoes
Sizes 12 to 2, were $1.50 and $1.25, and are now..... 75c

Boys' Tan Shoes,
Heel and spring heel, were $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, and $1.75, and are now..... 75c, 98c, and $1.25

P. S.—We are still selling women's $3 tan shoes, kid and vesting tops for $1.98 a pair.

Bendheim's.

EVERY WOMAN

Sometimes needs a reliable, monthly, regulating medicine. Only harmless and the purest drugs should be used. If you want the best, get

Dr. Peal's Pennyroyal Pills

They are prompt, safe and certain in result. The genuine (Dr. Peal's) never disappoint. Sent anywhere, $1.00. Address PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O.

For sale by Clarence G. Anderson, East Liverpool.

FOR RENT.

FOR RENT—Furnished room. Inquire 206 Fifth street.

FOR RENT—Furnished room and boarding for two gentlemen. Apply to Mrs. P. R. Knowles, corner Cook and Broadway.

BIG BARGAINS. BARGAINS AND BARGAINS,

For this Week Only.

We are still going to sell flour at 53c per sack.
Fresh country butter 18c per pound.
Strictly fresh eggs 15c per doz.
Matches, 9c per doz. boxes.
Coffee 10c per pound.
All kinds of smoked meats at 10c per pound.

Give Us a Call.

Don't forget the place.

Pittsburg Grocery
Cor. Second and Washington Sts.

Headquarters for Poultry.

Look out for next week's ad.

	PRICE.
Business property on Sixth Street...	$2,800
Residence property on Fifth Street...	2,800
An 8 room dwelling at.....	1,500
An 8 room dwellin on Third St....	1,500

Call and see our list of choice properties at prices to suit all.

Geo. H. Owen & Co.,
General Insurance and Real Estate Agency.
First National Bank Building.

Miss Lucile Virginia Reed,
ELOCUTION
and Instrumental Music
In connection with Ohio Valley Business College. For terms call on Prof. J. F. Cooper.

ONE MAN IN BED

Other Returned Soldiers Are Far From Well,

ALTHOUGH NONE WILL DIE

From the Disease Contracted While Campaigning—Doctor Hobbs Relates His Experiences at Montauk, and Says the Boys In the General Hospital Will Receive the Best Care Possible.

The scenes of yesterday were re-enacted this morning at the depot when 13 more members of Company E arrived in the city in charge of Dr. W. A. Hobbs.

The party was composed of Sergeant Purinton, Corporal Albright and Privates Reynolds, Cox, McIntosh, Haden, Smith, Carnahan, Hoyt, Reneker, Headley, Campbell and Sweitzer of Company E, and Privates Miller and Hudson, of Company K.

They were met at Pittsburg by J. J. Purinton, who accompanied them to the city. When they reached the depot a large crowd had gathered and a great deal of difficulty was experienced in getting them to their carriages and thence to their homes.

Private Sweitzer is very ill and was unable to walk when he arrived. He was assisted to the ambulance and taken to the home of his brother in Fifth street where he is suffering with typhoid malaria. His mother resides at Moundsville, and will be here soon to nurse her son.

The remainder of the boys are all very weak and present a much more worn out appearance than the party which arrived yesterday. They were almost all taken from the detention hospital by Doctor Hobbs and it is due to his efforts that they were granted furloughs. Private Sweitzer is the only member of the party who is seriously ill,and had he been in the general hospital Doctor Hobbs would not have brought him home but was afraid the patient would not live if left in the quarantine hospital. With the proper treatment it is thought he will recover.

Doctor Hobbs when seen this morning said: "We had a hard time getting to the train as the streets of New York were packed with people. We met with a hearty reception wherever it became known the soldiers were on the train.

"There is not a member of the company who is feeling good, but they are not all ill. Sergeant Hanley is still on duty, but has chills at intervals. Sixty-day furloughs were procured for Sergeant Trump and Private Beatty, but they were not able to travel when our party left. They are both ill with malaria and have a slight trace of typhoid fever, but are confined to the general hospital and are receiving the best of treatment, and could not have better care if they were at home.

"There is no use sending anybody to New York to look after the boys, as they are getting every attention possible and receiving the best of care. The only thing a person can do for them is to secure them furloughs and bring them home. I think the company will all be home within two weeks."

SOON AS POSSIBLE

The Eighth Ohio Will, According to Secretary Alger, Be Sent Home.

Hon. G. P. Ikirt this morning sent the following telegram to Secretary R. A. Alger:

"Eighth Ohio from Santiago on board Mohawk seem to have few well men. Can not regiment be furloughed without delay?

G. P. IKIRT."

He received the following reply in a short time:

"The Eighth Ohio will be sent home as soon as possible. I was present when the entire regiment marched off the ship, and every man took a large sandwich and a quantity of milk upon debarkation, so of course your information as to the deplorable condition of the men is incorrect.

R. A. ALGER,
Secretary of War."

According to the statement of parties who were at Montauk Point, Secretary Alger saw only the well men leave the ship.

DISCUSSING IT.

Doctor Hobbs May Again Be Sent to Camp Wikoff.

The Red Cross society met last evening at the parish building of St. Stephen's church, and appointed a committee to meet with the citizens' committee for the purpose of deciding on the advisability of sending a man to Montauk Point to look after the wants of Company E and secure furloughs for all those who are able to come home.

The committee are this afternoon discussing the advisability of sending Doctor Hobbs to New York, but at the time of going to press have not reached a decision.

Royal makes the food pure, wholesome and delicious.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

THE OLIVETTE

Sank This Morning at Fernandina and No One Knows the Reason at Present.

FERNANDINA, FLA., Aug. 31.—(Special).—The hospital ship Olivette anchored near quarantine here and sank this morning. The cause of the accident at present unknown. The hospital corps and the crew were on board when the boat went down, but they all escaped without injury.

An investigation will be instituted at once.

HOMEWARD BOUND.

Vessels of the Navy Have Sailed From Porto Rico.

PONCE, PORTO RICO, Aug. 4.—[Special]—The monitors Puriton, Amphitrite, Terror and the Montgomery sailed this morning for Newport, R. I.

MORE MONEY.

New Contributions For the Relief of Soldiers.

The funds which will be used in caring for Company E are coming in rapidly, and the committee have now received the following amounts: Previously reported, $195.75; Cartwright Bros. and employes, $31.90; Junior American Mechanics, $25; Ohio Valley Gas company, $10; Vodrey pottery and employes, $31.50; Laughlin pottery and employes, $22.50. Total, $316.65.

There are still many potteries to hear from, and the fund will undoubtedly go over $500.

In addition to the amount turned into the committee, the soliciting committee, who have not near completed their work, have collected almost $100.

NEED MONEY.

The Soldiers Friend Cannot Now Do Its Duty.

A meeting of the Soldiers Friend society has been called for this evening at Grand Army hall for the purpose of discussing the situation.

The society was organized for the purpose of looking after the families of Company E, and has done good work. Its funds, however, are about exausted, and little more can be done. In addition to its regular work, the society feels it could do much toward helping those sick soldiers who need help.

Bicycle Policeman's Achievement.

While playing with some other boys at One Hundred and Fourth street and Second avenue, New York, the other morning Leo Starzky, 13 years old, of 2033 Second avenue was bitten by a large, black dog owned by Henry Boker of 1885 Third avenue. Young Starzky's left hand was badly lacerated.

Bicycle Policeman Fogarty placed the little fellow in front of him on his wheel and scorched to the Harlem hospital, where the boy's wounds were cauterized. The surgeons there stated that Fogarty's prompt action had probably saved the boy from lockjaw.

At Spring Grove.

Miss Ella West last evening very pleasantly entertained a few friends at the campground.

C. R. Arnold and family yesterday moved to Wellsville from the ground.

LABOR DAY.

Spend it at the Salvation Army camp meeting at Spring Grove.

THE JURY IS STILL OUT

No Decision In the Condemnation Case.

SEVERAL SUITS POSTPONED

It Is Possible They Will Never Come Up Again For Efforts Looking to a Settlement Are Being Made—An Expensive Case.

LISBON, Aug. 31.—[Special]—After hearing the testimony in the case of Liverpool against the Cleveland and Pittsburg yesterday afternoon the jury was dismissed until this morning. Testimony was taken in the cases against J. M. Aten, Old Roman company and W. E. Curry. The case against Burford Bros. was settled, the city paying $1. The case against G. C. Peterson, who owns tract 8, was dismissed, as the sewer line may be changed at that point. The cases against the railroad, Golding Sons company and Thomas Starkey were continued three weeks. As the city may reach an amicable settlement, the cases may never come up. All witnesses were allowed to go home.

When court convened this morning the attorneys proceeded to argue, occupying two hours. After Judge Boone had given the jury his charge, the jury retired.

The jury at this hour has not reached a conclusion, and is still out. The fees of jurors and their other expenses to the present amount to $106.70.

Why He Failed.

A Wellington Chinese trader known as William Joe Gett, formerly a Chinese interpreter, failed some time ago. Here is an extract from his "statement of the causes of bankruptcy," which, written in red ink, covered four pages of foolscap. After detailing his trading experiences the Celestial writes:—

"I see my troubles endless to come. I can't get my money to pay. I am helpless. During last three years over 36 creditors support my business. During last two months not a one let me have a penny on tick. Fish never can live in a dry pond without water. Engine can't move along without well supply of coal. Boy can't fly his kite without tail on it. Housekeeper pour out all tea to the cup no refilled water—how she give you more tea you require? All empty out just the way like my business."—Sydney Mail.

Labor Day Excursion to New Brighton.

Monday Sept. 5 one fare for round trip from Wellsville and intermediate ticket stations; good returning same day only. *

PERSONAL MENTION.

—W. W. Hole, of Salem was in the city to day attending to some important business.

—Charles Brownfield, who has been spending several days in Scottdale visiting relatives, has returned to the city.

—Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Watson, of Sixth street, who have been visiting in the east, returned to the city last evening.

—Enoch Elden, of this city, after remaining several weeks in the east, including Atlantic City, has returned home.

—Miss Mattie Lowe, of Fifth street, left this morning for Steubenville where she will remain several days visiting friends.

—Mrs. F. A. Leonard, who has been several months at New Florence, Pa., has returned to her home in West Market street.

—Doctor and Mrs. A. B. Marshall left today for Wooster, where they will spend tomorrow. They will leave Friday for their home in Des Moines.

—Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, of Basil avenue, who have been spending several weeks at Mackinac, have returned to the city. Mrs. Johnson made the trip in search of health.

Opening of the

NEW GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

J. A. NORRIS, Manager.

One Solid Week Commencing

Monday, Aug. 29.

JAMES DURKIN

And his company, presenting a modern repertoire of plays at popular prices. Monday evening the sensational comedy drama

"An American Hero."

Magnificent Scenery.
Startling Mechanical effects.
Vaudeville features.

Kleeney & Stockdale,
The Musical Artists.

Neva Carlotta,
Premier Danseuse.

Wilfred V. Lucas,
Baritone, Stereopticon and Illustrated Songs.

Monday, Ladies' night. Seats on sale at Reed's Drug Store.

ADMISSION: 10c, 20c, 30c.

OUR PICTURE SALE

Is now going on. The prices for framed pictures are lower than the frames would cost regularly.

There are all kinds at all prices from 28c upward.

THE TIME OF YEAR

has arrived to arrange your house for fall and winter.

As the long evenings approach you want an inviting house for yourself and family.

We have anticipated your wants and have just what you need.

No matter what room you want a floor covering for, we have it.

LINOLEUMS AND OIL CLOTHS FOR KITCHEN at 15c per yard up.

INGRAIN AND HEMP CARPETS FOR BED ROOMS from 12½c yd. up.

SITTING AND DINING ROOM CARPETS IN ALL THE POPULAR KINDS.

AND FOR YOUR PARLOR OUR LINE OF BRUSSELS IS THE LOWEST WE HAVE EVER SHOWN.

WE CAN GIVE YOU ELEGANT VELVETS at 70c per yard.

YOUR WINDOWS

will also need some attention, and we pride ourselves on our complete

Shade and Lace Curtain Department.

We can give you just what you need to make your windows the "correct thing."

PORTIERES

are also in this department, and as nothing in your house so much shows your taste as the decorations, you should have the proper colors and designs to go with your carpets, and the proper place to get them is right here.

THERE IS ANOTHER FEATURE

of the Big Store that pleases people, Namely: We furnish your home and let you pay for it as you can. This is convenient, as you will find if you try it.

CREDIT SYSTEM

THE S. G. HARD CO

THE BIG STORE

COLLECTED MUCH MONEY

But It Was Soon Sent Out by the Auditor.

LIVERPOOL GETS ITS SHARE

Thousands of Dollars Are Returned to the City From Lisbon After the Semi-annual Settlement—How the Money Is Distributed In the County.

LISBON, Aug. 31.[Special]—Deputy Auditor Frank Adams has completed the semi-annual settlement with the county treasurer. The amount that each township receives for township, road and school is indicated as follows:

Liverpool, $2,356.31: St. Clair, $1,590.13; Middleton, $2,712.77; Unity, $964.92; Yellow Creek, $1,533.81; Madison, $589.18; Elk Run, $1,320.75; Fairfield, $2,085.68; Washington, $1,052.81; Wayne, $1,356.40; Center, $2,089; Salem, $3,313.02; Franklin, $1,097.85; Hanover, $2,031.74; Butler, $2,022.95; Perry, $1,695.15; West $2,916.25; Knox, $2,304.71.

Total received by townships exclusive of school funds is $11,343.33. The total school fund is $83,640.25.

The corporations receive the following: Liverpool, $21,684.11; Rogers, $1,777.21; Palestine, 3,188.45; Wellsville, $11,541.56; Columbiana, $4,079.40; Salineville, $2,768.80; Lisbon, $6,123.01; Washingtonville, $334.65; Leetonia, $4,942.20; Hanover $191.73; Salem, $14,191.55; total $69,222.67.

The county retains $56,690.37, divided as follows: County fund, $24,894.70; poor, $11,133.40; bridge, $11,121,15; building, $1,123.12; soldiers' relief, $1,106.60; children's home, $3,332.72; refunder, $1,297.84; treasurer's fees, $1,964.72; interest and bond redemption, $561.54.

The total amount of taxes collected was $244,217.33.

FELL OFF A CAR.

Mr. Green Was Groaning When Passengers Picked Him Up.

Early last evening as street cars passed the Lythe switch the passengers on the east bound car in charge of George Hale, saw a man fall from the rear platform of the west bound car and alight on his head.

The car was stopped, and a number of the passengers went back where they found the man laying on the rails groaning at a great rate. He was assisted to his feet and an examination made and it was found he was a great deal more frightened than hurt. His name is Green and he lives in this city.

DUTCH ZOELLARS SHOT.

That Is the Report Which Comes From Down the River.

Word received in the city yesterday stated that Dutch Zoellars, who is well known here, had been shot in a quarrel at Springtown, W. Va., a small village about 12 miles from Sistersville.

No particulars were given, except the fact that Zoellars had been shot three times and was in a dangerous condition. An effort is now being made to ascertain the truth of the report.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The Ladies Will Discuss the Situation.

Mrs. Calhoun, president of the Hospital association, has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon at the Young Men's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

All members of the association and all other ladies interested in the hospital project are earnestly requested to be present.

Mercer Will Improve.

"Winnie Mercer's batting is bound to improve" says Jimmy McGuire. "He has been relieved of the responsibility of pitching and can apply both his eye and mind to the ball."

McGuire is the first catcher Mercer ever pitched to, and is probably better able to judge our own Winnie than any man in the league.

Excursions to Steubenville.

Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, the Pennsylvania company will sell low rate excursion tickets to Steubenville from East Liverpool for the races; return coupons good Saturday, Sept. 3, inclusive. *

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceler. Leave your order at once.

HEAR SEC. SULLY

on "Job" Sunday afternoon at Spring Grove.

RHYME OF RHYMES.

Wild on the mountain peak the wind
Repeats its old refrain,
Like ghosts of mortals who have sinned
And fain would sin again.

For "wind" I do not rhyme to "mind,"
Like many mortal men.
"Again" (when one reflects) 'twere kind
To rhyme as if "agen."

I never met a single soul
Who spoke of "wind" as "wined,"
And yet we use it, on the whole,
To rhyme to "find" and "blind."

We say, "Now don't do that agen,"
When people give us pain.
In poetry, nine times in ten,
It rhymes to "Spain" or "Dane."

Oh, which is wrong or which is right?
Oh, which is right or wrong?
The sound in prose familiar quite
Or those we meet in song?

To hold that "love" can rhyme to "prove"
Requires some force of will,
Yet in the ancient lyric groove
We meet them rhyming still.

This was our learned fathers' wont
In prehistoric times.
We follow it, or if we don't
We oft run short of rhymes.
—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

DICK'S GOOD TIME.

A Very Human Boy Enjoying His Well Earned Reward.

A portly gentleman sat on the porch and smiled while a small boy, also smiling, painted the front fence.

"Look at that boy," the portly man remarked to a visitor. "He thinks he is having a good time. A small boy is surely the drollest creature on earth. When I was a youngster, I remember that there were certain kinds of work I considered play, and one of them was painting. I was always crazy to paint. Many times I have taken a bucket of muddy water and an old paint brush and have spent a whole half day putting a thick coat on the side of my father's barn.

"So with my boy Dick, the little chap painting the fence. He has always been crazy to paint. He is enjoying himself now—you can see he is, and he will paint that whole fence, too, just as well as he knows how. I don't care if it is a trifle smeared. He's getting joy, solid joy, thicker than the paint on his hands and clothes.

"There's a mean side to it too. He wanted to paint the fence, and I wanted the weeds pulled out of the yard. So, like an underhanded rascal, I bargained with him. I told him that if he would pull all the weeds out I would let him paint the fence. He went through the other job like a soldier—he hates to pull weeds; all boys do—and now he thinks he is getting his reward. It is a downright shame to fool him that way, don't you think so?"

The portly gentleman chuckled again, and the small boy, wild with joy, went on plastering paint on the fence.—Detroit Free Press.

Crossing the Threshold.

Crossing the threshold was and is the most critical period of the wedding day with all races, not even excepting the Anglo-Saxon.

The superstitious fears of the many, always particularly alert on the occasion of a marriage, culminate in this final act of the drama. The lifting of the bride over the threshold or her stepping across it is the signal in Persia, Arabia and among the Copts of Egypt for the sacrifice of a goat or a sheep. Among the Aenezes, according to Burckhardt, the bridegroom simply kills a lamb in front of his father-in-law's tent, and the ceremony, but for the running of the bride from one tent to another, is complete. Perhaps the purest symbolical act is that of the Transylvanian Saxon bridal pair, who step over the threshold with their hands tied together. Some of these Transylvanian customs are remarkable and must be survivals from a very ancient period. The bridegroom never wears the shirt made for him by the bride except on his wedding day and at his burial, just as the veil of the Japanese bride becomes one day her shroud.—London Spectator.

Dickens In Evening Dress.

When Charles Dickens was to make his first appearance in Boston before an American audience as a reader, an immense crowd awaited him. The enthusiasm of the people for the most popular novelist then living had risen to fever heat. One of the most ardent of his admirers afterward told this little incident of the evening:

"With a few gentlemen who wished to welcome and show him attention I was in the little room at the back of the platform when Dickens entered it. He was a rather stout man with a somewhat red face, and I saw to my surprise, that he was dressed in an exaggerated servility to the extreme fashion.

"More than this, he wore a boutonniere in each buttonhole, and two watches, the chains of which were strung aggressively across his chest. There was a gaudy bad taste in his appearance which his friends regretted, knowing how distasteful it would be to most of his admirers who appreciated his genius and enjoyed his writings.

"No one, of course, could broach the subject to him, and he appeared that night and every other night of his engagement in the same attire. The universal comment was, 'Why, this is a petit maitre.' How can a man with such tastes be the creator of Tiny Tim and Sam Weller!"—Youth's Companion.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of

GAME PLAQUES

exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant,
English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION

packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER

to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

REDUCED FARES

To Various Points via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines as indicated in the following paragraphs. Although concessions in fare are authorized for meetings of certain Orders, tickets may be obtained by any person whether a member of the order or interested in the event. The reduced rates will be open to everybody.

To Cincinnati, Ohio.--September 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, for the G. A. R. National Encampment. Good returning until Septembr 13th, with privilege of extension until October 2d.

To Pittsburg, Pa.—October 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good returning until October 17th, account Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. Return limit may be extended until October 31st.

During the excursion season special rates will also be in effect via Pennsylvania Lines for special and local events. For particular information please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer In Colorado.

Colorado is particularly inviting as a summer haven. The climate is remarkable for its invigorating effect, and the state is rich in grand scenery and points of interest where a vacation may be pleasantly spent. Special arrangements are being made for the entertainment of visitors who are this season expected to be attracted to the seclusion and quiet of the Rockies and the hills and canyons of that great wonderland.

Colorado today is nearer home than in former years. The fast schedules of the Pennsylvania route and connecting lines bring the centennial state within easy reach, and the cost of a trip thither is no longer a luxury. The special low rate tourist tickets over the Pennsylvania lines places the cost for transportation within the limit of the usual allowance for vacation trips. For special information about rates, time of trains and other details please apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, D. P. agt., Pittsburg, Pa. *

Excursion via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Traverse City, Petoskey and Mackinac Island, the most popular resorts in Northern Michigan, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines, Tuesday, Sept. 6th. The round trip rate from East Liverpool will be $10 to Petoskey or Traverse City, and $11 to Mackinac Island. Tickets will be good going on regular trains on the dates specified and good returning 30 days. For special information on the subject apply to Ticket Agent Adam Hill at East Liverpool, O. *

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the ocean, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent, or address your requests to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa

Take Your Choice.

An excursion to those popular northern Michigan resorts will run via Pennsylvania lines Tuesday, Sept. 6th. See Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, about it. *

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div.
Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains-Central Time

Westward.	335 AM	337 PM	339 PM	341 PM	359 AM
Pittsburgh ...lv.	†5 45	†1 30	†4 30	*11 00	†7 30
Rochester.....“	6 40	2 15	5 25	11 50	8 25
Beaver.....“	6 45	2 20	5 33	11 55	8 30
Vanport.....“	6 50	.....	5 38	11 59	8 34
Industry.....“	7 00	.....	5 50	12 10	8 44
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 03	.....	5 55	12 11	f8 48
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 11	2 40	6 04	12 20	8 55
East Liverpool...“	7 20	2 49	6 14	12 30	9 05
Wellsville.....ar.	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop..“	7 46	.....		12 50
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52	.....		12 55
Hammondsville“	8 01			f1 03
Irondale.....“	8 06	3 22		f1 06
Salineville.....“	8 25	3 38		1 27
Bayard.....“	9 09	4 10		2 05
Alliance.....{ar.	9 40	4 33		2 30
Alliance.....{lv	10 05	4 38		2 35
Ravenna.....“	10 40	5 06		3 10
Hudson.....“	11 02	5 25		3 30
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville.....lv.	7 47	3 10	6 55	†5 55	†11 02
Wellsville Shop..“	7 52	3 13	6 58	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek.....“	7 57	3 18	7 04	6 05	11 10
Port Homer.....“	f8 03	3 23	7 09	f6 09
Empire.....“	8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville.....“	8 17	3 33	7 18	6 21	11 23
Toronto.....“	8 21	3 38	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia.....“	f8 28	f3 43	f7 30	6 37
Steubenville...{ar.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Steubenville...{lv.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Mingo Jc.....“	8 51	4 07	7 53	7 05	11 53
Brilliant.....“	8 58	4 14	8 00	7 14	12 01
Rush Run.....“	9 07	4 23	8 09	7 24	12 10
Portland.....“	9 14	4 30	8 15	7 30	12 16
Yorkville.....“	f9 19	f4 35	8 20	7 37	12 21
Martins Ferry...“	9 32	4 45	8 28	7 52	12 28
Bridgeport.....“	9 40	4 50	8 35	7 58	12 35
Bellaire.....ar.	9 50	5 05	8 45	8 10	12 45
	AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

Through Coaches on Trains 336, 359, 337 and 360 between Cleveland and Bellaire.

Eastward.	340 AM	336 AM	338 PM	360 PM	48 PM
Bellaire.....lv.	†4 45	†9 00	†4 45	†1 00	†2 45
Bridgeport.....“	4 53	9 09	4 54	1 10	f2 55
Martins Ferry...“	5 01	9 15	5 02	1 16	3 02
Yorkville.....“	f5 10	.....	5 12		f3 12
Portland.....“	5 15	9 28	5 19	1 28	3 17
Rush Run.....“	5 20	9 33	5 24		f3 22
Brilliant.....“	5 28	9 41	5 34	1 42	3 31
Mingo Jc.....“	5 35	9 48	5 41	1 50	3 38
Steubenville...{ar.	5 44	9 56	5 50	1 58	3 47
Steubenville...{lv.	5 44	9 56	5 50	1 58	f4 15
Costonia.....“	f6 00	10 12			f4 30
Toronto.....“	6 07	10 17	6 11	2 19	f4 36
Elliottsville.....“	6 11	10 19			f4 40
Empire.....“	6 13	10 27	6 21	2 27	f4 44
Port Homer.....“	f6 20	10 31			f4 51
Yellow Creek.....“	6 26	10 37	6 33		4 57
Wellsville Shop..“	6 31	10 42	6 38		5 02
Wellsville.....ar.	6 35	10 50	6 41	2 45	5 06
Wellsville.....lv.	7 42			3 05
Wellsville Shop..“	7 46
Yellow Creek.....“	7 52
Hammondsville“	8 01
Irondale.....“	8 06
Salineville.....“	8 25
Bayard.....“	9 09
Alliance.....{ar.	9 40
Alliance.....{lv.	10 05
Ravenna.....“	10 40
Hudson.....“	11 02
Cleveland.....ar.	12 10
Wellsville.....lv.	6 45	10 57	6 51	3 10	*3 50
East Liverpool...“	6 57	11 07	7 03	3 20	4 01
Smiths Ferry.....“	7 07	11 18	7 08	3 30	4 12
Cooks Ferry.....“	7 20	11 24		f3 38	f4 20
Industry.....“	7 25	11 30	7 22	3 42	4 25
Vanport.....“	7 34	11 40		3 53	f4 35
Beaver.....“	7 40	11 45	7 36	3 58	4 40
Rochester.....“	7 50	11 50	7 42	4 12	4 45
Pittsburgh...ar.	8 50	12 40	8 30	5 10	5 40
	AM	PM	PM	PM	AM

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.

Nos. 338 and 343 connect in Union Station, Pitts., with thro' trains East.

†Daily except Sunday. *Daily. |Meals.

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager. E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

6-28-98.-H PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

Is Your Head Clear? Do you feel a boundless energy in your blood? You can have these and renewed vitality by taking a dose of Paragon Tea before retiring. Constipation Cured. 25 cents for one months treatment. All druggists. Send 2 cent stamp for sample. S. B. FELL & CO. Cleveland, O.

UNION LABELS.

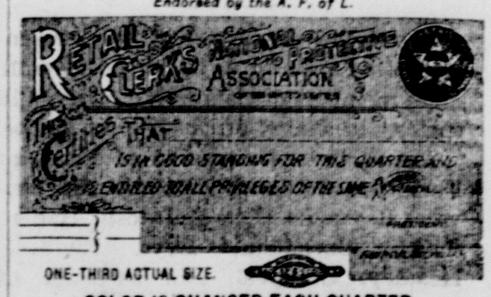
It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

Endorsed by the A. F. of L.

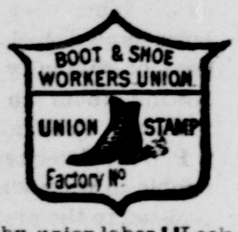


ONE-THIRD ACTUAL SIZE.

COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.



The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be counterfeit, and his hats may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

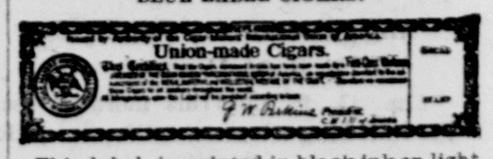
You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

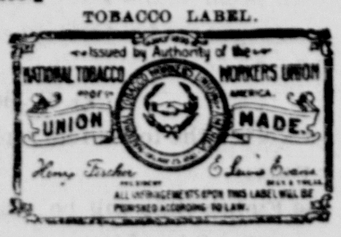
The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.



This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.



The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Opened by President Yount This Morning.

MINISTERS ARE ALL HERE

The Attendance Is Very Large, and an Exceptionally Good Convention Is Expected. What Was Done This Morning and Afternoon.

The fifty-sixth convention, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, began its work in this city today.

A number of ministers arrived yesterday, but the majority came in this morning, and a well-dressed, intelligent lot they are. They are being well cared for, and will doubtless leave East Liverpool knowing much more of the city than they ever knew before.

The first session of the synod was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, it being a confessional service. There were many greetings among friends who had not met for a year prior to the hour, St. John's church at Third and Jackson streets being well filled.

At 10 o'clock President Yount delivered the synodical sermon, and it was followed by communion service. The sermon was a splendid effort, being logical and eloquent. The reverend gentleman touched upon a number of matters most important, and did it so well that the discourse was received by all present with enthusiasm. Synod then adjourned for the noon recess.

The first business in the afternoon was the presentation of the president's report, a lengthy document which covers every detail of the year. It shows that two highly esteemed and venerable ministers had been called away during the year, Rev. Carl E. Cossman, D. D., of Lunenburg, N S., and Prof. David McKee, of Shenango. They were earnest workers in the cause, and their demise was deeply regretted. Twelve pastors resigned their charges, and 21 were installed. Three accepted calls and six were dismissed to other synods. One congregation was dismissed to another synod. Six ministers made application for admission to the synod, and the corner stones of three churches were laid.

The following churches were consecrated during the year: St. Matthew, Rose Bay, N. S.; Mission of Mt. Calvary of McKee's; Trinity, McKean, Pa.; Holy Trinity, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Peter, Evans City, Pa.; Penn, Penn Station, Pa., First church, Butler, Pa. The report deals at length with the consecration of these churches, and gives the names of the pastors and those who took prominent part in the services.

Thiel college day was mentioned, and the president said 58 congregations had contributed $561.79, while 16 congregations had given $174.84 to Greensburg seminary. The opinion that the observance of the day will increase from year to year was expressed.

Because a provision of the constitution does not give the president any discretion in authorizing the installation of pastors not already members of the synod, the president asked some action on the part of the synod.

In speaking of finances the president said the showing was most encouraging. Last year the aggregate was $16,745.80, and this year $20,394.31.

The synod is in session as the NEWS REVIEW goes to press.

This evening a mission meeting will be held, Rev. C. L. Boecele delivering the German address and Rev. J. C. Kunzman preaching in English.

GOT THEIR PICTURES.

The Boys Were Photographed as They Left The Train.

When the train carrying those members of Company E who were successful in obtaining a furlough arrived in the city this morning, a large crowd gathered at the Second street crossing. In the crowd not less than 15 cameras were seen, and as the boys came from the train numerous pictures were taken. One of those who had a camera said he was going to present each member of Company E with a picture of the poor boys who came home today.

On the River.

Packet navigation on the Ohio is seriously threatened. There is still enough water to enable the boats to come in, but within the next 36 hours there will not be unless a rise materializes. This is not promised. In the Pittsburg harbor the river rose nearly three inches Monday night. At the wharf this morning the marks registered five feet and falling.

The Ben Hur is up tonight and the Queen City is down. The Kanawha went down last night with a good trip.

G. A. R. DAYLIGHT SPECIAL

To Cincinnati For the National Encampment.

Arrangments have been made to take G. A. R. veterans and friends to the national encampment at Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania lines in quick time. For their accommodation a daylight special will be run Monday, Sept. 5. A cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers, their families and friends who may wish to enjoy the trip to the Thirty-second National Encampment on the daylight special to join the party at any of the stations given in the following table, which includes the round trip rate and time of train:

			Central time.
$5.30	from	Wheeling.....	Leave 6:00 a m
5.30	"	Wellsburg.....	" 6:30 a m
5.10	"	Steubenville..	" 6:57 a m
5.10	"	Mingo Junc...	" 7:05 a m
5.10	"	Cadiz.....	" 5:25 a m
4.85	"	Jewett.....	" 7:48 a m
4.75	"	Scio.....	" 7:56 a m
4.60	"	Bowerston.....	" 8:05 a m
4.40	"	Dennison	" 8:25 a m
4.40	"	Uhrichsville..	" 8:28 a m
3.90	"	N. Comerst'n	" 8:55 a m
$5.10	from	Bellaire.....	Leave 4:45 a m
5.10	"	Bridgeport...	" 4:53 a m
5.10	"	M'tin's Ferry	" 5:01 a m
$5.50	from	E. Liverpool..	Leave 5:45 a m
5.50	"	Wellsville.....	" 5:55 a m
5.30	"	Toronto.....	" 6:30 a m
$4.30	from	Philadelphia..	Leave 6:10 a m
4.30	"	Canal Dover..	" 6:20 a m

Arrive Cincinnati 3:00 p. m. same day without changing cars.

Excursion tickets to Cincinnati for the national encampment will also be sold at the above rates for all regular trains Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Tickets will be good returning until Sept. 13, with privilege to extend return limit to Oct. 2 inclusive. For particular information please apply to Pennsylvania lines ticket agent at any of the stations given above or address J. K. Dillon, department passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburg. *

To Reform Our Spelling.

A committee, consisting of William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, and M. Balliet of Springfield, Mass., appointed by the National Education association for an amendment of spelling of certain words in common use, has completed its labors.

Words simplified are as follows: Program (programme), altho (although), thorofare (thoroughfare), tho (though), thoro (thorough), thru (through), thruout (throughout), prolog (prologue), demagog (demagogue), catalog (catalogue), decalog (decalogue) pedagog (pedagogue).

Changes will be submitted to the executive committee of the national association. The words given are samples of changes. The idea of the committee was to spell the words exactly as they sounded.

Lively In Its Old Age.

Santiago is nearly 400 years old, but the venerable city has had a livelier time within the last two months than in all the former period of its history. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It Might Stick a Little.

The nation will endeavor to carry out its declaration with regard to Cuba, but there will be much difficulty in inducing the flag to come down.—Galveston News.

The Battlefield.

Once this soft turf, this rivulet's sands,
Were trampled by a hurrying crowd,
And fiery hearts and armed hands
Encountered in the battle cloud.

Ah, never shall the land forget
How gushed the lifeblood of her brave—
Gushed, warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save!

Now all is calm and fresh and still;
Alone the chirp of flitting bird
And talk of children on the hill
And bell of wandering kine are heard.

No solemn host goes trailing by,
The black mouthed gun and staggering wain.
Men start not at the battlecry—
Oh, be it never heard again!

Soon rested those who fought, but thou
Who minglest in the harder strife
For truths which men receive not now
Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! Lingering long
Through weary day and weary year;
A wild and many weaponed throng
Hang on thy front and flank and rear.

Yet nerve thy spirit to the proof
And blench not at thy chosen lot;
The timid good may stand aloof,
The sage may frown—yet faint thou not.

Nor heed the shaft too surely cast,
The foul and hissing bolt of scorn,
For with thy side shall dwell at last
The victory of endurance born.

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers,
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain
And dies among his worshipers.

Yea, though thou lie upon the dust
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,
Another hand the standard wave
Till from the trumpet's mouth is pealed
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE BENNINGTON'S CRACK CREW GOT A COSTLY SURPRISE.

The Story of a Fourth of July Rowing Contest at Honolulu Which Emptied the Pockets and Lacerated the Feelings of Uncle Sam's Jackies.

"About as dismal a Fourth of July as ever I experienced on board a man-o'-war," said an ex-sailor of the navy now living in Washington to a reporter, "was Independence day not many years ago down in the harbor of Honolulu. The Bennington had an all star racing boat's crew. The eight had just happened to be assigned to the Bennington in a bunch before she left for her Pacific cruise, and several of the oarsmen had been members of the Columbia's crack boat's crew that walloped all of the British navy's boats' crews in English waters a few years before.

The Bennington's cutter was one of the best in the navy, and she had been built for a racer. Before we left the Mare Island navy yard for south Pacific waters the ship's racing crew had easily beaten all of the other crews of the ships lying at the yard, including the tiptop crew of the Olympia and the Boston's fine crew. We thought that we were about as warm as they make 'em after our crew put it on so many other man-o'-war crews, giving them a couple of minutes the start of us, too, on numerous occasions and still beating them disgracefully.

"The people of Honolulu arranged an aquatic festival for the Fourth of July—the Americans down there celebrated the Fourth just as enthusiastically as we do up here—and the Bennington's crew figured in it largely. Our ship's colors were at the fore in the two races that were run with picked Kanaka crews, and the third and last race of the day was one in which our crackajack eight was to figure, the other races having been won by subcrews practically picked at random from among the strongest seamen.

"We thought this race was at our mercy. It was to be a four sided affair—one crew of Kanaka sugar field workers, a crew of Kanaka policemen and the racing crew of the yacht Eleanor, belonging to Mr. Slater of Providence, that had pulled into Honolulu harbor from Japan a few days before. Our crew didn't pay much attention to the yacht's racing crew and were only figuring on the distance they could beat the crew of Kanaka policemen, which seemed the most formidable.

"The race was over the four mile course carefully blocked out in the harbor—which was very smooth—by the Honolulu aquatic sportsmen, and the start was first rate. There wasn't a man, fore or aft, on the Bennington that didn't stand to go broke to the extent of at least a month's pay on the success of the Bennington's crew, and we had to give 3 to 1, too, for it was generally conceded that we had the race at our mercy.

"The start, as I said, was good, and the Bennington's crew showed in front first and started out apparently to make a runaway race of it. The Kanaka policemen's crew trailed after them, pulling steadily, then the Kanaka sugar workers and, a good ten lengths to the rear, the Eleanor's crew. This was the way it looked for the finish when the Bennington's crew rounded the stakeboat and started for the return trip.

"Some of the Honolulu men who had their money up on the two Kanaka crews actually began to square accounts, and the cry, 'It's all over—Bennington!' was heard all over the bay. When the stakeboat was rounded, it was noticed that the Eleanor's boat was sort of getting a move on itself, and the men were working like machines at a long, steady stroke that certainly looked as if it was cutting down the Bennington's lead and the lead of the two Kanaka boats.

"Two minutes after the stakeboat was rounded the Eleanor's gang were right abreast of the Kanaka cutters and gaining on them with every stroke, and the cox'un of the Bennington's cutter, hearing the yells of warning from the Bennington bluejackets ashore, looked behind him and saw the Eleanor cutter only two lengths behind him and coming like an electric launch. Our crew was tired, and that's all there was about it.

"The Eleanor's crew had held themselves in for the finish, and they certainly did make a Garrison finish of it. The yacht's cutter shot ahead of our cutter a good mile from home, and then, to make the thing more galling, the crew actually stopped rowing until the Bennington's crew was alongside again. Then they took to the oars again, and from then on it was a howling farce. The Eleanor's crew just romped their cutter in ten lengths ahead of our cutter and the Kanakas a quarter of a mile in the rear.

"You never saw such a disgusted lot of men in your life as the men and officers on the Bennington. The Eleanor's ship company had taken all of the 3 to 1 money they could get on board our ship, for they knew they had a good thing up their sleeve. The Eleanor's crew on the whole trip around the world that was wound up at San Francisco had not been beaten once in a cutter race, and the yacht's sailors had made all kinds of money in betting on their crew. It was a minor sort of consolation for us when we found out that five of the Eleanor's racing crew were ex-American man-o'-war's men."—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why that Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office.

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review Job Department.

INDIAN AND TIGER.

A Clever Trick by Which the Former Outwitted the Latter.

According to a good and true tiger story in Cornhill, an Indian who had learned some of the elementary principles of jugglery and contortion went out one evening to walk upon a ridgy plain. When he reached the top of one of the mounds, he saw a tiger ahead of him, 500 or 600 yards away. Before the man could hide behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at its topmost speed.

Having no means of defense, there was nothing for the man to do but to race for the nearest tree, but though he tried it and put forth his utmost strength the tiger steadily gained upon him.

What was he to do? In sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight in running over a ridge he halted, stretched out his legs at right angles, curled down his head so as to look between his legs to the rear and extended his arms upward in a fantastic manner, like the sails of a windmill.

In a few seconds the tiger hove in sight, and at that instant the face of the object assumed a hideous grimace. A prolonged yell arose, such as had perhaps never before pierced the ear of any tiger, and the sails of the windmill began to revolve backward and forward as if a sudden whirlwind had burst upon the scene.

The tiger recoiled. What, he evidently thought, is this? There stood a ferocious star shaped monster, gigantic against the sky. Its hideous head was situated in the very center of its body—nay, its viselike jaws, between which those fiendish roars were issuing, were actually placed above its two fiery eyes. Its limbs were furiously clamoring for action, and the man he had been chasing, where was he? Already devoured by this terrible beast? The tiger could not pause to reflect. He turned tail, and as he disappeared over a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

Call For a New Deal.

Lord Salisbury seems to have been outplayed by Russia in the Chinese game. The question is, What is our friend J. Bull going to do about it?—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE POWER OF SHADOWS.

A Gloomy View of the Power of Certain Popular Superstitions.

As antique runners passed from hand to hand the sacred torch, so the generations transmit to the generations which succeed them all that they have of light and knowledge, leaving them as a heritage the care of continuing the divine work of enfranchisement and of helping to dissipate the shadows of ignorance.

Little by little these clouds are vanquished and disappear, and the touch of intelligence flames the more radiantly in the midst of the travailing masses.

But all of a sudden a veil covers the torch—something surges up which seems like the darkness of another age. One feels that in a corner of this civilization monstrous things have place. Here they burn a woman accused of sorcery; there in Suabia a tribunal condemns to four days of imprisonment a laborer who had disinterred the corpse of an infant. He wanted to make bracelets of its finger nails, which, according to a belief held in that country, constitute a sovereign remedy against colic.

And all the stories of vampires, of elfs, return to the mind with all the victims they have made and are making still.

It seems in reading such things that the "power of shadows" is still impenetrable to all that science has done and that, as I have said, the effort is vain.—Figaro.

On the Eating of Loons.

Man is a creature of prejudice. In Scotland he will not eat eels; in Connecticut he will not eat sturgeon, the royal fish of England, where the first one taken in the Thames goes to the queen's table; in New York he will not eat lampreys, miscalled "lamper eels," which are delicacies in Connecticut, and in England some old king—I never could keep a record of kings—died from a surfeit of lampreys. With these prejudices in mind, and I hate all prejudices except those which I entertain, I decided to eat the loon.

There may be differences among loons, as there are between pigeons and squabs. I prefer an adult pigeon to a squab, there is better chewing on it, but if a man wants real hard chewing, with a flavor of raw fish, let him tackle an adult loon. That bird could not be picked. It was skinned, and in its stomach there was a catfish recently swallowed, one partly digested and the bones of another. The triggers of the pectoral fins of the catfish were set, but the stomach of the loon did not seem to be troubled by that fact.—Fred Mather in Forest and Stream.

COLLECTED MUCH MONEY

But It Was Soon Sent Out by the Auditor.

LIVERPOOL GETS ITS SHARE

Thousands of Dollars Are Returned to the City From Lisbon After the Semi-annual Settlement—How the Money Is Distributed In the County.

LISBON, Aug. 31.[Special]—Deputy Auditor Frank Adams has completed the semi-annual settlement with the county treasurer. The amount that each township receives for township, road and school is indicated as follows:

Liverpool, $2,356.31; St. Clair, $1,590.13; Middleton, $2,712.77; Unity, $964.92; Yellow Creek, $1,533.81; Madison, $589.18; Elk Run, $1,320.75; Fairfield, $2,085.68; Washington, $1,052.81; Wayne, $1,356.40; Center, $2,089; Salem, $3,313.02; Franklin, $1,097.85; Hanover, $2,031.74; Butler, $2,022.95; Perry, $1,695.15; West $2,916.25; Knox, $2,304.71.

Total received by townships exclusive of school funds is $11,343.33. The total school fund is $83,640.25.

The corporations receive the following: Liverpool, $21,684.11; Rogers, $1,777.21; Palestine, 3,188.45; Wellsville, $11,541.56; Columbiana, $4,079.40; Salineville, $2,768.80; Lisbon, $6,123.01; Washingtonville, $334.65; Leetonia, $4,942.20; Hanover $191.73; Salem, $14,191.55; total $69,222.67.

The county retains $56,690.37, divided as follows: County fund, $24,894.70; poor, $11,133.40; bridge, $11,121,15; building, $1,123.12; soldiers' relief, $1,-106.60; children's home, $3,332.72; refunder, $1,297.84; treasurer's fees, $1,-964.72; interest and bond redemption, $561.54.

The total amount of taxes collected was $244,217.33.

FELL OFF A CAR.

Mr. Green Was Groaning When Passengers Picked Him Up.

Early last evening as street cars passed the Lythe switch the passengers on the east bound car in charge of George Hale, saw a man fall from the rear platform of the west bound car and alight on his head.

The car was stopped, and a number of the passengers went back where they found the man laying on the rails groaning at a great rate. He was assisted to his feet and an examination made and it was found he was a great deal more frightened than hurt. His name is Green and he lives in this city.

DUTCH ZOELLARS SHOT.

That Is the Report Which Comes From Down the River.

Word received in the city yesterday stated that Dutch Zoellars, who is well known here, had been shot in a quarrel at Springtown, W. Va., a small village about 12 miles from Sistersville.

No particulars were given, except the fact that Zoellars had been shot three times and was in a dangerous condition. An effort is now being made to ascertain the truth of the report.

HOSPITAL MEETING.

The Ladies Will Discuss the Situation.

Mrs. Calhoun, president of the Hospital association, has called a meeting for tomorrow afternoon at the Young Men's Christian association at 2:30 o'clock.

All members of the association and all other ladies interested in the hospital project are earnestly requested to be present.

Mercer Will Improve.

"Winnie Mercer's batting is bound to improve" says Jimmy McGuire. "He has been relieved of the responsibility of pitching and can apply both his eye and mind to the ball."

McGuire is the first catcher Mercer ever pitched to, and is probably better able to judge our own Winnie than any man in the league.

Excursions to Steubenville.

Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2, the Pennsylvania company will sell low rate excursion tickets to Steubenville from East Liverpool for the races; return coupons good Saturday, Sept. 3, inclusive. *

CANCELING STAMPS.

According to the new revenue law you must cancel every stamp you put on a check, and you must put a stamp on every check you draw. The News Review has the best canceler. Leave your order at once.

HEAR SEC. SULLY

on "Job" Sunday afternoon at Spring Grove.

RHYME OF RHYMES.

Wild on the mountain peak the wind
Repeats its old refrain,
Like ghosts of mortals who have sinned
And fain would sin again.

For "wind" I do not rhyme to "mind,"
Like many mortal men.
"Again" (when one reflects) 'twere kind
To rhyme as if "agen."

I never met a single soul
Who spoke of "wind" as "wined,"
And yet we use it, on the whole,
To rhyme to "find" and "blind."

We say, "Now don't do that agen,"
When people give us pain.
In poetry, nine times in ten,
It rhymes to "Spain" or "Dane."

Oh, which is wrong or which is right?
Oh, which is right or wrong?
The sound in prose familiar quite
Or those we meet in song?

To hold that "love" can rhyme to "prove"
Requires some force of will,
Yet in the ancient lyric groove
We meet them rhyming still.

This was our learned fathers' wont
In prehistoric times.
We follow it, or if we don't
We oft run short of rhymes.
—Andrew Lang in Longman's Magazine.

DICK'S GOOD TIME.

A Very Human Boy Enjoying His Well Earned Reward.

A portly gentleman sat on the porch and smiled while a small boy, also smiling, painted the front fence.

"Look at that boy," the portly man remarked to a visitor. "He thinks he is having a good time. A small boy is surely the drollest creature on earth. When I was a youngster, I remember that there were certain kinds of work I considered play, and one of them was painting. I was always crazy to paint. Many times I have taken a bucket of muddy water and an old paint brush and have spent a whole half day putting a thick coat on the side of my father's barn.

"So with my boy Dick, the little chap painting the fence. He has always been crazy to paint. He is enjoying himself now—you can see he is, and he will paint that whole fence, too, just as well as he knows how. I don't care if it is a trifle smeared. He's getting joy, solid joy, thicker than the paint on his hands and clothes.

"There's a mean side to it too. He wanted to paint the fence, and I wanted the weeds pulled out of the yard. So, like an underhanded rascal, I bargained with him. I told him that if he would pull all the weeds out I would let him paint the fence. He went through the other job like a soldier—he hates to pull weeds; all boys do—and now he thinks he is getting his reward. It is a downright shame to fool him that way, don't you think so?"

The portly gentleman chuckled again, and the small boy, wild with joy, went on plastering paint on the fence.—Detroit Free Press.

Crossing the Threshold.

Crossing the threshold was and is the most critical period of the wedding day with all races, not even excepting the Anglo-Saxon.

The superstitious fears of the many, always particularly alert on the occasion of a marriage, culminate in this final act of the drama. The lifting of the bride over the threshold or her stepping across it is the signal in Persia, Arabia and among the Copts of Egypt for the sacrifice of a goat or a sheep. Among the Aenezes, according to Burckhardt, the bridegroom simply kills a lamb in front of his father-in-law's tent, and the ceremony, but for the running of the bride from one tent to another, is complete. Perhaps the purest symbolical act is that of the Transylvanian Saxon bridal pair, who step over the threshold with their hands tied together. Some of these Transylvanian customs are remarkable and must be survivals from a very ancient period. The bridegroom never wears the shirt made for him by the bride except on his wedding day and at his burial, just as the veil of the Japanese bride becomes one day her shroud.—London Spectator.

Dickens In Evening Dress.

When Charles Dickens was to make his first appearance in Boston before an American audience as a reader, an immense crowd awaited him. The enthusiasm of the people for the most popular novelist then living had risen to fever heat. One of the most ardent of his admirers afterward told this little incident of the evening.

"With a few gentlemen who wished to welcome and show him attention I was in the little room at the back of the platform when Dickens entered it. He was a rather stout man with a somewhat red face, and I saw to my surprise, that he was dressed in an exaggerated servility to the extreme fashion.

"More than this, he wore a boutonniere in each buttonhole, and two watches, the chains of which were strung aggressively across his chest. There was a gaudy bad taste in his appearance which his friends regretted, knowing how distasteful it would be to most of his admirers who appreciated his genius and enjoyed his writings.

"No one, of course, could broach the subject to him, and he appeared that night and every other night of his engagement in the same attire. The universal comment was, 'Why, this is a petit maitre.' How can a man with such tastes be the creator of Tiny Tim and Sam Weller!"—Youth's Companion.

A Beautiful Present

FREE for a few months to all users of the celebrated ELASTIC STARCH, (Flat Iron Brand). To induce you to try this brand of starch, so that you may find out for yourself that all claims for its superiority and economy are true, the makers have had prepared, at great expense, a series of exact reproductions of the $10,000 originals by Muville, which will be given you ABSOLUTELY FREE by your grocer on conditions named below. These Plaques are 40 inches in circumference, are free of any suggestion of advertising whatever, and will ornament the most elegant apartment. No manufacturing concern ever before gave away such valuable presents to its customers. They are not for sale at any price, and can be obtained only in the manner specified. The subjects are:

GAME PLAQUES

American Wild Ducks, American Pheasant,
English Quail, English Snipe.

The birds are handsomely embossed and stand out natural as life. Each Plaque is bordered with a band of gold.

ELASTIC STARCH

has been the standard for 25 years.

TWENTY-TWO MILLION packages of this brand were sold last year. That's how good it is.

ASK YOUR DEALER to show you the plaques and tell you about Elastic Starch. Accept no substitute.

How To Get Them:

All purchasers of three 10 cent or six 5 cent packages of Elastic Starch (Flat Iron Brand), are entitled to receive from their grocer one of these beautiful Game Plaques free. The plaques will not be sent by mail. They can be obtained only from your grocer.

Every Grocer Keeps Elastic Starch.

Do not delay. This offer is for a short time only.

REDUCED FARES

To Various Points via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines as indicated in the following paragraphs. Although concessions in fare are authorized for meetings of certain Orders, tickets may be obtained by any person whether a member of the order or interested in the event. The reduced rates will be open to everybody.

To Cincinnati, Ohio.--September 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th, for the G. A. R. National Encampment. Good returning until Septembr 13th, with privilege of extension until October 2d.

To Pittsburg, Pa.—October 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th and 13th, good returning until October 17th, account Knights Templar Triennial Conclave. Return limit may be extended until October 31st.

During the excursion season special rates will also be in effect via Pennsylvania Lines for special and local events. For particular information please apply to the nearest Ticket Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines or address J. K. Dillon, District Passenger Agent, Pittsburg, Pa.

Summer In Colorado.

Colorado is particularly inviting as a summer haven. The climate is remarkable for its invigorating effect, and the state is rich in grand scenery and points of interest where a vacation may be pleasantly spent. Special arrangements are being made for the entertainment of visitors who are this season expected to be attracted to the seclusion and quiet of the Rockies and the hills and canyons of that great wonderland.

Colorado today is nearer home than in former years. The fast schedules of the Pennsylvania route and connecting lines bring the centennial state within easy reach, and the cost of a trip thither is no longer a luxury. The special low rate tourist tickets over the Pennsylvania lines places the cost for transportation within the limit of the usual allowance for vacation trips. For special information about rates, time of trains and other details please apply to nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent or address J. K. Dillon, D. P. agt., Pittsburg, Pa. *

Excursion via Pennsylvania Lines.

Excursion tickets to Traverse City, Petoskey and Mackinac Island, the most popular resorts in Northern Michigan, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines, Tuesday, Sept. 6th. The round trip rate from East Liverpool will be $10 to Petoskey or Traverse City, and $11 to Mackinac Island. Tickets will be good going on regular trains on the dates specified and good returning 30 days. For special information on the subject apply to Ticket Agent Adam Hill at East Liverpool, O. *

Summer Havens.

Illustrated information about America's popular summer resorts is being distributed by passenger and ticket agents of the Pennsylvania lines. It includes descriptions of leading places of summer sojourn along the ocean, in the mountains of the east, and in the lake region and Northern Michigan, all of which are within easy reach over the Pennsylvania route. For a copy please apply to the nearest Pennsylvania lines ticket agent, or address your requests to J. K. Dillon, district passenger agent, Pittsburg, Pa

Take Your Choice.

An excursion to those popular northern Michigan resorts will run via Pennsylvania lines Tuesday, Sept. 6th. See Adam Hill, ticket agent, East Liverpool, about it. *

Cleveland & Pittsburgh Div. Pennsylvania Lines.

Schedule of Passenger Trains-Central Time

Westward.	335 AM	337 PM	339 PM	341 PM	359 AM
Pittsburgh ...lv.	†5 45	†1 30	†4 30	*11 00	†7 30
Rochester ... "	6 40	2 15	5 25	11 50	8 25
Beaver ... "	6 45	2 20	5 33	11 55	8 30
Vanport ... "	6 50	.....	5 38	11 59	8 34
Industry ... "	7 00	.....	5 50	12 10	8 44
Cooks Ferry ... "	7 03	.....	5 55	12f11	f8 48
Smiths Ferry ... "	7 11	2 40	6 04	12 20	8 55
East Liverpool ... "	7 20	2 49	6 14	12 30	9 05
Wellsville ... ar.	7 33	3 00	6 28	12 40	9 15
Wellsville ... lv.	7 42	3 05		12 45
Wellsville Shop ... "	7 46	.....		12 50
Yellow Creek ... "	7 52	.....		12f55
Hammondsville ... "	8 01	.....		f1 03
Irondale ... "	8 06	3 22		f1 06
Salineville ... "	8 25	3 38		1 27
Bayard ... "	9 09	4 10		2 05
Alliance ... {ar.	9 40	4 33	Flag stop.	2 30
Alliance ... {lv.	10 05	4 38		2 35
Ravenna ... "	10 40	5 06		3 10
Hudson ... "	11 02	5 25		3 30
Cleveland ...ar.	12 10	6 25		4 30
Wellsville ... lv.	7 47	3 10	6 55	†5 55	†11 02
Wellsville Shop ... "	7 52	3 13	6 58	5 59	11 05
Yellow Creek ... "	7 57	3 18	7 04	6 05	11 10
Port Homer ... "	f8 03	f3 23	f7 09	f6 09	.....
Empire ... "	8 10	3 28	7 14	6 17	11 21
Elliottsville ... "	f8 17	3 33	7 18	6 21	11 23
Toronto ... "	8 21	3 38	7 23	6 30	11 28
Costonia ... "	f8 28	f3 43	f7 30	6 37	.....
Steubenville ... {ar.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Steubenville ... {lv.	8 44	4 00	7 45	6 55	11 45
Mingo Jc ... "	8 51	4 07	7 53	7 05	11 53
Brilliant ... "	8 58	4 14	8 00	7 14	12 01
Rush Run ... "	9 07	4 23	8 09	7 24	12 10
Portland ... "	9 14	4 30	8 15	7 30	12 16
Yorkville ... "	f9 19	f4 35	f8 20	7 37	12f21
Martins Ferry ... "	9 32	4 45	8 28	7 52	12 28
Bridgeport ... "	9 40	4 50	8 35	7 58	12 35
Bellaire ...ar.	9 50	5 05	8 45	8 10	12 45
	AM	PM	PM	AM	PM

Through Coaches on Trains 336, 359, 337 and 360 between Cleveland and Bellaire.

Eastward.	340 AM	336 AM	338 PM	360 PM	348 PM
Bellaire ...lv.	†4 45	†9 00	†4 45	†1 00	†2 45
Bridgeport ... "	4 53	9 09	4 54	1 10	2 53
Martins Ferry ... "	5 01	9 15	5 02	1 16	3 01
Yorkville ... "	f5 10	.....	5 12	.....	f3 17
Portland ... "	5 15	9 28	5 19	1 28	3 22
Rush Run ... "	5 20	9 33	5 24	.....	3 27
Brilliant ... "	5 28	9 41	5 34	1 42	3 42
Mingo Jc ... "	5 35	9 48	5 41	1 50	3 51
Steubenville ... {ar.	5 44	9 56	5 50	1 58	4 00
Steubenville ... {lv.	5 44	9 56	5 50	1 58	4 00
Costonia ... "	f6 00	10f12	.....	.....	f4 15
Toronto ... "	6 07	10 17	6 11	2 19	4 29
Elliottsville ... "	6 11	10f19	.....	.....	f4 34
Empire ... "	6 13	10 27	6 21	2 27	4 44
Port Homer ... "	f6 20	10f31	.....	.....	f4 51
Yellow Creek ... "	6 26	10 37	6 33	.....	4 58
Wellsville Shop ... "	6 31	10 42	6 38	.....	5 03
Wellsville ...ar.	6 35	10 50	6 41	2 45	5 06
Wellsville ...lv.	7 42	3 05		3 05
Wellsville Shop ... "	7 46	.....		.....
Yellow Creek ... "	7 52	.....		.....
Hammondsville ... "	8 01	.....		.....
Irondale ... "	8 06	3 22		3 22
Salineville ... "	8 25	3 38		3 38
Bayard ... "	9 09	4 10		4 10
Alliance ... {ar.	9 40	4 33		4 33
Alliance ... {lv.	10 05	4 38		4 38
Ravenna ... "	10 40	5 06		5 05
Hudson ... "	11 02	5 25		5 25
Cleveland ...ar.	12 10	6 25		6 25
Wellsville ...lv.	6 45	10 57	6 51	3 10	*3 50
East Liverpool ... "	6 57	11 07	7 00	3 20	4 01
Smiths Ferry ... "	7 07	11 18	7 08	3 30	4 12
Cooks Ferry ... "	7 20	11 24	.....	f3 38	f4 20
Industry ... "	7 25	11 30	7 22	3 42	4 25
Vanport ... "	7 34	11 40	.....	3 53	f4 35
Beaver ... "	7 40	11 45	7 36	3 58	4 40
Rochester ... "	7 50	11 50	7 42	4 12	4 45
Pittsburgh ...ar.	8 50	12 40	8 30	5 10	5 40
	AM	PM	PM	PM	AM

Dark Faced Type denotes 12 noon to 12 midnight. Light Faced, 12 midnight to 12 noon.

Nos. 338 and 342 connect in Union Station, Pitts., with thro' trains East.

†Daily. Sunday. *Daily. |Meals. 342 AM

Pullman Sleeping Cars are run on Nos. 341 and 342, and Parlor Cars on Nos. 337 and 338 between Pittsburgh and Cleveland via Yellow Creek and Alliance. No. 336 connects at Rochester for New Castle, Jamestown, Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Ashtabula and intermediate stations. No. 340 for Erie, Ashtabula and intermediate stations.

Nos. 335 and 337 connect at Bayard for New Philadelphia, and stations on Tuscarawas Branch. Nos. 340 and 360 connect with Nos. 335 and 337 at Wellsville.

L. F. LOREE, General Manager. E. A. FORD, General Passenger Agent.

6-26-98.-H PITTSBURGH, PENN'A.

For time cards, rates of fare, through tickets, baggage checks, and further information regarding the running of trains apply to any Agent of the Pennsylvania Lines.

Is Your Head Clear? Do you feel a boundless energy in your blood? You can have these and renewed vitality by taking a dose of Paragon Tea before retiring. Constipation Cured. 25 cents for one months treatment. All druggists. Send 2 cent stamp for sample. S. B. FEIL & CO. Cleveland, O.

UNION LABELS.

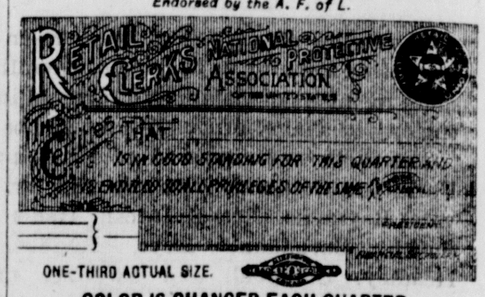
It should be a deep-rooted principle of all union workmen and union sympathizers, and particularly those members of the different organizations of East Liverpool, to buy nothing but Union Label goods, in preference to all others. And why not? If we ask fair wages for our labor, why should we buy goods made at unfair wages by others?

The Union Label in every industry is a guarantee of fair wages, decent working hours, and union labor employed.

PATRONIZE UNION CLERKS.

All members of the R. C. N. P. A. can show this card. Ask for it when making your purchases.

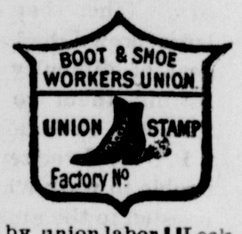
Endorsed by the A. F. of L.



COLOR IS CHANGED EACH QUARTER.

Good only during months named in lower left hand corner and when properly signed, and STAMPED with the number of the Local.

UNION MADE BOOTS AND SHOES.



The Boot and Shoe Workers' union is the national head of the trade, and is a new combination of all the branches of boot and shoe workers. The above trade-mark when found on the sole or lining of a boot or shoe, is a guarantee that the same is made by union labor. Look for the above design stamped on the sole of every pair of boots or shoes you buy.

CUSTOM TAILORS' LABEL.

The Journeymen Tailor's Label is to be found in the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the under side of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants. It is printed in black ink on white linen.

UNION MADE HATS.

This Label is about an inch and a half square, and is printed on buff-colored paper. It is placed on every union made hat before it leaves the workman's hands. If a dealer takes a label from one hat and places it in another, or has any detached labels in his store, do not buy from him, as his labels may be the product of scab or non-union labor.

UNION MADE CLOTHES.

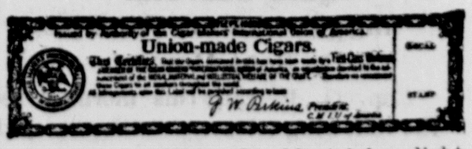
You will find the linen label attached by machine stitching to the inside breast pocket of the coat, on the inside of the buckle strap of the vest, and on the waistband lining of the pants

BICYCLE LABEL.

"Do unto others as ye would that others should do unto you." You will endorse the "Golden Rule" by buying and riding bicycles bearing this Label. The colors are as follows: The Union shield is in red, white and blue, on a background of pea green, bordered by gold.

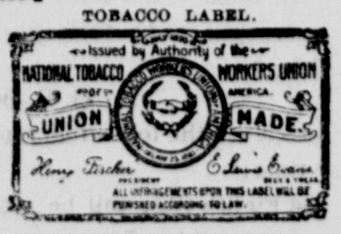
The Label will be placed on the upper front side of the tube that receives the seat post.

BLUE LABEL CIGARS.



This label is printed in black ink on light blue paper, and is pasted on the cigar-box. Don't mix it up with the U. S. revenue label on the box, as the latter is nearly of a similar color.

TOBACCO LABEL.



The above Label, printed on blue paper, will be found on all plug tobacco and on the wrappers of chewing tobacco manufactured in union tobacco factories.

UNION BREAD AND CRACKERS.

This is a full size facsimile of the Label of the Bakers' and Confectioners' union. It is printed on fine white paper and is pasted on each loaf of union-made bread. It is an evidence that the bread is made under fair and wholesome conditions, and in clean and healthy bakeshops. Following is the confectioners' and cracker Label:

SYNOD IS IN SESSION

Opened by President Yount This Morning.

MINISTERS ARE ALL HERE

The Attendance Is Very Large, and an Exceptionally Good Convention Is Expected. What Was Done This Morning and Afternoon.

The fifty-sixth convention, Pittsburg synod of the Evangelical Lutheran church, began its work in this city today.

A number of ministers arrived yesterday, but the majority came in this morning, and a well-dressed, intelligent lot they are. They are being well cared for, and will doubtless leave East Liverpool knowing much more of the city than they ever knew before.

The first session of the synod was held at 9:30 o'clock this morning, it being a confessional service. There were many greetings among friends who had not met for a year prior to the hour, St. John's church at Third and Jackson streets being well filled.

At 10 o'clock President Yount delivered the synodical sermon, and it was followed by communion service. The sermon was a splendid effort, being logical and eloquent. The reverend gentleman touched upon a number of matters most important, and did it so well that the discourse was received by all present with enthusiasm. Synod then adjourned for the noon recess.

The first business in the afternoon was the presentation of the president's report, a lengthy document which covers every detail of the year. It shows that two highly esteemed and venerable ministers had been called away during the year, Rev. Carl E. Cossman, D. D., of Lunenburg, N S., and Prof. David McKee, of Shenango. They were earnest workers in the cause, and their demise was deeply regretted. Twelve pastors resigned their charges, and 21 were installed. Three accepted calls and six were dismissed to other synods. One congregation was dismissed to another synod. Six ministers made application for admission to the synod, and the corner stones of three churches were laid.

The following churches were consecrated during the year: St. Matthew, Rose Bay, N. S.; Mission of Mt. Calvary of McKee's; Trinity, McKean, Pa.; Holy Trinity, Latrobe, Pa.; St. Peter, Evans City, Pa.; Penn, Penn Station, Pa., First church, Butler, Pa. The report deals at length with the consecration of these churches, and gives the names of the pastors and those who took prominent part in the services.

Thiel college day was mentioned, and the president said 58 congregations had contributed $561.79, while 16 congregations had given $174.84 to Greensburg seminary. The opinion that the observance of the day will increase from year to year was expressed.

Because a provision of the constitution does not give the president any discretion in authorizing the installation of pastors not already members of the synod, the president asked some action on the part of the synod.

In speaking of finances the president said the showing was most encouraging. Last year the aggregate was $16,745.80, and this year $20,394.31.

The synod is in session as the NEWS REVIEW goes to press.

This evening a mission meeting will be held, Rev. C. L. Boecele delivering the German address and Rev. J. C. Kunzman preaching in English.

GOT THEIR PICTURES.

The Boys Were Photographed as They Left The Train.

When the train carrying those members of Company E who were successful in obtaining a furlough arrived in the city this morning, a large crowd gathered at the Second street crossing. In the crowd not less than 15 cameras were seen, and as the boys came from the train numerous pictures were taken. One of those who had a camera said he was going to present each member of Company E with a picture of the poor boys who came home today.

On the River.

Packet navigation on the Ohio is seriously threatened. There is still enough water to enable the boats to come in, but within the next 36 hours there will not be unless a rise materializes. This is not promised. In the Pittsburg harbor the river rose nearly three inches Monday night. At the wharf this morning the marks registered five feet and falling.

The Ben Hur is up tonight and the Queen City is down. The Kanawha went down last night with a good trip.

G. A. R. DAYLIGHT SPECIAL

To Cincinnati For the National Encampment.

Arrangments have been made to take G. A. R. veterans and friends to the national encampment at Cincinnati over the Pennsylvania lines in quick time. For their accommodation a daylight special will be run Monday, Sept. 5. A cordial invitation is extended to all old soldiers, their families and friends who may wish to enjoy the trip to the Thirty-second National Encampment on the daylight special to join the party at any of the stations given in the following table, which includes the round trip rate and time of train:

			Central time.
$5.30	from	Wheeling.....	Leave 6:00 a m
5.30	"	Wellsburg.....	" 6:30 a m
5.10	"	Steubenville..	" 6:57 a m
5.10	"	Mingo Junc...	" 7:05 a m
5.10	"	Cadiz.....	" 5:25 a m
4.85	"	Jewett.....	" 7:48 a m
4.75	"	Scio.....	" 7:56 a m
4.60	"	Bowerston.....	" 8:05 a m
4.40	"	Dennison	" 8:25 a m
4.40	"	Uhrichsville..	" 8:28 a m
3.90	"	N. Comerst'n	" 8:55 a m
$5.10	from	Bellaire.....	Leave 4:45 a m
5.10	"	Bridgeport...	" 4:53 a m
5.10	"	M'tin's Ferry	" 5:01 a m
$5.50	from	E. Liverpool..	Leave 5:45 a m
5.50	"	Wellsville.....	" 5:55 a m
5.30	"	Toronto.....	" 6:30 a m
$4.30	from	Philadelphia..	Leave 6:10 a m
4.30	"	Canal Dover..	" 6:20 a m

Arrive Cincinnati 3:00 p. m. same day without changing cars.

Excursion tickets to Cincinnati for the national encampment will also be sold at the above rates for all regular trains Sept. 3, 4, 5 and 6. Tickets will be good returning until Sept. 13, with privilege to extend return limit to Oct. 2 inclusive. For particular information please apply to Pennsylvania lines ticket agent at any of the stations given above or address J. K. Dillon, department passenger agent, 360 Fifth avenue, corner Smithfield street, Pittsburg. *

To Reform Our Spelling.

A committee, consisting of William T. Harris, United States commissioner of education; F. Louis Soldan, superintendent of schools of St. Louis, and M. Balliet of Springfield, Mass., appointed by the National Education association for an amendment of spelling of certain words in common use, has completed its labors.

Words simplified are as follows: Program (programme), altho (although), thorofare (thoroughfare), tho (though), thoro (thorough), thru (through), thruout (throughout), prolog (prologue), demagog (demagogue), catalog (catalogue), decalog (decalogue) pedagog (pedagogue).

Changes will be submitted to the executive committee of the national association. The words given are samples of changes. The idea of the committee was to spell the words exactly as they sounded.

Lively In Its Old Age.

Santiago is nearly 400 years old, but the venerable city has had a livelier time within the last two months than in all the former period of its history. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

It Might Stick a Little.

The nation will endeavor to carry out its declaration with regard to Cuba, but there will be much difficulty in inducing the flag to come down.—Galveston News.

The Battlefield.

Once this soft turf, this rivulet's sands,
Were trampled by a hurrying crowd,
And fiery hearts and armed hands
Encountered in the battle cloud.

Ah, never shall the land forget
How gushed the lifeblood of her brave—
Gushed, warm with hope and courage yet,
Upon the soil they fought to save!

Now all is calm and fresh and still;
Alone the chirp of flitting bird
And talk of children on the hill
And bell of wandering kine are heard.

No solemn host goes trailing by,
The black mouthed gun and staggering wain.
Men start not at the battlecry—
Oh, be it never heard again!

Soon rested those who fought, but thou
Who minglest in the harder strife
For truths which men receive not now
Thy warfare only ends with life.

A friendless warfare! Lingering long
Through weary day and weary year;
A wild and many weaponed throng
Hang on thy front and flank and rear.

Yet nerve thy spirit to the proof
And blench not at thy chosen lot;
The timid good may stand aloof,
The sage may frown—yet faint thou not.

Nor heed the shaft too surely cast,
The foul and hissing bolt of scorn,
For with thy side shall dwell at last
The victory of endurance born.

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers,
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain
And dies among his worshipers.

Yea, though thou lie upon the dust
When they who helped thee flee in fear,
Die full of hope and manly trust,
Like those who fell in battle here.

Another hand thy sword shall wield,
Another hand the standard wave
Till from the trumpet's mouth is pealed
The blast of triumph o'er thy grave.

—William Cullen Bryant.

A GREAT BOAT RACE.

THE BENNINGTON'S CRACK CREW GOT A COSTLY SURPRISE.

The Story of a Fourth of July Rowing Contest at Honolulu Which Emptied the Pockets and Lacerated the Feelings of Uncle Sam's Jackies.

"About as dismal a Fourth of July as ever I experienced on board a man-o'-war," said an ex-sailor of the navy now living in Washington to a reporter, "was Independence day not many years ago down in the harbor of Honolulu. The Bennington had an all star racing boat's crew. The eight had just happened to be assigned to the Bennington in a bunch before she left for her Pacific cruise, and several of the oarsmen had been members of the Columbia's crack boat's crew that walloped all of the British navy's boats' crews in English waters a few years before.

The Bennington's cutter was one of the best in the navy, and she had been built for a racer. Before we left the Mare Island navy yard for south Pacific waters the ship's racing crew had easily beaten all of the other crews of the ships lying at the yard, including the tiptop crew of the Olympia and the Boston's fine crew. We thought that we were about as warm as they make 'em after our crew put it on so many other man-o'-war crews, giving them a couple of minutes the start of us, too, on numerous occasions and still beating them disgracefully.

"The people of Honolulu arranged an aquatic festival for the Fourth of July—the Americans down there celebrated the Fourth just as enthusiastically as we do up here—and the Bennington's crew figured in it largely. Our ship's colors were at the fore in the two races that were run with picked Kanaka crews, and the third and last race of the day was one in which our crackajack eight was to figure, the other races having been won by subcrews practically picked at random from among the strongest seamen.

"We thought this race was at our mercy. It was to be a four sided affair—one crew of Kanaka sugar field workers, a crew of Kanaka policemen and the racing crew of the yacht Eleanor, belonging to Mr. Slater of Providence, that had pulled into Honolulu harbor from Japan a few days before. Our crew didn't pay much attention to the yacht's racing crew and were only figuring on the distance they could beat the crew of Kanaka policemen, which seemed the most formidable.

"The race was over the four mile course carefully blocked out in the harbor—which was very smooth—by the Honolulu aquatic sportsmen, and the start was first rate. There wasn't a man, fore or aft, on the Bennington that didn't stand to go broke to the extent of at least a month's pay on the success of the Bennington's crew, and we had to give 3 to 1, too, for it was generally conceded that we had the race at our mercy.

"The start, as I said, was good, and the Bennington's crew showed in front first and started out apparently to make a runaway race of it. The Kanaka policemen's crew trailed after them, pulling steadily, then the Kanaka sugar workers and, a good ten lengths to the rear, the Eleanor's crew. This was the way it looked for the finish when the Bennington's crew rounded the stakeboat and started for the return trip.

"Some of the Honolulu men who had their money up on the two Kanaka crews actually began to square accounts, and the cry, 'It's all over—Bennington!' was heard all over the bay. When the stakeboat was rounded, it was noticed that the Eleanor's boat was sort of getting a move on itself, and the men were working like machines at a long, steady stroke that certainly looked as if it was cutting down the Bennington's lead and the lead of the two Kanaka boats.

"Two minutes after the stakeboat was rounded the Eleanor's gang were right abreast of the Kanaka cutters and gaining on them with every stroke, and the cox'un of the Bennington's cutter, hearing the yells of warning from the Bennington bluejackets ashore, looked behind him and saw the Eleanor cutter only two lengths behind him and coming like an electric launch. Our crew was tired, and that's all there was about it.

"The Eleanor's crew had held themselves in for the finish, and they certainly did make a Garrison finish of it. The yacht's cutter shot ahead of our cutter a good mile from home, and then, to make the thing more galling, the crew actually stopped rowing until the Bennington's crew was alongside again. Then they took to the oars again, and from then on it was a howling farce. The Eleanor's crew just romped their cutter in ten lengths ahead of our cutter and the Kanakas a quarter of a mile in the rear.

"You never saw such a disgusted lot of men in your life as the men and officers on the Bennington. The Eleanor's ship company had taken all of the 3 to 1 money they could get on board our ship, for they knew they had a good thing up their sleeve. The Eleanor's crew on the whole trip around the world that was wound up at San Francisco had not been beaten once in a cutter race, and the yacht's sailors had made all kinds of money in betting on their crew. It was a minor sort of consolation for us when we found out that five of the Eleanor's racing crew were ex-American man-o'-war's men."—Washington Star.

Have You Inspected It?

Inspected What?

Why that Magnificent JOB and BOOK WORK turned out at the....

News Review Job Office.

FINE Presses, Skilled Workmen, Superb Material. Thousands of dollars worth of latest Designs and Styles of Type, Border and Novelties. All work absolutely guaranteed.

Test the News Review Job Department.

INDIAN AND TIGER.

A Clever Trick by Which the Former Outwitted the Latter.

According to a good and true tiger story in Cornhill, an Indian who had learned some of the elementary principles of jugglery and contortion went out one evening to walk upon a ridgy plain. When he reached the top of one of the mounds, he saw a tiger ahead of him, 500 or 600 yards away. Before the man could hide behind a mound the tiger had seen him and began to bound toward him at its topmost speed.

Having no means of defense, there was nothing for the man to do but to race for the nearest tree, but though he tried it and put forth his utmost strength the tiger steadily gained upon him.

What was he to do? In sheer desperation he resolved upon an unusual scheme. Just as he disappeared for an instant from the tiger's sight in running over a ridge he halted, stretched out his legs at right angles, curled down his head so as to look between his legs to the rear and extended his arms upward in a fantastic manner, like the sails of a windmill.

In a few seconds the tiger hove in sight, and at that instant the face of the object assumed a hideous grimace. A prolonged yell arose, such as had perhaps never before pierced the ear of any tiger, and the sails of the windmill began to revolve backward and forward as if a sudden whirlwind had burst upon the scene.

The tiger recoiled. What, he evidently thought, is this? There stood a ferocious star shaped monster, gigantic against the sky. Its hideous head was situated in the very center of its body—nay, its viselike jaws, between which those fiendish roars were issuing, were actually placed above its two fiery eyes. Its limbs were furiously clamoring for action, and the man he had been chasing, where was he? Already devoured by this terrible beast? The tiger could not pause to reflect. He turned tail, and as he disappeared over a friendly ridge a last awful yell caused him to redouble his pace. He was conquered by the unknown.

Call For a New Deal.

Lord Salisbury seems to have been outplayed by Russia in the Chinese game. The question is, What is our friend J. Bull going to do about it?—Indianapolis Sentinel.

THE POWER OF SHADOWS.

A Gloomy View of the Power of Certain Popular Superstitions.

As antique runners passed from hand to hand the sacred torch, so the generations transmit to the generations which succeed them all that they have of light and knowledge, leaving them as a heritage the care of continuing the divine work of enfranchisement and of helping to dissipate the shadows of ignorance.

Little by little these clouds are vanquished and disappear, and the touch of intelligence flames the more radiantly in the midst of the travailing masses.

But all of a sudden a veil covers the torch—something surges up which seems like the darkness of another age. One feels that in a corner of this civilization monstrous things have place. Here they burn a woman accused of sorcery; there in Suabia a tribunal condemns to four days of imprisonment a laborer who had disinterred the corpse of an infant. He wanted to make bracelets of its finger nails, which, according to a belief held in that country, constitute a sovereign remedy against colic.

And all the stories of vampires, of elfs, return to the mind with all the victims they have made and are making still.

It seems in reading such things that the "power of shadows" is still impenetrable to all that science has done and that, as I have said, the effort is vain.—Figaro.

On the Eating of Loons.

Man is a creature of prejudice. In Scotland he will not eat eels; in Connecticut he will not eat sturgeon, the royal fish of England, where the first one taken in the Thames goes to the queen's table; in New York he will not eat lampreys, miscalled "lamper eels," which are delicacies in Connecticut, and in England some old king—I never could keep a record of kings—died from a surfeit of lampreys. With these prejudices in mind, and I hate all prejudices except those which I entertain, I decided to eat the loon.

There may be differences among loons, as there are between pigeons and squabs. I prefer an adult pigeon to a squab, there is better chewing on it, but if a man wants real hard chewing, with a flavor of raw fish, let him tackle an adult loon. That bird could not be picked. It was skinned, and in its stomach there was a catfish recently swallowed, one partly digested and the bones of another. The triggers of the pectoral fins of the catfish were set, but the stomach of the loon did not seem to be troubled by that fact.—Fred Mather in Forest and Stream.

TO THE ADVERTISERS.

The Evening News Review has the largest bonafide PAID daily circulation of any paper published in East Liverpool, and the largest circulation in Wellsville of any daily paper published in East Liverpool. Keen witted and wide awake business men and advertisers will make note of these facts.

HARRY PALMER,
Owner and Manager.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

The combination prices of the NEWS REVIEW, advertisement in paper and bills from said advertisement, are cheaper than any other daily paper in the city, while the workmanship, material and inks made use of are incomparably superior to those of would-be competitors. Test the matter. We will prove the truth of our assertion.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The street force were busy today cleaning the principal streets.

The Chevalier club will entertain their friends at dancing next week.

Mrs. W. S. Hight, of Bucyrus, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Warner.

The Second M. E, Sunday school will picnic Thursday at the campground.

Mayor Bough, who spent yesterday in Lisbon, returned to the city late last night.

The work of remodeling the Little block in the Diamond was commenced yesterday morning.

Frank Crawford last evening entertained a number of friends at his residence pear West Point.

A number of young people from the city will this evening attend a social given at the Madison church.

The excursion which left this city yesterday morning for New Castle, returned to this place at 9 o'clock last night.

C. L. Moore, of Second street, who has been visiting in Wheeling for several days, returned to the city today.

Mrs. Robinson, of Gardendale, who has been suffering with typhoid fever for several weeks, is now able to be out.

Yesterday afternoon a car load of melons was received in the lower freight yards. This is the third car that has been received within 10 days.

Night Watchman Maple of the Cleveland and Pittsburg road, who has been spending several days in the country, returned to the city last evening.

Mrs. H. O. Wensch and children, of Fifth street, who have been spending weeks in Saratoga, Troy and Albany, N. Y., returned to this city today.

Rev. Albert Wilson, of McKeesport, Pa., will preach tomorrow night in the hall on Sheridan avenue, where the Free Methodist church holds its services.

Several families from this city who have been spending some time at Hollow Rock, have returned. A large number will return to the city the last of the week.

Most of the new machinery that will be used in the new addition to the Vodrey pottery has been placed in position. Within the next few weeks the new plant will be started.

The trustees of the campground met last evening and made arrangements for a stockholders meeting to be held Sept. 9. Plans for next year were discussed but no conclusion reached.

James Stevenson this morning left for New Athens where he will become a student in Franklin college. He was home on a vacation, and will complete his ministerial education in about two years.

John Morrow, a cook in a Sixth street restaurant, is suffering with a very sore left hand the result of several splinters being under the nail of a finger. The injury is very painful although not serious.

The collector of the directory firm who recently issued a directory of this city and Salem placed 200 books while in the city. The books cost $3 each, and with the advertising, it is said, over $2,000 was collected.

The Labor day committee met last night and furthered arrangements for the celebration. A number of persons were appointed to take charge of the gate and they will all be sworn in as special officers.

No arrests were made last night or this morning and the jail is empty. No cases have been before Mayor Bough since last week, and taking everything into consideration business has not been as slow for a long time.

Will Palmert, a well known and highly esteemed young man of West End, was recently married to Miss Emma Anderson at the home of the bride's parents in Buffalo. They have the congratulations of many friends.

FIRST LADY OF INDIA

MRS. GEORGE N. CURZON WILL HOLD SOCIAL SWAY AT SIMLA.

As Wife of Viceroy Curzon She Will Have Great Power—Will Occupy Highest Position Held by a Woman Outside of Royalty—Her Sound American Ideas.

Next November a Chicago girl will occupy the throne of India as the representative of Victoria, empress of that great country. When George N. Curzon enters upon his duties as viceroy of India, his beautiful wife will become the "first lady" of that land, and a member of the British peerage. Her title will be Lady Curzon of Kedleston, and for five years she will rule as the social queen of the Indian empire.

The American girl whom Queen Victoria has made the vice reine of 300,000,000 subjects was formerly Mary Victoria Leiter of Chicago. She was born in Chicago May 29, 1870, at the Leiter homestead, which at that time was located on Michigan terrace, where the Auditorium now stands. Shortly after her birth her father built a home on Calumet avenue, in which the family lived until their removal to Washington in 1880. Up to that time Mr. Leiter was actively engaged in business in Chicago, and Mary Victoria Leiter was receiving an education from private tutors and governesses. When Mr. Leiter withdrew from his Chicago enterprises, the family home was removed to Washington, where Miss Leiter grew to young womanhood. While her childhood was an extremely simple one her education was acquired from the best instructors, and at an early age she was proficient in the French and German languages and music and familiar with art. Up to the time of her formal introduction to the social world of Washington she led the life of a schoolgirl. Her days were divided into hours of study and recreation, and her social pleasures were few. Miss Leiter accompanied her father on several of his European trips, her sisters Daisy and Nannie also being of the party. When she made her debut in Washington, at the age of 18, she at once became the acknowledged belle of the city. Beautiful of face, with a slender, graceful figure, regular features and dark hair and eyes, Mary Victoria Leiter, even as a girl, had an individuality and magnetism that were remarkable. A bright conversationalist and possessing much general information on important topics of the day, she was a born leader and always the center of a group of prominent people.

Shortly after her introduction to Washington's social life the Leiter family went to London for the season. Mary Leiter was presented at court, and there, as in America, became a belle. It was during one of her subsequent seasons in London that she met George Nathaniel Curzon, eldest son of Lord Scarsdale.

Young Curzon gained considerable fame through a series of prize essays that finally made him a medalist in the Royal Geographical society. He paid marked attention to Miss Leiter, and the following year came to America to woo her. The announcement of her engagement to Mr. Curzon followed shortly after his arrival here and created considerable sensation in both countries. They were married April 25, 1895, at St. John's church, in Washington. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Curzon returned to England and took up their residence in London.

Mrs. Curzon has always been prominent in the social life of her adopted country, but it is said that the American girl has infected her husband with the ideas of her native land instead of becoming entirely Anglicised herself. As vice reine of India Mrs. Curzon will occupy the highest position that can be held by a woman outside of the royal family. Her word will be the social law of the country, and at the royal palace in Simla and the various viceregal residences she will rule supreme. American women have made some exceptional international marriages, but it remained for a Chicago girl to become the representative of the world's greatest ruler.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

THRIVING KANSAS.

A Bushel of Wheat Produced This Year For Every Inhabitant of the United States.

CHICAGO, Aug. 31.—"The state of Kansas this year produced one bushel of wheat for every man, woman and child in the United States. This does not include Hawaii or Porto Rico," said Editor Frank P. McLennan of the Topeka State Journal yesterday. This was said in regard to the one crop of wheat alone for this year, and is illustrative of the general excellent condition in all branches of industry throughout Kansas.

Akron Artilleryman Dead.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., Aug. 31.—J. C. Winter of Akron, O., private in Battery M, Fifth United States artillery, died yesterday morning in the hospital tent at Fort Hancock.

Spanish Standard For McKinley.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 31. — Captain Harry Alvin Hall of the Sixteenth Pennsylvania, is here one of a committee to present President McKinley with a Spanish standard captured in a fight in Porto Rico.

Where You May Spend A Delightful Vacation

A WEEK AMONG THE 10,000 ISLANDS OF GEORGIAN BAY ON THE EXCLUSIVE PASSENGER STEAMER,

THE NEW CARMONA

LEAVING CLEVELAND EVERY MONDAY AT 7 P. M.

FARE FOR ROUND TRIP, including meals and Cabin Berth $17

W. J. BROWN, Passenger Agent.
110 Woodward Ave. Detroit Mich.

KLONDIKERS' GOLD STOLEN.

Passengers and Baggage on Steamer Reaching Seattle Searched, but the Treasure Was Not Found.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 31.— The steamer Roanoke arrived here yesterday from St. Michael, Alaska, with 459 passengers and gold dust which a conservative estimate places at $1,500,000.

A majority of the passengers were men who went to Dawson in last year's rush. They have no gold, but lots of experience. The fortunate passengers numbered about 75. Of these probably 25 had over $10,000 each. The amounts held by the remaining 50 range from $100 to $50,000.

The passengers and baggage were searched for three sacks of stolen gold dust, but the missing gold was not found. The bags contained $24,000. The gold was taken from a stateroom on the Roanoke while she was lying at St. Michael.

Among the Roanoke's passengers were Dr. Sheldon Jackson, United States commissioner of education for Alaska.

Conditions at Dawson and St. Michael have undergone no material change since last reports. People are arriving daily at St. Michael from up the river in small boats.

MISSIONARIES IN DANGER.

United States Consul at Canton, China, Protested Over the Failure to Protect Them From Rebels.

HONGKONG, Aug. 31.—The Kwang-Si rebellion, which has been quiescent for some time, shows signs of serious recrudescence. The rebels are in great force 50 miles northwest of Canton and are preparing to attack the city. Tan, the viceroy of Lang Kwang, protested against the surrender of Kwang-Chow to the French and then resigned.

The viceroy of Canton, having failed to dispatch troops to suppress the rebellion in Hainan and protect the American missionaries, the United States consul at Canton has made strong representations to the acting viceroy reiterating his demand for the prompt suppression of the general disturbances.

GOOD QUEEN VICTORIA.

Peace Proposal of the Czar Said to Have Been Suggested by Her.

LONDON, Aug. 31.—In some quarters it is alleged that the czar's pronouncement for peace was directly inspired by Queen Victoria, whose greatest hope is that her reign may not again be disturbed by war.

The queen, confessedly, has long sought to restrain Emperor William and it is not unlikely she used her great influence with the czarina to secure the czar's support.

WILHELMINA OF AGE.

Queen Regent of Holland Will Soon Turn Over the Throne to the Young Lady.

THE HAGUE, Aug. 31.—The queen regent of Holland, in a proclamation issued yesterday, upon the occasion of the end of her regency, her daughter, Queen Wilhemina, coming of age today, expressed warm pleasure at seeing the whole nation "ranged joyously around the throne of the young queen," thanked God that her dearest wish had been heard, and, after thanking the people fof their loving and faithful support of herself, invokes God's blessing upon the youthful sovereign.

WALTER WELLMAN COMING BACK.

The Greenland Expedition Reaches Tromsoe—No Word From Andree.

TROMSOE, Norway, Aug. 31.—The steam whaler Fridtjof, having on board Walter Wellman and members of his expedition to Greenland, has returned after landing an expedition at Cape Tegathoff, on the southern part of Halls island. While the Wellman party were returning they met the expedition to Franz Josef land under Dr. A. G. Northorst, at Koenigskar island, and were informed that all search for Prof. Andree, the missing balloonist, had proved futile.

YESTERDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

At Pittsburg—Pittsburg, 0 runs, 3 hits and 7 errors; Boston, 8 runs, 13 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Hart and Schriver; Nichols and Bergen. Umpires, Lynch and Andrews. Attendance, 1,200.

At Louisville—Louisville, 4 runs, 8 hits and 1 error; Baltimore, 2 runs, 7 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Dowling and Kittredge; Maul and Robinson. Umpires, Swartwood and Warner. Attendance, 1,800.

At Cincinnati—Cincinnati, 1 run, 6 hits and 4 errors; Philadelphia, 9 runs, 13 hits and 2 errors. Batteries, Dwyer, Peitz and Wood; Orth and Murphy. Umpires, Gaffney and Brown. Attendance, 1,200.

At Chicago—Chicago, 1 run, 5 hits and 2 errors; New York, 0 runs, 3 hits and 0 errors. Batteries, Griffith and Donahue; Meekin and Grady. Umpires, McDonald and O'Day. Attendance, 3,000.

League Standing.

	W	L	Pc.		W	L	Pc.
Boston	71	40	.640	Pittsburg	56	59	.487
Cincinnati	72	43	.626	Phila	52	56	.481
Baltimore	67	40	.626	Louisville	46	68	.404
Cleveland	65	46	.586	Brooklyn	42	65	.392
Chicago	64	50	.561	Wash	40	71	.360
New York	62	49	.559	St Louis	32	82	.281

Games Scheduled For Today.

Brooklyn at Chicago, Washington at Cincinnati, Boston at Cleveland, Baltimore at Louisville, New York at Pittsburg and Philadelphia at St. Louis.

Yesterday's Interstate League Games.

At Fort Wayne—Fort Wayne, 9 runs, 12 hits and 3 errors; Grand Rapids, 4 runs, 8 hits and 3 errors. Batteries, Reiman and Patterson. Harper and Cote.

At Springfield—Springfield, 4 runs, 5 hits and 5 errors; Youngstown, 9 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Poole and Graffius; B. Mil- and Donovan.

At Toledo—Toledo, 10 runs, 16 hits and 5 errors; Mansfield, 10 runs, 10 hits and 9 errors. Batteries, Ferguson and Arthur; G. Kellum and Belt. Called on account of darkness.

At Dayton—Dayton, 3 runs, 8 hits and 5 errors; New Castle, 6 runs, 11 hits and 1 error. Batteries, Rosebrough and Lattimer; C. Smith and Barckley.

THE MARKETS.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—No. 2 red new, 64@65c.

CORN—No. 2 yellow ear, 40@41c; No. 2 yellow, shelled, 36@36½c; high mixed, shelled, 35@36c.

OATS—No. 1 white, new, 25@26c; No. 2 white, clipped, 26½@27c; extra new, No. 3 white, 24@24½c; light mixed, 23½@24c.

HAY—No. 1 timothy, old, $9.50@9.75; do new $8.50@9.00; No. 2, $7.50@8.00; No. 1 clover, mixed, $7.00@8.00; wagon hay, $9.50@10.00 for timothy.

POULTRY—Live—Large chickens, 60@70c per pair; small, 45@55c; spring chickens, 25@50c per pair; ducks, 40@50c per pair; turkeys, 7@8c per pound; geese, 50@70c per pair. Dressed—Fancy chickens, 12@13c per pound; spring chickens, 14@15c; ducks, 11@12c; turkeys, 13@15c; geese, 7@8c.

BUTTER—Elgin prints, 21@21½c; extra creamery, 20@20½c; Ohio, fancy creamery, 18@18½c; country roll, 13@15c; low grades and cooking, 9@11c.

CHEESE—New York, full cream, new make, 8½@8¾c; new Ohios, full cream, 8@8½c; Wisconsin Swiss, 11½@12c; limburger, new, 9½@10c; brick cheese, 5-pound average, 9½@10c.

EGGS—Strictly fresh Pennsylvania and Ohio in cases, 13@13½c; candled, 14@14½c.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 30.

CATTLE—The supply on Monday 110 cars; market 10@15c lower on best cattle and 30@30c lower on common and medium. We quote prices: Extra, $5.25@5.40; prime, $5.10@5.20; good, $4.90@5.00; tidy, $4.60@4.80; fair, $4.00@4.40; common, $3.50@3.85; heifers, $3.25@4.25; fat oxen, $2.25@4.00; common to good fat bulls and cows, $2.00@4.00; good fresh cows, $40.00@50.00; common to good fresh cows and springers, $20.00@40.00.

HOGS—Receipts on Monday 30 loads; market ruled steady at the previous week's closing prices. Today supply light; market steady on best grades, others slow. We quote sales: Prime mediums, $4.25@4.30; good Yorkers, $4.20@4.25; heavy hogs, $4.10@4.15; common to fair Yorkers, $4.05@4.10; grassers and stubblers, $3.85@4.00; pigs, as to quality, $3.70@4.00; roughs, $2.50@3.60; skips and common pigs, $3.00@3.50.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Receipts on Monday 12 loads; market strong. Supply today light; market steady. We quote: Choice, $4.60@4.65; good, $4.40@4.50; fair, $4.00@4.25; common, $3.25@3.75; choice spring lambs, $5.60@5.80; common to good, $4.00@5.40; veal calves, $7.00@7.25; heavy and thin calves, $4.00@5.00.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 30.

HOGS—Market steady at $3.25@4.10.

CATTLE—Market steady at $2.80@4.90.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady at $2.25@4.25. Lambs—Market steady at $3.75@6.00.

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.

WHEAT—Spot market steady; No. 2 red, 73⅞@74⅛c f. o. b. afloat; to arrive, 74⅞c.

CORN—Spot market firm; No. 2, 36⅜c f. o. b. afloat.

OATS—Spot market dull; No. 2, 26½@27c; No. 2 white, new, 28@29c.

CATTLE—No trade of importance. Feeling weak. Cables firm. Live cattle, 11@12c per pound dressed weight; refrigerator beef, 8¾@8¾c per pound.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Market for sheep steady; good to choice lambs 10c higher.

The Many Rich Prizes

Captured by Uncle Sam didn't drop into his hat through sheer luck--strength and shrewd judgment won them. Business successes are won in the same way. It isn't luck that enables us to offer you the most expert, scientific optical service to be found anywhere, at extremely low prices. It is full and perfect equipment, investment and enterprise. We employ a first class Oculist, a medical doctor especially educated in the treatment of the eye. When you come to us you take no chances, but are sure of first class service. Examination free of charge. Why not have the best?

M. WADE, JEWELER.

205 Market St., East Liverpool, Ohio

The First National Bank Of East Liverpool, O.

President—DAVID BOYCE.
Vice President—J. M. KELLY.
Cashier—N. G. MACRUM.
Asst. Cash'r—THOS. H. FISHER.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

DAVID BOYCE, J. M. KELLY, B. C. SIMMS, W. L. THOMPSON, O. C. VODREY, JNO. C. THOMPSON, JAS. N. VODREY.

Capital, - - - $100,000
Surplus, - - - 50,000

General Banking Business.

Invite Business and Personal Accounts!

Safe Deposit Boxes for Rent.

193 Washington Street.

An 8 Minute Walk From the Diamond

will take you to the Huston Lots—the best Low Priced ones in the city—$1.25 to $300 eache.

TERMS EASY.

Call for particulars.

Elijah W. Hill, J. P.

Fire Insurance and Real Estate, 105 Sixth Street.

RUBBER STAMPS

Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Air Cushion Rubber Stamps.

THE NEWS REVIEW

H. A. MOWLS. LODGE RIDDLE

MOWLS & RIDDLE, ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

HUSTON BLOCK. LISBON, OHIO

GO TO HASSEY'S

—For The—
Original BOSS ICE CREAM.
All Flavors. 206 Sixth Street.

Dr. J. N. VODREY
DENTIST,
Room 4, Porter Building,
DIAMOND.

Dr. Geo. D. Arnum,
Surgeon Dentist,
Specialties: Crown and Bridge Work, and Preservation of the Natural Teeth.
Syndicate Bldg., Sixth St.

ALL the News in the News Review.